PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As previously announced and as described most recently in the current report on Form 8-K of Insight Enterprises, Inc. (the "Company") dated April 4, 2007, the Company's Audit Committee determined that it is likely that the Company's previously filed financial statements will require restatement to record non-cash charges for stock based compensation expense relating to past stock option grants and the Company's previously filed financial statements should no longer be relied upon. Further, in addition to non-cash charges for stock-based compensation, the Company expects there to be related tax effects and other expenses incurred and other adjustments recorded in connection with the ongoing review. These adjustments could also affect the preliminary results announced by the Company on May 2, 2007, January 30, 2007 and November 6, 2006 which have been presented without taking into account any adjustments which may be required in connection with the ongoing review.

Due to the pending restatement, the Company is unable to file the Form 10-Q on or before the prescribed due date of May 10, 2007, or on or before the fifth calendar day following such filing date as prescribed in Rule 12b-25. The Company intends to file its Form 10-Q as soon as practicable after the completion of the restatement.

If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes No

Due to the Company's pending restatement discussed in Part III above, the Company has failed to timely file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended September 30, 2006 and its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006.

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

As indicated in the Company's release of preliminary first quarter financial results, furnished to the Securities and Exchange Commission on a Form 8-K on May 2, 2007, the Company anticipates that its reported net sales, expenses and earnings for the three months ended March 31, 2007 will be significantly greater than its net sales, expenses, and earnings for the three months ended March 31, 2006 due to the acquisition of Software Spectrum, Inc. in September 2006. However, these preliminary results are subject to any adjustments which may be required in connection with the ongoing review discussed in Part III above.
