SEC 1913 (02-02)

On April 21, 2004, Butler Manufacturing Company, a Delaware corporation ("Butler"), received from plaintiff's counsel a copy of a complaint in the matter of Bazemore v. Butler Manufacturing Company, et. al., 2004 C.A. No. 390-N (Del. Ch. 2004). Butler believes that this matter is without merit and will not impede or interfere with its merger with BlueScope Steel Limited. Butler intends to vigorously oppose the matter. A copy of the complaint is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff alleges upon information and belief, except as to paragraph 1 which is alleged upon personal knowledge, as follows:

THE PARTIES

1. Plaintiff is the owner of shares of the common stock of Butler Manufacturing Company ("Butler" or the "Company") and has been the owner of such shares continuously since prior to the wrongs complained of herein.

2. Butler is a corporation duly organized under the laws of the State of Delaware, with its principal executive offices located at 1540 Genessee, Kansas City, MO 64102. Butler designs, produces and markets buildings systems and components for non-residential structures. Butler is a publicly traded company and its stock is listed and actively traded on the New York

Exchange.

3. Defendant BlueScope Steel Limited ("BlueScope") is a corporation organized under the laws of Australia. BlueScope is the largest steel company in Australia and New Zealand.

4. Defendant BSL Acquisition Corporation ("BSL"), is a Delaware corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of BlueScope. BSL was created for the purpose of effectuating the proposed acquisition of Butler by BlueScope described herein. References to BlueScope include BSL.

5. Butler's Board of Directors consists of nine directors, with staggered terms of 3 years each.

6. Defendant John J. Holland ("Holland") is Chairman of the Board of Directors of Butler and its Chief Executive Officer.

7. Defendant Ronald E. Rutledge ("Rutledge") is the President, Chief Operating Officer, and a director of Butler.

8. Defendants Mark A. McCollum, Gary L. Tapella, William D. Zollar, K. Dane Brooksher, Gary M. Christensen, C.L. William Haw, and Susan Davis are directors of Butler.

9. The Individual Defendants are in a fiduciary relationship with plaintiff and the other public stockholders of Butler, and owe them the highest obligations of good faith, fair dealing, due care, loyalty and full and candid disclosure.

10. Robertson-Ceco Corporation ("RCC"), not a defendant herein, is a Delaware Corporation based in Chicago, Illinois.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

11. Plaintiff brings this action on his own behalf and as a class action, pursuant to Court of Chancery Rule 23, on behalf of himself and the public shareholders of Butler (the "Class"). Excluded from the Class are defendants herein and any person, firm, trust, corporation or other entity related to or affiliated with any of the defendants.

12. This action is properly maintainable as a class action.

13. The Class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable. There are approximately 6.33 million shares of Butler common stock outstanding held by approximately 1,966 record holders and many more beneficial owners.

14. There are questions of law and fact which are common to the Class including, inter alia, the following:

(a) Whether the Individual Defendants have breached their fiduciary and other common law duties owed by them to plaintiff and the other members of the Class; and

(b) Whether plaintiff and the other members of the Class would be irreparably damaged if the BlueScope Merger Agreement (described below) is consummated.

15. Plaintiff is committed to prosecuting this action and has retained competent counsel experienced in litigation of this nature. Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the other members of the Class and plaintiff has the same interests as the other members of the Class. Accordingly, plaintiff is an adequate representative of the Class and will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class.

16. The prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the Class would create the risk of inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the Class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for defendants, or adjudications with respect to individual members of the Class which would as a practical matter be dispositive of the interests of the other members not parties to the adjudications or substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests.

17. Defendants have acted, or refused to act, on grounds generally applicable to, and causing injury to, the Class and, therefore, preliminary and final injunctive relief on behalf of the Class as a whole is entirely appropriate.

SUBSTANTIVE ALLEGATIONS

18. On December 12, 2003, BlueScope proposed to acquire Butler in an all cash merger for between $23.00-$26.00 per share.

Edgar Filing: BUTLER MANUFACTURING CO - Form DEFA14A

19. On December 14, 2003, the "indicative" price was increased to $25.00 per share in exchange for extending the exclusivity agreement between BlueScope and Butler through the end of January 2004.

20. On February 15, 2004, Butler entered into a Merger Agreement with BlueScope, pursuant to which BlueScope would acquire all of the issued and outstanding stock of Butler at a price of $22.50 per share in cash. The reason for the decrease in the price per share from $25 to $22.50 has not been disclosed.

21. On April 14, 2004, RCC publicly announced that it had offered to purchase the outstanding shares of Butler for $23.00 per share in cash -- $0.50 more per share (and over $3 million in the aggregate) than the BlueScope deal -- or $26.00 per share in a stock transaction (the "RCC Offer"). The RCC Offer was communicated to Butler by a letter dated April 13, 2004.

22. Butler's own financial advisors have calculated a valuation range of $18.46 to $33.64 for Butler shares using a discounted cash flow analysis.

23. RCC stated in a Form 425B filed with the SEC on April 14, 2004 "RCC is ready to immediately negotiate and sign a definitive merger agreement for the transaction without contingencies."

24. On April 15, 2004, Butler announced that it had rejected the RCC Offer because the RCC offer was "too vague and uncertain for the [Butler] Board to conclude that it represents a Superior Proposal" (under the "fiduciary out" provisions of the BlueScope Merger Agreement). RCC immediately responded in a letter resolving any purported doubt about its ability to finance its Offer.

25. Butler shareholders will vote on the BlueScope merger agreement on April 27, 2004.

26. The BlueScope Merger Agreement provides for onerous termination fee and expense obligations which Butler will have to pay BlueScope if the Merger Agreement terminates. Specifically, the Merger Agreement provides for a termination fee of $5.5 million and expenses of up to $1.5 million payable to BlueScope. The aggregate $7 million obligation represents 4.9% of the total equity of the challenged transaction.

27. Clearly, the RCC Offer will provide the Butler stockholders with more value than will the BlueScope Merger Agreement. Nonetheless, the Individual Defendants have rejected the RCC Offer, nor have they sought to negotiate with RCC to improve its offer. By failing to do so, they have failed to exercise their continuing fiduciary duty to maximize value in a sale of the Company and failed to inform themselves of Butler's highest transactional value.

28. In connection with the BlueScope Merger Agreement, defendants Holland and Rutledge entered into non-compete agreements with BlueScope. Under the agreements, Holland and Rutledge will receive "cancellation payments" and restrictive covenant payments in the following amounts:

Cancellation	Restrictive
Payment	Covenant
-----	Payment

Edgar Filing: BUTLER MANUFACTURING CO - Form DEFA14A

John J. Holland	$431,878	$1,200,000
Ronald E. Rutledge	525,302	740,000

29. In addition, the stock options of defendants Holland and Rutledge will become fully vested, entitling them to aggregate cash payments of $62,250 and $49,800 respectively. Defendants Holland and Rutledge will also receive cash payments under the Company's split dollar life insurance arrangements in the amounts of $420,000 and $126,000 respectively.

30. By reason of the foregoing, the Individual Defendants have breached and are breaching their fiduciary duties to the members of the Class. They have not adequately informed themselves about Butler's highest available transactional value, and did not conduct an effective bidding process which would result in maximum value for the shareholders. In fact, whatever "process" defendants employed was flawed insofar as it resulted in the BlueScope Merger which is inferior to the RCC Offer.

31. Because Butler is being sold, the Individual Defendants were and are under a duty:

(a) to fully inform themselves of Butler's highest transactional value and all strategic alternatives for the Company; and

(d) to maximize shareholder value;

32. By the acts, transactions and course of conduct alleged herein, the Individual Defendants, individually and as part of a common plan and scheme and in breach of their fiduciary duties to Plaintiff and the other members of the Class, are attempting unfairly to deprive plaintiff and other members of the Class of the highest available value for their investment in Butler.

33. Unless enjoined by this Court, the Individual Defendants will continue to breach their fiduciary duties owed to Plaintiff and the other members of the Class, and may consummate the BlueScope Merger Agreement and cause irreparable harm of the Class.

34. Defendant BlueScope has knowingly aided and abetted the breaches of fiduciary duty committed by the Individual Defendants to the detriment of Butler's public shareholders. Indeed, the proposed merger could not take place without the active participation of BlueScope. Furthermore, BlueScope and its shareholders are the intended beneficiaries of the wrongs complained of and would be unjustly enriched absent relief in this action.

35. Plaintiff and the Class have no adequate remedy at law.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgement and relief as follows:

A. Ordering that this action may be maintained as a class action and certifying plaintiff as the Class representative;

B. Entering a temporary restraining order and preliminarily and permanently enjoining defendants and all persons acting in concert with them, from proceeding with, consummating or closing the BlueScope Merger Agreement;

Edgar Filing: BUTLER MANUFACTURING CO - Form DEFA14A

C. In the event the BlueScope Merger Agreement is consummated, rescinding it and setting it aside or awarding rescissory damages to the Class;

D. Directing defendants to account to Class members for their damages sustained as a result of the wrongs complained of herein;

E. Awarding plaintiff the costs of this action, including a reasonable allowance for plaintiff's attorneys' and experts' fees; and

H. Granting such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.
