PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

On May 13, 2002, Reliant Resources, Inc. (the "Company") announced its preliminary findings of its review of certain trading transactions involving simultaneous purchases and sales with the same counterparty at the same price. While the Company is still completing its review of its trading transactions, it believes that it has engaged in transactions that had the effect of increasing its revenues by approximately 10% over the years 1999, 2000 and 2001. The Company's management, as well as its accounting and legal resources, have been very involved in the review of these transactions and the Company's accounting policies. For the reasons set forth herein, and because the attention of the relevant personnel that prepare the Company's Form 10-Q has been diverted from that task, the Company is not able to timely file its Form 10-Q for the first quarter of 2002 without unreasonable or undue effort, expense or burden.

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If the answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes    No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes    No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

For a discussion of significant changes in the registrant's results of operations for the first quarter of 2002 as compared to its results of operations for the first quarter of 2001, please read Item 5 of the registrant's Current Report on Form 8-K, which report was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 29, 2002. Item 5 of the Form 8-K is incorporated
