CNH Exports $22 Million in Farm Equipment to Uzbekistan under EX-IM Bank's Loan Guarantee Program

Lake Forest, Illinois (June 12, 2003) CNH Global N.V. (NYSE:CNH), the world's leading producer of agricultural tractors and combines has announced the sale of agricultural equipment totaling over $22 million to Uzbekistan, backed by a $20 million loan guarantee from the Export-Import Bank of the United States (Ex-Im Bank). The announcement came at a meeting between Ex-Im Bank senior vice president for export finance Jeffrey Miller, and CNH chief executive officer Paolo Monferino held to mark the delivery of the first units to customers in Uzbekistan today.

Under the terms of the agreement between CNH and the government of Uzbekistan, CNH is providing 100 Case IH 2366 AF combines and 50 Case IH MX240 Magnum tractors for use in the current season. CNH is also providing 100 Model 1010 grain headers, full parts and service support, and on-site operator and service engineer training.

Ex-Im Bank's highest priority remains putting customers first, so that they can provide cutting-edge equipment and services to markets such as Uzbekistan, said Miller. To that end, we are reducing the time and cost of doing business with Ex-Im Bank, simplifying the application process, and modernizing our systems to better serve customers small and large.

This deal would never have been possible without Ex-Im Bank's total commitment to boosting exports of American-built products, Monferino said. The government of Uzbekistan had an urgent need for modern farm equipment this season. We signed the contract with the government on May 6, the bank's board of directors approved the deal on May 22, and the first combines are being delivered to Uzbek farmers today, June 12, all done in just six weeks.

The Ex-Im Bank financing is being provided under Ex-Im Bank's loan guarantee program. Ex-Im Bank is an independent U.S. government agency that helps finance the sale of U.S. exports primarily to emerging markets throughout the world by providing loans, guarantees and insurance. Ex-Im Bank has provided more than $400 million in financing to support Case IH agricultural equipment sales to Uzbekistan over the past 10 years.
