FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This document contains or incorporates by reference “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, particularly statements anticipating future growth in revenues, Operating Income (Loss) before Depreciation and Amortization and cash from operations. Words such as “anticipates,” “estimates,” “expects,” “projects,” “intends,” “plans,” “believes” and words and terms of similar substance used in connection with a discussion of future operating or financial performance identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are based on management’s current expectations and beliefs about future events. As with any projection or forecast, they are inherently susceptible to uncertainty and changes in circumstances, and Time Warner is under no obligation to, and expressly disclaims any obligation to, update or alter its forward-looking statements whether as a result of such changes, new information, subsequent events or otherwise.

Various factors could adversely affect our operations, business or financial results or our business segments in the future and cause our actual results to differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking statements, including those factors discussed in detail in Item 1A, “Risk Factors,” in Part I of Time Warner’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2008, filed with the Commission on February 20, 2009 (the “2008 Form 10-K”), and our other filings made from time to time with the Commission. In addition, Time Warner operates in highly competitive, consumer and technology-driven and rapidly changing media, entertainment and interactive services businesses. These businesses are affected by government regulation, economic, strategic, political and social conditions, consumer response to new and existing products and services, technological developments and, particularly in view of new technologies, the continued ability to protect intellectual property rights. Our actual results could differ materially from management’s expectations because of changes in such factors.

Further, for us generally, lower than expected valuations associated with the cash flows and revenues at our segments may result in our inability to realize the value of recorded intangibles and goodwill at those segments. In addition, achieving our financial objectives, including growth in operations, maintaining financial ratios and a strong balance sheet, could be adversely affected by the factors discussed or referenced under the heading “Risk Factors” below.

RISK FACTORS

You should carefully consider the specific risks discussed or incorporated by reference in this prospectus. You should also consider the risks, uncertainties and assumptions discussed under the caption “Risk Factors,” in Item IA of Part I of the 2008 Form 10-K, as well as:

a longer than anticipated continuation of the current economic slowdown or further deterioration in the economy;

decreased liquidity in the capital markets, including any reduction in the ability to access the capital markets for debt securities or bank financings;

the impact of terrorist acts and hostilities;

changes in our plans, strategies and intentions;

the impacts of significant acquisitions, dispositions and other similar transactions; and the failure to meet earnings expectations.

TIME WARNER

Time Warner is a leading media and entertainment company. Time Warner classifies its businesses into the following four reporting segments:

AOL, consisting principally of interactive consumer and advertising services;

Filmed Entertainment, consisting principally of feature film, television and home video production and distribution;

Networks, consisting principally of cable television networks that provide programming; and Publishing, consisting principally of magazine publishing.

At December 31, 2008, Time Warner had a total of approximately 87,000 employees.

Time Warner completed the legal and structural separation of Time Warner Cable Inc. (together with its subsidiaries, "TWC") in the first quarter of 2009 and, as of 8:00 p.m. on March 12, 2009, no longer consolidates TWC's operations for purposes of its own financial reporting.

The following chart shows a summary of the corporate organization of Time Warner and its direct and indirect ownership interests in its principal subsidiaries. This chart reflects the separation of TWC and does not show all subsidiaries, including certain intermediary subsidiaries. It is included in order to help illustrate the current issuers and guarantors under each of the Indentures, which are printed in bold. A further description of the issuers, guarantors and the guarantee structure under the Indentures is included under "Time Warner" in the Consent Solicitation Statement.

HOME BOX OFFICE

Home Box Office is an indirect, wholly owned subsidiary of Historic TW, which in turn is a wholly owned subsidiary of Time Warner.

As of the date hereof, Home Box Office is not an obligor under any Indenture and does not guarantee the debt under any of Time Warner's credit facilities. With respect to any Consenting Series (as defined herein) in respect of which a Supplemental Indenture is executed, and prior to, or concurrently with, the conveyance or transfer by AOL LLC of its properties and assets substantially as an entirety without compliance with the conditions contained in the Covenant (as defined herein) as currently in effect, Time Warner will cause Home Box Office to guarantee the full and punctual payment of all the monetary obligations and the full and punctual performance within applicable grace periods of all other obligations (including obligations to the trustee) of Historic TW under the relevant Indenture relating to such Consenting Series, as described herein.

Home Box Office operates the "HBO" and "Cinemax" premium pay television services, with the HBO service ranking as the most widely distributed premium pay television service in the United States. HBO and Cinemax had approximately 40.9 million domestic subscriptions as of December 31, 2008. Both HBO and Cinemax are made available in high definition on a number of multiplex channels. Home Box Office also offers "HBO On Demand" and "Cinemax On Demand", subscription products that enable certain multi-channel video customers who subscribe to the HBO and Cinemax services to view programs at a time of their choice.

A major portion of the programming on HBO and Cinemax consists of recently released, uncut and uncensored theatrical motion pictures. It has been the practice of Home Box Office to negotiate licensing agreements of varying duration with major motion picture studios and independent producers and distributors in order to ensure continued access to such films. These agreements typically grant pay television exhibition rights to recently released and certain older films owned by the particular studio, producer or distributor in exchange for negotiated fees, which may be a function of, among other things, the box office performances of the films.

HBO is also defined by its award-winning original dramatic and comedy series, such as True Blood, The Sopranos, Entourage and Curb Your Enthusiasm, as well as movies, mini-series, boxing matches and sports news programs, comedy specials, family programming and documentaries. In 2008, among other awards, HBO won 26 Primetime Emmys®, the most of any network, as well as eight Sports Emmys®.

Home Box Office and its subsidiaries also generate revenues from the exploitation of Home Box Office's original programming through multiple distribution outlets. HBO Services Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Home Box Office, markets a variety of Home Box Office's original programming on DVD. Home Box Office licenses its original series, such as The Sopranos and Sex and the City, to basic cable channels and has also licensed Sex and the City in syndication. The Home Box Office-produced show Everybody Loves Raymond, which aired for nine seasons on broadcast television, is currently in syndication as well. The content produced by Home Box Office is also distributed by Apple Inc. through its online iTunes stores in the United States and the United Kingdom as well as on various mobile telephone platforms.

In addition, through three television joint ventures, HBO-branded services are distributed in more than 50 countries in Latin America, Asia and Central Europe, with Warner Communications Inc. (which is a wholly owned subsidiary of Time Warner but not a subsidiary of Home Box Office) owning the interests in the Latin America and Asia joint ventures and Home Box Office owning the interest in the Central European joint venture.

AOL LLC

AOL LLC is a wholly owned subsidiary of AOL Holdings LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("AOL Holdings"). Time Warner directly and indirectly holds 95% of the equity interests in AOL Holdings, with Google Inc. ("Google") owning the remaining 5%. AOL LLC is a guarantor under all the Indentures.

AOL LLC (together with its subsidiaries, "AOL") operates a global web services business, which is comprised of its Platform-A, MediaGlow and People Networks business units (the "Global Web Services Business"). Platform A sells advertising services worldwide on both the AOL Network and third-party Internet sites, referred to as the "Third Party Network". MediaGlow and People Networks develop and operate the "AOL Network", which includes a leading network of web brands, free client software and services and a social media network for Internet consumers. In addition, AOL operates one of the largest Internet access subscription services in the United States (the "Access Services Business").

AOL has transitioned from a business that was primarily focused on generating subscription revenues to one that is focused on attracting and engaging Internet consumers and providing advertising services on both the AOL Network and the Third Party Network. In addition to growing its Global Web Services Business, AOL is focused on managing its declining subscriber base and related cost structure in its Access Services Business.

In late January 2009, Google exercised its right to request that AOL Holdings LLC (the immediate parent company of AOL LLC) register Google's 5% equity interest for sale in an initial public offering. Time Warner has the right, but not the obligation, to purchase Google's equity interest in AOL Holdings LLC for cash or shares of Time Warner common stock based on the appraised fair market value of the equity interest in lieu of conducting an initial public offering. Time Warner has not yet determined in which manner it will proceed.

On March 12, 2009, Time Warner announced that it has hired Timothy Armstrong, formerly Senior Vice President of Google, to serve as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of AOL LLC, effective in early April 2009. While at Google, Mr. Armstrong was a member of its Operating Committee and served as the president of Google's Americas Operations.

Time Warner continues to review its strategic alternatives with respect to AOL, and Mr. Armstrong will have a key role in this review. These alternatives include spinning off to Time Warner's stockholders the Global Web Services Business or the Access Services Business or both (separately or together), acquisitions of interests in related businesses, entering into joint ventures and other potential combinations, dispositions involving either or both of the Global Web Services Business and the Access Services Business and operating the two businesses as a single division or separate divisions on an on-going basis. Although the Board of Directors of Time Warner has not made any decision, Time Warner currently anticipates, subject to the factors described below, that it would initiate a process to spin off one or more parts of the businesses of AOL LLC to Time Warner's stockholders, in one or a series of transactions. Based on the results of this review, future market conditions or the availability of more favorable strategic opportunities that may arise before a transaction is completed, however, Time Warner may decide to pursue an alternative other than a spin-off with respect to either or both of AOL's businesses. Time Warner currently has no agreement or understanding to sell or otherwise transfer AOL LLC's properties and assets substantially as an entirety or with respect to either of its businesses.

Time Warner believes that a variety of transactions, including a spin-off of either or both the Global Web Services Business and the Access Services Business, or the sale or merger of either or both businesses, could be implemented without the adoption of the Proposed Amendments, including transactions that would not require transfer or assumption of the AOL LLC guarantee by the successor entity. The Proposed Amendments simplify the execution of the strategic options available to Time Warner.

Table of Contents

In the event that the Proposed Amendments are not adopted pursuant to the Consent Solicitation with respect to any or all series of Securities, Time Warner will retain the ability to implement strategic alternatives with respect to AOL LLC in accordance with the terms of the Indentures for such non-Consenting Series, including but not limited to (i) transferring or conveying the assets and properties of AOL LLC substantially as an entirety by way of a spin-off or sale with the successor entity assuming the guarantee obligations of AOL LLC in accordance with the relevant Indentures, (ii) transferring, including by way of a spin-off or sale, one or more portions of the properties or assets of AOL LLC, such as a transfer of one of the Global Web Services Business and the Access Services Business, or separate transfers of both businesses, or (iii) merging AOL LLC with Time Warner or another subsidiary of Time Warner with the successor entity assuming the guarantee obligations of AOL LLC in accordance with the relevant Indentures, and thereafter transferring or conveying the assets and properties of AOL LLC in part or substantially as an entirety by way of a spin-off or sale, with Time Warner or the applicable subsidiary retaining the guarantee. In the event that such a strategic alternative is undertaken in accordance with the relevant Indentures and without the adoption of the Proposed Amendments in respect of a non-Consenting Series of Securities, no HBO Guarantee will be issued, and no Consent Payment will be made, in connection therewith with respect to such non-Consenting Series.

The following table sets forth selected financial data for AOL LLC (excluding its subsidiaries, except to the extent its equity in such subsidiaries is reflected in Total Assets) for the year ended December 31, 2008. The following information should be read together with Time Warner's consolidated financial statements and notes related to those statements, and "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Results of Operations and Financial Condition" in Time Warner's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2008, which are incorporated by reference into this prospectus. The information set forth below is not necessarily indicative of the results of future operations.

THE CONSENT SOLICITATION

Under the Indentures, AOL LLC is currently restricted from conveying or transferring its properties and assets substantially as an entirety, unless certain conditions are met, including that the transferee assumes the guarantee of such guarantor (the “Covenant”). With a view to providing Time Warner with greater flexibility in considering strategic alternatives with respect to AOL LLC, as described in more detail under “AOL LLC” above, Time Warner is soliciting Consents to amend the Indentures to provide that AOL LLC may convey or transfer its properties and assets substantially as an entirety without complying with the conditions contained in the Covenant as currently in effect (but subject to the concurrent or prior issuance of the HBO Guarantee, as discussed below), unless such conveyance or transfer constitutes a conveyance or transfer of the properties and assets of the issuer and the guarantors (under the relevant Indenture) and their respective subsidiaries, taken as a whole, substantially as an entirety (the “Proposed Amendments”). The effect of the adoption of the Proposed Amendments would be that the Covenant would not apply to a conveyance or transfer by AOL LLC unless it resulted in or constituted a conveyance or transfer of the properties and assets of Time Warner and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, substantially as an entirety. The Supplemental Indentures will require Time Warner to cause the HBO Guarantee to be issued under the circumstances described herein.

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Consent Solicitation Statement and the Consent Letter, Time Warner is offering holders of the Securities a consent payment equal to $5.00 for each $1,000 principal amount of Securities held (the “Consent Payment”), in addition to the HBO Guarantee.

Only those registered holders of Securities (“Holders”) as of April 2, 2009 (the “Record Date”) will be eligible to deliver a Consent and, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Consent Solicitation Statement and in the Consent Letter, receive Consent Payments. The Consent Solicitation Statement and the Consent Letter will be sent to all Holders as of the Record Date, and such holders should return their consent to D.F. King & Co., Inc., the information and tabulation agent for the Consent Solicitation (the “Information and Tabulation Agent”), in accordance with the instructions in the Consent Letter. Holders whose Consents are not received prior to April 15, 2009 (unless extended in accordance with the Consent Solicitation Statement), will not be entitled to receive any Consent Payment.

Adoption of the Proposed Amendments with respect to each series of Securities requires, pursuant to the applicable Indenture, the consent of Holders who hold not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of such Securities outstanding as of the Record Date, either voting by series or together as a single class with the Holders of all other Securities issued under the applicable Indenture, in each case as set forth in the Consent Solicitation Statement. The requisite consent in respect of any series of Securities is referred to herein as the “Requisite Consent”.

If the Requisite Consent in respect of any series of Securities is obtained and the supplemental indenture relating to such series of Securities giving effect to the Proposed Amendments (each, a “Supplemental Indenture”, and collectively, the “Supplemental Indentures”) is executed and delivered by the parties thereto (each such series of Securities being referred to herein as a “Consenting Series”), all Holders of such Consenting Series, including the non-consenting Holders, will be bound by the Proposed Amendments to the relevant Indenture and shall, on and after the HBO Guarantee Issue Date, be entitled to all rights and privileges under the HBO Guarantee, but only the consenting Holders will be entitled to receive the applicable Consent Payment.

Subject to Time Warner’s right to terminate the Consent Solicitation with respect to any or all series of Securities in accordance with the terms set forth in the Consent Solicitation Statement, Time Warner currently intends to execute and deliver a Supplemental Indenture in respect of each series of Securities promptly following the receipt of the Requisite Consent for such series. Consents in respect of any series of Securities shall be deemed accepted by Time Warner upon execution and delivery of the Supplemental Indenture in respect of such series. Consent Payments will be paid promptly following the execution of the Supplemental Indenture with respect to such series of Securities.

Table of Contents

Holders whose Consents are not received by the Information and Tabulation Agent on or prior to the Expiration Date will not be entitled to receive a Consent Payment in respect of such Consents. Under no circumstances will Time Warner make any Consent Payment to a Holder who does not properly deliver a Consent in accordance with the terms of the Consent Solicitation Statement and the Consent Letter. In addition, under no circumstances will Time Warner make any Consent Payment with respect to any series of Securities to any Holder delivering a Consent with respect to such series unless and until (i) the Requisite Consent in respect of such series has been received and (ii) a Supplemental Indenture adopting the Proposed Amendments with respect to such series of Securities has been executed and delivered.

Consents with respect to any series of Securities can be revoked only in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Consent Solicitation Statement. Consents will become irrevocable upon the earlier of (i) 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on April 15, 2009, and (ii) the time at which the Requisite Consent for such series of Securities has been received.

The transfer of Securities after the Record Date will NOT have the effect of revoking any Consent theretofore properly received by the Information and Tabulation Agent. Each Consent properly received by the Information and Tabulation Agent will be counted unless revoked in accordance with the Consent Solicitation Statement. The Consent Payment will be paid to Holders as of the Record Date only, notwithstanding any subsequent transfer of the Securities to which such Consents relate.

Time Warner reserves the right to extend the Expiration Date, including on a daily basis, in respect of any or all series of Securities, at any time in its sole discretion.

The Consent Solicitation may be terminated with respect to any or all series of Securities at any time (including after the Expiration Date but prior to the execution and delivery of a Supplemental Indenture with respect to a series of Securities) in the sole discretion of Time Warner, whether or not the Requisite Consent in respect of any series of Securities has been received. If the Consent Solicitation in respect of any series of Securities is so terminated by Time Warner, no Consent Payments in respect of such series of Securities will be made, irrespective of whether the Requisite Consent with respect to such series of Securities was received, and the Proposed Amendments will not be adopted and the HBO Guarantee will not be issued with respect to such series of Securities.

Regardless of whether the Proposed Amendments become operative, the Securities will continue to be outstanding in accordance with all other terms of the Securities and the relevant Indentures. The changes included in the Proposed Amendments will not alter the relevant issuer's obligation to pay the principal or interest on the Securities, the guarantors' (other than AOL LLC's) obligations under the Indentures or alter the stated interest rate or maturity date provisions of the Securities of the Consenting Series.

The above is intended to be a summary of the Consent Solicitation only, and does not contain all of the information related to the Consent Solicitation. You should read the more detailed information in the Consent Solicitation Statement and the Consent Letter, which have been filed as a free writing prospectus with the Commission.

DESCRIPTION OF THE HBO GUARANTEE

With respect to any series of Securities with respect to which the Proposed Amendments are adopted as described above, in order for AOL LLC to be able to convey or transfer its properties and assets substantially as an entirety without complying with the conditions contained in the Covenant as currently in effect, Time Warner will be required to, prior to or concurrently with such transfer, cause Home Box Office to guarantee the full and punctual payment of all the monetary obligations and the full and punctual performance within applicable grace periods of all other obligations (including obligations to the trustee) of Historic TW (in its own capacity and as successor to TWCI) under the relevant Indenture.

The issuance of the HBO Guarantee with respect to the Consenting Series under the circumstances described herein will be effected by execution and delivery of further supplements to the applicable Indentures (the “HBO Guarantee Supplements”).

If the Requisite Consent in respect of any series of Securities is not obtained or a Supplemental Indenture in respect of such series of Securities is not executed and delivered, the HBO Guarantee will not become issuable with respect to such series and the Holders of such series will not be eligible to exercise the rights and privileges under the HBO Guarantee if and when it is issued in respect of any other Consenting Series of Securities in accordance with the terms hereof.

Table of Contents

The HBO Guarantee (if issued) with respect to any series of Securities will be:

a senior, unsecured obligation, equal in right of payment with all of Home Box Office's existing and future senior, unsecured debt;

effectively junior to Home Box Office's obligations secured by liens, to the extent of the value of the assets securing those obligations; and senior in right of payment to Home Box Office's subordinated debt, if any.

As a result of the inclusion of Home Box Office as a guarantor under the relevant Indentures upon the execution and delivery of the HBO Guarantee Supplements with respect to the Consenting Series of Securities on the HBO Guarantee Issue Date, Home Box Office will become subject to the guarantor merger clause of the applicable Indentures that will require any successor to Home Box Office, including in the event Home Box Office merges with any other entity or conveys or transfers its properties and assets substantially as an entirety, to assume its guarantee.

The maximum aggregate liability of Home Box Office under the HBO Guarantee shall not exceed the maximum amount that can be guaranteed by Home Box Office without rendering the HBO Guarantee voidable under applicable law relating to fraudulent conveyance or fraudulent transfer or similar laws affecting the rights of creditors generally.

Time Warner reserves the right to delay the issuance of the HBO Guarantee to comply with any applicable law.

THE SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURES AND THE HBO GUARANTEE SUPPLEMENTS

The Proposed Amendments will be adopted by execution and delivery of the Supplemental Indentures by the relevant signatories thereto. Subject to its right to terminate the Consent Solicitation with respect to any or all series of Securities in accordance with the terms of the Consent Solicitation Statement, Time Warner currently intends to execute and deliver the Supplemental Indentures in respect of each series of Securities promptly following receipt of the Requisite Consent with respect to such series. The forms of the Supplemental Indentures are included as Exhibits 4.1, 4.2, 4.3, 4.4 and 4.5 to this prospectus.

The HBO Guarantee in respect of each series of Securities will be issued on the HBO Guarantee Issue Date under the circumstances described above by execution and delivery of the HBO Guarantee Supplements by the relevant signatories thereto. The forms of the HBO Guarantee Supplements are included as Annex A to each of Exhibits 4.1, 4.2, 4.3, 4.4 and 4.5 to this prospectus.

CERTAIN UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following is a summary discussion of certain U.S. Federal income tax consequences of adoption of the Proposed Amendments (and, if applicable, the subsequent issue of the HBO Guarantee) for U.S. Holders and Non-U.S. Holders (as defined below). This summary is based upon currently existing provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), U.S. Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder (the “Treasury Regulations”), and administrative and judicial interpretations thereof, all as in effect on the date hereof and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect.

The summary does not attempt to address the U.S. Federal income tax consequences for all Holders, some of which may be subject to special rules (for example, banks and certain other financial institutions, real estate investment trusts, regulated investment companies, U.S. expatriates, life insurance companies, tax-exempt entities and dealers in securities or currencies). This summary assumes that the Securities are held as “capital assets” within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code. No ruling has been or will be sought from the Internal Revenue Service (the “Service”) regarding any matter discussed below. Accordingly, no assurance can be given that the Service will not challenge any of the U.S. Federal income tax consequences described below or that any such challenge, if made, would not be sustained by a court.

As used in this discussion, the term “U.S. Holder” means a beneficial owner of Securities that is, or is treated as, for U.S. Federal income tax purposes:

an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation (including any entity treated as a corporation for U.S. Federal income tax purposes) created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia;

an estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. Federal income taxation regardless of its source; or a trust if (A) a court within the United States is able to exercise primary jurisdiction over its administration and one or more U.S. persons have authority to control all of its substantial decisions, or (B) the trust has a valid election in effect under the applicable Treasury Regulations to be treated as a U.S. person.

If a partnership (including any entity treated as a partnership for U.S. Federal income tax purposes) is a beneficial owner of Securities, the treatment of a partner in the partnership will generally depend on the status of the partner and on the activities of the partnership. Partnerships holding Securities and the partners therein should consult their tax advisors regarding the tax consequences of adoption of the Proposed Amendments.

The term “Non-U.S. Holder” means a beneficial owner of Securities that is neither a U.S. Holder nor a partnership for U.S. Federal income tax purposes.

U.S. Holders

We believe that the only U.S. Federal income tax consequence of the adoption of the Proposed Amendments (and, if applicable, the subsequent issuance of the HBO Guarantee) should be that the full amount of the Consent Payment will be subject to tax as ordinary income to those U.S. Holders who receive it.

Holders are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the potential tax consequences of the adoption of the Proposed Amendments (and, if applicable, the subsequent issuance of the HBO Guarantee) to them.

A U.S. Holder may, under certain circumstances, be subject to backup withholding, currently imposed at a rate of 28%, with respect to the Consent Payment, unless that U.S. Holder (i) is a corporation or is otherwise exempt and, when required, demonstrates this fact or (ii) provides a correct taxpayer identification number, certifies as to no loss of exemption from backup withholding and otherwise complies with applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. The amount of any backup withholding from a Consent Payment will be allowed as a credit against such U.S. Holder's Federal income tax liability and may entitle such U.S. Holder to a refund, provided that the required information is furnished in a timely manner to the IRS.

Non-U.S. Holders

A Consent Payment received by a Non-U.S. Holder generally will be subject to U.S. Federal withholding tax imposed at a rate of 30% unless an exemption from withholding is applicable, for instance, because the Consent Payment is effectively connected with a trade or business carried on by the Non-U.S. Holder in the United States or because an income tax treaty applies. To claim an exemption from this withholding, the Non-U.S. Holder must deliver to us (or any other person who is otherwise required to withhold U.S. Federal income tax) a properly executed Service Form W-8ECI or, as applicable, Service Form W-8BEN claiming such exemption.

If the Consent Payment is effectively connected with a trade or business carried on by the Non-U.S. Holder in the United States, the Consent Payment, although exempt from U.S. Federal withholding tax, will generally be subject to regular U.S. Federal income tax. In addition corporate Non-U.S. Holders receiving a Consent Payment that is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the United States may be subject to an additional “branch profits” tax at a 30% rate or a lower rate if specified by an applicable income tax treaty.

Other Tax Considerations

There may be other U.S. Federal, state, local or foreign tax considerations applicable to the particular circumstances of a Holder. Accordingly, all Holders should consult with their own tax advisors as to any particular tax consequences to them of the Consent Payment.

THE PRECEDING DISCUSSION OF CERTAIN U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES IS INCLUDED HEREIN FOR GENERAL INFORMATION ONLY AND DOES NOT CONSTITUTE AND IS NOT A SUBSTITUTE FOR PROFESSIONAL TAX ADVICE. EACH HOLDER SHOULD CONSULT A TAX ADVISOR AS TO THE U.S. FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL AND FOREIGN TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE ADOPTION OF THE PROPOSED AMENDMENTS AND THE CONSENT PAYMENT.

RATIO OF EARNINGS TO FIXED CHARGES

The ratio of earnings to fixed charges for Time Warner are set forth below for the periods indicated. The definition of earnings also applies to Time Warner's unconsolidated 50% owned affiliated companies, referred to on Exhibit 12.1 as "Adjustment for partially owned subsidiaries and 50% owned companies".

For purposes of computing the ratio of earnings to fixed charges, earnings were calculated by adding:

- (i) pretax income;
- (ii) interest expense;
- (iii) minority interest in the income of majority-owned subsidiaries that have fixed charges; and
- (iv) the amount of undistributed losses (earnings) of Time Warner's less than 50%-owned companies.

Fixed charges consist of interest expense.

	Year Ended December 31,
	2008(1)	2007	2006	2005	2004
Ratio of earnings to fixed charges	—	3.5x	3.9x	3.0x	3.2x

- (1) For the ratio of earnings to fixed charges to equal 1.00, earnings, as adjusted, must increase by $18.588 billion.

USE OF PROCEEDS

Neither Time Warner nor Home Box Office will receive any cash proceeds from the offer or issuance of the HBO Guarantee.

TIME WARNER INC.
REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

The Board of Directors and Shareholders of
Time Warner Inc.

We have audited the consolidated balance sheet of Time Warner Inc. (“Time Warner”) as of December 31, 2008 and 2007, and the related consolidated statements of operations, cash flows and shareholders’ equity for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2008 (not included herein). Our audits also included the Supplementary Information, Financial Statement Schedule II (not included herein) and the accompanying Condensed Consolidating Financial Statements. The Time Warner Financial Statements, Supplementary Information, Financial Statement Schedule II and the accompanying Condensed Consolidating Financial Statements are the responsibility of Time Warner’s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements, financial statement schedule, supplementary information and condensed consolidating financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of Time Warner at December 31, 2008 and 2007, and the consolidated results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2008, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. Also, in our opinion, the related Financial Statement Schedule II, the Supplementary Information and the accompanying Condensed Consolidating Financial Statements, when considered in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole, present fairly in all material respects the information set forth therein.

As of January 1, 2007, Time Warner adopted Emerging Issues Task Force Issue No. 06-02, Accounting for Sabbatical Leave and Other Similar Benefits, and Financial Accounting Standards Board Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes — an interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109. As discussed in Note 1 to the consolidated financial statements, as of January 1, 2008, Time Warner adopted Emerging Issues Task Force (“EITF”) Issue 06-10, Deferred Compensation and Postretirement Benefit Aspects of Collateral Assignment Split-Dollar Life Insurance Arrangements and EITF Issue No. 06-04, Deferred Compensation and Postretirement Benefits Aspects of Endorsement Split-Dollar Life Insurance Arrangements.

We also have audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), Time Warner’s internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2008, based on criteria established in Internal Control — Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission and our report dated February 19, 2009 (not included herein) expressed an unqualified opinion thereon.

CONDENSED CONSOLIDATING FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

TIME WARNER INC.

CONDENSED CONSOLIDATING FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Overview

The Securities and Exchange Commission's rules require that condensed consolidating financial information be provided for wholly owned subsidiaries that have guaranteed debt issued where each such guarantee is full and unconditional. Set forth below are condensed consolidating financial statements presenting the financial position, results of operations and cash flows of (i) Time Warner Inc. (the "Parent Company"), (ii) Historic TW Inc., Home Box Office, Inc. ("HBO"), and Turner Broadcasting System, Inc., each a wholly owned subsidiary of the Parent Company, on a combined basis (collectively, the "Guarantor Subsidiaries"), (iii) the direct and indirect non-guarantor subsidiaries of the Parent Company (the "Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries") on a combined basis and (iv) the eliminations necessary to arrive at the information for Time Warner Inc. on a consolidated basis.

There are no legal or regulatory restrictions on the Parent Company's ability to obtain funds from any of its wholly owned subsidiaries through dividends, loans or advances.

These condensed consolidating financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements of Time Warner Inc. and do not reflect Time Warner Cable, Inc., which was separated from the Parent Company on March 12, 2009, as a discontinued operation.

On April 6, 2009, the Parent Company initiated a solicitation of consents (the "Consent Solicitation") from the holders of the debt securities issued under certain Indentures (the "Securities") to adopt proposed amendments to each Indenture that provide that certain restrictive covenants will not apply (subject to the concurrent or prior issuance of the guarantee by HBO discussed below) to a conveyance or transfer by AOL LLC, a subsidiary of the Parent Company, of its properties and assets substantially as an entirety unless such conveyance or transfer constitutes a conveyance or transfer of the properties and assets of the issuer and the guarantors under the relevant Indenture and their respective subsidiaries, taken as a whole, substantially as an entirety. As a result of the Consent Solicitation, subject to the receipt of the requisite consents from the holders of the Securities and the proposed amendments to the Indentures becoming effective, and in connection with the conveyance or transfer of AOL LLC's properties and assets substantially as an entirety, HBO will issue a guarantee of the obligations of Historic TW Inc., whether as issuer or guarantor, under the Indentures and the Securities. Such guarantee will be issued by HBO only in connection with such a transaction. Accordingly, for purposes of this presentation, the consolidating financial information herein reflects HBO as a Guarantor Subsidiary and does not reflect the historical financial information of AOL LLC in the Guarantor data and information. Instead, the historical financial information of AOL LLC is reflected in the data and information regarding the Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries. If the HBO guarantee is issued, HBO, together with the other Guarantor Subsidiaries, will fully and unconditionally, jointly and severally, guarantee the Securities on an unsecured basis.

Basis of Presentation

In presenting the condensed consolidating financial statements, the equity method of accounting has been applied to (i) the Parent Company's interests in the Guarantor Subsidiaries and (ii) the Guarantor Subsidiaries' interests in the Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries, where applicable, even though all such subsidiaries meet the requirements to be consolidated under U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. All intercompany balances and transactions between the Parent Company, the Guarantor Subsidiaries and the Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries have been eliminated, as shown in the column "Eliminations."

The Parent Company's accounting bases in all subsidiaries, including goodwill and identified intangible assets, have been "pushed down" to the applicable subsidiaries. Interest income (expense) is determined based on third-party debt and the relevant intercompany amounts within the respective legal entity.

All direct and indirect domestic subsidiaries are included in Time Warner Inc.'s consolidated U.S. tax return. In the condensed consolidating financial statements, tax expense has been allocated based on each such subsidiary's relative pretax income to the consolidated pretax income. With respect to the use of certain consolidated tax attributes (principally operating and capital loss carryforwards), such benefits have been allocated to the respective subsidiary that generated the taxable income permitting such use (i.e., pro-rata based on where the income was generated). For example, to the extent a Non-Guarantor Subsidiary generated a gain on the sale of a business for which the Parent Company utilized tax attributes to offset such gain, the tax attribute benefit would be allocated to that Non-Guarantor Subsidiary. Deferred taxes of the Parent Company, the Guarantor Subsidiaries and the Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries have been allocated based upon the temporary differences between the carrying amounts of the respective assets and liabilities of the applicable entities.

Corporate overhead expenses have been reflected as expenses of the Parent Company and have not been allocated to the Guarantor Subsidiaries or the Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries. Certain transfers of cash between subsidiaries and their parent companies are reflected as cash flows from investing and financing activities in the accompanying condensed consolidating statements of cash flows. All other intercompany activity, including intercompany dividends, is reflected in cash flows from operations and has been separately identified in the statement of cash flows.

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Under Delaware law, a corporation may indemnify any individual made a party or threatened to be made a party to any type of proceeding, other than an action by or in the right of the corporation, because he or she is or was an officer, director, employee or agent of the corporation or was serving at the request of the corporation as an officer, director, employee or agent of another corporation or entity against expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred in connection with such proceeding: (a) if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation; or (b) in the case of a criminal proceeding, he or she had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful. A corporation may indemnify any individual made a party or threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit brought by or in the right of the corporation because he or she was an officer, director, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or other entity, against expenses actually and reasonably incurred in connection with such action or suit if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, provided that such indemnification will be denied if the individual is found liable to the corporation unless, in such a case, the court determines the person is nonetheless entitled to indemnification for such expenses. A corporation must indemnify a present or former director or officer who successfully defends himself or herself in a proceeding to which he or she was a party because he or she was a director or officer of the corporation against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him or her. Expenses incurred by an officer or director, or any employees or agents as deemed appropriate by the board of directors, in defending civil or criminal proceedings may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such proceedings upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director, officer, employee or agent to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation. The Delaware law regarding indemnification and expense advancement is not exclusive of any other rights which may be granted by Time Warner's or Home Box Office's certificate of incorporation or bylaws, a vote of stockholders or disinterested directors, agreement or otherwise.

Under Delaware law, termination of any proceeding by conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that such person is prohibited from being indemnified.

Delaware law permits a corporation to adopt a provision in its certificate of incorporation eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director, but not an officer in his or her capacity as such, to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except that such provision shall not limit the liability of a director for (a) any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (b) acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (c) unlawful payment of dividends or stock purchases or redemptions or (d) any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Time Warner

Article VI of Time Warner's by-laws requires indemnification, to the fullest extent permitted under Delaware law or other applicable law, of any person who is or was a director or officer of Time Warner and who is or was involved in any manner or threatened to be made so involved in any threatened, pending or completed investigation, claim, action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that such person is or was serving as a director, officer, employee or agent of Time Warner or is or was serving at the request of Time Warner as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against all expenses (including attorney's fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such proceeding; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not apply to a director or officer with respect to a proceeding that was commenced by such director or officer except under certain circumstances.

In addition, the Time Warner by-laws provide that all reasonable expenses incurred by or on behalf of a director or officer in connection with any investigation, claim, action, suit or proceeding will be advanced to the director or officer by Time Warner upon the request of the director or officer, which request, if required by law, will include an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay the amounts advanced if ultimately it is determined that the director or officer was not entitled to be indemnified against the expenses.

The indemnification rights provided in Article VI of Time Warner's by-laws are not exclusive of any other right to which persons seeking indemnification may otherwise be entitled.

As permitted by Delaware law, Article VI of Time Warner's by-laws authorizes Time Warner to purchase and maintain insurance to protect itself and any director, officer, employee and agent against claims and liabilities that such persons may incur in such capacities.

Article IX of Time Warner's restated certificate of incorporation provides that, to the fullest extent of Delaware law, no Time Warner director shall be liable to Time Warner or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director.

Home Box Office

Article VI of Home Box Office's by-laws requires indemnification, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, of any person who is or was a director or officer of Home Box Office and who is or was involved in any manner or threatened to be made a party or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that such person is or was serving as a director, officer, employee or agent of Home Box Office or is or was serving at the request of Home Box Office as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise or non-profit entity, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, against all liability and loss suffered and expenses (including attorney's fees) reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such proceeding.

In addition, Home Box Office's by-laws provide that it shall, to the fullest extent not prohibited by applicable law, pay the expenses (including attorney's fees) incurred by a director or officer in defending any proceeding in advance of its final disposition, provided however that, to the extent required by law, such payment or expense shall be made only upon receipt of an undertaking by the director or officer to repay the amounts advanced if ultimately it is determined that the director or officer was not entitled to be indemnified against the expenses.

If a claim for indemnification (following the final disposition of an action, suit or proceeding) or advancement of expenses as provided for under Article VI of the Home Box Office by-laws is not paid in full within sixty days of the written claim from the director or officer being received by Home Box Office, the director or officer may file a suit to recover the unpaid amount of such claim (wherein Home Box Office shall have the burden of proving that the director or officer is not entitled to the requested indemnification or advancement of expenses under applicable law) and such director or officer shall, if successful in whole or in part, also be entitled to be paid the expenses of prosecuting such claim.

The indemnification rights provided in Article VI of Home Box Office's by-laws are not exclusive of any other right to which persons seeking indemnification may otherwise be entitled.

Table of Contents

Home Box Office's obligation, if any, to indemnify or to advance expenses to a director or officer who was serving at its request as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, enterprise or nonprofit entity shall be reduced by any amount such director or officer may collect as indemnification or advancement of expenses from such other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, enterprise or nonprofit entity.

See "Index to Exhibits" attached to this Registration Statement, which is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 17. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned registrants hereby undertake:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement.

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

Provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i), (a)(1)(ii) and (a)(1)(iii) of this section do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrants pursuant to section 13 or section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act to any purchaser, each prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) as part of a registration statement relating to an offering shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the date it is first used after effectiveness. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such first use, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such date of first use.

(5) That, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrants under the Securities Act to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities:

The undersigned registrants undertake that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrants pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrants will be sellers to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

(i) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrants relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;

(ii) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrants or used or referred to by the undersigned registrants;

(iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrants or the securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrants; and

(iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrants to the purchaser.

(b) The undersigned registrants hereby undertake that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrants' annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrants pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrants have been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrants of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrants in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrants will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
