PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why the Form 10-K, 11-K, 20-F, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed with the prescribed time period.

In its current report on Form 8-K dated January 18, 2005, the Company announced it would be restating certain previously filed information, including its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2004 and its annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003. In its current report on Form 8-K dated March 11, 2005, the Company announced that it expects to report the final investigation findings in the near future. Accordingly, the Company will not file its Annual Report on Form 10-K by the deadline specified by the Commission, but it is endeavoring to complete the restatement process and will file the amended forms as soon as is practicable. However, because the restated information has not been filed, the Company has not yet filed its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal periods ended June 30, 2004 and September 30, 2004. Until that information is filed, the Company is unable to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal period ended December 31, 2004.

- 2. The quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the period ended September 30, 2004.

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations

Edgar Filing: FERRO CORP - Form NT 10-K

from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? X Yes ___ No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made:

The Company anticipates that the results of operations reported in the Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004, will be significantly different from the results reported in the Company's 2003 Form 10-K and that the restated results for the year ended December 31, 2003, that will be stated in the 2004 Form 10-K will be significantly different from the results previously reported in the 2003 Form 10-K. At this time, however, pending completion of the independent investigation and ongoing restatement process described above in Part III, the Company cannot quantify with certainty the extent and nature of those differences.
