EVOLVE SOFTWARE, INC.

PROXY STATEMENT

Information Concerning Solicitation and Voting

The enclosed proxy is solicited on behalf of Evolve Software, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("we," "us" or the "Company"), for the annual meeting of stockholders to be held on Tuesday, December 17, 2002 at 10:00 a.m. local time at our principal executive offices, located at 150 Spear Street, 11th Floor, San Francisco, CA 94105, or any adjournment thereof, for the purposes set forth herein and in the accompanying notice of annual meeting of stockholders. Our telephone number is (415) 229-3700. Any questions regarding the contents of this statement may be directed to Arthur T. Taylor, Chief Financial Officer and Secretary of the Company. These proxy materials will be first mailed on or about November 15, 2002.

Voting Securities

Only holders of record of our common stock, Series A Preferred Stock and Series B Preferred Stock as of the close of business on October 21, 2002 (the "record date") will be entitled to vote at the meeting or any adjournment of the meeting. As of the record date, there were 46,515,611 shares of common stock, 1,875,000 shares of Series A Preferred Stock and 750,000 shares of Series B Preferred Stock issued and outstanding. Stockholders may vote in person or by proxy. Each share of common stock issued and outstanding on the record date is entitled to one vote on the matters presented herein. Each share of Series A Preferred Stock issued and outstanding on the record date is entitled to 20 votes on the matters presented herein. Each share of Series B Preferred Stock is entitled to approximately 52.63 votes on the matters presented herein, other than on Proposal 3, for which the Series B Preferred Stock is not entitled to a vote. Only holders of our Series A Preferred Stock may vote on our nominee for Series A Director, Barry Taylor. There is no cumulative voting in the election of directors.

Solicitation of Proxies

We will pay the cost of soliciting proxies. In addition to soliciting stockholders by mail and through our regular employees, we will request banks, brokers and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to solicit their customers who have our stock registered in street name, and will reimburse such banks, brokers and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable, out-of-pocket costs. Our officers, directors and others may solicit proxies personally or by telephone, facsimile or electronic mail, without additional compensation. We have engaged MacKenzie Partners, a professional solicitation firm, to assist in the solicitation of proxies at a cost of approximately $3,000, plus reasonable expenses.

Voting of Proxies

All valid proxies received prior to the meeting will be voted at the meeting. All shares represented by a proxy will be voted in accordance with the stockholder's specification on the proxy. If the proxy is signed, but no choice has been indicated, your proxy will be voted "FOR" the matters set forth on the proxy. Your shares will be voted as the proxy holders may determine in their sole discretion with respect to any matter that properly comes before the meeting that are not described in this proxy statement. A stockholder giving a proxy has the power to revoke such proxy at any time prior to the time it is voted by:

- delivering to our Secretary a written instrument revoking the earlier submitted proxy;
- delivering to our Secretary a valid proxy with a later date; or
- attending the meeting and voting in person.

Quorum, Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes

The presence in person or represented by proxy of a majority of the voting power of our common stock, Series A Preferred Stock and Series B Preferred Stock issued and outstanding on the record date, voting together as a single class, is necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the meeting. Absent controlling authority in the State of Delaware to the contrary, we will count both abstentions and broker non-votes for purposes of determining whether a quorum exists for transacting business at the meeting on all matters on which a vote is taken.

Brokers and other institutions that are members of the New York Stock Exchange who are the record holders of our stock, but whose customers are the beneficial holders of our stock, may vote on all of the proposals without an instruction from the beneficial holder of our stock as to how to vote the shares, provided that such brokers or other institutions deliver copies of the proxy statement and annual report to stockholders to such beneficial holders within 15 days prior to the meeting. In the event we do receive a broker non-vote with respect to a proposal at the meeting, such broker non-vote will have no effect on the outcome of the proposal, other than on Proposal 2, for which it will have the effect of a vote against the proposal.

Election of one of the Class II directors will require a plurality of the votes cast by the Series A Preferred Stock, and election of the other two Class II directors will require a plurality of the votes cast by the Series A Preferred Stock, Series B Preferred Stock and common stock voting together as a single class. If you indicate "WITHHOLD AUTHORITY TO VOTE" for any nominee on your proxy card, your vote will not count either for or against the election of the nominee.

Approval of Proposal 2 requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding common stock voting as a separate class, a majority of the outstanding voting power of the Series A Preferred Stock and Series B Preferred Stock, voting together as a single class and a majority of the voting power of the Series A Preferred Stock, Series B Preferred Stock and common stock, voting together as a single class.

Approval of Proposal 3 requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes represented at the meeting with respect to that proposal by the common stock and Series A Preferred Stock, voting together as a single class.

Approval of Proposal 4 requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes represented at the meeting with respect to that proposal. If you abstain from voting with respect to any of these proposals, your abstention will be treated as a vote "AGAINST" that proposal.

Stock Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management

The table below sets forth certain information as of the record date with respect to the beneficial ownership of our common stock by:

- each of our directors and director nominees;
- each of our executive officers included in the Summary Compensation Table beginning on page 16 of this proxy statement (the "named executive officers");
- all persons known to us to beneficially own more than 5% of our common stock; and
- all directors and executive officers as a group.

We have relied exclusively upon information provided to us by our directors and executive officers and copies of documents sent to us that have been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission by others for purposes of determining the number of shares each person beneficially owns. Beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and generally includes those persons who have voting or investment power with respect to the securities. Except as otherwise indicated, and subject to applicable community property laws, the persons named in the table have sole voting and investment power with respect to all shares of our common stock beneficially owned by them. Percentage ownership in the table below is based on 46,515,611 shares of common stock outstanding on the record date. Shares of our stock subject to options or warrants that are exercisable within 60 days of the record date and shares of our common stock issuable upon conversion of our Series A Preferred Stock and Series B Preferred Stock that are issued and outstanding on the record date are also deemed outstanding for purposes of calculating the percentage ownership of that person, and if applicable, the percentage ownership of executive officers and directors as a group, but are not treated as outstanding for the purpose of calculating the percentage ownership of any other person. Unless otherwise indicated, the address for each stockholder listed in the table below is c/o Evolve Software, Inc., 150 Spear Street, 11th Floor, San Francisco, CA 94105.

PROPOSAL 1

Election of Directors

Our certificate of incorporation provides that our board of directors shall be divided into three classes, with each class of directors serving staggered three-year terms. The term of office of the Class II directors shall extend until the 2002 annual meeting of stockholders, the term of office of the Class III directors shall extend until the 2003 annual meeting of stockholders and the term of office of the Class I directors shall extend until the 2004 annual meeting of stockholders, or until such director's earlier death, resignation or removal or until his or her successor is elected and qualified. There are currently two directors in Class I and Class III and three directors in Class II. The Class II directors elected at the meeting will hold office until the 2005 annual meeting of stockholders, or until such director's earlier death, resignation or removal from office.

Of the three Class II directors to be elected at the meeting, one of the directors is to be elected by the Series A Preferred Stock (the "Series A Director"), and the other two directors are to be elected by holders of common stock, Series A Preferred Stock and Series B Preferred Stock voting together as a single class (the "General Directors").

Barry Taylor is our nominee for the Series A Director and John R. Oltman and Paul Rochester are our nominees for the General Directors to be elected at the meeting. In the event that Messrs. Taylor, Rochester or Oltman become unavailable or decline to serve as directors at the time of the meeting, the proxy holders will vote the proxies in their discretion for the nominee or nominees who are designated by the board of directors to fill the vacancy. It is not expected that any of Messrs. Taylor, Rochester or Oltman will be unavailable to serve on our board of directors.

Vote Required

The two nominees for General Directors and the one nominee for the Series A Director receiving the highest number of affirmative votes of the shares entitled to be cast for such nominees at the meeting shall be elected as directors. Votes withheld from any director are counted for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum, but have no other effect.

Nominees and Other Directors

The following table sets forth the name and age of each of the nominees for our Class II directors and each of our directors whose term of office continues after the meeting, the principal occupation of each during the past five years and the period during which each has served as one of our directors. During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002, our board of directors held 12 meetings. We currently have an audit committee and a compensation committee of our board of directors. We do not have a nominating committee or a committee performing the functions of a nominating committee.

During fiscal 2002, our audit committee met four times. During fiscal 2002, our audit committee initially consisted of Messrs. In March 2002, Ms. Hamilton resigned from the board of directors and the audit committee. In May 2002 Mr. Rochester was appointed to the audit committee. During fiscal 2002, our compensation committee met six times. During fiscal 2002, the compensation committee initially consisted of Messrs. Drazan and Oltman until Ms. Crowell joined the compensation committee in October 2001. ### Board Recommendation

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" ALL THREE OF THE NOMINEES FOR CLASS II DIRECTORS NAMED ABOVE.

PROPOSAL 2

Approval of Our Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation

General

In February 2002, we received notice from the Nasdaq National Market that our common stock would be delisted for failing to meet the $1.00 minimum bid price requirement. The notice indicated that if we transferred our listing to the Nasdaq SmallCap Market, we would be given a 180-day grace period from delisting for failing to meet the $1.00 minimum bid price requirement and up to an additional 180-day grace period from delisting if, among other things, our stockholders' equity exceeded $5 million. In July 2002, our board of directors approved a transfer of our listing from the Nasdaq National Market to the Nasdaq SmallCap Market to avail ourselves to the grace periods. On August 21, 2002, we received notice that we had been granted the additional 180-day grace period, or until

Edgar Filing: EVOLVE SOFTWARE INC - Form DEF 14A

February 10, 2003 to regain compliance with the $1.00 minimum bid price requirement for at least ten consecutive trading days. As a result, our board of directors is unanimously recommending that our stockholders approve three amended and restated certificates of incorporation in substantially the form attached as Appendix C to this proxy statement to:

- effect a reverse stock split of one-for-twenty, one-for-thirty and one-for-forty, with the final ratio to be determined by the board of directors in its sole and absolute discretion at any time prior to February 1, 2003, and
- reduce the authorized number of shares of our common stock from 200 million to 100 million.

The board of directors may abandon any or all of the amended and restated certificates of incorporation, either before or after approval by stockholders. However, in the event that the stockholders approve more than one amended and restated certificate of incorporation, we would not file more than one with the Secretary of State of Delaware.

Purpose

The board of directors is recommending that our stockholders approve our amended and restated certificates of incorporation for the following reasons:

- the board believes that a reverse stock split is the most effective means to avoid a delisting of our common stock from the Nasdaq SmallCap Market for failing to meet or exceed the $1.00 minimum bid price requirement of the Nasdaq SmallCap Market; and
- the board believes a higher stock price may help generate investor interest in our common stock and help us attract and retain employees and other service providers.

Nasdaq Listing. Our common stock is quoted on the Nasdaq SmallCap Market under the symbol "EVLV." On October 31, 2002, the closing sales price for our common stock was $0.12 per share. If our stockholders do not approve our amended and restated certificates of incorporation to effect the reverse stock split, and the bid price for our common stock does not otherwise increase to $1.00 or more for ten consecutive trading days, we expect that our common stock will be delisted from the Nasdaq SmallCap Market, in which case, the market for our common stock may be significantly diminished and you may not be able to sell our common stock. Given the recent trading history of our common stock and the unpredictability of the stock market in general, we have chosen a reverse stock split ratio of one-for-twenty, one-for-thirty and one-for-forty to give us maximum flexibility in the event that the price of our common stock declines between the date of this proxy statement and the time we decide to effect the reverse stock split to reasonably assure us that the closing bid price for our common stock will equal or exceed $1.00 per share for at least 10 trading days prior to February 10, 2003 and for the near future.

Potential Increased Investor Interest. In recommending the approval of our amended and restated certificates of incorporation, our board of directors considered that our common stock may not appeal to brokerage firms that are reluctant to recommend lower priced stocks to their clients. Moreover, the analysts at many brokerage firms do not monitor the trading activity or otherwise provide coverage of lower priced stocks. In addition, our board of directors believes that most institutional investors are reluctant to invest in lower priced stocks. Our board of directors further believes that a higher stock price would help us attract and retain employees and other service providers, as some potential employees and service providers may be less willing to work for a company with a low stock price and market capitalization. Our board of directors is targeting a stock price after the reverse stock split of around $3.00 per share. However, we cannot assure you that our stock will trade around $3.00 per share immediately following the reverse stock split or ever. Assuming that all of the reverse stock split ratios are approved by our stockholders, we will decide the final split ratio based on the price of our common stock at least ten days prior to effecting the reverse stock split.

Certain Risks Associated With the Reverse Stock Split

Although we believe that the reverse stock split will be beneficial to our stockholders, we cannot assure you that:

- the per share bid price for our common stock following the reverse stock split will meet or exceed the minimum bid price required by the Nasdaq SmallCap Market for ten consecutive days prior to February 10, 2003;

Edgar Filing: EVOLVE SOFTWARE INC - Form DEF 14A

- our common stock will not be delisted from the Nasdaq SmallCap Market for failing to meet any of the other continued listing standards;
- the reverse stock split will result in a per share price that will attract institutional and other investors;
- the reverse stock split will result in a per share price that will increase our ability to attract and retain employees and other service providers; or
- the liquidity of our common stock will be improved.

Principal Effects of the Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation

Corporate Matters. If approved and effected, the amendment and restatement of our certificate of incorporation would have the following effects:

- depending on the final reverse stock split ratio selected by the board of directors, every one share of common stock owned by a stockholder would be combined, converted, reclassified and changed into  $\frac{1}{20}$ th,  $\frac{1}{30}$ th or  $\frac{1}{40}$ th of a share, provided that all fractions of a share to which such holder would be entitled, will be aggregated into whole shares of common stock to the maximum extent possible;

- the number of shares of our common stock issued and outstanding will be reduced proportionately based on the reverse stock split ratio selected by the board of directors;
  - the number of shares of our common stock into which our Series A Preferred Stock and Series B Preferred Stock are convertible into immediately prior to the reverse stock split would be reduced proportionately;
  - the relative voting power of the common stock in relation to the Series A Preferred Stock and Series B Preferred Stock will remain the same;
  - the number of authorized shares of our common stock will be reduced from 200 million shares to 100 million shares;
  - it will eliminate the provision pertaining to holders of our Series A Preferred Stock who have not already waived the application of such provision, that provides that a liquidation will occur in the event that a person acquires beneficial ownership of more than 50% of our voting equity securities;
  - the number of our stockholders of record will be reduced to approximately 500 in the event any of the three reverse stock split ratios are effected
  - based on the reverse stock split ratio selected by our board of directors, proportionate adjustments will be made to the per share exercise price and the number of shares issuable upon the exercise of all outstanding options and warrants; and
  - the number of shares reserved under our existing employee benefit plans will be reduced proportionately based on the reverse stock split ratio approved by our board of directors.

If approved and effected, the reverse stock split will be effected simultaneously for all of our outstanding common stock and at the same ratio. The reverse stock split will affect all of our common stockholders uniformly, and should not materially effect any common stockholder's beneficial ownership interest in our common stock. As described below, stockholders who would otherwise be entitled to receive a fractional share after aggregating all fractions of a share to which they would otherwise be entitled, will be entitled to a cash payment in lieu of such fraction of a share. Such cash payments will reduce the number of post-split stockholders to the extent there are stockholders holding fewer than 20, 30 or 40 shares, as the case may be. The reverse stock split is not being effected as the first step in a going private transaction under Rule 13e-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. However, we cannot assure you that neither we nor any of our affiliates will not take steps in the future that will result in a going private transaction under Rule 13e-3. This, however, is not the purpose for which we are affecting the reverse stock split. The common stock combined pursuant to the reverse stock split will remain fully paid and nonassessable.

Fractional Shares. No scrip or fractional certificates will be issued in connection with the reverse stock split. Stockholders who otherwise would be entitled to receive fractional shares because they hold a number of shares that are not evenly divisible by the reverse stock split ratio approved by our board of directors will be entitled, upon surrender of certificate(s) representing such shares, to a cash payment in lieu thereof. The cash payment will equal the product obtained by multiplying (a) the fraction to which the stockholder would otherwise be entitled by (b) the per share closing sales price of our common stock on the day immediately prior to the effective time of the reverse stock split, as reported on the Nasdaq SmallCap Market. The ownership of a fractional interest will not give the holder any voting, dividend or other rights, except to receive payment for such fractional interest as described above.

Stockholders should be aware that under the escheat laws of the various jurisdictions where stockholders reside, where Evolve is domiciled and where the funds will be deposited, sums due for fractional interests that are not timely claimed after the effective time of the reverse stock split may be required to be paid to the designated agent for each such jurisdiction. Thereafter, stockholders otherwise entitled to receive such funds may have to obtain them directly from the state to which they were paid.

If approved and effected, the reverse stock split may result in some stockholders owning "odd lots" of less than 100 shares of our common stock. Brokerage commissions and other costs of transactions in odd lots are often somewhat higher than the costs of transactions in "round lots" of even multiples of 100 shares.

Authorized Shares. Despite the fact that the approval of the amendment and restatement of our certificate of incorporation would reduce the number of authorized shares of our common stock by 100 million shares, the proportion of our authorized but unissued shares of our common stock in relation to our issued and outstanding shares of common stock will be increased as a result of the reverse stock split. Authorized but unissued shares will be available for issuance, and we may issue such shares in equity financings or otherwise. If we issue additional shares of common stock, the ownership interest of our current stockholders may be diluted.

Accounting Matters. The reverse stock split will not affect the par value of our common stock. As a result, as of the effective time of the reverse stock split, the stated capital on our balance sheet attributable to our common stock will be proportionately reduced based on the reverse stock split ratio approved by our board of directors, and the additional paid in capital account on the balance sheet will be credited with the amount by which the stated capital is reduced. The per share net income or loss and net book value of our common stock will be restated because there will be fewer shares of our common stock outstanding.

Potential Anti-Takeover Effect. Although the increased proportion of authorized but unissued shares of common stock to outstanding shares of common stock following the filing of the amended and restated certificate of incorporation could, under certain circumstances, have an anti-takeover effect (for example, by permitting issuances of stock that would dilute the stock ownership of a person seeking to effect a change in the composition of our board of directors or contemplating a tender offer or other transaction for the combination of us with another company), the amendment and restatement of our certificate of incorporation proposal is not being proposed in response to any effort of which we are aware to accumulate our common stock or obtain control of Evolve.

Procedure for Effecting the Reverse Stock Split and Exchange of Stock Certificates

If our stockholders approve the proposal to approve our amended and restated Certificate of incorporation and if our board of directors decides to implement the reverse stock split on or prior to February 1, 2003, we will file an amended and restated certificate of incorporation with the Secretary of State of Delaware and the reverse stock split will be effected at the time specified in the certificate. Beginning at the effective time, each certificate representing old shares of common stock will be deemed for all corporate purposes to represent the new combined shares of common stock. The text of the amended and restated certificate of incorporation to effect the reverse stock split and to reduce the number of authorized shares of our common stock from 200 million to 100 million, would be in substantially the form attached to this proxy statement as Appendix B; provided that the text of the form of amended and restated certificate of incorporation would be subject to modification to include such changes as may be required by the Secretary of State of Delaware and as the board of directors deems necessary or advisable to effect the reverse stock split, including the insertion of an effective time and the applicable reverse stock split ratio approved by the board of directors within the range approved by our Stockholders.

As soon as practicable after the effective time of the reverse stock split, stockholders will be notified that the reverse stock split has been effected. We expect that our transfer agent, Computershare, will act as the exchange agent for purposes of implementing the exchange of stock certificates. Stockholders will be requested to surrender to the exchange agent certificates representing our common stock in exchange for new certificates representing our common stock in accordance with the procedures set forth in the letter of transmittal to be sent by our transfer agent. No new certificates will be issued to a stockholder until such stockholder has surrendered such stockholder's outstanding certificate(s), together with the properly completed and executed letter of transmittal, to the exchange agent. Any share certificates submitted for transfer, whether pursuant to a sale, other disposition or otherwise, will automatically be exchanged for a new certificate representing our common stock. STOCKHOLDERS SHOULD NOT DESTROY ANY STOCK CERTIFICATE(S) AND SHOULD NOT SUBMIT ANY CERTIFICATE(S) UNTIL REQUESTED TO DO SO.

No Dissenters' Rights

Under the Delaware General Corporation Law, our stockholders are not entitled to dissenters' rights with respect to the reverse stock split, and we will not independently provide stockholders with any such right.

Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Reverse Stock Split

The following summary of certain material federal income tax consequences of the reverse stock split does not purport to be a complete discussion of all of the possible federal income tax consequences of the reverse stock split and is included for general information only. Further, it does not address any state, local or foreign income or other tax consequences. Also, it does not address the tax consequences to holders that are subject to special tax rules, such as banks, insurance companies, regulated investment companies, personal holding companies, foreign entities, nonresident alien individuals, broker-dealers and tax-exempt entities. The discussion is based on the provisions of the United States federal income tax law as of the date of this proxy statement, which is subject to change retroactively as well as prospectively. This summary also assumes that the common stock was and will be held as a "capital asset," as defined in the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. The tax treatment of a stockholder may vary depending upon the particular facts and circumstances of such stockholder. Each stockholder is urged to consult with such stockholder's own tax advisor with respect to the tax consequences of the reverse stock split.

Other than the cash payments for fractional shares discussed below, no gain or loss should be recognized by a stockholder upon such stockholder's exchange of stock certificates pursuant to the reverse stock split. The aggregate tax basis of the new shares received in the reverse stock split (including any fraction of a new share deemed to have been received) will be the same as the stockholder's aggregate tax basis in the shares exchanged. In general, stockholders who receive cash in exchange for their fractional share interests in the new combined shares as a result of the reverse stock split will recognize gain or loss based on their adjusted basis in the fractional share interests redeemed. The stockholder's holding period for the new combined shares will include the period during which the stockholder held the common stock surrendered in the reverse stock split.

Our view regarding the tax consequences of the reverse stock split is not binding on the Internal Revenue Service or the courts. ACCORDINGLY, EACH STOCKHOLDER SHOULD CONSULT WITH HIS OR HER OWN TAX ADVISOR WITH RESPECT TO ALL OF THE POTENTIAL TAX CONSEQUENCES TO HIM OR HER OF THE REVERSE STOCK SPLIT.

Vote Required

Approval of our Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock, voting as a single class, a majority of our Series A Preferred Stock, voting as a single class, a majority of the voting power our Series A Preferred Stock and Series B Preferred Stock, voting together as a single class and a majority of the voting power of the common stock, Series A Preferred Stock, voting together as a single class.

Board Recommendation

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" APPROVAL OF OUR AMENDED AND RESTATED CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION, INCLUDING THE AMENDMENTS TO EFFECT THE REVERSE STOCK SPLIT RATIOS THEREIN.

PROPOSAL 3

Ratification of Our Certificate of Designation of Series B Preferred Stock

General

In August 2002, we raised $7.5 million from the sale of our Series B Preferred Stock to Warburg Pincus Private Equity VIII, L.P., Sierra Ventures VII, L.P., Sierra Ventures Associates VII, LLC and another investor. To issue our Series B Preferred Stock to these investors, we had to file a certificate of designation of Series B Preferred Stock, or Certificate of Designation, designating 750,000 shares of our authorized preferred stock as Series B Preferred Stock. In order to raise the capital quickly and to avoid the need to obtain stockholder approval for the issuance of our Series B Preferred Stock to these investors, as would have otherwise been required under the rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market, our investors and us agreed that we would seek stockholder ratification of our Certificate of Designation so that the provision in Section 3(c) of the Certificate of Designation pertaining to adjustments to the conversion price for dilutive issuances of securities by us would become effective. The Certificate of Designation is attached hereto as Appendix D. Section 3(c) of our Certificate of Designation generally provides that if we issue securities for a price per share less than the conversion price of our Series B Preferred Stock, or $0.19, that the conversion price of our Series B Preferred Stock would also decrease, in an amount dependent upon the number of securities we issued and at the price we issued them. A reduction in the conversion price of our Series B Preferred Stock would generally result in our Series B Preferred Stock being convertible into more shares of our common stock but does not otherwise increase the relative voting power of the Series B Preferred Stock. If Proposal 2 is approved by our stockholders and the reverse stock split is effected, the conversion price of our Series B Preferred Stock will increase. For example, if a one-for-twenty reverse stock split were to be effected by our board of directors, the conversion price of our Series B Preferred Stock would be increased to $3.80. Failure by our stockholders to ratify the Certificate of Designation would result in there being no adjustment to the conversion price of our Series B Preferred Stock in the event that we issue securities at a price per share less than the conversion price of our Series B Preferred Stock, as more fully set forth in the Certificate of Designation.

Compensation of Directors

Our board of directors is reimbursed for expenses incurred in attending any meeting of the board of directors or any committee of the board of directors. We pay the chairman of our board of directors $5,000 per month. We have adopted a policy whereby each new non-employee director will receive a grant of a stock option to purchase shares of our common stock on the date on which such person becomes a director with a face value no greater than $100,000. The option vests over four years, with 25% of the shares subject to the option vesting on the first anniversary of the date on which the person becomes a director, and 1/48th of the total number of shares subject to the option vesting each month following the first anniversary. Our directors may also be given the opportunity from time to time to purchase shares of our common stock pursuant to restricted stock purchase agreements. In December 2001, we granted each of our non-employee directors an option to purchase 330,000 shares of common stock.

Compensation Plans

Amended and Restated 2000 Stock Plan

Our Amended and Restated 2000 Stock Plan, or the 2000 Plan, provides for the grant of incentive stock options to employees, including officers and employee directors, and for the grant of nonstatutory stock options and stock purchase rights to employees, directors and consultants. As of October 21, 2002, the total number of shares of common stock reserved for issuance under the 2000 Plan was 25,000,000 shares. Through October 21, 2002, no shares of common stock have been issued under the 2000 Plan, and as of that date there were options to purchase an aggregate of 10,736,322 shares of common stock issued and outstanding. A number of shares is added to the 2000 Plan on an annual basis equal to the least of the aggregate number of shares subject to grants made in the previous year, 10,000,000 shares or such other amount as determined by the board of directors. Unless terminated earlier, the 2000 Plan will terminate automatically on August 9, 2010. The administrator of our 2000 Plan has the power to determine the:

- terms of the options or stock purchase rights granted, including the exercise price of the options or stock purchase rights;
- number of shares subject to each option or stock purchase right;
- vesting schedule of each option or stock purchase right; and

- form of consideration payable upon the exercise of each option or stock purchase right.

Options and stock purchase rights granted under the 2000 Plan are generally not transferable by the optionee, and each option and stock purchase right is exercisable during the lifetime of the optionee only by the optionee. Options granted under the 2000 Plan must generally be exercised within three months after the end of the optionee's status as an employee, director or consultant of us, or within 12 months after such optionee's termination by death or disability, but in any event not later than the expiration of the option's term.

The exercise price of all incentive stock options granted under the 2000 Plan must be at least equal to the fair market value of our common stock on the date of grant. The exercise price of nonstatutory stock options and stock purchase rights granted under the 2000 Plan is determined by the administrator, but with respect to nonstatutory stock options intended to qualify as "performance-based compensation" within the meaning of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, the exercise price must be at least equal to the fair market value of our common stock on the date of grant. With respect to any participant who owns stock possessing more than 10% of the voting power of all classes of our outstanding capital stock, the exercise price of any incentive stock option granted must be at least equal to 110% of the fair market value on the grant date and the term of such incentive stock option must not exceed five years. The term of all other options granted under the 2000 Plan may not exceed ten years.

The 2000 Stock Plan provides that if we merge with or into another corporation, or sell substantially all of our assets, each option and stock purchase right must be assumed or an equivalent option or stock purchase right substituted for by the successor corporation. If the outstanding options and stock purchase rights are not assumed or substituted for by the successor corporation, the options shall become fully vested and the optionees shall have the right to exercise such options or stock purchase rights. If an option or stock purchase right becomes fully vested and exercisable in the event of a merger or sale of assets, the administrator must notify the optionee that the option or stock purchase right is fully exercisable for a period of 15 days from the date of the notice, and the option or stock purchase right will terminate upon the expiration of the 15-day period.

Amended and Restated 2000 Employee Stock Purchase Plan

As of October 21, 2002, a total of 2,429,089 shares of our common stock have been reserved for issuance under our Amended and Restated 2000 Employee Stock Purchase Plan, or Purchase Plan. The number of shares of our common stock reserved for issuance under the Purchase Plan is subject to annual increases equal to the least of the aggregate number of shares issued pursuant to Purchase Plan in the previous year, 1,000,000 shares, or such amount as determined by our board of directors. As of October 21, 2002, 557,258 shares had been issued under our Purchase Plan.

The Purchase Plan, which is intended to qualify under Section 423 of the Internal Revenue Code, is implemented by a series of overlapping offering periods of 24-month durations, with new offering periods, other than the first offering period, commencing on or about February 1 and August 1 of each year. Each offering period consists of four consecutive purchase periods of approximately six months' duration, at the end of which, an automatic purchase is made for participants. Participants generally may not purchase more than 5,000 shares, or such other number of shares established by our board of directors, on any purchase date or purchase stock having a value measured at the beginning of the offering period greater than $25,000 in any calendar year.

Employees are eligible to participate in the Purchase Plan if they are customarily employed by us or any participating subsidiary for at least 20 hours per week and more than five months in any calendar year. However, any employee who immediately after grant of a purchase right under the Purchase Plan would own stock possessing 5% or more of the total combined voting power or value of all classes of our capital stock, or whose rights to purchase stock under all of our purchase plans accrues at a rate that exceeds $25,000 worth of stock for each calendar year may not be granted an option to purchase stock under this plan. The Purchase Plan permits participants to purchase common stock through payroll deductions of up to 15% of the participant's base compensation.

Amounts deducted and accumulated by the participant are used to purchase shares of common stock at the end of each purchase period. The price of stock purchased under the Purchase Plan is generally 85% of the lower of the fair market value of our common stock at the beginning of the offering period or at the end of the purchase period. Participants may end their participation at any time during an offering period, and they will be paid their payroll deductions to date. Participation ends automatically upon termination of employment with us.

In the event the fair market value at the end of a purchase period is less than the fair market value at the beginning of the offering period, the participants will be withdrawn from the current offering period following exercise and automatically re-enrolled in a new offering period. The new offering period will use the lower fair market value as of the first date of the new offering period to determine the purchase price for future purchase periods.

Rights granted under the Purchase Plan are not transferable by a participant other than by will, the laws of descent and distribution, or as otherwise provided under the plan. The Purchase Plan provides that, in the event of our merger with or into another corporation or a sale of substantially all our assets, each outstanding option may be assumed or substituted for by the successor corporation. If the successor corporation refuses to assume or substitute for the outstanding options, the offering period then in progress will be shortened and a new exercise date will be set. The new exercise date will be set prior to the proposed date of the merger or sale of assets.

Our board of directors has the authority to amend or terminate the Purchase Plan, except that no such action may adversely affect any outstanding rights to purchase stock under the Purchase Plan. Our board of directors has the exclusive authority to interpret and apply the provisions of the Purchase Plan. The Purchase Plan will terminate automatically in 2010, unless terminated earlier.

Amended and Restated 2002 Nonstatutory Stock Option Plan

Our Amended and Restated 2002 Nonstatutory Stock Option Plan, or 2002 Plan, provides for the grant of nonstatutory stock options to employees, officers, directors and consultants. We may only make option grants to newly hired officers and directors as inducements to provide services to us. As of October 21, 2002, the total number of shares of common stock reserved for issuance under the 2002 Plan was 3,500,000 shares. Through October 21, 2002, no shares of common stock had been issued under the 2002 Plan, and as of that date there were options to purchase an aggregate of 2,250,000 shares of common stock issued and outstanding. Unless terminated earlier, the 2002 Plan will terminate automatically on April 24, 2012. The administrator of the 2002 Plan has the power to determine:

- terms of the options granted, including the exercise price of the options or stock purchase rights;
- number of shares subject to each option;
- vesting schedule of each option; and
- form of consideration payable upon the exercise of each option.

Options granted under the 2002 Plan are generally not transferable by the optionee, and each option is exercisable during the lifetime of the optionee only by the optionee. Options granted under the 2002 Plan must generally be exercised within 30 days after the termination of the optionee's status as an employee, officer, director or consultant of us, or within six months after such optionee's termination by death or disability, but in any event, not later than the expiration of the option's term.

With respect to any participant who owns stock possessing more than 10% of the voting power of all classes of our outstanding capital stock, the exercise price of any option granted must be at least equal to 110% of the fair market value on the grant date. With respect to any other participant the exercise price of any option granted may not be less than 85% of the fair market value on the date of grant, other than in connection with a merger or other similar corporate transaction.

The 2002 Plan provides that if we merge with or into another corporation, or sell substantially all of our assets, each option must be assumed or an equivalent option substituted for by the successor corporation. If the outstanding options are not assumed or substituted for by the successor corporation, the options shall become fully vested and exercisable by the optionees. If an option becomes fully vested and exercisable in connection with a merger or sale of assets, the administrator must notify the optionee that the option is fully exercisable for a period of at least 15 days from the date of the notice, and the option will terminate upon the expiration of the 15-day period.

1995 Stock Option Plan, as Amended

Our 1995 Stock Option Plan, as amended, was adopted by our board of directors and by our stockholders in 1995, and it was last amended in 2000. The 1995 Stock Option Plan was terminated as to new issuances in August 2000, upon the commencement of the 2000 Stock Plan. As of October 21, 2002, we had reserved a total of 5,833,333 shares of our common stock for issuance upon the exercise of options granted under the plan. The 1995 Stock Option Plan provides for the granting to our employees of incentive stock options within the meaning of Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code, and for the granting to employees, officers, directors and consultants of nonstatutory stock options. No further option grants will be made under the 1995 Stock Option Plan.

Options granted under our 1995 Stock Option Plan are not generally transferable by the optionee, and each option is exercisable during the lifetime of the optionee only by the optionee. Options granted under the 1995 Stock Option Plan must generally be exercised within three months of the termination of optionee's status as an employee, officer, director or consultant, or within 12 months after his or her termination by death or disability, but in no event may the option be exercised after the expiration of the option's term.

Options granted under our 1995 Stock Option Plan will accelerate and become fully vested in the event we are acquired, unless the successor corporation assumes or substitutes other options in their place.

401(k) Plan

In April 1996, we adopted a 401(k) plan to provide eligible employees with a tax preferential savings and investment program. Eligible participants may elect to reduce their current compensation up to the lesser of 15% of eligible compensation and the statutorily prescribed annual limit and have such reduction contributed to the 401(k) plan. At the direction of each participant, the trustee of the 401(k) plan invests the assets of the 401(k) plan in selected investment options. Contributions by participants to the 401(k) plan, and income earned on the plan contributions, are generally not taxable to the participants until withdrawn.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The audit committee oversees our financial reporting process on behalf of the board of directors. Management has the primary responsibility for our financial statements and the overall reporting process, including our system of financial controls. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities during fiscal 2002, the audit committee periodically:

- reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements with our management;
- reviewed the unaudited and audited financial statements with management and our independent public accountants, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP;
- discussed the accounting principles, significant assumptions, estimates and matters of judgment used in preparing the financial statements with management and PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP;
- reviewed our financial controls and financial reporting process; and

- reviewed significant financial reporting issues and practices, including changes in accounting principles and disclosure practice.

The audit committee also reviewed with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, which is responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of the audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles, their judgment as to the quality, and not just the acceptability, of our accounting principles and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the audit committee under generally accepted accounting principles. The audit committee periodically met with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, their evaluations of our internal controls and the overall quality of our financial reporting.

In addition, the audit committee has discussed with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP their independence from management and us, including the matters in the written disclosures required by the Independence Standards Board and discussed with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP any matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communications with Audit Committees). The audit committee also considered the compatibility of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP's (non-audit services, principally tax advisory services,) with the standards for auditor independence. The audit committee discussed with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP the overall scope and plans for their audit.

The directors who serve on the audit committee are all "independent" for purposes of the rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market, and further all of them meet the financial literacy and expertise tests recommended by the Blue Ribbon Committee on Improving the Effectiveness of Corporate Audit Committees. During fiscal 2002, the audit committee met four times, with all members in attendance at each meeting.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above and representations by management that the financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, the audit committee recommended to the board of directors that the audited financial statements be included in our annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002. The audit committee also recommended to the board of directors the selection of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as our independent auditors for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2003.

Board of Directors For Fiscal 2002

AUDIT AND RELATED FEES

Audit Fees

Fees for professional services rendered by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP for the audit of our annual financial statements for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002 and for reviews of the financial statements included in our quarterly reports for that fiscal year were $201,400, of which $86,000 had been billed through June 30, 2002.

Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees

We did not engage PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP to provide advice to us regarding financial information systems design and implementation during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002.

All Other Fees

During our fiscal year ended June 30, 2002, the aggregate fees billed by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP for professional services other than audit fees was $152,150, which consisted of $80,600 for assistance with our Series A Preferred Stock financing, $18,700 associated with our Vivant! ## COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Summary of Compensation Policies for Executive Officers

Our compensation program's goals are to:

- attract, retain and motivate highly-qualified executive officers who can provide operational and strategic excellence that will produce continuing success for us;
- align compensation for our executive officers with our business objectives and performance; and
- align incentives for our executive officers with the interests of our stockholders to enhance financial performance and stockholder value.

We emphasize performance-based compensation that is competitive with the marketplace, and the importance of clearly communicating performance objectives. The compensation committee annually reviews our compensation practices by comparing them to surveys of other companies against which we compete in business or for talent, and other companies of comparable size and complexity. The compensation committee also examines emerging trends and practices in the broader software market. The compensation committee then sets objective compensation parameters based on this review.

Our compensation program for all employees includes both cash and equity-based elements. Because it is most directly linked to our stockholders' interests, equity-based compensation is emphasized in our compensation programs. Consistent with competitive practices, we also use a cash bonus plan based on achievement of financial performance and key operational objectives.

Cash Compensation

Salary. We set a base salary range for each executive officer, including the Chief Executive Officer, by reviewing the base salary for comparable positions of a broad peer group, including competing companies similar in size and companies against which we compete in business or for talent. We set individual salaries for each executive officer relative to this range based on sustained individual performance, contribution to our results and internal comparison of duties and responsibilities.

Cash Bonus. To help recruit, retain and motivate executives with market-competitive incentives, in fiscal 2002, we provided a cash bonus program for executives, based on performance. In fiscal 2003, we will employ similar performance measures for cash bonus incentives.

Equity-Based Compensation

Executive equity grants are determined using the Black-Scholes method of evaluating our stock option grants against a Black-Scholes evaluation of grants by our peer group competitors. Options granted to executive officers are subject to vesting over time. Initial or "new-hire" options are typically granted to executive officers when they first join our company. All options that we grant are issued with an exercise price at the then-current fair market value and thus become valuable only if the executive officer continues to serve our company and the price of our stock subsequently increases.

Compensation of The Chief Executive Officer

Our Chief Executive Officer's salary and performance stock option grants follow the policies set forth above. Our CEO's base annual salary for fiscal 2001 was $255,000, compared to $200,000 in fiscal 2000. For fiscal 2003, our CEO's target annual incentive will be consistent with market cash incentives. Our CEO's compensation package is designed to be strongly aligned with the interests of stockholders by making her cash incentives directly tied to achieving specific targets and by granting stock options that become valuable only if she continues to serve at the Company and the price of our stock subsequently rises.

Tax Deductibility

We are subject to Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, which imposes a limitation on the deductibility of nonperformance-based compensation in excess of $1,000,000 paid to any of our named executive officers. We believe that compensation resulting from the exercise of stock options granted by us is deductible as performance-based compensation. We intend to comply with the provisions of Section 162(m) so as to preserve the related federal income tax deductions, although individual exceptions may occur. We, however, have not sought to qualify our cash bonus plan for executives under Section 162(m) as deductible compensation.

The Compensation Committee of the

The rights, privileges and other terms of the Issued Preferred Stock shall be as follows:

(1) Dividends. (a) In the event that the Corporation shall declare a distribution on the Common Stock payable in securities of other persons, evidences of indebtedness issued by the Corporation or other persons, assets (including cash dividends) or options or rights to purchase any such securities or evidences of indebtedness, then in each such case the holders of Issued Preferred Stock shall be entitled to a proportionate share of any such distribution as though such holders of Issued Preferred Stock were the holders of the number of shares of Common Stock of the Corporation into which their respective shares of Issued Preferred Stock are convertible pursuant to Section 3(a) hereof as of the record date fixed for the determination of the holders of Common Stock of the Corporation entitled to receive such distribution; provided that if such distribution is made with respect to the Series A Preferred stock, then the proportionate shares of such distribution attributable to shares of the Issued Preferred Stock shall be determined on an as-converted to Common Stock basis. (2) Liquidation Preference.

(a) In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, either voluntary or involuntary:

(i) After setting apart or paying in full the preferential amounts due to any holders of Senior Stock, the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock and any Series B Parity Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive, prior and in preference to any distribution of any of the assets or surplus funds of the Corporation to the holders of Series B Junior Stock, by reason of their ownership thereof, an amount equal to their full liquidation preference, which in the case of the Series B Preferred Stock shall be $10.00 per share (as adjusted for any stock splits, reverse stock splits, recapitalizations, dividends in kind or similar events with respect to such stock, which amount shall increase at a rate of 8.00% per annum, compounded quarterly, commencing on the date of issuance of each such share, plus any declared but unpaid dividends on such shares (the "Series B Liquidation Preference"). If, upon occurrence of such event the assets and funds thus distributed among the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock and any Series B Parity Stock shall be insufficient to permit the payment to such holders of the full preferential amount, then after setting apart or paying in full the preferential amounts due to holders of Senior Stock, the entire assets and funds of the Corporation legally available for distribution shall be distributed among the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock and Series B Parity Stock in proportion to the number of shares and the respective liquidation preferences of Series B Preferred Stock and Series B Parity Stock held by each such holder.

(ii) After setting apart or paying in full the preferential amounts due to any holders of Senior Stock, Series B Preferred Stock and Series B Parity Preferred Stock, the holders of Series A Preferred Stock and any Series A Parity Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive, prior and in preference to any distribution of any of the assets or surplus funds of the Corporation to the holders of Series A Junior Stock, by reason of their ownership thereof, an amount equal to their full liquidation preference, which in the case of the Series A Preferred Stock shall be $10.00 per share (as adjusted for any stock splits, reverse stock splits, recapitalizations, dividends in kind or similar events with respect to such stock, which amount shall increase at a rate of 8.00% per annum, compounded quarterly, commencing on the date of issuance of each such share, plus any declared but unpaid dividends on such shares (the "Series A Liquidation Preference"). If, upon occurrence of such event and after payment of the amounts in accordance with paragraph (i) the remaining assets and funds thus distributed among the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock and any Series A Parity Stock shall be insufficient to permit the payment to such holders of the full preferential amount, then after setting apart or paying in full the preferential amounts due to holders of Senior Stock, Series B Preferred Stock and Series B Parity Stock, the entire assets and funds of the Corporation legally available for distribution shall be distributed among the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock and Series A Parity Stock in proportion to the number of shares and the respective liquidation preferences of Series A Preferred Stock and Series A Parity Stock held by each such holder.

Edgar Filing: EVOLVE SOFTWARE INC - Form DEF 14A

(iii) After payment has been made to the holders of Senior Stock, the Series B Preferred Stock, any Series B Parity Stock, the Series A Preferred Stock and any Series A Parity Stock of their respective Liquidation Preferences, the holders of the Series A Junior Stock shall be entitled to receive the remaining assets of the Corporation as set forth in the Certificate of Incorporation or any certificate of designation defining the liquidation preference of any such Series A Junior Stock, or otherwise in proportion to the number of shares of Series A Junior Stock held by each such holder.

For purposes of this Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, the term "Liquidation Preference" shall mean the liquidation preference that is applicable to the Series A Preferred Stock with respect to shares of Series A Preferred Stock and shall mean the liquidation preference that is applicable to the Series B Preferred Stock with respect to shares of Series B Preferred Stock.

(b) For purposes of this paragraph 2, a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation shall be deemed to be occasioned by, and to include, (i) the Corporation's sale of all or substantially all of its business, assets or property (including intellectual property), or (ii) any transaction or series of related transactions resulting in a reorganization, merger, or consolidation (whether or not the Corporation is the entity surviving such transaction) in which holders of all voting equity securities of the Corporation immediately prior to such transaction will hold (by reason of their holdings in the Corporation) less than 50% of the voting equity securities of the Corporation or other entity surviving such transaction, (in each case, a "Change of Control Transaction"); provided however that in the event of a Change of Control Transaction which occurs prior to the fifth anniversary of the issuance of any share of Issued Preferred Stock, the Liquidation Preference associated with such share of Issued Preferred Stock shall be computed as if such Change of Control Transaction occurred on the fifth anniversary of the issuance of such share of Issued Preferred Stock; and, provided further, that in the event of a Change of Control Transaction, if the amount that would have been received by holders of Issued Preferred Stock had the full amount of the applicable Liquidation Preference per share with respect to Issued Preferred Stock (calculated in accordance with this paragraph) been converted into Common Stock prior to the Change of Control Transaction (the "As-Converted Amount") exceeds the applicable amount which would have been received in respect of each share of Issued Preferred Stock absent such conversion, then each holder of Issued Preferred Stock will be entitled to receive the applicable As-Converted Amount of each share of Issued Preferred Stock.

(c) In any of such events, if the consideration received by the Corporation is other than cash, its value will be deemed its fair market value as determined by the Board of Directors in the good faith exercise of its reasonable business judgment. Any securities shall be valued as follows:

(i) Securities not subject to restrictions on free marketability:

(2) If actively traded over-the-counter, the value shall be deemed to be the average of the closing bid or sale prices (whichever is applicable) over the 30-day period ending three (3) days prior to the closing; and

(3) If there is no active public market, the value shall be the fair market value thereof, as determined (x) by agreement between the Corporation and the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Series A Preferred Stock and the Series B Preferred Stock or (y) in the absence of such agreement, by the Board of Directors in the good faith exercise of its reasonable business judgment (after consultation with a mutually acceptable financial advisor in the event such fair market value is expected in good faith to exceed $1,000,000 by a majority of the Board of Directors or a majority of the Preferred Directors (as defined hereafter).

(ii) The method of valuation of securities subject to restrictions on free marketability (other than restrictions arising solely by virtue of a stockholder's status as an affiliate or former affiliate) shall be to make an appropriate discount from the market value determined as above in (i)(1), (2) or (3) to reflect the approximate fair market value thereof, as determined (x) by agreement between the Corporation and the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of each of the Series A Preferred Stock and the Series B Preferred Stock, or (y) in the absence of such agreement, by the Board of Directors in the good faith exercise of its reasonable business judgment (after consultation with a mutually acceptable financial advisor in the event such fair market value is expected in good faith to exceed $1,000,000 by a majority of the Board of Directors or a majority of the Preferred Directors.

(3) Conversion. The holders of Issued Preferred Stock shall have conversion rights as follows (the "Conversion Rights"):

(a) Right to Convert and Automatic Conversion.

(i) Each share of Issued Preferred Stock shall be convertible, at the option of the holder thereof, into such number of fully paid and nonassessable shares of Common Stock as is determined by dividing the applicable Liquidation Preference of such share (computed as of the date of conversion), by the applicable conversion price determined as hereinafter provided, in effect at the time of conversion. The Series A Conversion Price, after taking into account all adjustments made prior to the date hereof, shall initially be equal to $0.37. The Series B Conversion Price shall initially be equal to $0.19. The Conversion Price shall be subject to adjustment as hereinafter provided. For purposes of this Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, the term "Conversion Price" shall mean, with respect to shares of Series A Preferred Stock, the Series A Conversion Price, and, with respect to shares of Series B Preferred Stock, the Series B Conversion Price.

(ii) Each share of Issued Preferred Stock shall automatically be converted into shares of Common Stock at the then effective applicable Conversion Price at the earlier of (i) the delivery of notice of automatic conversion by the Company to all holders of the applicable series of Issued Preferred Stock, provided that such notice may not be given (A) prior to the fifth anniversary of the first date of issuance of such series of Issued Preferred Stock, and (B) unless the closing sales price of the Corporation's Common Stock during regular trading hours was $5.00 or more (as adjusted for stock-splits, stock dividends and similar events) for thirty (30) consecutive trading days ending not more than ten (10) days prior to the date of such notice, or (ii) at the election of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the applicable series of Issued Preferred Stock.

(b) Mechanics of Conversion. No fractional shares of Common Stock shall be issued upon conversion of Issued Preferred Stock. In lieu of any fractional share to which a holder would otherwise be entitled, the Corporation shall pay cash equal to such fraction multiplied by the fair market value of a share of the Common Stock as determined by the Board of Directors in accordance with Section 2 (c) hereof. Before any holder of Issued Preferred Stock shall be entitled to convert the same into full shares of Common Stock, he shall surrender the certificate or certificates therefor, duly endorsed, at the office of the Corporation or of any transfer agent for such Issued Preferred Stock and shall give written notice to the Corporation at such office that he elects to convert the same. The Corporation shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, issue and deliver at such office to such holder of Issued Preferred Stock, a certificate or certificates for the number of shares of Common Stock to which such holder shall be entitled as aforesaid and a check payable to the holder in the amount of any cash amounts payable as the result of a conversion into a fractional share of Common Stock. Except as set forth in the following sentence, such conversion shall be deemed to have been made immediately prior to the close of business on the date of such surrender of the shares of Issued Preferred Stock to be converted, and the person or persons entitled to receive the shares of Common Stock issuable upon such conversion shall be treated for all purposes as the record holder or holders of such shares of Common Stock on such date. In the event of an automatic conversion pursuant to Section 3(a)(ii), the outstanding shares of Issued Preferred Stock shall be converted automatically without any further action by the holder of such shares and whether or not the certificates representing such shares are surrendered to the Corporation or the transfer agent for such Issued Preferred Stock; and the Corporation shall not be obligated to issue certificates evidencing the shares of Common Stock issuable upon such automatic conversion unless the certificates evidencing such Issued Preferred Stock are either delivered to the Corporation or the transfer agent for such Issued Preferred Stock as provided above, or the holder notifies the Corporation or the transfer agent for such Issued Preferred stock that such certificates have been lost, stolen or destroyed and executes an agreement satisfactory to the corporation to indemnify the corporation from any loss incurred by it in connection with such certificates. The Corporation shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, issue and deliver to such address as the holder may direct, a certificate or certificates for the number of shares of Common Stock to which such holder shall be entitled.

(c) Adjustments to Conversion Price for Diluting Issues.

(B) to officers, directors or employees of, or consultants to, the Corporation pursuant to a stock grant, option plan or purchase plan or other stock incentive program, including without limitation sales of shares to such persons pursuant to restricted stock purchase agreements (collectively, the "Plans") approved by the Board of Directors;

(C) as a dividend or distribution on the Issued Preferred Stock or in connection with any stock split, stock dividend or similar transaction;

(D) in connection with (1) equipment lease financing transactions with institutions regularly engaged in equipment leasing or (2) bank lending, if such transactions are approved by the Board of Directors, and such issuance is not principally for the purpose of raising additional equity capital for the Corporation; provided however that the number of shares of Common Stock so excluded in any fiscal year of the Company shall not exceed 0.5% of the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding (determined as of the date of issuance of such shares of Common Stock), after giving effect to the conversion of all outstanding shares of Preferred Stock and other "in-the-money" (as such term is defined in paragraph 3(c)(iv) below) securities convertible into Common Stock unless such grants are approved by a majority of the directors of the Corporation elected by holders of Preferred Stock (the "Preferred Directors") present and voting;

(E) securities issued to customers or joint venture partners or in connection with other strategic alliances approved by the Board of Directors including a majority of the Preferred Directors present and voting, which involve the grant of licenses or localization, distribution, OEM, bundling, manufacturing or resale rights with respect to the Corporation's products or technology; and

(F) securities issued pursuant to the acquisition of another corporation by the Corporation by merger, purchase of substantially all of the assets of the other corporation, or other reorganization approved by the Board of Directors including a majority of the Preferred Directors present and voting, and

(G) by way of dividend or other distribution on shares of Common Stock excluded from the definition of Additional Shares of Common Stock by the foregoing clauses (A), (B), (C), (D), (E) or (F) or on shares of Common Stock so excluded, provided that such issuance is made (x) pursuant to obligations of the Corporation established in connection with the original issuance of such securities or (y) to all holders of the Corporation's capital stock in proportion to the number of shares held.

(ii) No Adjustment of Conversion Price: No adjustment in the Conversion Price of a series of Issued Preferred Stock shall be made in respect of the issuance or deemed issuance (pursuant to Section 3(c)(iii) below) of Additional Shares of Common Stock unless the consideration per share (determined in accordance with paragraph 3(c)(v)) for an Additional Share of Common Stock issued or deemed to be issued by the Corporation is or would be less than the Conversion Price for such series of Issued Preferred Stock in effect on the date of, and immediately prior to such issue or deemed issue. No adjustment in the Series A Conversion Price or the Series B Conversion Price shall be made pursuant to paragraph (iv) below as a result of any stock dividend or subdivision which causes an adjustment in the applicable Conversion Price pursuant to Section 3(d) below.

(iii) Deemed Issue of Additional Shares of Common Stock. In the event the Corporation at any time or from time to time after the Original Issue Date shall issue any Options or Convertible Securities which are excisable for or convertible into Additional Shares of Common Stock or shall fix a record date for the determination of holders of any class of securities entitled to receive any such Options or Convertible Securities, then the maximum number of shares (as set forth in the instrument relating thereto without regard to any provisions contained therein for a subsequent adjustment of such number) of Common Stock issuable upon the exercise of such Options or, in the case of Convertible Securities and Options therefor, the conversion or exchange of such Convertible Securities, shall be deemed to be Additional Shares of Common Stock issued as of the time of such issue or, in case such a record date shall have been fixed, as of the close of business on such record date, provided that in any case in which Additional Shares of Common Stock are deemed to be issued:

Edgar Filing: EVOLVE SOFTWARE INC - Form DEF 14A

(A) no further adjustment in the Series A Conversion Price or the Series B Conversion Price shall be made upon the subsequent issue of Convertible Securities or shares of Common Stock upon the exercise of such Options or conversion or exchange of such Convertible Securities;

(B) if such Options or Convertible Securities by their terms provide, with the passage of time or otherwise, for any increase or decrease in the consideration payable to the Corporation, or increase or decrease in the number of shares of Common Stock issuable, upon the exercise, conversion or exchange thereof, the Series A Conversion Price or the Series B Conversion Price computed upon the original issue thereof (or upon the occurrence of a record date with respect thereto), and any subsequent adjustments based thereon, shall, upon any such increase or decrease becoming effective, be recomputed to reflect such increase or decrease insofar as it affects such Options or the rights of conversion or exchange under such Convertible Securities; and

(C) no readjustment pursuant to clause (B) above shall have the effect of increasing the Series A Conversion Price or the Series B Conversion Price to an amount which exceeds the lower of (i) such Conversion Price on the original adjustment date, or (ii) the Conversion Price that would have resulted from any issuance of Additional Shares of Common Stock between the original adjustment date and such readjustment date.

(iv) Adjustment of Conversion Price Upon Issuance of Additional Shares of Common Stock. Except as set forth in (e) below, in the event the Corporation shall issue Additional Shares of Common Stock (including Additional Shares of Common Stock deemed to be issued pursuant to paragraph 3(c)(iii)) without consideration or for a consideration per share less than the applicable Conversion Price of Issued Preferred Stock in effect on the date of and immediately prior to such issue, then and in such event, such Conversion Price shall be reduced, concurrently with such issue, to a price (calculated to the nearest cent) which shall be determined by multiplying such Conversion Price by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the sum of (i) the number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to such issue, (ii) the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Preferred Stock outstanding immediately prior to such issue, (iii) the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of outstanding in-the-money Options and conversion of outstanding in-the-money Convertible Securities and (iv) the number of shares of Common Stock which the aggregate consideration received by the Corporation for the total number of Additional Shares of Common Stock so issued would purchase at such Conversion Price; and the denominator of which shall be the sum of (1) the number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to such issue, (2) the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Preferred Stock outstanding immediately prior to such issue, (3) the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of outstanding in-the-money Options and conversion of outstanding in-the-money Convertible Securities and (4) the number of such Additional Shares of Common Stock so issued. "In-the-money" Options and Convertible Securities shall be deemed to include all securities exercisable for or convertible into shares of Common Stock with a fair market value equal to or greater than the fair market value of the consideration which must be paid or which must be foregone to effect such exercise or conversion.

(v) Determination of Consideration. For purposes of this paragraph 3(c), the consideration received by the Corporation for the issue of any Additional Shares of Common Stock shall be computed as follows:

(1) Cash and Property. Such consideration shall:

(A) insofar as it consists of cash, be computed at the aggregate amount of cash received by the Corporation excluding amounts paid or payable for accrued interest or accrued dividends;

(B) insofar as it consists of property other than cash, be computed at the fair value thereof at the time of such issue, as determined by the Board of Directors in the good faith exercise of its reasonable business judgment; and

(C) in the event Additional Shares of Common Stock are issued together with other shares or securities or other assets of the Corporation for consideration which covers both, be the proportion of such consideration so received, computed as provided in clauses (A) and (B) above, as determined by the Board of Directors in the good faith exercise of its reasonable business judgment.

(2) Options and Convertible Securities. The consideration per share received by the Corporation for Additional Shares of Common Stock deemed to have been issued pursuant to paragraph 3(c)(iii), relating to Options and Convertible Securities, shall be determined by dividing

(x) the total amount, if any, received or receivable by the Corporation as consideration for the issue of such Options or Convertible Securities, plus the minimum aggregate amount of additional consideration (as set forth in the instruments relating thereto, without regard to any provision contained therein for a subsequent adjustment of such consideration) payable to the Corporation upon the exercise of such Options or the conversion or exchange of such Convertible Securities, or in the case of Options for Convertible Securities, the exercise of such Options for Convertible Securities and the conversion or exchange of such Convertible Securities by

(y) the maximum number of shares of Common Stock (as set forth in the instrument relating thereto, without regard to any provision contained therein for a subsequent adjustment of such number) issuable upon the exercise of such Options or the conversion or exchange of such Convertible Securities.

(vi) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 3(c) to the contrary, no adjustment to the Series B Conversion Price provided for in this Section 3(c) shall be given effect upon the conversion of any shares of Series B Preferred Stock unless, prior to the date of such conversion, the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Common Stock and Series A Preferred Stock, voting together on an as-converted to Common Stock basis in accordance with the provisions of this Certificate of Incorporation, approve or ratify the provisions of this Section 3(c).

(d) Adjustments for Stock Dividends, Subdivisions, Combinations, or Consolidations. In the event the Corporation shall pay a stock dividend on the Common Stock, or the outstanding shares of Common Stock shall be subdivided, combined or consolidated, by reclassification or otherwise, into a greater or lesser number of shares of Common Stock, the applicable Conversion Price of the Issued Preferred Stock in effect immediately prior to such subdivision or combination shall, concurrently with the effectiveness of such subdivision, combination or consolidation, be proportionately adjusted.

(i) Adjustment of Conversion Price Upon Payment of Certain Amounts. In the event this Corporation shall pay, directly or indirectly, consideration of more than $1,000,000 in the aggregate (such amount, including the initial $1,000,000, an "Excess Payment") (A) pursuant to a settlement agreement or a final and binding award of damages by a court or arbitrator with respect to an Eligible Claim (as defined below) involving payment of consideration by the Corporation (net of any consideration received by the Corporation in connection with such Eligible Claim from third parties including insurance carriers, co-defendants and adverse parties) in excess of $100,000 but not more than $1,000,000, (B) pursuant to a settlement agreement or a final and binding award of damages by a court or arbitrator with respect to an Eligible Claim involving payment by the Corporation of consideration (net of any consideration received by the Corporation in connection with such Eligible Claim from third parties including insurance carriers, co-defendants and adverse parties) in an amount in excess of $1,000,000 (a "Major Damage Award"), (C) all out-of-pocket fees and expenses (including out-of-pocket expenses of investigation and attorneys fees and expenses) paid by the Company in connection with the defense of an Eligible Claim which results in a Major Damage Award and (D) in payment by the Corporation of any federal or state taxes arising out of the forgiveness of indebtedness of employees or former employees of the Company that was incurred in connection with the acquisition of any of the Company's securities, then and in such event the Series A Conversion Price shall be reduced as set forth in paragraph (iii) hereof. For purposes hereof, "Eligible Claim" shall mean any action, suit, or proceeding threatened in writing or commenced prior to or within 12 months following the initial filing of the Certificate of Designation of Series A Preferred Stock based on a claim relating to or arising out of either (a) the conduct of the Company's business, which claim is based on alleged facts and circumstances that would constitute a breach of the representations and warranties of the Corporation set forth in Section 3 of that certain Series A Preferred Stock Purchase Agreement dated as of September 23, 2001 among the Corporation and certain purchasers of shares of Series A Preferred Stock (the "Series A Agreement") disregarding the qualifications or modifications to such representations and warranties contained in Sections 3.7 and 3.13 of the Schedule of Exceptions to the Series A Agreement, or (b) a misstatement or alleged misstatement of a material fact, or omission or alleged omission to state a material fact, in connection with the purchase or sale, or failure to purchase or sell, any of the Corporation's securities; provided that the material facts or circumstances of the claims described in paragraphs (a) and (b) occurred prior to the initial date of the filing of the Certificate of Designation of Series A Preferred Stock.

(ii) Adjustment Formula. In each event that adjustment to the Series A Conversion Price is required under Paragraph (i) above, the Series A Conversion Price then in effect shall be reduced, concurrently with such event, to a price (calculated to the nearest cent) which shall be determined by multiplying such Conversion Price by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be one, and the denominator of which shall be the sum of one plus a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the New Share Number and the denominator of which shall be the sum of (1) the number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to such issue and (2) the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of outstanding Options and conversion of outstanding Convertible Securities, but excluding all shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of Series A Preferred Stock outstanding or issuable upon conversion of outstanding warrants therefor and shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of Warrants therefor that were issued in connection with the issuance of shares of Series A Preferred Stock. For purposes hereof, the New Share Number shall equal (A) in the case of any adjustment required under paragraph (i) the number of shares of Common Stock so issued, and (B) in the case of any adjustment required by paragraph (ii) the sum of (x) the number of shares of Common Stock actually issued, to the extent the Excess Payment is made in Common Stock, and (y) the value of the Excess Payment, to the extent it is not paid in Common Stock, divided by the value of the Corporation's Common Stock on the date of payment (determined in accordance with Paragraph 2(c)(i)).

(f) No Impairment. Unless approved in accordance with Section 5 hereof, the Corporation will not, by amendment of its Certificate of Incorporation or through any reorganization, transfer of assets, merger, dissolution, issue or sale of securities or any other voluntary action, avoid or seek to avoid the observance or performance of any of the terms to be observed or performed hereunder by the Corporation but will at all times in good faith assist in the carrying out of all the provisions of this Section 3 and in the taking of all such action as may be necessary or appropriate in order to protect the Conversion Rights of the holders of Issued Preferred Stock against impairment.

(g) Notices of Record Date. In the event that the Corporation shall propose at any time:

(i) to declare any dividend or distribution upon its Common Stock, whether in cash, property, stock or other securities, whether or not a regular cash dividend and whether or not out of earnings or earned surplus;

(ii) to offer for subscription pro rata to the holders of any class or series of its stock any additional shares of stock of any class or series or other rights;

(iii) to effect any reclassification or recapitalization of its Common Stock outstanding involving a change in the Common Stock; or

(iv) to merge with any other corporation (other than a merger in which the Company is the surviving entity and the holders of the outstanding voting equity securities of the Corporation immediately prior to such merger hold more than fifty percent (50%) of the voting power of the surviving entity immediately following such merger), or sell, lease or convey all or substantially all its property or business, or to liquidate, dissolve or wind up;

then, in connection with each such event, the Corporation shall send to the holders of the Issued Preferred Stock:

(1) at least twenty (20) days' prior written notice of the date on which a record shall be taken for such dividend, distribution or subscription rights (and specifying the date on which the holders of Common Stock shall be entitled thereto) or for determining rights to vote in respect of the matters referred to in (iii) and (iv) above; and

(2) in the case of the matters referred to in (iii) and (iv) above, at least twenty (20) days' prior written notice of the date when the same shall take place (and specifying the date on which the holders of Common Stock shall be entitled to exchange their Common Stock for securities or other property deliverable upon the occurrence of such event).

Each such written notice shall be given by first class mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the holders of the Issued Preferred Stock at the address for each such holder as shown on the books of the Corporation and shall be deemed given when so mailed.

(h) Recapitalization. If at any time or from time to time there shall be a merger, consolidation, recapitalization (including the reverse stock split effected hereby) or similar transaction of the Corporation (other than a transaction treated as a liquidation for purposes of Section 2 or a subdivision or combination as set forth in Section 3(d)) provision shall be made so that the holders of the Issued Preferred Stock shall thereafter be entitled to receive upon conversion of the Issued Preferred Stock the number of shares of stock or other securities or property of the Corporation or any successor thereto to which a holder of Common Stock deliverable upon conversion of each share of such series would have been entitled on such transaction. In any such case, appropriate adjustment shall be made in the application of the provisions of this Section 3 with respect to the rights of the holders of the Issued Preferred Stock after the such transaction to the end that the provisions of this Section 3 (including adjustment of the Series A Conversion Price and the Series B Conversion Price then in effect and the number of shares purchasable upon conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock and the Series B Preferred Stock) shall be applicable after such transaction as nearly equivalent as may be practicable.

(i) Adjustments for Other Distributions. In the event the Corporation at any time, or from time to time, makes or fixes a record date for the determination of holders of Common Stock entitled to receive any distribution payable in securities of the Corporation other than shares of Common Stock and other than as otherwise adjusted in this Section 3, then and in each such event provision shall be made so that the holders of the Issued Preferred Stock shall receive upon the date of such distribution, the amount of securities of the Corporation which they would have received had their Issued Preferred Stock been converted into Common Stock on such date.

(j) Certificates as to Adjustments. Upon the occurrence of each adjustment or readjustment of the Series A Conversion Price or the Series B Conversion Price pursuant to this Section 3, the Corporation at its expense shall promptly compute such adjustment or readjustment in accordance with the terms hereof and prepare and furnish to each holder of such Issued Preferred Stock a certificate setting forth such adjustment or readjustment and showing in detail the facts upon which such adjustment or readjustment is based. The Corporation shall, upon the written request at any time of any holder of Issued Preferred Stock, furnish or cause to be furnished to such holder a like certificate setting forth (1) such applicable adjustments and readjustments, (2) the applicable Conversion Price for such series at the time in effect, and (3) the number of shares of Common Stock and the amount, if any, of other property which at the time would be received upon the conversion of such holder's Preferred Stock. Any certificate sent to the holders of the Issued Preferred Stock pursuant to this Section 3(j) shall be signed by an officer of the Corporation.

(k) Reservation of Shares Issuable Upon Conversion. The Corporation shall at all times reserve and keep available out of its authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock, solely for the purpose of effecting the conversion of the shares of the Issued Preferred Stock, such number of its shares of Common Stock as shall from time to time be sufficient to effect the conversion of all outstanding shares of the Issued Preferred Stock; and if at any time the number of authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock shall not be sufficient to effect the conversion of all then outstanding shares of the Issued Preferred Stock, the Corporation will take such corporate action as may, in the opinion of its counsel, be necessary to increase its authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock to such number of shares as shall be sufficient for such purpose.

(k) Issue and Transfer Taxes. The Corporation will pay any and all documentary stamp or similar issue or transfer taxes payable in respect of the issue or delivery of shares of Common Stock on conversion of the Issued Preferred Stock pursuant hereto; provided that the Corporation shall not be required to pay any tax which may be payable in respect of any transfer involved in the issue or delivery of shares of Common Stock in a name other than that of the holder of the Issued Preferred Stock to be converted and no such issue or delivery will be made unless and until the person requesting such issue or delivery has paid to the Corporation the amount of any such tax or has established, to the satisfaction of the Corporation, that such tax has been paid.

(4) Voting Rights and Directors.

(a) Except as otherwise required by law, or as otherwise set forth herein, the holders of Issued Preferred Stock, and the holders of Common Stock shall be entitled to notice of any stockholders' meeting and to vote upon any matter submitted to the stockholders for a vote, as follows: (i) each holder of Issued Preferred Stock shall have one vote for each full share of Common Stock into which the Issued Preferred Stock would have been convertible (assuming that such shares were issued on and as of such dates) as of the Original Issue Date (with respect to the Series B Preferred Stock) or October 9, 2001 (with respect to the Series A Preferred Stock), subject to adjustment for stock dividends, subdivisions, combinations or consolidations pursuant to Section 3(d) hereof, and (ii) the holders of Common Stock shall have one (1) vote per share of Common Stock.

(b) As long as the number of outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock is not less than 75% of the aggregate number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock issued by the Corporation, the holders of such shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall vote as a separate class to elect three (3) directors of the Corporation. The foregoing number of directors to be elected by holders of the Series A Preferred Stock voting as a separate class (the "Series A Directors") shall be reduced as follows: (i) to two (2) directors if the number of outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock is less than 75%, but not less than 50%, of the aggregate number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock issued by the Corporation, (ii) to one (1) director if the number of outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock is less than 50%, but not less than 25%, of the aggregate number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock issued by the Corporation, and (iii) to zero (0) if the number of outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock is less than 25% of the aggregate number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock issued by the Corporation. Immediately upon any event causing such a reduction in the number of Series A Directors, the term of the Series A Director with the shortest remaining term of office shall thereupon automatically cease and such resulting vacancy shall be filled by a new director appointed by a majority of the directors who are not Series A Directors. One of the three initial Series A Directors shall be appointed to each of the three classes of directors of the Corporation (Class I, Class II and Class III). In the case of a vacancy (other than a vacancy caused by a reduction in the number of Series A Directors as set forth above) in the office of a director occurring among directors elected by the holders of Series A Preferred Stock pursuant to this Section 4(b), the remaining directors so elected by Series A Preferred Stock (or if there is no such director remaining, the holders of a majority of the Series A Preferred Stock), may elect a successor or successors to hold office for the unexpired term of the director or directors whose places shall be vacant. Any director who shall have been elected by the holders of Series A Preferred Stock or by any directors so elected as provided in the immediately preceding sentence may be removed during the aforesaid term of office, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of holders of the Series A Preferred Stock, given either at a special meeting of such stockholders duly called for that purpose or pursuant to a written consent of stockholders, and any vacancy thereby created may be filled by an affirmative vote of holders of Series A Preferred Stock represented at the meeting or pursuant to the written consent.

(c) As long as any shares of Series B Preferred Stock remain outstanding, the holders of Series B Preferred Stock shall vote as a separate class to elect such number of directors of the Corporation (the "Series B Directors"), which, when added to the number of the Series A Directors, will be in as close a proportion as is possible to the total number of directors of the Corporation as the proportion of the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon the conversion of all shares of Series A Preferred Stock and Series B Preferred Stock is to the total number of shares of Common Stock then outstanding (after giving effect to the conversion of all shares of Preferred Stock then outstanding), rounded down to the nearest whole number; provided, however, that the foregoing right shall be superseded in the event, to the extent, and for so long as the appointment of any such Series B Director would cause the Corporation to fail to comply with applicable laws or regulations or the rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market. Any such Series B Director may be removed during the term of office of such Series B Director, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of the holders of Series B Preferred Stock, given either at a special meeting duly called for that purpose or pursuant to a written consent, and any vacancy thereby created may be filled by an affirmative vote represented at the meeting or pursuant to the written consent. All directors other than the Preferred Directors shall be elected by the holders of Common Stock, the holders of Series A Preferred Stock and the holders of Series B Preferred Stock, voting together as a single class, on an as-converted to Common Stock basis.

(d) Any action which the holders of Issued Preferred Stock are authorized to take at a duly called annual or special meeting of stockholders may in lieu thereof be taken by means of a written consent of such holders.

(5) Protective Provisions.

(a) In addition to any other rights provided by law, the Corporation and its subsidiaries shall not, without first obtaining the affirmative vote or written consent of (A) the holders of not less than a majority of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock, voting together as a single class, on an as-converted to Common Stock basis, provided that at least 50% of the shares of Series A Preferred Stock issued by the Corporation remain outstanding, and (B) the holders of not less than a majority of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock and Series B Preferred stock, voting together as a single class, on an as-converted to Common Stock basis, provided that at least 50% of the shares of Series B Preferred Stock issued by the Corporation remain outstanding:

(i) amend or repeal any provision of, or add any provision to, this Certificate of Incorporation;

(ii) issue any bonds, debentures or notes or incur similar debt obligations, other than trade debt in the ordinary course of business;

(iii) consummate a Change of Control Transaction, unless the aggregate value received for, or realizable in respect of, all outstanding shares of Issued Preferred Stock, determined in accordance with Section 2(c) hereof, as a result of such sale or other transaction or series of transactions exceeds an amount equal to $10.00 per share (as adjusted for stock splits and dividends in kind) multiplied by the number of outstanding shares of Issued Preferred Stock (the "Aggregate Cash Purchase Price"), plus an amount sufficient to result in an overall internal rate of return (IRR) on the Aggregate Cash Purchase Price of 50%, taking into account for purposes of calculating such overall IRR any differences in the dates of issuance of such outstanding shares;

(iv) repurchase any outstanding shares of stock of the Corporation, except for (i) repurchase of shares held by employees of the Corporation pursuant to repurchase agreements approved by the Board of Directors and (ii) redemption of shares of Preferred Stock;

(v) amend the Bylaws of the Corporation to increase the authorized number of directors of the Corporation to more than eight (8);

(b) In addition to any other rights provided by law, the Corporation and its subsidiaries shall not without first obtaining the affirmative vote or written consent of the holders of not less than a majority of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock, voting together as a single class, on an as-converted to Common Stock basis, provided that at least 50% of the shares of Series A

- (ii) authorize or issue any shares of any class or series of Senior Stock or Series A Parity Preferred Stock or any bonds, debentures, notes or other obligations convertible into or exchangeable for, or having option rights to purchase, any shares of Senior Stock or Series A Parity Preferred Stock.
- (c) In addition to any other rights provided by law, the Corporation and its subsidiaries shall not without first obtaining the affirmative vote or written consent of the holders of not less than a majority of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock and Series B Preferred stock, voting together as a single class, on an as-converted to Common Stock basis, provided that at least 50% of the shares of Series B Preferred Stock issued by the Corporation remain outstanding:

- (i) pay any dividend on any shares of Series B Junior Stock, or repurchase or redeem any such shares of Series B Junior Stock except for repurchases of unvested shares of Series B Junior Stock at cost from employees, directors, consultants and other service providers;

At each annual meeting of stockholders, directors of the Corporation shall be elected to hold office until the expiration of the term for which they are elected, and until their successors have been duly elected and qualified; except that if any such election shall be not so held, such election shall take place at stockholders' meeting called and held in accordance with the Delaware General Corporation Law. The directors of the Corporation shall be divided into three classes as nearly equal in size as is practicable, hereby designed Class I, Class II and Class III. APPENDIX D

CERTIFICATE OF DESIGNATION OF SERIES B PREFERRED STOCK

Pursuant to Section 151 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware

I, the undersigned duly authorized officer of Evolve Software, Inc., a corporation organized and existing under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the "Corporation"), in accordance with the provisions of Section 103 thereof, and pursuant to Section 151 thereof, do hereby certify:

That pursuant to the authority conferred upon the Board of Directors by the Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation (the "Certificate of Incorporation"), the Board of Directors of the Corporation on August 20, 2002, adopted the following resolution creating a series of 625,000 shares of Series B Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 per share:

RESOLVED, that pursuant to the authority vested in the Board of Directors of the Corporation in accordance with the provisions of its Certificate of Incorporation, a series of Preferred Stock of the Corporation ("Preferred Stock") be and it hereby is created, that the shares of such series shall be designated as Series B Preferred Stock (the "Series B Preferred Stock"), that the number of shares constituting such series shall be 625,000 and that the designation and amount thereof and the preferences and relative, optional and other special rights of the shares of such series, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof are as set forth herein.

For purposes hereof, (i) any series of Preferred Stock of the Corporation entitled to dividends, liquidation and redemption preference on a parity with the Series B Preferred Stock shall be referred to as "Parity Preferred Stock," (ii) any series of Preferred Stock ranking senior to the Series B Preferred Stock and Parity Preferred Stock with respect to dividends, liquidation preference or redemption shall be referred to as "Senior Stock," and (iii) the Common Stock of the Corporation ("Common Stock") and any series of Preferred Stock ranking junior to the Series B Preferred Stock and Parity Preferred Stock with respect to dividends, liquidation preference and redemption shall be referred to as "Junior Stock." The Series A Preferred Stock of the Corporation (the "Series A Preferred Stock") shall be Junior Stock with respect to liquidation for purposes hereof. As of the date of this Certificate of Designation there is not outstanding any Senior Stock.

The rights, privileges and other terms of the Series B Preferred Stock shall be as follows:

1. Dividends. In the event that the Corporation shall declare a distribution on the Common Stock or the Series A Preferred Stock payable in securities of other persons, evidences of indebtedness issued by the Corporation or other persons, assets (including cash dividends) or options or rights to purchase any such securities or evidences of indebtedness, then in each such case the holders of Series B Preferred Stock shall be entitled to a proportionate share of any such distribution as though such holders of Series B Preferred Stock were the holders of the number of shares of Common Stock into which their respective shares of Series B Preferred Stock are convertible pursuant to Section 3(a) hereof as of the record date fixed for the determination of the holders of Common Stock or Series A Preferred Stock entitled to receive such distribution; provided that if such distribution is made with respect to the Series A Preferred Stock, then the proportionate shares of such distribution attributable to shares of Series A Preferred Stock and Series B

Preferred Stock shall be determined on an as-converted to Common Stock basis.

2. Liquidation Preference.

(a) In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, either voluntary or involuntary:

(i) After setting apart or paying in full the preferential amounts due to any holders of Senior Stock, the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock and any Parity Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive, prior and in preference to any distribution of any of the assets or surplus funds of the Corporation to the holders of the Junior Stock, by reason of their ownership thereof, an amount equal to their full liquidation preference, which in the case of the Series B Preferred Stock shall be $10.00 per share (as adjusted for any stock-splits or dividends in kind), which amount shall increase at a rate of 8.00% per annum, compounded quarterly, commencing on the date of issuance of each such share, plus any declared but unpaid dividends on such shares (the "Series B Liquidation Preference"). If, upon occurrence of such event the assets and funds thus distributed among the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock and any Parity Stock shall be insufficient to permit the payment to such holders of the full preferential amount, then after setting apart or paying in full the preferential amounts due to holders of Senior Stock the entire assets and funds of the Corporation legally available for distribution shall be distributed among the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock and Parity Stock in proportion to the number of shares and the respective liquidation preferences of Series B Preferred Stock and Parity Stock held by each such holder.

After payment has been made to the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock and any Parity Stock of their respective Liquidation Preferences, the holders of the Junior Stock shall be entitled to receive the remaining assets of the Corporation as set forth in the Certificate of Incorporation or any certificate of designation defining the liquidation preference of any such Junior Stock, or otherwise in proportion to the number of shares of Junior Stock held by each such holder.

(b) For purposes of this Section 2, a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation shall be deemed to be occasioned by, and to include, (i) the Corporation's sale of all or substantially all of its business, assets or property (including intellectual property) or (ii) any transaction or series of related transactions (other than in connection with the issuance of the Series B Preferred Stock) resulting in a reorganization, merger, or consolidation (whether or not the Corporation is the entity surviving such transaction) in which holders of all voting equity securities of the Corporation immediately prior to such transaction will hold (by reason of their holdings in the Corporation) less than 50% of the voting equity securities of the Corporation or other entity surviving such transaction (in each case, a "Change of Control Transaction"); provided however that in the event of a Change of Control Transaction which occurs prior to the fifth anniversary of the issuance of any share of Series B Preferred Stock, the Series B Liquidation Preference associated with such share shall be computed as if such Change of Control Transaction occurred on the fifth anniversary of the issuance of such share; and, provided further, that in the event of a Change of Control Transaction, if the amount that would have been received by holders of Series B Preferred Stock had the full amount of the Series B Liquidation Preference per share (calculated in accordance with this paragraph) been converted into Common Stock prior to the Change of Control Transaction (the "As-Converted Amount") exceeds the amount which would have been received in respect of each share of Series B Preferred Stock absent such conversion, then each holder of Series B Preferred will be entitled to receive the As-Converted Amount of each share of Series B Preferred Stock.

(c) In any of such events, if the consideration received by the Corporation is other than cash, its value will be deemed its fair market value as determined by the Board of Directors in the good faith exercise of its reasonable business judgment. Any securities shall be valued as follows:

(i) Securities not subject to restrictions on free marketability:

(1) If traded on a securities exchange or through the Nasdaq National Market or the Nasdaq SmallCap Market, the value shall be deemed to be the average of the closing prices of the securities on such exchange over the 30-day period ending three (3) days prior to the closing;

(2) If actively traded over-the-counter, the value shall be deemed to be the average of the closing bid or sale prices (whichever is applicable) over the 30-day period ending three (3) days prior to the closing; and

(3) If there is no active public market, the value shall be the fair market value thereof, as determined (x) by agreement between the Corporation and the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock or (y) in the absence of such agreement, by the Board of Directors in the good faith exercise of its reasonable business judgment (after consultation with a mutually acceptable financial advisor in the event that such fair market value is expected in good faith by a majority of the Board of Directors, or a majority of the directors elected by the Series A Preferred Stock pursuant to Section (4)(b) of Article IV of the Certificate of Incorporation and the Series B Preferred Stock pursuant to Section 4(b) of this Certificate of Designation, to exceed $1,000,000).

(ii) The method of valuation of securities subject to restrictions on free marketability (other than restrictions arising solely by virtue of a stockholder's status as an affiliate or former affiliate) shall be to make an appropriate discount from the market value determined as above in (i)(1), (2) or (3) to reflect the approximate fair market value thereof, as determined (x) by agreement between the Corporation and the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock or (y) in the absence of such agreement, by the Board of Directors in the good faith exercise of its reasonable business judgment (after consultation with a mutually acceptable financial advisor in the event that such fair market value is expected in good faith by a majority of the Board of Directors, or a majority of the directors elected by the Series A Preferred Stock pursuant to Section (4)(b) of Article IV of the Certificate of Incorporation and the Series B Preferred Stock pursuant to Section 4(b) of this Certificate of Designation, to exceed $1,000,000).

3. Conversion. The holders of the Series B Preferred Stock shall have conversion rights as follows (the "Conversion Rights"):

(a) Right to Convert and Automatic Conversion.

(i) Each share of Series B Preferred Stock shall be convertible, at the option of the holder thereof, into such number of fully paid and nonassessable shares of Common Stock as is determined by dividing the Series B Liquidation Preference of such share (computed as of the date of conversion), by the Series B Conversion Price, determined as hereinafter provided, in effect at the time of conversion. The Series B Conversion Price shall initially be equal to $0.19. The Conversion Price shall be subject to adjustment as hereinafter provided.

(ii) Each share of Series B Preferred Stock shall automatically be converted into shares of Common Stock at the then effective applicable Conversion Price at the earlier of (i) the delivery of notice of automatic conversion by Company to all holders of Series B Preferred Stock, provided that such notice may not be given (A) prior to the fifth anniversary of the first date of issuance of Series B Preferred Stock, and (B) unless the closing sales price of the Corporation's Common Stock during regular trading hours was $5.00 or more (as adjusted for stock-splits, stock dividends and similar events occurring after the date of the filing of this Certificate of Designation with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware) for 30 consecutive trading days ending not more than ten (10) days prior to the date of such notice, or (ii) at the election of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Series B Preferred Stock.

(b) Mechanics of Conversion. No fractional shares of Common Stock shall be issued upon conversion of Series B Preferred Stock. In lieu of any fractional share to which a holder would otherwise be entitled, the Corporation shall pay cash equal to such fraction multiplied by the fair market value of a share of the Common Stock as determined by the Board of Directors in accordance with Section 2(c) hereof. Before any holder of Series B Preferred Stock shall be entitled to convert the same into full shares of Common Stock, such holder shall surrender the certificate or certificates therefor, duly endorsed, at the office of the Corporation or of any transfer agent for the Series B Preferred Stock and shall give written notice to the Corporation at such office that he elects to convert the same. The Corporation shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, issue and deliver at such office to such holder of Series B Preferred Stock, a certificate or certificates for the number of shares of Common Stock to which such holder shall be entitled as aforesaid and a check payable to the holder in the amount of any cash amounts payable as the result of a conversion into a fractional share of Common Stock. Except as set forth in the following sentence, such conversion shall be deemed to have been made immediately prior to the close of business on the date of such surrender of the shares of Series B Preferred Stock to be converted, and the person or persons entitled to receive the shares of Common Stock issuable upon such conversion shall be treated for all purposes as the record holder or holders of such shares of Common Stock on such date. In the event of an automatic conversion pursuant to Section 3(a)(ii), the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock shall be converted automatically without any further action by the holder of such shares and whether or not the certificates representing such shares are surrendered to the Corporation or the transfer agent for such Series B Preferred Stock; and the Corporation shall not be obligated to issue certificates evidencing the shares of Common Stock issuable upon such automatic conversion unless the certificates evidencing such Series B Preferred stock are either delivered to the Corporation or the transfer agent for such Series B Preferred Stock as provided above, or the holder notifies the Corporation or the transfer agent for such Series B Preferred stock that such certificates have been lost, stolen or destroyed and executes an agreement satisfactory to the Corporation to indemnify the Corporation from any loss incurred by it in connection with such certificates. The Corporation shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, issue and deliver to such address as the holder may direct, a certificate or certificates for the number of shares of Common Stock to which such holder shall be entitled.

(c) Adjustments to Conversion Price for Diluting Issues.

(i) Special Definitions. For purposes of this Section 3, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Options" shall mean rights, options or warrants to subscribe for, purchase or otherwise acquire either Common Stock or Convertible Securities.

(2) "Convertible Securities" shall mean any evidences of indebtedness, shares (other than Common Stock and Series B Preferred Stock) or other securities convertible into or exchangeable for Common Stock.

(3) "Additional Shares of Common Stock" shall mean all shares of Common Stock issued (or, pursuant to Section 3(c)(iii), deemed to be issued) by the Corporation after the first issuance of shares of Series B Preferred Stock (the "Original Issue Date") other than shares of Common Stock issued or issuable:

(A) upon conversion of shares of Series B Preferred Stock, upon the issuance of Options, including exercise or conversion of Convertible Securities subject to such Options, issued or issuable pursuant to the terms of the agreement or agreements governing initial issuance and sale of Series A Preferred Stock, or upon exercise or conversion of Options or Convertible Securities outstanding as of the date hereof;

(B) to officers, directors or employees of, or consultants to, the Corporation pursuant to a stock grant, option plan or purchase plan or other stock incentive program, including without limitation sales of shares to such persons pursuant to restricted stock purchase agreements (collectively, the "Plans") approved by the Board of Directors;

(C) as a dividend or distribution on the Series B Preferred Stock or in connection with any stock split, stock dividend or similar transaction;

(D) in connection with (1) equipment lease financing transactions with institutions regularly engaged in equipment leasing or (2) bank lending, if such transactions are approved by the Board of Directors, and such issuance is not principally for the purpose of raising additional equity capital for the Corporation; provided however that the number of shares of Common Stock so excluded in any fiscal year of the Corporation shall not exceed 0.5% of the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding (determined as of the date of issuance of such shares of Common Stock), after giving effect to the conversion of all outstanding shares of Preferred Stock and other "in-the-money" (as such term is defined in Section 3(c)(iv) below) securities convertible into Common Stock unless such grants are approved by a majority of the directors of the Corporation elected by holders of Preferred Stock (the "Preferred Directors") present and voting;

(E) securities issued to customers or joint venture partners or in connection with other strategic alliances approved by the Board of Directors including a majority of the Preferred Directors present and voting which involve the grant of licenses or localization, distribution, OEM, bundling, manufacturing or resale rights with respect to the Corporation's products or technology; and

(F) securities issued pursuant to the acquisition of another corporation by the Corporation by merger, purchase of substantially all of the assets of the other corporation, or other reorganization approved by the Board of Directors including a majority of the Preferred Directors present and voting; and

(G) by way of dividend or other distribution on shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock excluded from the definition of Additional Shares of Common Stock by the foregoing clauses (A), (B), (C), (D), (E), or (F) or on shares of Common Stock so excluded, provided that such issuance is made (x) pursuant to obligations of the Corporation established in connection with the original issuance of such securities or (y) to all holders of the Corporation's capital stock in proportion to the number of shares held.

(ii) No Adjustment of Conversion Price: No adjustment in the Series B Conversion Price shall be made in respect of the issuance or deemed issuance (pursuant to Section 3(c)(iii) below) of Additional Shares of Common Stock unless the consideration per share (determined in accordance with paragraph 3(c)(v) for an Additional Share of Common Stock issued or deemed to be issued by the Corporation is or would be less than the Series B Conversion Price in effect on the date of, and immediately prior to, such issue or deemed issue. No adjustment in the Series B Conversion Price shall be made pursuant to paragraph (iv) below as a result of any stock dividend or subdivision which causes an adjustment in the Conversion Price pursuant to Section 3(d) below.

(iii) Deemed Issue of Additional Shares of Common Stock. In the event the Corporation at any time or from time to time after the Original Issue Date shall issue any Options or Convertible Securities which are excisable for or convertible into Additional Shares of Common Stock or shall fix a record date for the determination of holders of any class of securities entitled to receive any such Options or Convertible Securities, then the maximum number of shares (as set forth in the instrument relating thereto without regard to any provisions contained therein for a subsequent adjustment of such number) of Common Stock issuable upon the exercise of such Options or, in the case of Convertible Securities and Options therefor, the conversion or exchange of such Convertible Securities, shall be deemed to be Additional Shares of Common Stock issued as of the time of such issue or, in case such a record date shall have been fixed, as of the close of business on such record date, provided that in any case in which Additional Shares of Common Stock are deemed to be issued:

(A) no further adjustment in the Series B Conversion Price shall be made upon the subsequent issue of Convertible Securities or shares of Common Stock upon the exercise of such Options or conversion or exchange of such Convertible Securities;

(B) if such Options or Convertible Securities by their terms provide, with the passage of time or otherwise, for any increase or decrease in the consideration payable to the Corporation, or increase or decrease in the number of shares of Common Stock issuable, upon the exercise, conversion or exchange thereof, the Series B Conversion Price computed upon the original issue thereof (or upon the occurrence of a record date with respect thereto), and any subsequent adjustments based thereon, shall, upon any such increase or decrease becoming effective, be recomputed to reflect such increase or decrease insofar as it affects such Options or the rights of conversion or exchange under such Convertible Securities; and

(C) no readjustment pursuant to clause (B) above shall have the effect of increasing the Series A Conversion Price to an amount which exceeds the lower of (i) such Conversion Price on the original adjustment date, or (ii) the Conversion Price that would have resulted from any issuance of Additional Shares of Common Stock between the original adjustment date and such readjustment date.

(iv) Adjustment of Conversion Price Upon Issuance of Additional Shares of Common Stock. In the event the Corporation shall issue Additional Shares of Common Stock (including Additional Shares of Common Stock deemed to be issued pursuant to Section 3(c)(iii)) without consideration or for a consideration per share less than the Series B Conversion Price in effect on the date of and immediately prior to such issue, then and in such event, such Conversion Price shall be reduced, concurrently with such issue, to a price (calculated to the nearest cent) which shall be determined by multiplying such Conversion Price by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the sum of (i) the number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to such issue, (ii) the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Preferred Stock outstanding immediately prior to such issue, (iii) the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of outstanding in-the-money Options and conversion of outstanding in-the-money Convertible Securities and (iv) the number of shares of Common Stock which the aggregate consideration received by the Corporation for the total number of Additional Shares of Common Stock so issued would purchase at such Conversion Price; and the denominator of which shall be the sum of (1) the number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to such issue, (2) the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Preferred Stock outstanding immediately prior to such issue, (3) the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of outstanding in-the-money Options and conversion of outstanding in-the-money Convertible Securities and (4) the number of such Additional Shares of Common Stock so issued. "In-the-money" Options and Convertible Securities shall be deemed to include all securities exercisable for or convertible into shares of Common Stock with a fair market value equal to or greater than the fair market value of the consideration which must be paid or which must be foregone to effect such exercise or conversion.

(v) Determination of Consideration. For purposes of this Section 3(c), the consideration received by the Corporation for the issue of any Additional Shares of Common Stock shall be computed as follows:

(1) Cash and Property. Such consideration shall:

(A) insofar as it consists of cash, be computed at the aggregate amount of cash received by the Corporation excluding amounts paid or payable for accrued interest or accrued dividends;

Edgar Filing: EVOLVE SOFTWARE INC - Form DEF 14A

(B) insofar as it consists of property other than cash, be computed at the fair value thereof at the time of such issue, as determined by the Board of Directors in the good faith exercise of its reasonable business judgment; and

(C) in the event Additional Shares of Common Stock are issued together with other shares or securities or other assets of the Corporation for consideration which covers both, be the proportion of such consideration so received, computed as provided in clauses (A) and (B) above, as determined by the Board of Directors in the good faith exercise of its reasonable business judgment.

(2) Options and Convertible Securities. The consideration per share received by the Corporation for Additional Shares of Common Stock deemed to have been issued pursuant to Section 3(c)(iii), relating to Options and Convertible Securities, shall be determined by dividing

(x) the total amount, if any, received or receivable by the Corporation as consideration for the issue of such Options or Convertible Securities, plus the minimum aggregate amount of additional consideration (as set forth in the instruments relating thereto, without regard to any provision contained therein for a subsequent adjustment of such consideration) payable to the Corporation upon the exercise of such Options or the conversion or exchange of such Convertible Securities, or in the case of Options for Convertible Securities, the exercise of such Options for Convertible Securities and the conversion or exchange of such Convertible Securities by

(y) the maximum number of shares of Common Stock (as set forth in the instrument relating thereto, without regard to any provision contained therein for a subsequent adjustment of such number) issuable upon the exercise of such Options or the conversion or exchange of such Convertible Securities.

(vi) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 3(c) to the contrary, no adjustment to the Series B Conversion Price provided for in this Section 3(c) shall be given effect upon the conversion of any shares of Series B Preferred Stock unless, prior to the date of such conversion, the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Common Stock and Series A Preferred Stock, voting together on an as-converted to Common Stock basis in accordance with the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation, approve or ratify the provisions of this Section 3(c).

(d) Adjustments for Stock Dividends, Subdivisions, Combinations, or Consolidations. In the event the Corporation shall pay a stock dividend on the Common Stock, or the outstanding shares of Common Stock shall be subdivided, combined or consolidated, by reclassification or otherwise, into a greater or lesser number of shares of Common Stock, the Series B Conversion Price in effect immediately prior to such subdivision or combination shall, concurrently with the effectiveness of such subdivision, combination or consolidation, be proportionately adjusted.

(e) No Impairment. Unless approved in accordance with Section 5 hereof the Corporation will not, by amendment of its Certificate of Incorporation or through any reorganization, transfer of assets, merger, dissolution, issue or sale of securities or any other voluntary action, avoid or seek to avoid the observance or performance of any of the terms to be observed or performed hereunder by the Corporation but will at all times in good faith assist in the carrying out of all the provisions of this Section 3 and in the taking of all such action as may be necessary or appropriate in order to protect the Conversion Rights of the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock against impairment.

(f) Notices of Record Date. In the event that the Corporation shall propose at any time:

(i) to declare any dividend or distribution upon its Common Stock, whether in cash, property, stock or other securities, whether or not a regular cash dividend and whether or not out of earnings or earned surplus;

(ii) to offer for subscription pro rata to the holders of any class or series of its stock any additional shares of stock of any class or series or other rights;

(iii) to effect any reclassification or recapitalization of its Common Stock outstanding involving a change in the Common Stock; or

(iv) to merge with any other corporation (other than a merger in which the Corporation is the surviving entity and the holders of the outstanding voting equity securities of the Corporation immediately prior to such merger hold more than fifty percent (50%) of the voting power of the surviving entity immediately following such merger), or sell, lease or convey all or substantially all its property or business, or to liquidate, dissolve or wind up;

then, in connection with each such event, the Corporation shall send to the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock:

(1) at least 20 days' prior written notice of the date on which a record shall be taken for such dividend, distribution or subscription rights (and specifying the date on which the holders of Common Stock shall be entitled thereto) or for determining rights to vote in respect of the matters referred to in (iii) and (iv) above; and

(2) in the case of the matters referred to in (iii) and (iv) above, at least 20 days' prior written notice of the date when the same shall take place (and specifying the date on which the holders of Common Stock shall be entitled to exchange their Common Stock for securities or other property deliverable upon the occurrence of such event).

Each such written notice shall be given by first class mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the holders of Series B Preferred Stock at the address for each such holder as shown on the books of the Corporation and shall be deemed given when so mailed.

(g) Recapitalization. If at any time or from time to time there shall be a merger, consolidation, recapitalization or similar transaction of the Corporation (other than a transaction treated as a liquidation for purposes of Section 2 or a subdivision or combination as set forth in Section 3(d)) provision shall be made so that the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock shall thereafter be entitled to receive upon conversion of the Series B Preferred Stock the number of shares of stock or other securities or property of the Corporation or any successor thereto to which a holder of Common Stock deliverable upon conversion of each share of such series would have been entitled on such transaction. In any such case, appropriate adjustment shall be made in the application of the provisions of this Section 3 with respect to the rights of the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock after the such transaction to the end that the provisions of this Section 3 (including adjustment of the Series B Conversion Price then in effect and the number of shares purchasable upon conversion of the Series B Preferred Stock) shall be applicable after such transaction as nearly equivalent as may be practicable.

(h) Adjustments for Other Distributions. In the event the Corporation at any time, or from time to time, makes or fixes a record date for the determination of holders of Common Stock entitled to receive any distribution payable in securities of the Corporation other than shares of Common Stock and other than as otherwise adjusted in this Section 3, then and in each such event provision shall be made so that the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock shall receive upon the date of such distribution, the amount of securities of the Corporation which they would have received had their Series B Preferred Stock, been converted into Common Stock on such date.

(i) Certificates as to Adjustments. Upon the occurrence of each adjustment or readjustment of the Series B Conversion Price pursuant to this Section 3, the Corporation at its expense shall promptly compute such adjustment or readjustment in accordance with the terms hereof and prepare and furnish to each holder of such Series B Preferred Stock a certificate setting forth such adjustment or readjustment and showing in detail the facts upon which such adjustment or readjustment is based. The Corporation shall, upon the written request at any time of any holder of the Series B Preferred Stock, furnish or cause to be furnished to such holder a like certificate setting forth (1) such applicable adjustments and readjustments, (2) the applicable Series B Conversion Price at the time in effect, and (3) the number of shares of Common Stock and the amount, if any, of other property which at the time would be received upon the conversion of such holder's Preferred Stock. Any certificate sent to the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock pursuant to this Section 3(i) shall be signed by an officer of the Corporation.

(j) Reservation of Shares Issuable Upon Conversion. The Corporation shall at all times reserve and keep available out of its authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock, solely for the purpose of effecting the conversion of the shares of the Series B Preferred Stock, such number of its shares of Common Stock as shall from time to time be sufficient to effect the conversion of all outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock; and if at any time the number of authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock shall not be sufficient to effect the conversion of all then outstanding shares of the Series B Preferred Stock, the Corporation will take such corporate action as may, in the opinion of its counsel, be necessary to increase its authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock to such number of shares as shall be sufficient for such purpose.

(k) Issue and Transfer Taxes. The Corporation will pay any and all documentary stamp or similar issue or transfer taxes payable in respect of the issue or delivery of shares of Common Stock on conversion of the Series B Preferred Stock pursuant hereto; provided that the Corporation shall not be required to pay any tax which may be payable in respect of any transfer involved in the issue or delivery of shares of Common Stock in a name other than that of the holder of the Series B Preferred Stock to be converted and no such issue or delivery will be made unless and until the person requesting such issue or delivery has paid to the Corporation the amount of any such tax or has established, to the satisfaction of the Corporation, that such tax has been paid.

4. Voting Rights and Directors.

(a) Except (i) as otherwise required by law or (ii) as otherwise set forth herein or in the Certificate of Incorporation, the holders of Series B Preferred Stock shall be entitled to notice of any stockholders' meeting and to vote upon any matter submitted to the stockholders for a vote, and each holder of Series B Preferred Stock shall have one vote for each full share of Common Stock into which the Series B Preferred Stock would be convertible as of the Original Issue Date, subject to adjustment for stock dividends, subdivisions, combinations or consolidations pursuant to Section 3(d) hereof.

(b) As long as any shares of Series B Preferred Stock remain outstanding, the holders of Series B Preferred Stock shall vote as a separate class to elect such number of directors of the Corporation (the "Series B Directors"), which, when added to the number of directors elected by the holders of Series A Preferred Stock pursuant to Section (4)(b) of Article IV of the Certificate of Incorporation (the "Series A Directors"), will be in as close a proportion as is possible to the total number of directors of the Corporation as the proportion of the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon the conversion of all shares of Series A Preferred Stock and Series B Preferred Stock is to total number of shares of Common Stock then outstanding (after giving effect to the conversion of all shares of Preferred Stock then outstanding), rounded down to the nearest whole number; provided, however, that the foregoing right shall be superseded in the event, to the extent, and for so long as the appointment of any such Series B Director would cause the Corporation to fail to comply with applicable laws or regulations or the rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market. Any such Series B Director may be removed during the term of office of such Series B Director, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of the holders of Series B Preferred Stock, given either at a special meeting duly called for that purpose or pursuant to a written consent, and any vacancy thereby created may be filled by an affirmative vote represented at the meeting or pursuant to the written consent. All directors other than the Preferred Directors shall be elected by the holders of Common Stock, the holders of Series A Preferred Stock and the holders of Series B Preferred Stock, voting together as a single class, on an as-converted to Common Stock basis.

(c) Any action which the holders of Series B Preferred Stock are authorized to take at a duly called annual or special meeting of stockholders may in lieu thereof be taken by means of a written consent of such holders.

5. Protective Provisions. In addition to any other rights provided by law, so long as at least 50% of the shares of Series B Preferred Stock issued by the Corporation remain outstanding, the Corporation and its subsidiaries shall not without first obtaining the affirmative vote or written consent of the holders of not less than a majority of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock and Series B Preferred Stock, voting together as a single class, on an as-converted to Common Stock basis:

- (i) amend or repeal any provision of, or add any provision to, this Certificate of Designation;
  - (ii) authorize or issue any shares of any class or series of Senior Stock or any bonds, debentures, notes or other obligations convertible into or exchangeable for, or having option rights to purchase, any shares of Senior Stock of the Corporation;
  - (iii) issue any bonds, debentures or notes or incur similar debt obligations, other than trade debt in the ordinary course of business;
  - (iv) consummate a Change of Control Transaction, unless the aggregate value received for, or realizable in respect of, all outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock, determined in accordance with Section 2(c) hereof, as a result of such sale or other transaction or series of transactions exceeds an amount equal to $10.00 per share (as adjusted for stock splits and dividends in kind) multiplied by the number of shares of Series B Preferred outstanding (the "Aggregate Cash Purchase Price"), plus an amount sufficient to result in an overall internal rate of return ("IRR") on the Aggregate Cash Purchase Price of 50%, taking into account for purposes of calculating such overall IRR any differences in the dates of issuance of such outstanding shares;
  - (v) pay any dividend on any shares of Junior Stock, or repurchase or redeem any such shares of Junior Stock except for repurchases of unvested shares of Junior Stock at cost from employees, directors, consultants and other service providers;
