Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On December 4, 2008, Commercial Vehicle Group, Inc. (the Company) announced the realignment of its management team to support its strategic initiatives, effective immediately. As part of the realignment, Kevin R.L. Frailey, Executive Vice President of Business Development, will assume the role of Executive Vice President and General Manager for Electrical Systems with responsibility for the Company's global wire harness operations. Mr. Frailey's current responsibilities in business development and research & development will be reassigned to Bob Averitt, Vice President of Strategy and Business Integration.

W. Gordon Boyd, President of Global Construction, will lead the transition of the European seating operations to Milton D. Kniss, Executive Vice President and General Manager of Seating Systems, and the wire harness operations to Mr. Frailey over the next several months. Following the transition, Mr. Boyd will assume the role of Senior Advisor to the President and Chief Executive Officer focusing on the development and growth of the Company's operations in China, Australia, India, Brazil and South Africa.

Gerald L. Armstrong, President of Global Truck, will assume the role of President and General Manager of Cab Systems, which includes the Company's structural and trim product operations.

The Company also announced that Chad M. Utrup, Chief Financial Officer, will assume the additional responsibility for corporate human resources from James F. Williams, the Company's Vice President of Organizational Development.

A copy of the press release announcing these changes is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.
