PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

R&G Financial Corporation (the Company) has previously disclosed in filings under Form 8-K the need to restate its audited consolidated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2002, 2003 and 2004 and the reasons therefor. The Company is working diligently to complete its restatement process and file its amended report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004 and to file its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the first three quarters of 2005 as soon as practicable. Due to the work involved in the restatement process, it is anticipated that the Company will not file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2005 by the November 14, 2005 deadline.

(2) Have all other periodic reports reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceeding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s). Yes No
The Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, 2005 and June 30, 2005.

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes No
If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

As more fully discussed in Part III, the Company is in the process of restating its interim and audited financial statements for the periods from January 1, 2002 through December 31, 2004, including the interim financial statements contained in the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2004. However, the Company is not in a position to quantify the impact of the anticipated restatement on the corresponding period in the prior fiscal year at this time.
