WHERE YOU CAN FIND MORE INFORMATION

We have filed this prospectus as part of a registration statement on Form S-3 with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Securities Act. The registration statement contains exhibits and other information that are not contained in this prospectus. Our descriptions in this prospectus of the provisions of documents filed as exhibits to the registration statement or otherwise filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission are only summaries of the documents' material terms. If you want a complete description of the contents of these documents, you should obtain the documents yourself by following the procedures described below.

We are subject to the reporting requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and, in accordance therewith, file reports and other information with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Our reports and other information filed by us can be inspected and copied at the Public Reference Room maintained by the Securities and Exchange Commission at Room 1024, 450 Fifth Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20549. Copies of such material can be obtained from the Public Reference Room at prescribed rates. Please call the Securities and Exchange Commission at 1-800-SEC-0330 for further information on the operation of the Public Reference Room. The Securities and Exchange Commission also maintains a website that contains reports, proxy and information statements and other information regarding us filed electronically with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The address of the site is: <http://www.sec.gov>. Our common shares are quoted on the New York Stock Exchange and in connection therewith, reports and other information concerning us may also be inspected at the offices of the New York Stock Exchange. For further information on obtaining copies of our reports and other information concerning us at the New York Stock Exchange, please call (212) 656-5060.

INCORPORATION OF CERTAIN DOCUMENTS BY REFERENCE

The Securities and Exchange Commission permits us to "incorporate by reference" information into this prospectus, which means that we can disclose important information to you by referring to other documents filed separately with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The information in the following documents filed by Smucker with the Securities and Exchange Commission (File No. 001-05111) is incorporated by reference into this document:

- o Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended April 30, 2001, dated and filed on July 24, 2001;
- o The description of our common shares set forth in the Registration Statement on Form 8-A, dated and filed on August 28, 2000; and
- o The description of our preferred share purchase rights set forth in the Registration Statement on Form 8-A/A, dated and filed on August 28, 2000.

Smucker may be required by the Securities and Exchange Commission to file other documents pursuant to Sections 13(a), 13(c), 14 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 between the date of this prospectus and the termination of the offering of the shares offered by this prospectus. These documents will be deemed to be incorporated by reference in this document and to be a part of it from the date they are filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Edgar Filing: SMUCKER J M CO - Form S-3

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT CONCERNING FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION

Some of the information included or incorporated by reference in this prospectus includes forward-looking statements that are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially, including the uncertainties relating to the actual liquidity of Smucker's shares, Smucker's operating performance, other factors affecting share prices, and factors affecting the capital markets generally. Actual results may differ depending on a number of factors including:

- o the success and cost of introducing new products;
- o general competitive activity in the market;
- o the ability of business areas to achieve sales targets and the costs associated therewith;
- o Smucker's ability to improve sales and earnings performance in its formulated ingredient business;
- o costs associated with the implementation of new business and information systems;
- o raw material and ingredient cost trends; and
- o foreign currency exchange and interest rate fluctuations.

Smucker undertakes no obligation, other than as may be required by law, to update or revise forward-looking statements to reflect changes in assumptions, the occurrence of unanticipated events, or changes in future operating results over time.

THE J. M. SMUCKER COMPANY

The J. M. Smucker Company was established in 1897 and was incorporated in Ohio in 1921. We are often referred to as Smucker's (a registered trademark), and operate in one industry, the manufacturing and marketing of food products on a worldwide basis.

Our principal products are fruit spreads, dessert toppings, peanut butter, frozen peanut butter and jelly sandwiches, industrial fruit products, fruit and vegetable juices, beverages, syrups, condiments, and gift packages.

Domestically, our products are primarily sold through brokers to chain, wholesale, cooperative, independent grocery accounts and other consumer markets, to foodservice distributors and chains including hotels, restaurants, schools, and other institutions, and to other food manufacturers.

Edgar Filing: SMUCKER J M CO - Form S-3

Our distribution outside the United States is principally in Canada, Australia, Brazil, Mexico, the Pacific Rim, and Greater Europe, although we export products to other countries as well.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in Smucker's common shares involves risk. In addition to the other information contained or incorporated by reference in this prospectus, you should carefully consider the following risk factors in deciding whether to invest in our common shares.

TAKEOVER DEFENSE PROVISIONS MAY INHIBIT A TAKEOVER OF SMUCKER.

Various provisions of Ohio corporation law and our constituent documents may inhibit changes in control not approved by our Directors and may have the effect of depriving shareholders of any opportunity to receive a premium over the prevailing market price of our common shares in the event of an attempted unsolicited takeover. In addition, the existence of these provisions may adversely affect the market price of our common shares. These provisions include:

- o a classified board of directors;
- o control share acquisition provisions;
- o a requirement that special meetings of shareholders be called only by our Directors or holders of 25% of all shares outstanding and entitled to vote at the meeting; and
- o advance notice requirements for shareholder proposals and nominations.

We also have a shareholder rights plan that provides for, among other things, distributions to our shareholders upon an actual or prospective change in control of Smucker. The plan has an anti-takeover effect because a distribution under the plan may cause a substantial dilution to a person or group that attempts to acquire a substantial number of our common shares without approval of our Directors.

OWNERSHIP BY OUR DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS AND MEMBERS OF THE SMUCKER FAMILY MAY ADVERSELY AFFECT THE MARKET FOR OUR COMMON SHARES.

Based on the voting from our annual shareholders' meeting on August 14, 2001, we estimate that our directors and officers, and members of the Smucker family together control approximately 55% of the voting power of Smucker. This concentration of voting power may inhibit changes in control of Smucker and may adversely affect the market price of our common shares. In addition, sales of a substantial amount of common shares in the public market, or the perception that these sales may occur, could adversely affect the market price of our common shares.

USE OF PROCEEDS

All common shares being offered by this prospectus will be sold by the selling shareholder for its own account. We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of any shares by the selling shareholder.

SELLING SHAREHOLDER

The following table sets forth information with respect to the selling shareholder as of July 31, 2001, including:

Edgar Filing: SMUCKER J M CO - Form S-3

- o the name and address of the selling shareholder;
- o the number of common shares owned by, and percentage ownership of, the selling shareholder both immediately prior to and following the sale of shares offered by this prospectus; and
- o the maximum number of common shares offered by this prospectus.

Because the selling shareholder may offer all, a portion or none of the common shares offered by this prospectus, we cannot assure you as to the number of common shares that will be held by the selling shareholder immediately following the offering. The following table assumes that all shares registered by the selling shareholder will be sold.

Strategos 2460 Sand Hill Road Suite 202 Menlo Park, CA 94025 -----	75,000	*	75,000
* Less than 1%

- (1) Includes 75,000 common shares issuable upon exercise of an option that entitles Strategos to purchase the shares at an exercise price of $23.00 per share. Under the option agreement, the exercise price is subject to adjustment in certain circumstances. The option is currently exercisable and expires on January 24, 2006.

We have agreed to bear all expenses, other than underwriting discounts, fees or selling commissions, and expenses of counsel to the selling shareholder, relating to the registration and sale of the common shares issued to the selling shareholder.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The selling shareholder may offer to sell any or all of the common shares covered by this prospectus from time to time in varying amounts. At the time a particular offer of common shares is made by the selling shareholder, to the extent required, a prospectus supplement will be distributed that will set forth the aggregate number of common shares being offered, and the terms of the offering, the name or names, if any, of broker-dealers, agents or underwriters, any discounts, commissions and other items constituting compensation from, and the resulting net proceeds to, the selling shareholder.

Any broker-dealers, agents or underwriters that participate in the distribution of the common shares may be deemed to be "underwriters" within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933, and any profit on the sale of the common shares by them and any discounts, commissions or concessions received by them may be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act.

In order to comply with the securities laws of specific states, the selling shareholder may sell common shares covered by this prospectus to the public in some states only through broker-dealers who are registered or licensed in those states.

Agents, broker-dealers and underwriters may engage in transactions with, and perform investment banking and advisory services for us.

Agents, broker-dealers and underwriters may be entitled under agreements entered into with us and the selling shareholder to indemnification by us and the selling shareholder against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, or to contribution with respect to payments which those agents, broker-dealers or underwriters may be required to make.

LEGAL MATTERS

The validity of the common shares offered hereby will be passed upon for Smucker by Steven J. Ellcessor, Vice President - Finance and Administration, Secretary, and General Counsel of Smucker.

EXPERTS

Ernst & Young LLP, independent auditors, have audited our consolidated financial statements and schedule included or incorporated by reference in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended April 30, 2001, as set forth in their reports, which are incorporated by reference in this prospectus and registration statement. Our financial statements and schedule are incorporated by reference in reliance on Ernst & Young LLP's reports, given on their authority as experts in accounting and auditing.

You should rely only on the information contained in this prospectus and in the reports and other information that we file with the Securities and Exchange Commission. We have not authorized any person to make a statement that differs from what is in this prospectus. If any person does make a statement that differs from what is in this prospectus, you should not rely on it. This prospectus is not an offer to sell, nor is it seeking an offer to buy, these securities in any state where the offer or sale is not permitted. The information in this prospectus is complete and accurate as of its date, but the information may change after that date.

ITEM 15. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

Smucker's Regulations provide for the indemnification of any person who is or was a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, by reason of the fact that such person is or was a member of the board of directors or an officer or employee of Smucker, or is or was serving at the request of Smucker as a director, trustee, officer, or employee of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise. Smucker has agreed to pay to the full extent then required or permitted by law all expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by a member of the board of directors in defending any such action, suit, or proceeding as they are incurred, in advance of the final disposition thereof. Smucker's Regulations also provide that Smucker may pay in the same manner to the full extent then permitted by law the expenses incurred by any other person. The indemnification and payment of expenses provided under Smucker's Regulations are not exclusive of, and are in addition to, any other rights granted to those seeking indemnification under applicable law.

Section 1701.13(E) of the Ohio Revised Code sets forth conditions and limitations governing the indemnification of officers, directors, and other persons. Subsection (E)(1) of Section 1701.13 provides that a corporation may indemnify or agree to indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, other than an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent of another corporation, domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit, a limited liability company, or a partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit, or proceeding, if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, if he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

Subsection (E)(2) of Ohio Revised Code Section 1701.13 empowers a corporation to indemnify or agree to indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending, or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor, by reason of the fact that such person acted in any of the capacities set forth above against expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit, if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification may be made in respect of a claim, issue or matter as to which such person has been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless the court of common pleas or the court in which the action was brought determines that despite the adjudication of liability, but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses that the court deems proper.

Section 1701.13 further provides that to the extent that a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit, or proceeding referred to in division (E)(1) or (2) of Section 1701.13, or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the action, suit, or proceeding; that expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent in defending any action, suit, or proceeding referred to in division (E)(1) or (2) of the section, may be paid by the corporation as they are incurred, in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit, or proceeding, as authorized by the directors in the specific case, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent to repay such amount, if it ultimately is determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation; that indemnification authorized by Section 1701.13 is not exclusive of and is in addition to, any other rights granted to the indemnified party; and that a corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of or for any person who is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent of another corporation, domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit, a limited liability company, or a partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation.

Under Smucker's director and officer liability insurance policy, each director and certain officers of Smucker are insured against certain liabilities that might arise in connection with their respective positions with Smucker.

ITEM 17..UNDERTAKINGS.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

Edgar Filing: SMUCKER J M CO - Form S-3

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933.

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in the volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement.

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (1)(i) and (1)(ii) do not apply if the registration statement is on Form S-3, Form S-8 or Form F-3, and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for the purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be an initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its legal counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
