PRELIMINARY PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS
SUBJECT TO COMPLETION DATED FEBRUARY 5, 2018

TRI-VALLEY BANK

To the Shareholders of Tri-Valley Bank:

On December 20, 2017, Heritage Commerce Corp, which we refer to as Heritage, and its wholly owned subsidiary, Heritage Bank of Commerce, which we refer to as HBC, entered into an agreement and plan of reorganization and merger, which we refer to as the merger agreement, to acquire Tri-Valley Bank. If the required shareholder and regulatory approvals are obtained, all closing conditions are satisfied or waived and the merger is subsequently completed, Tri-Valley Bank will be merged with and into HBC, with HBC as the surviving bank, which we refer to as the merger.

You are cordially invited to attend a special shareholders' meeting of Tri-Valley Bank, to be held at [•] a.m., Pacific Time, on [•], 2018 at 3160 Crow Canyon Rd., San Ramon, California 94583 in the fourth floor conference room. At the Tri-Valley Bank special shareholders' meeting, the Tri-Valley Bank shareholders will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the merger agreement. Tri-Valley Bank cannot complete the proposed merger unless shareholders holding at least a majority of the Tri-Valley Bank shares of common stock vote to approve the merger agreement. This letter is accompanied by the attached proxy statement/prospectus, which the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors is providing to solicit your proxy to vote for the approval of the merger agreement.

In the merger, each share of Tri-Valley Bank common stock (other than dissenting shares) will be converted into the right to receive 0.0489 shares of Heritage common stock, which we refer to as the per share exchange ratio, and each outstanding option to purchase shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock, will be cancelled and the holder of the option will be entitled to receive cash equal to the excess over the exercise price per share, if any, of 0.0489 multiplied by the volume weighted average of the closing price for Heritage common stock for the twenty consecutive trading days ending on the fifth trading day immediately prior to the merger closing date. Based on the 20-day volume weighted average share price of Heritage common stock of $15.76 on December 19, 2017, the last trading date before the transaction was announced the total aggregate consideration for the merger is $31.6 million, inclusive of $0.6 million payable in cash to option holders, or an implied value of $0.77 per Tri-Valley Bank share. Tri-Valley Bank shareholders will receive cash in lieu of any fractional shares of Heritage common stock, without interest.

Based on the closing price per share of Heritage common stock on [•] [•], 2018 (the most recent day for which information was available prior to the printing and mailing of this proxy statement/prospectus) the implied value of the merger consideration payable to holders of Tri-Valley Bank common stock was $[•] per share. The value of the merger consideration will fluctuate based on the market price of Heritage common stock prior to the closing of the merger. Consequently, the value of the merger consideration will not be known at the time you vote on the proposal to approve the merger agreement.

We expect the merger to be generally tax free to Tri-Valley Bank common stock shareholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes, except for cash received by Tri-Valley Bank shareholders in lieu of fractional Heritage shares and for Tri-Valley Bank shareholders who exercise their dissenters' rights with respect to the merger. In addition, the cash received for options or warrants will be taxable to the holders of such options and warrants.

You should obtain current stock price quotations for Heritage common stock and Tri-Valley Bank common stock. Tri-Valley Bank common stock is traded on the OTC Market Group's OTC Pink market under the symbol "TRVB" and Heritage common stock is traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol "HTBK."

Based on our reasons for the merger described in the accompanying document, our board of directors believes that the merger consideration is fair to the Tri-Valley Bank shareholders and in your best interests. Accordingly, the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" the approval of the merger agreement. The accompanying proxy statement/prospectus gives you detailed information about the Tri-Valley Bank special shareholders' meeting, the merger, the merger agreement and related matters. In addition to being a proxy statement of Tri-Valley Bank, this proxy statement/prospectus is the prospectus of Heritage for the shares of its common stock that will be issued to the Tri-Valley Bank shareholders in connection with the merger.

Your vote is very important. To ensure your representation at the Tri-Valley Bank special shareholders' meeting, please complete, sign, date and return your proxy card in the enclosed envelope or submit your proxy by telephone or through the Internet pursuant to the instructions provided on the enclosed proxy card. Whether or not you expect to attend the Tri-Valley Bank special shareholders' meeting, please vote promptly. Submitting a proxy now will not prevent you from being able to vote in person at the Tri-Valley Bank special shareholders' meeting.

You are encouraged to read this proxy statement/prospectus carefully. In particular, you should read the "Risk Factors" section beginning on page 19 for a discussion of the risks you should consider in evaluating the proposed merger and how it will affect you.

Sincerely,

Arnold T. Grisham
Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

This question and answer summary highlights selected information contained in other sections of this proxy statement/prospectus. To understand the merger more fully, you should carefully read this entire proxy statement/prospectus, including all appendices. References in this Q&A section to "you" and "your" refer to holders of common stock of Tri-Valley Bank who are being asked to cast votes on the matters described herein. Additional important information is also contained in documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. See "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 87.

Q: What am I being asked to vote on?

A:

Heritage Commerce Corp, which we refer to as Heritage, Heritage Bank of Commerce, which we refer to as HBC, and Tri-Valley Bank have entered into a merger agreement, pursuant to which Tri-Valley Bank will merge with and into HBC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Heritage, with HBC continuing as the surviving corporation, in a transaction which we refer to as the merger. As a result of the merger, each share of Tri-Valley common stock will be converted into the right to receive 0.0489 shares of Heritage common stock.

Tri-Valley Bank shareholders are being asked to vote on the following proposals:

to approve the merger and to approve and adopt the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus, which is referred to as the merger proposal; and to approve one or more adjournments of the special shareholders' meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including adjournments to permit further solicitation of proxies in favor of the merger proposal, which is referred to as the adjournment proposal.

Shareholder approval of the Tri-Valley Bank merger proposal is required for completion of the merger. Tri-Valley Bank will transact no other business at the special shareholders' meeting.

Q: What vote is required to approve each proposal at the special shareholders' meeting?

A:

Merger proposal: The affirmative vote of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock entitled to vote is required to approve the merger proposal.

Adjournment proposal: Assuming a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock represented (in person or by proxy) at the special shareholders' meeting and entitled to vote on the proposal is required to approve the adjournment proposal.

Q: What does the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors recommend?

A:

After careful consideration, the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors unanimously recommends that shareholders vote "FOR" the merger proposal and "FOR" the adjournment proposal (if necessary or appropriate).

You are urged to vote in favor of the merger by signing and returning the enclosed proxy as promptly as possible, or voting your proxy by phone or internet as promptly as possible, whether or not you plan to attend the special shareholders' meeting in person. If you submit a proxy and then decide to attend the meeting in person, you need not vote at the meeting unless you wish to change your proxy voting instructions. The proxy may be revoked at any time prior to its exercise.

Q: Why am I receiving this proxy statement/prospectus?

A.

Tri-Valley Bank is sending these materials to its shareholders to help them decide how to vote their shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock with respect to the merger and other matters to be considered at the special shareholders' meeting.

The merger cannot be completed unless Tri-Valley Bank shareholders approve the merger and approve and adopt the merger agreement. At the special shareholders' meeting, Tri-Valley Bank shareholders will vote on the proposals necessary to complete the merger. Information about the special shareholders' meeting, the merger and the other business to be considered by shareholders at the meeting is contained in this proxy statement/prospectus.

This proxy statement/prospectus constitutes both a proxy statement of Tri-Valley Bank and a prospectus of Heritage. It is a proxy statement because the board of directors of Tri-Valley Bank is soliciting proxies using this proxy statement/prospectus from its shareholders. It is a prospectus because Heritage, in connection with the merger, is offering shares of its common stock in exchange for outstanding shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock in the merger.

Q: Who is eligible to vote?

A:

Holders of Tri-Valley Bank common stock are eligible to vote their shares at the Tri-Valley Bank special shareholders' meeting if they were holders of record of those shares at the close of business on [•] [•], 2018 (the "record date").

Q: What will happen if Tri-Valley Bank shareholders approve the merger?

A:

If the Tri-Valley Bank shareholders approve the merger, and other conditions set forth in the merger agreement are fulfilled, Tri-Valley Bank will merge with and into HBC. Tri-Valley Bank will cease to exist as a separate entity. Branch offices of Tri-Valley Bank will become branch offices of HBC.

The directors and executive officers of Tri-Valley Bank owning an aggregate of 52.06% of the common stock outstanding as of the record date have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the merger. Any unexercised options or warrants held by these individuals as of the record date will not be eligible to vote with respect to the merger. The directors that hold options and warrants have agreed not to exercise their stock options and warrants prior to the effective date of the merger.

Q: What will I receive in exchange for my Tri-Valley Bank shares in the merger?

A:

In the merger, each share of Tri-Valley Bank common stock will be converted into the right to receive 0.0489 shares of Heritage common stock, which we refer to as the per share exchange ratio. A Tri-Valley Bank shareholder will receive any whole shares of Heritage common stock such holder is entitled to receive and cash in lieu of any fractional shares of Heritage common stock, without interest.

Q: Is the exchange ratio subject to adjustment based on changes in the price of Heritage and/or Tri-Valley Bank common stock?

A:

No. The exchange ratio of 0.0489 shares of Heritage common stock for each share of Tri-Valley Bank common stock is fixed and no adjustments to the exchange ratio will be made based on changes in the price of either Heritage or Tri-Valley Bank common stock prior to the completion of the merger. As a result of any such changes in stock price, the aggregate market value of the shares of Heritage common stock that a Tri-Valley Bank shareholder is entitled to receive at the time that the merger is completed could vary significantly from the value of such shares on the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the date of the Tri-Valley Bank special shareholders' meeting or the date on which Tri-Valley Bank shareholders actually receive shares of Heritage common stock in the merger.

Q: Will Tri-Valley Bank shareholders be able to trade the Heritage common stock that they receive in the merger?

A:

The Heritage common stock issued in the merger to Tri-Valley Bank shareholders will be listed on the NASDAQ Capital Global Select Market under the symbol "HTBK." Unless you are deemed an "affiliate" of Heritage, you may sell or transfer the shares of Heritage common stock you receive in the merger without restriction.

Q: What happens to Tri-Valley Bank stock options in the merger?

A:

Each outstanding option to purchase shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock, whether or not then vested and whether or not then exercisable, will be cancelled and the holder of the option will be entitled to receive, subject to any required tax withholding, an amount in cash, without interest, from Heritage equal to the excess over the exercise price per share, if any, of the per share exchange ratio multiplied by the volume weighted average of the closing price for shares of Heritage common stock as quoted on the NASDAQ Global Select Market for the twenty consecutive trading days ending on the fifth trading day immediately prior to the merger closing date.

Q: What happens to Tri-Valley Bank warrants in the merger?

A:

A warrant to purchase 2,020,202 shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock, held by one of Tri-Valley Bank's directors, will be cancelled and the holder of the warrant will be entitled to receive, subject to any required tax withholding, an amount in cash, without interest, from Heritage equal to $888,889, representing the excess of $0.77 over the exercise price of $0.33 per share.

Q: What risks should I consider before I vote on the merger?

A:

Certain risks that you should consider in deciding how to vote on the merger are described in the section of this proxy statement/prospectus entitled "Risk Factors." You are urged to read that section, as well as the rest of this proxy statement/prospectus, before deciding how to vote.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A:

After you have carefully read this proxy statement/prospectus and have decided how you wish to vote your shares, please vote your shares promptly so that your shares are represented and voted at the special shareholders' meeting. If you hold your shares in your name as a shareholder of record, you must complete, sign, date and mail your proxy card in the enclosed postage-paid return envelope as soon as possible.

Q: What happens if I do not return my proxy card?

A:

If you fail to execute and return your proxy card, it will have the same effect as voting against the merger, unless you vote in person at the meeting.

Q: How do I vote?

A:

Holders of a valid proxy card should indicate on their proxy card how they want to vote. Sign and mail your proxy card in the enclosed envelope as soon as possible so that your shares will be represented at the Tri-Valley Bank special shareholders' meeting. Alternatively, you may attend the meeting and vote in person.

Giving a proxy means that a Tri-Valley Bank shareholder authorizes the persons named in the enclosed proxy card to vote its shares at the special shareholders' meeting in the manner it directs.

If you sign and send in your proxy card and do not indicate how you want to vote, your shares will be voted in favor of the merger and in favor of the adjournment proposal.

If you do not sign and send in your proxy card or you abstain from voting, it will have the same effect as voting your shares against the merger proposal and the adjournment proposal.

You may vote by phone using the toll-free number on your proxy card.

You may vote on the Internet by visiting the website shown on your proxy card.

You may attend the meeting and vote your shares in person, rather than voting by proxy.

Q: If my shares are held in "street name" by a broker, bank or other nominee, will my broker, bank or other nominee vote my shares for me?

A:

If your shares are held in "street name" in a stock brokerage account or by a bank or other nominee, you must provide the record holder of your shares with instructions on how to vote your shares. Please follow the voting instructions provided by your broker, bank or other nominee. Please note that you may not vote shares held in street name by returning a proxy card directly to Tri-Valley Bank or by voting in person at the special shareholders' meeting unless you provide a "legal proxy," which you must obtain from your broker, bank or other nominee.

Under the rules of the stock exchanges and other self-regulatory agencies, brokers who hold shares in street name for a beneficial owner of those shares typically have the authority to vote in their discretion on "routine" proposals when they have not received instructions from beneficial owners. However, brokers are not allowed to exercise their voting discretion with respect to the approval of matters that the rules of the stock exchanges and other self-regulatory agencies determines to be "non-routine" without specific instructions from the beneficial owner. All proposals to be voted on at the special shareholders' meeting are "non-routine" matters. Broker non-votes occur when a broker or nominee is not instructed by the beneficial owner of shares to vote on a particular proposal for which the broker does not have discretionary voting power.

Q: What if I abstain from voting or fail to instruct my broker?

A:

If you are a holder of Tri-Valley Bank common stock and you abstain from voting or fail to instruct your broker to vote your shares and the broker submits an unvoted proxy, referred to as a broker non-vote, then the abstention or broker non-votes will be counted towards a quorum at the special shareholders' meeting, but it will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the merger proposal.

Abstentions and broker non-votes of shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock will not have any effect on the adjournment proposal, if the number of affirmative votes cast for the proposal is a majority of the votes cast and such votes constitute a majority of the quorum required to transact business at the special shareholders' meeting. However, if the number of affirmative votes cast for the adjournment proposal is a majority of the votes cast, but such votes do not constitute a majority of the quorum required to transact business at the special shareholders' meeting, then abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote against the merger proposal.

Q: What will happen if I return my proxy or voting instruction card without indicating how to vote?

A:

If you sign and return your proxy or voting instruction card without indicating how to vote on any particular proposal, common stock represented by your proxy will be voted as recommended by the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors with respect to that proposal, including "FOR" the merger proposal, in which case you will be prohibited from asserting dissenters' rights, and "FOR" the adjournment Proposal.

Q: May I change my vote after I have delivered my proxy or voting instruction card?

A:

You may change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the Tri-Valley Bank special shareholders' meeting. You may do this in one of the following ways:

by sending a notice of revocation to the corporate secretary of Tri-Valley Bank;

by logging onto the Internet website specified on your proxy card in the same manner you would to submit your proxy electronically or by calling the telephone number specified on your proxy card, in each case if you are eligible to do so and following the instructions on the proxy card; or by sending a completed proxy card bearing a later date than your original proxy card.

If you choose any of these methods, you must take the described action such that the notice, Internet vote or proxy card, as applicable, is received no later than the beginning of the special shareholders' meeting.

You may also change your vote by attending the special shareholders' meeting and voting in person.

If your shares are held in an account at a broker, bank or other nominee, you should contact your broker, bank or other nominee to change your vote.

Q: How do Tri-Valley Bank's directors plan to vote on the merger?

A:

The directors and executive officers of Tri-Valley Bank owning an aggregate of 52.06% of the common stock outstanding as of the record date have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the merger proposal.

Q: What are the material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to Tri-Valley Bank shareholders?

The merger is intended to qualify, as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, which we refer to as the Internal Revenue Code. Based on the qualification of the merger as a "reorganization," Tri-Valley Bank shareholders generally will not recognize any gain or loss in connection with the merger, except with respect to the cash received instead of a fractional share of Heritage common stock. Tri-Valley Bank shareholders who exercise their dissenters' rights with respect to the merger generally will recognize taxable gain or loss.

Tax matters are very complicated, and the tax consequences of the merger to a particular shareholder will depend in part on such shareholder's circumstances. Accordingly, you should consult your tax advisor for a full understanding of the tax consequences of the merger to you, including the applicability and effect of federal, state, local and foreign income and other tax consequences.

Q: What happens if the merger is not completed?

A:

If the merger is not completed, Tri-Valley Bank shareholders will not receive any consideration for their shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock in connection with the merger. Instead, Tri-Valley Bank will remain an independent bank and its common stock will continue to be quoted on the OTC Market Group's OTC Pink market. Under specified circumstances Tri-Valley Bank may be required to pay Heritage a fee with respect to the termination of the merger agreement, as described under the section entitled "The Merger Agreement Termination; Termination Fee" beginning on page 73.

Q: What do I do if I do not agree with the merger? Do I have dissenter's rights?

A:

If you do not agree with the merger, and if you do not vote in favor of it, and if you take certain other actions required by California law, you will have dissenter's rights under California law. Exercise of these rights will result in Tri-Valley Bank purchasing your shares at their "fair market value" as of the date of, and immediately prior to, the first public announcement of the merger as determined in accordance with California law. Please read the section entitled "The Merger Dissenters' Rights of Tri-Valley Bank's Shareholders" beginning on page 56 and Appendix C for additional information.

Q: Should I send in my certificates to Tri-Valley Bank or Heritage now?

A:

Please do not send in your Tri-Valley Bank stock certificates with your proxy to Tri-Valley Bank or Heritage. After the merger, an exchange agent designated by Heritage will send you instructions for exchanging your Tri-Valley Bank stock certificates for the merger consideration.

Q: Who can help answer my other questions?

A:

If you want to ask any additional questions about the merger, you should contact Arnold Grisham, the President, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Tri-Valley Bank, 3160 Crow Canyon Rd., Suite 160, San Ramon, California, 94583, telephone (925) 791-4365.

Shareholders of the United American Bank Series A Preferred Stock and the Series B Preferred stock will receive $1,000 per share in cash. Based on Heritage's closing price of $15.65 per share of Heritage common stock on January 9, 2018, the penultimate trading date before the transaction was announced, the aggregate merger consideration to be received by holders of United American Bank common stock and common stock equivalents is valued at approximately $44.2 million or $33.87 for each of the United American Bank shares of common stock and common stock equivalents and the total transaction value (including the cash out of the Series A Preferred Stock and Series B Preferred Stock) is approximately $53.3 million. The exchange ratio is fixed and the aggregate and per share values of the merger consideration will fluctuate between the date of the agreement and the date that the merger is completed.

Tri-Valley Bank Special Shareholders' Meeting (page 26)

The Tri-Valley Bank special shareholders' meeting will be held at [•] a.m., Pacific Time, on [•], [•] [•], 2018, at 3160 Crow Canyon Rd., San Ramon, California 94583 in the fourth floor conference room. At the special shareholders' meeting, shareholders will be asked to approve the merger proposal and the adjournment proposal.

The Tri-Valley Bank board of directors has fixed the close of business on [•] [•], 2018 as the record date for determining the holders of common stock entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the special shareholders' meeting. Only holders of record of common stock at the close of business on the record date will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the special shareholders' meeting and any adjournment or postponement thereof. As of the record date, there were [•] shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special shareholders' meeting held by [•] holders of record. Each share of common stock entitles the holder to one vote on each proposal to be considered at the special shareholders' meeting. As of the record date, neither Heritage nor HBC beneficially held any shares of Tri-Valley Bank's common stock.

A majority of the outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote at the special shareholders' meeting must be present, in person or by proxy, in order to constitute a quorum.

Approval of the merger proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock entitled to vote on the proposal. Assuming a quorum is present, approval of the adjournment proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock represented (in person or by proxy) at the special shareholders' meeting and entitled to vote on the proposal.

The directors and executive officers of Tri-Valley Bank owning an aggregate of 52.06% of the common stock outstanding as of the record date have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the merger proposal.

The Merger (page 30)

The terms and conditions of the merger are contained in the merger agreement, which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A, which is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. We encourage you to read the entire merger agreement. It is the legal document that governs the merger. Under the terms of the merger agreement, Tri-Valley Bank will merge with and into HBC, with HBC as the surviving corporation. The parties expect to complete the merger in the second quarter of 2018.

Merger Consideration (page 30)

In the merger, each share of Tri-Valley Bank common stock, no par value per share, owned by a Tri-Valley Bank shareholder will be converted into the right to receive 0.0489 shares of Heritage common stock, no par value per share. A Tri-Valley Bank shareholder will receive cash in lieu of any fractional shares of Heritage common stock such holder is entitled to receive, without interest.

Based on the 20-day volume weighted average share price of Heritage common stock of $15.76 per share on December 19, 2017, the last trading day before the announcement of the merger, the implied value of the merger consideration was $0.77 per share. Based on the closing share price of Heritage common stock of $ [•] on [•] [•], 2018, the most recent day for which information was available prior to the printing and mailing of this proxy statement/prospectus, the implied value of the merger consideration was $ [•] per share. The share price of Heritage common stock will fluctuate and, accordingly, the value of the merger consideration you receive may be different than either of these amounts.

Treatment of Tri-Valley Bank Stock Options (page 31)

Each outstanding option to purchase shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock, whether or not then vested and whether or not then exercisable, will be cancelled and the holder of the option will be entitled to receive, subject to any required tax withholding, an amount in cash, without interest, from Tri-Valley Bank equal to the excess over the exercise price per share, if any, of the per share exchange ratio multiplied by the volume weighted average of the closing price for shares of Heritage common stock as quoted on the NASDAQ Global Select Market for the twenty consecutive trading days ending on the fifth trading day immediately prior to the merger closing date.

Treatment of Tri-Valley Bank Warrants (page 31)

A warrant to purchase 2,020,202 shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock, held by one of Tri-Valley Bank's directors, will be cancelled and the holder of the warrant will be entitled to receive, subject to any required tax withholding, an amount in cash, without interest, from Heritage equal to, $888,889, representing the excess of $0.77 over the exercise price of $0.33 per share.

Reasons for the Merger and Recommendations of the Tri-Valley Bank Board of Directors (page 34)

After careful consideration, the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors unanimously recommends that Tri-Valley Bank shareholders vote "FOR" the merger proposal and "FOR" the adjournment proposal (if necessary or appropriate).

For a more complete description of Tri-Valley Bank's reasons for the merger and the recommendation of the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors, see "The Merger Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Tri-Valley Bank Board of Directors" beginning on page 34.

Opinion of Tri-Bank's Financial Advisor (page 36)

On December 20, 2017, FIG Partners, LLC, which we refer to as FIG Partners, Tri-Valley Bank's financial advisor in connection with the merger, rendered an oral opinion to the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors, which was confirmed in a written opinion dated the same date, to the effect that, as of such date and subject to and based on the qualifications, limitations and assumptions set forth in its written opinion, the per share exchange ratio in the proposed merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to the common shareholders of Tri-Valley Bank.

The full text of FIG Partners' opinion, dated December 20, 2017, is attached as Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus. You should read the opinion in its entirety for a description of the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by FIG Partners in rendering its opinion.

FIG Partners' opinion is addressed to the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors and the opinion is not a recommendation as to how any shareholder of Tri-Valley Bank should vote with respect to the merger or any other matter or as to any action that a shareholder should take with respect to the merger.

The opinion addresses only the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the per share exchange merger consideration in the proposed merger to the common shareholders of Tri-Valley Bank, and does not address the underlying business decision of Tri-Valley Bank to engage in the merger, or the relative merits of the merger as compared to any strategic alternatives that may be available to Tri-Valley Bank.

Interests of Tri-Valley Bank Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger (page 50)

Certain of Tri-Valley Bank's executive officers and directors have financial interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of Tri-Valley Bank's shareholders. The merger would constitute a "change of control" for purposes of the employment agreements between Tri-Valley

Table of Contents

Bank and each of its executive officers and severance payments would be due to Tri-Valley Bank executive officers under their respective employment agreements if the executive does not continue employment with Heritage, or if the executive is terminated (except for cause) by Heritage as a result of the change in control. The Tri-Valley Bank executive officers hold shares of restricted stock that will fully vest upon completion of the merger. In addition, each of Tri-Valley Bank's executive officers and directors holds stock options that will fully vest on the change of control treatment of which is described above under "Treatment of Tri-Valley Bank Stock Options, Restricted Stock and Warrants." Stephen S. Taylor, one of the Tri-Valley Bank directors, beneficially owns a warrant to purchase 2,020,202 shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock with an exercise price of $0.33 per share. The warrant expires on April 23, 2019, and by its terms Mr. Taylor has the right to have his warrant assumed by Heritage. Mr. Taylor has agreed with Tri-Valley Bank not to exercise the warrant prior to the closing of the merger as required by the terms of the merger. Tri-Valley Bank will pay Mr. Taylor $50,000 for relinquishing his right to have the warrant assumed by Heritage and at the close of the merger, Mr. Taylor will be entitled to receive, subject to any required tax withholding, an amount in cash, without interest, from Heritage equal to $888,889, representing the excess of $0.77 over the exercise price per share. The members of the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors were aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, when they approved the merger agreement and unanimously recommended that Tri-Valley Bank shareholders approve the merger proposal.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger (page 48)

Completion of the merger is subject to various regulatory approvals, including approvals from the California Department of Business Oversight and the Federal Reserve. Notifications and/or applications requesting approval for the merger or for the merger agreement may also be submitted to other federal and state regulatory authorities and self-regulatory organizations. Heritage and Tri-Valley Bank have filed, or are in the process of filing all notices and applications to obtain the necessary regulatory approvals. Although Heritage, HBC and Tri-Valley Bank currently believe they should be able to obtain all required regulatory approvals, they cannot be certain when or if they will obtain them or, if obtained, whether they will contain terms, conditions or restrictions not currently contemplated that will be detrimental to or have a material adverse effect on the combined company after the completion of the merger.

Conditions to the Merger (page 71)

Tri-Valley Bank and Heritage must meet a number of conditions (unless waived) to complete the merger. For a discussion of the conditions that must be satisfied (or waived) to complete the merger see "The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Parties' Obligations" beginning on page 71.

No Solicitation and Change in Recommendation (page 68)

Under the terms of the merger agreement, Tri-Valley Bank has agreed not to solicit, initiate or encourage, induce, or facilitate any inquiries, offers or proposals with respect to, or engage or participate in any discussions or negotiations concerning, or provide any confidential or nonpublic information or data to, any person relating to, any acquisition proposal. Notwithstanding these restrictions, the merger agreement provides that, under specified circumstances, in response to an unsolicited bona fide written acquisition proposal received prior to the special shareholders' meeting which, in the good faith judgment of the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors, constitutes a proposal which is superior to the merger with Heritage, and the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors determines in good faith (and after consultation with its legal counsel) that failure to take such actions would or more likely than not result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law, Tri-Valley Bank may furnish information regarding Tri-Valley Bank and participate in discussions and negotiations with such third party.

Termination; Termination Fee (page 73)

Heritage and Tri-Valley Bank may mutually agree at any time to terminate the merger agreement without completing the merger, even if the Tri-Valley Bank shareholders have approved the merger proposal.

The merger agreement may also be terminated and the merger abandoned at any time prior to the effective time of the merger as provided in the merger agreement.

Tri-Valley Bank may be required to pay Heritage a termination fee of $1.5 million if the merger agreement is terminated by Heritage or Tri-Valley Bank under the circumstances provided in the merger agreement. See the "Merger Agreement Termination; Termination Fee" beginning on page 73.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (page 45)

The merger is intended to qualify as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. Based on the qualification of the merger as a "reorganization" under the Internal Revenue Code, a shareholder of Tri-Valley Bank generally will not recognize any gain or loss upon the receipt of Heritage common stock in exchange for Tri-Valley Bank common stock in the merger, except with respect to cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Heritage common stock. Tri-Valley Bank shareholders who exercise their dissenters' rights with respect to the merger generally will recognize taxable gain or loss.

Tax matters are very complicated and the tax consequences of the merger to each Tri-Valley Bank shareholder may depend on such shareholder's particular facts and circumstances. Tri-Valley Bank shareholders are urged to consult their tax advisors to understand fully the tax consequences to them of the merger. For a more detailed discussion of the material United States federal income tax consequences of the transaction, please see the section entitled "The Merger Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences" beginning on page 45.

Comparison of Shareholders' Rights (page 80)

The rights of Tri-Valley Bank shareholders who continue as Heritage shareholders after the merger will be governed by the articles of incorporation and bylaws of Heritage rather than by the articles of incorporation and bylaws of Tri-Valley Bank. For a complete discussion of the comparison of shareholders' rights, see the section entitled, "Comparison of Shareholders' Rights" beginning on page 80.

Risk Factors (page 19)

Before voting at the Tri-Valley Bank special shareholders' meeting, you should carefully consider all of the information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including the risk factors set forth in the section entitled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 19 or described in Heritage's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended on December 31, 2016 and other reports filed with the SEC, which are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger (page 48)

Heritage will account for the merger as a purchase under the acquisition method of accounting as required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Under this method of accounting, the tangible and identifiable intangible assets and liabilities of the company acquired are recorded at their respective fair value as of completion of the merger, and are added to those of the acquiring company. In addition, any excess or deficiency of the difference between the total acquisition cost as compared to the net sum of these assets and liabilities will result in goodwill or a bargain purchase price being recorded. Financial statements of the acquiring company issued after the merger takes place reflect these values, but are not restated retroactively to reflect the historical financial position or results of operations of the company that was acquired.

Dissenters' Rights of Tri-Valley Bank Shareholders (page 56)

In the event Tri-Valley Bank's shareholders approve the merger and you have not voted in favor of the merger and you do not wish to accept the merger consideration offered for your shares, you have the right to dissent from the merger and receive the fair market value of your shares determined as of the date of and immediately prior to the first public announcement of the merger under the provisions of Chapter 13 of the California Corporations Code.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including the matters addressed under the caption entitled "Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements," Tri-Valley Bank shareholders should carefully consider the following risk factors in deciding whether to vote for approval of the merger and approval and adoption of the merger agreement. See "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 87.

Because the exchange ratio of 0.0489 is fixed and will not adjust in the event of changes in the price of either Heritage's or Tri-Valley Bank's common stock, the value of the merger consideration is subject to change.

The merger agreement provides that each share of Tri-Valley Bank common stock will be converted into the right to receive 0.0489 shares of Heritage common stock upon completion of the merger. The exchange ratio is fixed. No adjustments to this exchange ratio will be made based on changes in the price of either Tri-Valley Bank common stock or Heritage common stock prior to the completion of the merger. Changes in stock prices may result from a variety of factors, including, among others, general market and economic conditions, changes in Heritage and/or Tri-Valley Bank's respective businesses, operations and prospects, market assessment of the likelihood that the merger will be completed as anticipated or at all, and regulatory considerations. Many of these factors are uncertain and beyond Heritage's or Tri-Valley Bank's control.

As a result of any change in stock prices, the market value of the shares of Heritage common stock that a Tri-Valley Bank shareholder will receive at the time that the merger is completed could vary significantly from the value of such shares on the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the date of the Tri-Valley Bank special shareholders' meeting, or the date on which such Tri-Valley Bank shareholders actually receive their shares of Heritage common stock. For example, based on the range of closing prices of Heritage common stock during the period from December 19, 2017 the last trading day before Heritage and Tri-Valley Bank announced that they had entered into the merger agreement, through [•] [•], 2018, the latest practicable date before the printing of this proxy statement/prospectus, the exchange ratio represented a market value ranging from a low of $[•] to a high of $[•] for each share of Tri-Valley Bank common stock. Accordingly, at the time of the Tri-Valley Bank special shareholders' meeting, the Tri-Valley Bank shareholders, will not know or be able to calculate the exact market value of the consideration the Tri-Valley Bank shareholders will receive upon completion of the merger. Tri-Valley Bank shareholders should obtain current market quotations for shares of Heritage common stock before voting their shares at the Tri-Valley Bank special shareholders' meeting.

Tri-Valley Bank shareholders will experience dilution as a result of the merger; Tri-Valley Bank shareholders will exercise less influence over the management of Heritage.

In connection with the merger, Tri-Valley Bank shareholders will receive 0.0489 shares of Heritage common stock in exchange for each share of Tri-Valley Bank common stock (except with respect to fractional shares) pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement. As a consequence, following the merger, the shareholders of Tri-Valley Bank will experience dilution in their ownership percentage and voting power in Heritage, compared with their ownership percentage and voting power in Tri-Valley Bank prior to the merger. If the merger is consummated and based upon the exchange ratio of 0.0489, current Tri-Valley Bank common stock shareholders will own approximately 4.8% of Heritage's common stock, on a fully diluted basis.

Tri-Valley Bank shareholders currently have the right to vote in the election of directors of Tri-Valley Bank and other matters affecting Tri-Valley Bank. Because each Tri-Valley Bank shareholder who receives shares of Heritage common stock will become a shareholder of Heritage with a percentage ownership of Heritage that is smaller than such shareholder's percentage ownership of

Tri-Valley Bank, Tri-Valley Bank shareholders will have less influence on the management and policies of Heritage than they now have on the management and policies of Tri-Valley Bank.

The market price for Heritage common stock may be affected by factors different from those that historically have affected Tri-Valley Bank.

Upon completion of the merger, holders of Tri-Valley Bank common stock will become holders of Heritage common stock. Heritage's business differs from that of Tri-Valley Bank, and accordingly the results of operations of Heritage will be affected by some factors that are different from those currently affecting the results of operations of Tri-Valley Bank. For a discussion of the business of Heritage and some important factors to consider in connection with its business, see the section entitled "Information Regarding Heritage" beginning on page 76 and the documents incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus and referred to under the section entitled "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 87.

Heritage may fail to realize the anticipated benefits of the merger of Tri-Valley Bank and United American Bank.

The success of the merger will depend on, among other things, Heritage's ability to combine the businesses of Heritage, Tri-Valley Bank and United American Bank. If Heritage is not able to successfully achieve this objective, the anticipated benefits of the merger may not be realized fully, or at all, or may take longer to realize than expected.

Heritage, Tri-Valley Bank and United American Bank have operated and, until the consummation of the mergers, will continue to operate independently. It is possible that the integration process or other factors could result in the loss or departure of key employees, the disruption of the ongoing business of Heritage, Tri-Valley Bank and United American Bank or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies. It is also possible that clients, customers, depositors and counterparties of Tri-Valley Bank and United American Bank could choose to discontinue their relationships with the combined company post-merger, which would adversely affect the future performance of the combined company. These transition matters could have an adverse effect on each of Heritage, Tri-Valley Bank and United American Bank during the pre-merger period and for an undetermined time after the consummation of the merger.

Heritage, HBC, Tri-Valley Bank and United American Bank will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the merger is pending that could adversely affect their respective businesses.

The parties' efforts to complete the merger could cause substantial disruptions in Heritage's, Tri-Valley Bank's and/or United American Bank's respective businesses, which could have an adverse effect on their respective financial results. Among other things, uncertainty as to whether the mergers will be completed may affect the ability of each of the parties to recruit prospective employees or to retain and motivate existing employees. Employee retention may be particularly challenging while the merger is pending because employees may experience uncertainty about their future roles with the combined company.

Uncertainty as to the future could adversely affect Heritage's, Tri-Valley Bank's and/or United American Bank's respective businesses, reputation and relationships with potential depositors, borrowers and vendors. For example, vendors, customers and others who deal with Heritage, HBC, Tri-Valley Bank or United American Bank could defer decisions concerning working with such company, or seek to change existing business relationships with such company. Further, a substantial amount of the attention of management and employees of each company is being directed toward the completion of the mergers and thus is being diverted from such company's day-to-day operations because matters related to the merger (including integration planning) require substantial commitments of time and resources.

In addition, the merger agreement restricts Tri-Valley Bank and United American Bank from taking certain actions without Heritage's consent while the merger is pending. These restrictions may, among other matters, prevent Tri-Valley Bank or United American Bank from pursuing otherwise attractive business opportunities, selling assets, changing the capital structure, entering into other transactions or making other changes to its business prior to consummation of the merger or termination of the merger agreement. These restrictions could have a material adverse effect on Tri-Valley Bank's and United American Bank's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Regulatory approvals may not be received, may take longer than expected or may impose conditions that are not presently anticipated or cannot be met.

Before the transactions contemplated in the merger agreement may be completed, various approvals must be obtained from the bank regulatory and other governmental authorities. These governmental entities may impose conditions on the granting of such approvals. Such conditions or changes and the process of obtaining regulatory approvals could have the effect of delaying completion of the merger or of imposing additional costs or limitations on Heritage following the merger. The regulatory approvals may not be received at any time, may not be received in a timely fashion, and may contain conditions on the completion of the merger that are not anticipated or cannot be met. It is a condition to closing the merger that no regulatory approval shall contain or shall have resulted in, or reasonably be expected to result in the imposition of, any burdensome condition on the combined company following the merger.

The merger agreement may be terminated in accordance with its terms and the merger may not be completed.

The merger agreement is subject to a number of conditions which must be fulfilled in order to complete the merger. Those conditions include: approval of the merger agreement by Tri-Valley Bank shareholders, receipt of requisite regulatory approvals subject to certain limitations set forth in the merger agreement, absence of orders prohibiting completion of the merger, effectiveness of the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part, approval of the shares of Heritage common stock to be issued to Tri-Valley Bank shareholders for listing on the NASDAQ Global Select Market, the continued accuracy of the representations and warranties by both parties, the absence of a material adverse effect on either Heritage or Tri-Valley Bank, the satisfaction of certain financial tests by Tri-Valley Bank and the performance by both parties of their covenants and agreements. These conditions to the closing of the merger may not be fulfilled and, accordingly, the merger may not be completed. In addition, if the merger is not completed by October 1, 2018, either Heritage or Tri-Valley Bank may choose not to proceed with the merger, and the parties can mutually decide to terminate the merger agreement at any time, before or after shareholder approval. In addition, Heritage and Tri-Valley Bank may elect to terminate the merger agreement in certain other circumstances. If the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, Tri-Valley Bank may be required to pay a termination fee of $1.5 million to Heritage. See "The Merger Agreement Termination; Termination Fee" beginning on page 73 for a fuller description of these circumstances.

Failure to complete the merger could negatively impact Heritage's, HBC's and/or Tri-Valley Bank's respective businesses, financial condition, results of operations and/or stock prices.

If the merger agreement is terminated and the merger is not completed, the ongoing businesses of Heritage, HBC and Tri-Valley Bank may be adversely affected. The market price of Heritage's and Tri-Valley Bank's common stock may decline to the extent that the current market price reflects a market assumption that the merger will be completed. In addition, Heritage and Tri-Valley Bank may experience negative reactions to the termination of the merger from customers, depositors, investors, vendors and others with whom they deal, and neither Heritage nor Tri-Valley Bank would realize any of the anticipated benefits of having completed the merger. The expenses of each of Heritage and Tri-Valley Bank incurred in connection with the merger, such as legal and accounting fees, must be paid even if the merger is not completed and may not be recovered from the other party.

Further, if the merger agreement is terminated and Tri-Valley Bank's board of directors seeks another merger or business combination, Tri-Valley Bank shareholders cannot be certain that Tri-Valley Bank will be able to find a party willing to pay the equivalent or greater consideration than that which Heritage has agreed to pay in the merger.

Tri-Valley Bank directors and officers may have interests in the merger different from the interests of other Tri-Valley Bank shareholders.

The interests of some of the directors and executive officers of Tri-Valley Bank may be different from those of other Tri-Valley Bank shareholders, and directors and officers of Tri-Valley Bank may be participants in arrangements that are different from, or are in addition to, those of other Tri-Valley Bank shareholders. The merger would constitute a "change of control" for purposes of the Tri-Valley Bank executive employment contracts and severance payments would be due Tri-Valley Bank executive officers if the executive does not continue employment with Heritage or if the executive is terminated (except for cause) by Heritage as a result of the change in control. In addition, the Tri-Valley Bank executive officers hold shares of restricted stock that will fully vest upon completion of the merger. Each of Tri-Valley Bank's executive officers and directors hold stock options that will fully vest on the change of control. Stephen S. Taylor, one of the Tri-Valley Bank directors, beneficially owns a warrant to purchase 2,020,202 shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock with an exercise price of $0.33 per share. The warrant expires on April 23, 2019, and by its terms Mr. Taylor has the right to have his warrant assumed by Heritage. Mr. Taylor has agreed with Tri-Valley Bank not to exercise the warrant prior to the closing of the merger as required by the terms of the merger. Tri-Valley Bank will pay Mr. Taylor $50,000 for relinquishing his right to have the warrant assumed by Heritage. At the close of the merger, Mr. Taylor will be entitled to receive, subject to any required tax withholding, an amount in cash, without interest, from Heritage equal to $888,889, representing the excess of $0.77 over the exercise price of $0.33 per share. These interests are described in more detail under the section entitled "The Merger Interests of Tri-Valley Bank Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" beginning on page 50.

Shares of Heritage common stock to be received by Tri-Valley Bank shareholders as a result of the merger will have rights different from the shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock.

Upon completion of the merger, the rights of former Tri-Valley Bank shareholders will be governed by the articles of incorporation and bylaws of Heritage. The rights associated with Tri-Valley Bank common stock are different from the rights associated with Heritage common stock, although both companies are organized under California law. Please see the section entitled "Comparison of Shareholders' Rights" beginning on page 80 for a discussion of the different rights associated with Heritage common stock.

The merger agreement contains provisions that may discourage other companies from trying to acquire Tri-Valley Bank for greater merger consideration.

The merger agreement contains provisions that may discourage a third party from submitting a business combination proposal to Tri-Valley Bank that might result in greater value to Tri-Valley Bank's shareholders than the merger with Heritage. These provisions include a general prohibition on Tri-Valley Bank from soliciting, or, subject to certain exceptions, entering into discussions with any third party regarding any acquisition proposal or offers for competing transactions. The members of the board of directors of Tri-Valley Bank have entered into shareholder agreements to vote their shares of

Tri-Valley Bank common stock in favor of the merger proposal and against any alternative transaction. Tri-Valley Bank also has an unqualified obligation to submit the merger proposal to a vote by its shareholders, even if Tri-Valley Bank receives a proposal that its board of directors believes is superior to the merger unless the merger agreement is validly terminated. The directors and executive officers that are party to the shareholder agreements described in this paragraph beneficially own and are entitled to vote in the aggregate approximately 52.06% of the outstanding shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock as of the record date. In addition, Tri-Valley Bank may be required to pay Heritage a termination fee of $1.5 million in certain circumstances involving acquisition proposals for competing transactions. For further information, see the sections entitled "The Merger Shareholder Agreements" beginning on page 53 and "The Merger Agreement Termination; Termination Fee" beginning on page 73.

The combined company expects to incur substantial expenses related to the mergers.

The combined company expects to incur substantial expenses in connection with consummation of the merger and combining the business, operations, networks, systems, technologies, policies and procedures of Heritage, Tri-Valley Bank and United American Bank. Although Heritage, Tri-Valley Bank and United American Bank have assumed that a certain level of transaction and combination expenses would be incurred, there are a number of factors beyond their control that could affect the total amount or the timing of the combination expenses. Many of the expenses that will be incurred, by their nature, are difficult to estimate accurately at the present time. Due to these factors, the transaction and combination expenses associated with the mergers could, particularly in the near term, exceed the savings that the combined company expects to achieve from the elimination of duplicative expenses and the realization of economies of scale and cost savings related to the combination of the businesses following the consummation of the mergers. As a result of these expenses, both Heritage, Tri-Valley Bank and United American Bank expect to take charges against their earnings before and after the completion of the mergers. The charges taken in connection with the mergers are expected to be significant, although the aggregate amount and timing of such charges are uncertain at present.

The opinion of Tri-Valley Bank's financial advisor provided to Tri-Valley Bank's Board of Directors prior to the signing of the merger agreement will not reflect changes in circumstances since such opinion was rendered.

Tri-Valley Bank received a written opinion from its financial advisor, FIG Partners, on December 20, 2017, to the effect that, as of such date and subject to the qualifications, limitations and assumptions set forth in its written opinion, the per share exchange ratio in the proposed merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to the common shareholders of Tri-Valley Bank. Subsequent changes in the operations and prospects of Tri-Valley Bank or Heritage, general market and economic conditions and other factors that may be beyond the control of Tri-Valley Bank or Heritage may significantly alter the value of Tri-Valley Bank or the price of the shares of Heritage common stock or Tri-Valley Bank common stock by the time the merger is completed. The opinion does not speak as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, as of the time the merger will be completed or as of any date other than the date of such opinion. The merger agreement does not require that the opinion be updated as a condition to the merger, and Tri-Valley Bank does not intend to request that the opinion be updated. For a description of the opinion that Tri-Valley Bank received from its financial advisor, please refer to the sections entitled "The Merger Opinion of Tri-Valley Bank's Financial Advisor" beginning on page 36.

Dividend Policy

The decision whether to pay dividends and the amount, if any, to be paid is made on a quarterly basis by the Heritage board of directors in light of conditions then existing, including factors such as its results of operations, financial condition, business conditions and regulatory capital requirements.

It is Federal Reserve policy that bank holding companies should generally pay dividends on common stock only out of income available over the past year, and only if prospective earnings retention is consistent with the organization's expected future needs and financial condition. It is also Federal Reserve policy that bank holding companies not maintain dividend levels that undermine the holding company's ability to be a source of strength to its banking subsidiaries. Additionally, in consideration of the current financial and economic environment, the Federal Reserve has indicated that bank holding companies should carefully review their dividend policy and has discouraged payment ratios that are at maximum allowable levels unless both asset quality and capital are very strong. Under the federal Prompt Corrective Action regulations, the Federal Reserve or the FDIC may prohibit a bank holding company from paying any dividends if the holding company's bank subsidiary is classified as undercapitalized.

As a holding company, Heritage's ability to pay cash dividends is affected by the ability of HBC to pay cash dividends. The ability of HBC to pay cash dividends in the future and the amount of any such cash dividends is and could be in the future further influenced by bank regulatory requirements and approvals and capital guidelines.

As a California state-chartered bank, the ability of Tri-Valley Bank to pay dividends is subject to restrictions set forth in the California Financial Code. Subject to compliance with such restrictions, shareholders are entitled to receive dividends when and if declared by the board of directors of Tri-Valley Bank. Tri-Valley Bank has not declared or issued any cash dividends on its common stock since its organization in 2005. The board of directors' policy is to retain capital to support future growth, and therefore Tri-Valley Bank does not anticipate paying dividends in the foreseeable future.

Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, Tri-Valley Bank has agreed, that prior to the effective time of the merger, without the prior written consent of Heritage, that it will not make, declare, pay or set aside for payment any dividend in respect of any shares of its capital stock.

On or about [•] [•], 2018, Tri-Valley Bank commenced mailing this proxy statement/prospectus and the enclosed form of proxy to its shareholders entitled to vote at the Tri-Valley Bank special shareholders' meeting.

Purpose of Special Shareholders' Meeting

At the Tri-Valley Bank special shareholders' meeting, Tri-Valley Bank shareholders will be asked to:

approve the merger and approve and adopt the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus, which is referred to as the merger proposal; and approve one or more adjournments of the Tri-Valley Bank special shareholders' meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including adjournments to permit further solicitation of proxies in favor of the merger proposal, which is referred to as the adjournment proposal.

Recommendation of the Tri-Valley Bank Board of Directors

The Tri-Valley Bank board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" the merger proposal and "FOR" the adjournment proposal (if necessary or appropriate). See "The Merger Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Tri-Valley Bank Board of Directors" beginning on page 34.

As of the record date, directors and executive officers of Tri-Valley Bank owned and were entitled to vote [•] shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock, representing approximately 52.06% of the shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock outstanding on that date. The members of the board of directors and executive officers of Tri-Valley Bank have each entered into a shareholder agreement with respect to the merger and have agreed to vote their shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock in favor of the merger proposal. For further information, see "The Merger Shareholder Agreements" beginning on page 53. As of the record date, Heritage beneficially held no shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock.

Record Date and Quorum

The Tri-Valley Bank board of directors has fixed the close of business on [•] [•], 2018 as the record date for determining the holders of Tri-Valley Bank common stock entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the special shareholders' meeting.

As of the Tri-Valley Bank record date, there were [•] shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Tri-Valley Bank special shareholders' meeting held by [•] holders of record. Each share of Tri-Valley Bank common stock entitles the holder to one vote at the Tri-Valley Bank special shareholders' meeting on each proposal to be considered at the Tri-Valley Bank special shareholders' meeting.

A majority of the shares entitled to vote, represented either in person or by a properly executed proxy, will constitute a quorum at the special shareholders' meeting. Votes cast will be counted by the inspectors of election at the special shareholders' meeting. The inspectors will treat abstentions and "broker non-votes" as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, but they are not treated as shares voted on any proposal. Broker non-votes are shares held by brokers or nominees as to which instructions have not been received from the beneficial owners or persons entitled to vote and the broker or nominee does not have discretionary voting power under applicable rules of the stock exchange or other self-regulatory organization of which the broker or nominee is a member.

Required Vote

Required Vote to Approve the Merger Proposal

The affirmative vote of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock entitled to vote is required to approve the merger proposal.

Required Vote to approve the Adjournment Proposal

Assuming a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock represented (in person or by proxy) at the Tri-Valley Bank special shareholders' meeting and entitled to vote on the proposal is required to approve the adjournment proposal.

Treatment of Abstentions; Failure to Vote

For purposes of the Tri-Valley Bank special shareholders' meeting, an abstention occurs when a Tri-Valley Bank shareholder attends the Tri-Valley Bank special shareholders' meeting, either in person or by proxy, but abstains from voting.

For the merger proposal, an abstention or a failure to vote will have the same effect as a vote cast "AGAINST" this proposal.

For the adjournment proposal, abstentions will have no effect on such proposals, unless there are insufficient votes in favor of these proposals, such that the affirmative votes constitute less than a majority of the required quorum. In such cases, abstentions will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" this proposal.

Voting on Proxies; Incomplete Proxies

Giving a proxy means that a Tri-Valley Bank shareholder authorizes the persons named in the enclosed proxy card to vote its shares at the special shareholders' meeting in the manner it directs. A Tri-Valley Bank shareholder may vote by proxy or in person at the special shareholders' meeting. If you hold your shares of common stock in your name as a shareholder of record, to submit a proxy, you, as a shareholder, may use one of the following methods:

By telephone: Use any touch-tone telephone to vote your proxy 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Follow the instructions on your proxy card in order to vote by telephone.

Through the Internet: Use the Internet to vote your proxy 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Follow the instructions on your proxy card in order to vote through the internet.

By mail: Complete and return the proxy card in the enclosed envelope. The envelope requires no additional postage if mailed in the United States.

Tri-Valley Bank requests that Tri-Valley Bank shareholders vote by telephone, over the Internet or by completing, signing and dating the accompanying proxy and returning it to Tri-Valley Bank as soon as possible in the enclosed postage-paid envelope. When the accompanying proxy is returned properly executed, the shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock represented by it will be voted at the Tri-Valley Bank special shareholders' meeting in accordance with the instructions contained on the proxy card.

If any proxy is returned without indication as to how to vote, the shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock represented by the proxy will be voted as recommended by the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors, including "FOR" the merger proposal and "FOR" the adjournment proposal, in which case

you will be prohibited from asserting dissenters' rights. In addition, your proxy confers discretionary authority to the proxy holders may use their discretion to vote on any other matters to be voted upon at the special shareholders' meeting that were not known to the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors a reasonable time before the date of this proxy document.

If a Tri-Valley Bank shareholder's shares are held in "street name" by a broker, bank or other nominee, the shareholder should check the voting form used by that firm to determine whether it may vote by telephone or the Internet.

Every Tri-Valley Bank shareholder's vote is important. Accordingly, each Tri-Valley Bank shareholder should complete, sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card, or vote via the Internet or by telephone, whether or not the Tri-Valley Bank shareholder plans to attend the special shareholders' meeting in person.

Shares Held in Street Name

If you are a Tri-Valley Bank shareholder and your shares are held in "street name" through a bank, broker or other holder of record, you must provide the record holder of your shares with instructions on how to vote your shares. Please follow the voting instructions provided by the bank or broker. You may not vote shares held in street name by returning a proxy card directly to Tri-Valley Bank or by voting in person at the special shareholders' meeting unless you provide a "legal proxy," which you must obtain from your broker, bank or other nominee. Further, brokers, banks or other nominees who hold shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock on behalf of their customers may not give a proxy to Tri-Valley Bank to vote those shares with respect to any of the proposals without specific instructions from their customers, as brokers, banks and other nominees do not have discretionary voting power on these matters. Therefore, if you are a Tri-Valley Bank shareholder and you do not instruct your broker, bank or other nominee on how to vote your shares:

your broker, bank or other nominee may not vote your shares on the merger proposal, which broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" this proposal; and your broker, bank or other nominee may not vote your shares on the adjournment proposal, which broker non-votes will have no effect on the vote count for such proposal, unless there are insufficient votes in favor of this proposal, such that the affirmative votes constitute less than a majority of the required quorum. In such cases, abstentions will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" this proposal.

Revocability of Proxies and Changes to a Tri-Valley Bank Shareholder's Vote

Tri-Valley Bank shareholders have the power to change their votes at any time before their shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock are voted at the special shareholders' meeting by:

sending a notice of revocation to Tri-Valley Bank, Attention: Corporate Secretary, 3160 Crow Canyon Rd., Suite 160, San Ramon, California 94583, stating that you would like to revoke your proxy;

logging onto the Internet website specified on your proxy card in the same manner you would to submit your proxy electronically or by calling the telephone number specified on your proxy card, in each case if you are eligible to do so and following the instructions on the proxy card;

sending a completed proxy card bearing a later date than your original proxy card; or attending the Tri-Valley Bank special shareholders' meeting and voting in person.

If you choose any of the first three methods, you must take the described action no later than the beginning of the Tri-Valley Bank special shareholders' meeting. If you choose to send a completed proxy card bearing a later date than your original proxy card or a notice of revocation, the new proxy card or notice of revocation must be received before the beginning of the Tri-Valley Bank special shareholders' meeting. If you have instructed a bank, broker or other nominee to vote your shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock, you must follow the directions you receive from your bank, broker or other nominee in order to change or revoke your vote.

Solicitation of Proxies

The cost of solicitation of proxies from Tri-Valley Bank shareholders will be borne by Tri-Valley Bank. Tri-Valley Bank will reimburse brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for reasonable expenses incurred by them in sending proxy materials to the beneficial owners of common stock. In addition to solicitations by mail, Tri-Valley Bank's directors, officers and regular employees may solicit proxies personally or by telephone without additional compensation.

Attending the Tri-Valley Bank Special Shareholders' Meeting

All Tri-Valley Bank shareholders as of the record date, or their duly appointed proxies, may attend the special shareholders' meeting.

If you hold your shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock in your name as a shareholder of record and you wish to attend the Tri-Valley Bank special shareholders' meeting, please bring your proxy and evidence of your stock ownership, such as your most recent account statement, to the Tri-Valley Bank special shareholders' meeting. You must also bring valid photo identification.

If your shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock are held in "street name" in a stock brokerage account or by a bank or nominee and you wish to attend the Tri-Valley Bank special shareholders' meeting, you need to bring a copy of a bank or brokerage statement to the Tri-Valley Bank special shareholders' meeting reflecting your stock ownership as of the record date. You must also bring valid photo identification.

Merger Proposal

As discussed throughout this proxy statement/prospectus, Tri-Valley Bank is asking its shareholders to approve the merger proposal. You should carefully read this proxy statement/prospectus in its entirety, including the appendices, for more detailed information concerning the merger agreement and the merger. In particular, you are directed to the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus.

The Tri-Valley Bank board of directors recommends that you vote "FOR" the merger proposal.

Each of the directors and executive officers of Tri-Valley Bank has entered into a shareholder agreement with Heritage and HBC, pursuant to which they have agreed to vote "FOR" the merger proposal. For more information regarding the shareholder agreements, please see the section entitled "The Merger Shareholder Agreements" beginning on page 53.

Adjournment Proposal

The special shareholders' meeting may be adjourned to another time or place, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special shareholders' meeting to approve the merger proposal.

If the number of shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock present or represented and voting in favor of the merger proposal is insufficient to approve the merger proposal, Tri-Valley Bank intends to move to adjourn the special shareholders' meeting in order to enable the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors to solicit additional proxies for approval of the proposal. In that event Tri-Valley Bank will ask its shareholders to vote only upon the adjournment proposal, and not the merger proposal.

In the adjournment proposal, Tri-Valley Bank is asking its shareholders to authorize the holder of any proxy solicited by the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors to vote in favor of granting discretionary authority to the proxy holders, to adjourn the special shareholders' meeting to another time and place for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies. If the Tri-Valley Bank shareholders approve the adjournment proposal, Tri-Valley Bank could adjourn the special shareholders' meeting and use the additional time to solicit additional proxies, including the solicitation of proxies from Tri-Valley Bank shareholders who have previously voted.

The Tri-Valley Bank board of directors recommends that you vote "FOR" the adjournment proposal.

Tri-Valley Bank 2018 Annual Meeting

As a result of the pending merger with Heritage, the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors does not plan to hold its 2018 annual meeting of shareholders. Tri-Valley's bylaws provide that annual meetings shall be held in May of each year, unless the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors selects a different date, and the 2017 annual meeting was held on May 25, 2017. If the merger is consummated during 2018, as anticipated, Tri-Valley Bank shareholders will become Heritage shareholders and Tri-Valley Bank will cease to exist as a corporation, so no annual meeting of Tri-Valley Bank shareholders would be necessary. If, for any reason, completion of the merger is delayed, or the merger agreement is terminated, the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors would then determine whether to call for an annual meeting of Tri-Valley Bank shareholders for 2018, in order to remain in compliance with the bylaws of Tri-Valley Bank and applicable law.

THE MERGER

The following is a discussion of the merger and the material terms of the merger agreement between Heritage, HBC, and Tri-Valley Bank. You are urged to read carefully the merger agreement in its entirety, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus and incorporated by reference herein. This summary does not purport to be complete and may not contain all of the information about the merger agreement that is important to you. This section is not intended to provide you with any factual information about Heritage or Tri-Valley Bank. Such information can be found elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus and in the public filings of Heritage with the SEC, as described in the section entitled "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 87.

Terms of the Merger

Transaction Structure

Heritage's and Tri-Valley Bank's boards of directors have approved the merger agreement. In addition, Tri-Valley Bank's board of directors unanimously recommend that the Tri-Valley Bank shareholders approve the merger proposal. No approval of Heritage's shareholders is required to complete the merger. The merger agreement provides for the acquisition of Tri-Valley Bank by Heritage through the merger of Tri-Valley Bank with and into HBC, a bank chartered under the laws of California and the wholly-owned bank subsidiary of Heritage, with HBC continuing as the surviving corporation.

Merger Consideration

In the merger each share of Tri-Valley Bank common stock owned by a Tri-Valley Bank shareholder will be converted into the right to receive 0.0489 shares of Heritage common stock. A Tri-Valley Bank shareholder will receive cash in lieu of any fractional shares of Heritage common stock such holder is entitled to receive, without interest.

Table of Contents

Based on the 20-day volume weighted average share price of Heritage common stock of $15.76 per share on December 19, 2017, the last trading day before the announcement of the merger, the value of the merger consideration was $0.77 per share. Based on the closing share price of Heritage common stock of $[•] on [•] [•], 2018, the most recent day for which information was available prior to the printing and mailing of this proxy statement/prospectus, the value of the merger consideration was $[•] per share. The share price of Heritage common stock will fluctuate and accordingly, the value of the merger consideration you receive may be different than either of these amounts.

Treatment of Tri-Valley Bank Stock Options and Warrants

Each outstanding option to purchase shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock, whether or not vested and whether or not then exercisable, will be cancelled and the holder of the option will be entitled to receive, subject to any required tax withholding, an amount in cash, without interest, from Tri-Valley Bank equal to the excess over the exercise price per share, if any, of the per share exchange ratio multiplied by the volume weighted average of the closing price for shares of Heritage common stock as quoted on the NASDAQ Global Select Market for the twenty consecutive trading days ending on the fifth trading day immediately prior to the merger closing date.

A warrant to purchase 2,020,202 shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock, held by one of Tri-Valley Bank's directors will be cancelled and the holder of the warrant will be entitled to receive, subject to any required tax withholding, an amount in cash, without interest, from Heritage equal to $888,889, representing the excess of $0.77 over the exercise price of $0.33 per share.

Background of the Merger

As part of their ongoing consideration and evaluation of their respective long-term prospects and strategies, each of Heritage's and Tri-Valley Bank's board of directors and senior management have regularly reviewed and assessed their respective business strategies and objectives, including potential strategic opportunities, all with the goal of enhancing value for their respective shareholders. These potential strategic opportunities, from time to time, have included, among other things, the consideration of potential business combination transactions. The strategic considerations have focused on, among other things, the business and regulatory environment facing financial institutions generally and Heritage and Tri-Valley Bank, respectively, in particular, as well as conditions and ongoing consolidation in the financial services industry. Consistent with this approach, Tri-Valley Bank's board of directors met with several investment banking firms in the Spring of 2017 to discuss the bank's strategic alternatives, including representatives of FIG Partners at a board meeting held on May 9, 2017.

On June 7, 2017, without deciding whether to pursue a strategic transaction or remain independent, the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors retained FIG to act as an independent financial advisor to Tri-Valley Bank and the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors to assist the board in its consideration of alternative strategies to enhance long-term shareholder value, including a potential merger or sale of the bank. The board of directors selected FIG Partners based on the firm's experience in advising community banks in merger transactions.

In connection with the foregoing, the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors also formed an M&A committee to evaluate potential merger opportunities consisting of David Beretta, Louis M. Cosso, Daljit Hundal and Mark E. Lefanowicz (chair) and Stephen S. Taylor. The members of the M&A Committee were selected based on their experience with prior merger and acquisition transactions in the financial industry and their status as independent (non-employee) directors.

During the third quarter of 2017, at the direction of the M&A Committee, FIG Partners contacted 11 potential acquirers to gauge market interest in a potential transaction involving Tri-Valley Bank. Of the entities contacted, eight executed nondisclosure agreements and conducted limited due diligence on Tri-Valley Bank. Of these, four potential acquirers including Heritage submitted nonbinding indications of interest in September 2017. Heritage proposed an all-stock transaction with an implied value of approximately $0.75 cents per share and an aggregate value of $31.3 million, assuming the exercise of all warrants and the cancelation of stock options in exchange for cash payments, or approximately $29.3 million based on the number of shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock outstanding. Heritage's proposal was subject to the completion of Heritage's due diligence and required that Tri-Valley Bank agree to 60-day exclusivity period in order to allow Heritage the opportunity to negotiate a definitive merger agreement with Tri-Valley Bank and to complete its due diligence. The three other parties proposed stock or mixed stock and cash transactions with lower implied valuations than Heritage's proposal.

On September 19, 2017, the M&A Committee reviewed the four proposals with FIG and its legal counsel from Sheppard, Mullin, Richter and Hampton LLP, which we refer to as Sheppard Mullin, and, unanimously voted to recommend that the full Tri-Valley Bank board of directors approve Heritage's nonbinding indication of interest to continue discussions with Heritage exclusively. On September 21, 2017, the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors considered the four proposals at a regular meeting. At the meeting, M&A Committee reported its activities to the board of directors and recommended that the board approved the bank's entry into the nonbinding indication of interest with Heritage. Representatives of FIG advised the board regarding the financial aspects of the four proposals. FIG also reviewed financial aspects of the bank remaining independent and continuing to grow its business in accordance with Tri-Valley Bank's business plan. A representative of Sheppard Mullin advised Tri-Valley Bank's board of directors concerning its fiduciary duties and Heritage's proposed nonbinding indication of interest. After discussion, Tri-Valley Bank board of directors approved Heritage's indication of interest, subject to the negotiation of several nonfinancial terms. On October 3, 2017, Tri-Valley Bank executed Heritage's nonbinding indication of interest and entered into an exclusivity agreement with Heritage in which Tri-Valley Bank agreed not to discuss an alternative strategic transaction with any other party before December 2, 2017.

During September and October 2017, Heritage continued its due diligence of Tri-Valley Bank both on-site at Tri-Valley Bank's headquarters and through an online data room, as well as through conversations with Tri-Valley Bank's management and advisors. On October 27, 2017, Heritage's legal counsel, Buchalter, A Professional Corporation, which we refer to as Buchalter, delivered an initial draft of the definitive merger agreement. On October 31, 2017, the M&A Committee reviewed the draft with FIG and a representative of Sheppard Mullin. The draft merger agreement included a fixed exchange ratio of 0.0529 shares of Heritage common stock, which implied a value of $0.80 per share based on the trading price of Heritage common stock on that date. The draft also included several financial tests among the conditions to Heritage's obligation to complete the transaction, including a requirement that Tri-Valley Bank maintain a minimum level of shareholders equity. During the month of November, Tri-Valley Bank and Heritage and their advisors negotiated the terms of the definitive agreement and exchanged revised drafts of the merger agreement, with Tri-Valley Bank's M&A Committee leading and making key decisions in negotiations with Heritage while periodically reporting to the full board of directors.

During November, the parties' negotiations included discussions of the possibility that new lower federal tax rates, if implemented, would lower the value of Tri-Valley Bank's deferred tax asset and, in turn, Tri-Valley Bank's shareholder's equity, likely to a level below the minimum required as a closing condition. On December 1, 2017, as a result of further due diligence findings and the potential impact of tax reform on Tri-Valley Bank's shareholders' equity, Heritage proposed a revised fixed exchange of ratio of 0.0517 shares of Heritage common stock, which would be subject to potential reduction to the extent that Tri-Valley Bank's shareholders' equity at closing was less than the minimum required as a result of the proposed tax reform. On December 4, 2017, Buchalter, Heritage's legal counsel, delivered to Tri-Valley Bank's counsel a revised draft of the merger agreement reflecting this change.

On December 13, 2017, the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors convened a special meeting to consider the draft of the merger agreement. FIG reviewed the financial aspects of the transaction.

On December 14, 2017, the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors convened another special meeting to consider the draft of the merger agreement. Sheppard Mullin, Tri-Valley Bank's legal counsel, provided a detailed overview of the merger agreement and related exhibits including voting agreements and non-competition/non-solicitation agreements and advised the board concerning its fiduciary duties. At that meeting, FIG reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed merger, which provided for a fixed exchange ratio of 0.0517 shares, which implied a value of $0.82 per share based on the closing price of Heritage common stock reported on Nasdaq the previous day, but if Tri-Valley Bank's federal tax rate were lowered to 21% as a result of potential tax reform, FIG Partners estimated that the resulting decrease in Tri-Valley Bank's shareholders equity could cause the exchange ratio to decrease to an estimated 0.0479 with an implied value of $0.76 per share of Tri-Valley common stock. Among other factors, the Board considered that even if the exchange ratio decreased to 0.0479, the proposed merger agreement with Heritage still had a higher implied value than any of the other three offers the bank received. Four of the bank's directors opposed the approval of the merger agreement as presented and indicated that they would not sign their voting and non-competition/non-solicitation agreements in support of the transaction contemplated by the merger agreement.

During the following days, Tri-Valley Bank and Heritage continued negotiations surrounding the exchange ratio. On December 18, 2017, Heritage's Chief Executive Officer, attended a special meeting of the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors to discuss the merger. In the course of the discussion the board of directors proposed increasing the fixed exchange ratio to an implied value of $0.77 per share based on the 20-day weighted closing price of Heritage's common stock while both eliminating any potential adjust to the exchange ratio and revising the measurement of Tri-Valley Bank's shareholders' equity for purposes of the merger agreement's shareholder equity test exclude any impact of a lower tax rate. Heritage's Chief Executive Officer said that he would take the proposal back to his board and advise Tri-Valley later that day. Subsequently, Heritage's Chief Executive Officer informed the Tri-Valley Chairman of the Board that Heritage would be agreeable to the proposal as outlined for $0.77 per share subject to Heritage board approval. Later that day, Buchalter, Heritage's counsel, delivered a revised draft of the merger agreement to Tri-Valley Bank's counsel, which included an increased fixed exchange ratio of 0.0489 shares of Heritage common stock, which had an implied value of $0.77 per share based on the 20-day volume weighted average closing price of Heritage's common stock of $15.76 on December 19, 2017.

The Tri-Valley Bank board of directors met again on December 20, 2017. Prior to the meeting, Mr. Beretta submitted his resignation, stating that he could be unable to comply with his non-competition agreement and shareholder agreement. Tri-Valley Bank's legal counsel, provided a detailed overview of the changes to the merger agreement since last reviewed with the board. At that meeting, FIG reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed merger and rendered an opinion to the effect that, as of that date and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by FIG Partners as set forth in such opinion, the merger consideration to be received by the holders of Tri-Valley Bank common stock in the proposed merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. The Tri-Valley Bank board of directors then unanimously approved the merger agreement and other related documents.

On December 20, 2017, the Heritage board of directors met with its management, financial advisors and legal counsel, who reviewed with the board the terms of the merger agreement, the strategic rationale for the transaction, financial considerations that were material to the transaction, and the board's fiduciary duties. The board of directors then unanimously adopted a joint resolution of the boards of directors of Heritage and HBC approving the merger and directing Mr. Kaczmarek to execute the merger agreement.

At the conclusion of the respective board meetings on December 20, 2017, and pursuant to the resolutions adopted by each of Heritage's and Tri-Valley Bank's board of directors, Heritage and Tri-Valley Bank executed the merger agreement and all related documents, dated as of December 20, 2017.

After closing of the stock markets on December 20, 2017, both companies issued a joint press release announcing the execution of the merger agreement and the terms of the proposed merger. At the time of announcement, the transaction had a value of approximately $31.6 million or $0.77 per common share of Tri-Valley Bank based on the 20-day volume weighted average share price of Heritage common stock of $15.76 on December 19, 2017.

Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Tri-Valley Bank Board of Directors

In unanimously approving the merger agreement, the merger and other transactions contemplated in the merger agreement as being in the best interests of Tri-Valley Bank and its shareholders and recommending that Tri-Valley Bank shareholders vote "FOR" the merger agreement, the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors consulted with Tri-Valley Bank management, as well as its independent financial and legal advisors, and considered a number of factors, including the following material factors:

Its knowledge of Tri-Valley Bank's business, operations, financial condition, asset quality, earnings, capital and prospects both as an independent organization, as a possible acquirer executing its strategic plan and as a part of a combined company with Heritage, as well as under various other alternative scenarios;

Its understanding of Heritage's business, operations, regulatory and financial condition, asset quality, earnings, capital and prospects taking into account presentations by senior management of the results of due diligence review and information from FIG Partners and Sheppard Mullin;

Its belief that the merger will provide Tri-Valley Bank's shareholders with an investment in a commercial banking franchise with a sufficiently diversified revenue stream, strong capital ratios, a strong funding base and good future prospects that has the potential to deliver a higher value to Tri-Valley Bank's shareholders than alternatives to the merger;

The complementary nature of the cultures and product mix of Tri-Valley Bank and Heritage;

The expanded possibilities, including organic growth and future acquisitions and other strategic transactions, that would be available to the combined company, given its larger size, asset base, capital, market capitalization and trading liquidity and footprint;

The fact that the value of the merger consideration for holders of Tri-Valley Bank common stock at the time of execution of the merger agreement at $0.77 per share based on the 20-day volume weighted average share price of Heritage common stock of $15.76 on December 19, 2017, the last trading day before the merger was announced, represents a premium of approximately 22.22% over the $0.63 last reported trading price of Tri-Valley Bank common stock on the OTC Market Group's OTC Pink market on December 19, 2017, and the board's review of similar transactions and belief that the transaction is likely to provide greater future value to Tri-Valley Bank's shareholders than Tri-Valley Bank on a stand-alone basis;

The financial analyses of FIG Partners and the written opinion of FIG Partners, Tri-Valley Bank's financial advisor, dated as of December 20, 2017, delivered to the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors to the effect that, as of that date, and subject to and based on the various assumptions, considerations, qualifications and limitations set forth in the opinion, the exchange ratio was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Tri-Valley Bank common stock;

The effects of the merger on other Tri-Valley Bank employees which would increase the retention of Tri-Valley Bank customers and the likelihood of success of the combined companies;

The board's understanding of the current and prospective environment in which Tri-Valley Bank and Heritage operate, including national and local economic conditions, the interest rate environment, increasing operating costs resulting from regulatory initiatives and compliance mandates, the competitive environment for financial institutions generally, and the likely effect of these factors on Tri-Valley Bank both with and without the proposed transaction;

The payment by Heritage of a quarterly dividend of $0.10 per share on its common stock, and the expectation such dividend will be continued and possibly increased in the future;

The merger is consistent with Tri-Valley Bank's strategic plan, including improving customer attraction, retention and service;

The ability of Heritage and HBC to complete the merger from a financial and regulatory perspective;

The equity interest in the combined company that Tri-Valley Bank's existing shareholders will receive in the merger, which allows such shareholders to continue to participate in the future success of the combined company;

The board's understanding that the merger is intended to qualify as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, and, as such, the merger generally is intended to result in favorable U.S. federal income tax consequences to all of the parties, including Tri-Valley Bank's shareholders; and

The board's review with its independent legal advisor, Sheppard Mullin, of the material terms of the merger agreement, including the board's ability, under certain circumstances, to withdraw its recommendation to Tri-Valley Bank's shareholders, to accept a superior acquisition proposal and terminate the merger agreement in certain circumstances, subject to the potential payment by Tri-Valley Bank of a termination fee of $1.5 million to Heritage, which the board of directors concluded was reasonable in the context of termination fees in comparable transactions and in light of the overall terms of the merger agreement.

The Tri-Valley Bank board of directors also considered a number of potential risks and uncertainties associated with the merger in connection with its deliberation of the proposed transaction, including, without limitation, the following:

The potential risk of diverting management attention and resources from the operation of Tri-Valley Bank's business and towards the completion of the merger;

The restrictions on the conduct of Tri-Valley Bank's business prior to the completion of the merger, which are customary for public company merger agreements involving financial institutions, but which, subject to specific exceptions, could delay or prevent Tri-Valley Bank from undertaking business opportunities that may arise or any other action it would otherwise take with respect to the operations of Tri-Valley Bank absent the pending merger;

The merger-related costs;

The fact that the interests of certain of Tri-Valley Bank's directors and executive officers may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of Tri-Valley Bank's other shareholders as described under the heading " Interests of Tri-Valley

Edgar Filing: HERITAGE COMMERCE CORP - Form S-4

Bank's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" beginning on page 50;

The fact that, because 100% of the merger consideration consists of a fixed exchange ratio of 0.0489 shares of Heritage common stock, the market value of the shares of Heritage common stock that Tri-Valley Bank shareholders will receive in the Merger is unknown and Tri-Valley

Bank shareholders could be adversely affected by a decrease in the trading price of Heritage common stock during the pendency of the merger;

The fact that, while Tri-Valley Bank expects that the merger will be consummated, there can be no assurance that all conditions to the parties' obligations to complete the merger agreement will be satisfied, including the risk that necessary regulatory or Tri-Valley Bank shareholder approval might not be obtained and, as a result, the merger may not be consummated;

The risk of potential employee attrition and/or adverse effects on business and customer relationships as a result of the pending merger; and

The fact that Tri-Valley Bank would be obligated to pay to Heritage a termination fee of $1.5 million if the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, which may discourage other parties potentially interested in a strategic transaction with Tri-Valley Bank from pursuing such a transaction.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors considered by the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors. In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors did not quantify or assign any relative weights to the factors considered, and individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. The Tri-Valley Bank board of directors considered all these factors as a whole, including discussions with, and questioning of Tri-Valley Bank's management and Tri-Valley Bank's independent financial and legal advisors, and overall considered the factors to be favorable to, and to support, its determination.

Tri-Valley Bank's board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement and unanimously recommends that Tri-Valley Bank's shareholders vote "FOR" the approval of the Tri-Valley Bank merger proposal.

This summary of the reasoning of Tri-Valley Bank's board of directors and other information presented in this section is forward-looking in nature and, therefore, should be read in light of the factors discussed under the heading "Cautionary Note Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" beginning on page 17.

Each of the directors and executive officers of Tri-Valley Bank has entered into a shareholder agreement with Heritage, pursuant to which they have agreed to vote "FOR" the merger proposal. For more information regarding the shareholder agreements, see the section entitled "The Merger Shareholder Agreements" beginning on page 53.

Opinion of Tri-Valley Bank's Financial Advisor

FIG Partners delivered to the board of directors of Tri-Valley Bank its opinion dated December 20, 2017 that, based upon and subject to the various considerations set forth in its written opinion, the merger consideration to be paid by Heritage to the shareholders of Tri-Valley Bank is fair from a financial point of view. In requesting FIG Partners' advice and opinion, no limitations were imposed by Tri-Valley Bank upon FIG Partners with respect to the investigations made or procedures followed by it in rendering its opinion. The full text of the opinion of FIG Partners, which describes the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken, is attached hereto as Appendix B. Tri-Valley Bank shareholders should read this opinion in its entirety.

FIG Partners is a nationally recognized investment banking firm and, as part of its investment banking business, it is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions in connection with mergers and acquisitions, private placements and for other corporate purposes. As a specialist in securities of financial institutions, FIG Partners has experience in, and knowledge of, banks, thrifts and bank and thrift holding companies. Tri-Valley Bank's board of directors selected FIG Partners to act as its financial advisor in connection with the merger on the basis of the firm's reputation and expertise in transactions such as the merger.

FIG Partners will receive a fee from Tri-Valley Bank for performing its financial advisory services in connection with the merger and in rendering a written opinion to Tri-Valley's board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Tri-Valley Bank shareholders of the merger consideration paid by Heritage; a portion of such fee is contingent upon the consummation of the merger. Further, Tri-Valley Bank has agreed to indemnify FIG Partners against any claims or liabilities arising out of FIG Partners' engagement by Tri-Valley Bank. This opinion has been reviewed by FIG Partners' compliance officer and Fairness Committee consistent with internal policy. Apart from this transaction, FIG Partners has not had a material relationship with Tri-Valley Bank or Heritage for which FIG Partners has received compensation during the prior two years.

FIG Partners' opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration to be received and as such, does not constitute a recommendation to any Tri-Valley Bank shareholder as to how the shareholder should vote at the Tri-Valley Bank shareholder meeting. The summary of the opinion of FIG Partners set forth in this proxy statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion.

The following is a summary of the analyses performed by FIG Partners in connection with its fairness opinion. Certain analyses were presented to the board of directors of Tri-Valley Bank by FIG Partners. The summary set forth below does not purport to be a complete description of either the analyses performed by FIG Partners in rendering its opinion or the presentation delivered by FIG Partners to the board of directors of Tri-Valley Bank, but rather it provides a summary of the material analyses performed and presented by FIG Partners.

The preparation of a fairness opinion involves various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analyses and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. In arriving at its opinion, FIG Partners did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor considered by it, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. FIG Partners may have given various analyses more or less weight than other analyses. Accordingly, FIG Partners believes that its analyses and the following summary must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses, without considering all factors considered and deemed relevant, could create an incomplete view of the process underlying the analyses set forth in its report to the board of directors of Tri-Valley Bank and its fairness opinion.

In performing its analyses, FIG Partners made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Tri-Valley Bank and Heritage. The analyses performed by FIG Partners are not necessarily indicative of actual realizable values or actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Such analyses were prepared solely as part of FIG Partners' analysis of the fairness to the Tri-Valley Bank shareholders of the merger consideration to be received, from a financial point of view. The analyses do not purport to be an appraisal or to reflect the prices at which a company might actually be sold or the prices at which any securities may trade at the present time or at any time in the future. FIG Partners' opinion does not address the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other business combination in which Tri-Valley Bank might engage. In addition, as described above, FIG Partners' opinion was one of many factors taken into consideration by the board of directors of Tri-Valley Bank in making its determination to approve the merger agreement.

During the course of its engagement, and as a basis for arriving at its opinion, FIG Partners reviewed and analyzed various materials bearing upon the financial and operating conditions of

FIG Partners compared these multiples with the corresponding multiples for the merger, valuing the total consideration that would be received pursuant to the merger agreement at approximately $29.6 million, or $0.76 per Tri-Valley Bank share based upon a fixed exchange ratio of 0.0489 and the share price of Heritage common stock of $15.51 on December 19, 2017, the last trading date before the transaction was announced. In calculating the multiples for the merger, FIG Partners used Tri-Valley Bank's

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

FIG Partners estimated the value of Tri-Valley Bank common stock by calculating the present value of Tri-Valley Bank's projected future earnings stream and projected future equity. Tri-Valley Bank provided FIG Partners with the internal budget for 2017 with a net gain of $3.9 million and, based on discussions with Tri-Valley Bank management, projections were modeled for years ending 2018, 2019, 2020 and 2021 assuming modest growth and slightly improving profitability.

FIG Partners applied a price to tangible book value multiple at ratios ranging from 150% to 190% of Tri-Valley Bank's estimated tangible book value in 2021 and price to earnings multiple at ratios ranging 18 to 22 times Tri-Valley Bank's 2021 estimated earnings to derive two unique terminal values. The present value of these terminal amounts were then calculated based on a range of discount rates of 12% to 14%. The discount rates selected by FIG Partners were intended to reflect different assumptions regarding the required rates of return for holders of Tri-Valley Bank common stock. The two analyses and the underlying assumptions yielded a range of values for Tri-Valley Bank stock.

FIG Partners assigned the greatest significance to the terminal values represented by 170% of 2021 estimated tangible book value and 20 times 2021 estimated earnings. The consideration of $0.76 to be received by Tri-Valley Bank is substantially above the indicated range on a tangible book value basis using a terminal multiple of 170% and using a price to earnings multiple of 20.0 times. When taking into account the full range of discount rates and multiples, the consideration paid to Tri-Valley Bank exceeds the indicated range.

Pro Forma Financial Impact

FIG Partners analyzed certain potential pro forma effects of the merger, based on the following assumptions: (i) the merger closes in the second calendar quarter of 2018, and; (ii) each share of the outstanding Tri-Valley Bank common stock is converted into the number of shares of Heritage stock resulting from an exchange ratio of 0.0489 equal to the Exchange. FIG Partners also incorporated the following assumptions, as provided by or based on discussion with the respective senior managements of Tri-Valley Bank and Heritage: (a) purchase accounting adjustments consisting of (i) a credit mark on loans and (ii) a core deposit intangible asset; (b) estimated annual cost savings; (c) estimated, pre-tax, one-time transaction costs; and (d) an annual pre-tax opportunity cost of cash. The analysis indicated that the merger could be accretive to the combined company's estimated earnings per share in 2018 (excluding one-time transaction expenses) and dilutive to estimated tangible book value per share at close. In connection with this analyses, FIG Partners considered and discussed with the board of directors and senior management of Tri-Valley Bank how the analysis would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including the impact of final purchase accounting adjustments determined at the closing of the transaction, and noted that the actual results achieved by the combined company may vary from projected results and the variations may be material.

As described above, based upon the foregoing analyses and all other factors considered and deemed relevant as well as other investigations and assumptions set forth in its opinion, without giving specific weightings to any one factor or comparison, FIG Partners determined that the merger consideration to be paid to the Tri-Valley Bank shareholders was fair, from a financial point of view. FIG Partners' opinion and presentation to Tri-Valley Bank's board of directors were among the many factors taken into consideration by Tri-Valley Bank's board in making its determination to approve the merger, and to recommend that Tri-Valley Bank shareholders approve the merger.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

The following is a general description of the anticipated material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. This discussion is based upon the Internal Revenue Code, the United States federal income tax regulations promulgated or proposed thereunder (the "Treasury Regulations"), judicial authorities and published positions of the Internal Revenue Service, all as currently in effect and all of which are subject to change. Accordingly, the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to the holders of Tri-Valley Bank common stock could differ from those described below.

Except as specifically stated herein, this discussion is limited to U.S. holders (as defined below) that hold shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code for U.S. federal income tax purposes. This discussion does not address the tax consequences applicable to Tri-Valley Bank shareholders that are not U.S. holders, nor does it address all of the tax consequences that may be relevant to particular U.S. holders that are subject to special treatment under U.S. federal income tax laws, including, without limitation, financial institutions, insurance companies, partnerships and other pass-through entities, tax-exempt organizations, regulated investment companies, real estate investment trusts, dealers in securities or currencies, U.S. persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar, traders in securities that elect to use a mark-to-market method of accounting, persons that hold Tri-Valley Bank common stock as part of a straddle, hedge, constructive sale or conversion transaction, certain former citizens and long-term residents of the United States, U.S. persons owning 5% or more of Tri-Valley Bank common stock or who are affiliates of Tri-Valley Bank and U.S. holders that acquired their shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock through the exercise of an employee stock option or otherwise as compensation.

If a partnership or other entity taxed as a partnership holds Tri-Valley Bank common stock, the tax treatment of a partner in the partnership will depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Partnerships holding Tri-Valley Bank common stock and partners in such partnerships should consult with their tax advisors about the tax consequences of the merger to them.

This discussion neither addresses the tax consequences of the merger under state, local or foreign tax laws nor any U.S. federal tax consequences other than income tax, including, but not limited to, U.S. federal gift tax and estate tax consequences. This discussion also does not address the tax consequences of any transaction other than the merger.

For purposes of this section, the term "U.S. holder" means a beneficial owner of Tri-Valley Bank common stock that is for U.S. federal income tax purposes (i) an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States, (ii) a corporation, or other entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state or a political subdivision thereof, (iii) an estate that is subject to U.S. federal income tax on its income regardless of its source, or (iv) a trust, the substantial decisions of which are controlled by one or more U.S. persons and which is subject to the primary supervision of a U.S. court, or that has validly elected under applicable Treasury Regulations to be treated as a U.S. person for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Tax Consequences of the Merger

The merger has been structured to qualify as a "reorganization" under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Buchalter, A Professional Corporation, counsel to Heritage, and Sheppard Mullin Richter & Hampton LLP, counsel to Tri-Valley Bank, have each agreed to deliver an opinion, dated the closing date of the merger, to the effect that the merger will be treated as a "reorganization" for U.S. federal income tax purposes within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. The opinions will assume that the merger will be completed according to the terms of the merger agreement without waiver or modification of any provision thereof. The opinions will rely on the facts as stated in the merger agreement, the Registration Statement on Form S-4 filed by Heritage in connection with the merger (of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part) and certain other documents. In rendering the opinions, counsel will rely on the representations of Tri-Valley Bank, Heritage, and HBC, to be delivered at the time of closing (and counsel will assume that any representation that is qualified by belief, knowledge or materiality is true, correct and complete without such qualification). If any assumption or representation is or becomes inaccurate, the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger could be adversely affected. The opinions will be based on statutory, regulatory and judicial authority existing as of the date of the opinion.

An opinion of counsel represents such counsel's best legal judgment, but is not binding on the Internal Revenue Service or on any court. Neither Tri-Valley Bank, Heritage nor HBC intends to request any ruling from the Internal Revenue Service as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. Consequently, no assurance can be given that the Internal Revenue Service will not assert, or that a court will not sustain, a position contrary to any of the tax consequences set forth below or any of the tax consequences described in the opinions.

Based on representations to be contained in representation letters of officers of Tri-Valley Bank, Heritage, and HBC all of which must continue to be true and accurate in all material respects as of the effective time of the merger, and subject to the other matters set forth above, it is the respective opinions of Buchalter and Sheppard Mullin that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. Based upon the foregoing, it is the opinion of Buchalter and Sheppard Mullin that the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger will be as described below.

Tax Consequences of the Merger for Tri-Valley Bank

Except as described below under "Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares of Heritage," a U.S. holder that exchanges all of its shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock for shares of Heritage common stock pursuant to the merger will not recognize gain or loss in connection with such exchange.

A U.S. holder's aggregate tax basis in the Heritage common stock received in the merger, including any fractional shares deemed received by the U.S. holder under the treatment discussed below under "Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares of Heritage," will equal such U.S. holder's aggregate tax basis in the Tri-Valley Bank common stock surrendered by such U.S. holder in the merger. The holding period for the shares of Heritage common stock received by such U.S. holder in the merger, including any fractional shares deemed received by the U.S. holder under the treatment discussed below under "Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares of Heritage," will include the holding period for the shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock exchanged therefor. If a U.S. holder acquired different blocks of Tri-Valley Bank common stock at different times or different prices, such holder's tax basis and holding periods may be determined with reference to each block of Tri-Valley Bank common stock.

Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares of Heritage

A U.S. holder that receives cash instead of a fractional share of Heritage common stock will be treated as having received the fractional share of Heritage common stock pursuant to the merger and then having exchanged the fractional share of Heritage common stock for cash in a redemption by Heritage. This deemed redemption will be treated as a sale or exchange and a U.S. holder will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between (i) the amount of cash received by such U.S. holder and (ii) the portion of the basis of the shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock allocable to such fractional interest. Such gain or loss will constitute capital gain or loss and will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. holder's holding period for the Tri-Valley Bank common stock exchanged by such U.S. holder is greater than one year as of the effective time of the merger. Long-term capital gains of non-corporate U.S. holders are generally subject to reduced rates of taxation. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations. Capital gains recognized by individuals, trusts and estates also may be subject to a 3.8% federal Medicare contribution tax on "net investment income" as provided in Section 1411 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Notwithstanding the previous paragraph, if the receipt of the cash is deemed to be essentially equivalent to the distribution of a dividend to the U.S. holder, the gain would be treated as dividend income. A dividend from Heritage would generally be treated as a "qualified dividend" and, as such, taxed at the same rates applicable to long-term capital gains.

Dissenting Shareholders

A dissenting U.S. holder who exchanges all of the holder's shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock for cash generally will recognize capital gain or loss equal to the difference between (i) the amount of cash received by the holder and (ii) the holder's adjusted tax basis in the Tri-Valley Bank common stock exchanged therefor. Such gain or loss generally will constitute capital gain or loss and, if the holder held the shares for more than one year at the effective time of the exchange, will be long-term capital gain or loss. Long-term capital gains of non-corporate U.S. holders are generally subject to reduced rates of taxation. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations. Capital gains recognized by individuals, trusts and estates also may be subject to a 3.8% federal Medicare contribution tax on "net investment income" as provided in Section 1411 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Cash payments received in the merger by a U.S. holder may, under certain circumstances, be subject to information reporting and backup withholding at a current rate of 24% (for 2018) of the cash payable to the U.S. holder, unless the U.S. holder provides proof of an applicable exemption, furnishes its taxpayer identification number (in the case of individuals, their social security number) and otherwise complies with all applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amounts withheld from payments to a U.S. holder under the backup withholding rules are not additional tax and will be allowed as a refund or credit against the U.S. holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is timely furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

THE FOREGOING IS NOT A SUBSTITUTE FOR AN INDIVIDUAL ANALYSIS OF THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER TO TRI-VALLEY BANK SHAREHOLDERS. TRI-VALLEY BANK SHAREHOLDERS ARE URGED TO CONSULT WITH THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS AS TO THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER TO THEIR PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES, INCLUDING THE APPLICABILITY AND EFFECT OF U.S. FEDERAL (INCLUDING THE ALTERNATIVE MINIMUM TAX), STATE, LOCAL OR FOREIGN AND OTHER TAX LAWS AND OF CHANGES IN THOSE LAWS.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger

The merger will be accounted for under the acquisition method of accounting under generally accepted accounting principals. Under this method, Tri-Valley Bank's assets and liabilities as of the date of the merger will be recorded at their respective fair values and added to those of HBC. Any excess between the purchase price for Tri-Valley Bank and the fair value of the identifiable net assets acquired (including core deposit intangibles) will be recorded as goodwill. In accordance with FASB Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 350, "Intangibles - Goodwill and Other," the goodwill resulting from the merger will not be amortized to expense, but instead will be reviewed for impairment at least annually and to the extent goodwill is impaired, its carrying value will be written down to its implied fair value and a charge will be made to earnings. Core deposit and other intangibles with definite useful lives recorded by Heritage in connection with the merger will be amortized to expense. The financial statements of Heritage after the merger will reflect the results attributable to the acquired operations of Tri-Valley Bank beginning on the date of completion of the merger.

Sale or Transfer of Heritage Common Stock

The shares of Heritage common stock that you receive as a result of the merger will be registered under the Securities Act of 1933 as amended, or the Securities Act. You may freely trade, sell or transfer these shares of Heritage common stock if you are not considered an "affiliate" of Heritage, as that term is defined in the federal securities laws. Generally, an "affiliate" of Heritage is any person or entity directly or indirectly controlling or who is controlled by Heritage. Heritage's affiliates generally include directors, certain executive officers and holders of 10% or more of Heritage's common stock.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger

Completion of the merger is subject to the receipt of all approvals required to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement from the Federal Reserve and the California Department of Business Oversight and the expiration of any applicable statutory waiting periods, in each case subject to the condition that none of the approvals shall contain any "burdensome condition". The merger agreement defines a "burdensome condition" to mean any condition that would, or would be reasonably likely to, individually or in the aggregate, materially reduce the benefits of the merger to such a degree that a party would not have entered into the merger agreement had such conditions, restrictions or requirements been known at the date of execution of the merger agreement. Each of Heritage and Tri-Valley Bank have agreed to take all actions that are necessary, proper and advisable in connection with obtaining all regulatory approvals, and have agreed to fully cooperate with the other in the preparation and filing of the applications and other documents necessary to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger. Heritage, HBC and Tri-Valley Bank have filed, or are in the process of filing, applications and notifications to obtain these regulatory approvals.

Although the parties currently believe they should be able to obtain all required regulatory approvals in a timely manner, they cannot be certain when or if they will obtain them or, if obtained, whether they will contain terms, conditions or restrictions not currently contemplated that will be detrimental to the combined company after the completion of the merger or will contain a burdensome condition.

Federal Reserve Application Under the Bank Merger Act

Because HBC is a state member bank regulated by the Federal Reserve, prior approval of the merger of Tri-Valley Bank with and into HBC is required from the Federal Reserve, pursuant to Section 18(c) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, which we refer to as the Bank Merger Act (12 U.S.C. Section 1828(c)). In evaluating an application filed under the Bank Merger Act, the Federal Reserve is required to take into consideration (i) the competitive impact of the proposed transactions, (ii) financial and managerial resources and future prospects of the banks party to the merger, (iii) the convenience and needs of the communities served by the banks and their compliance with the Community Reinvestment Act, (iv) the banks' effectiveness in combating money-laundering activities, and (v) the extent to which the proposed transactions would result in greater or more concentrated risks to the stability of the U.S. banking or financial system. In connection with its review under the Bank Merger Act, the Federal Reserve provides an opportunity for public comment on the application for the merger and is authorized to hold a public meeting or other proceeding if it determines that would be appropriate.

Transactions approved by the Federal Reserve under the Bank Merger Act generally may not be completed until thirty days after the approval of the Federal Reserve is received, during which time the Department of Justice may challenge the transaction on antitrust grounds. With the approval of the Federal Reserve and the concurrence of the Department of Justice, the waiting period may be reduced to no less than fifteen days. The commencement of an antitrust action would stay the effectiveness of such an approval unless a court specifically ordered otherwise. In reviewing the merger, the Department of Justice could analyze the merger's effect on competition differently than the Federal Reserve, and thus it is possible that the Department of Justice could reach a different conclusion than the Federal Reserve does regarding the merger's effects on competition. A determination by the Department of Justice not to object to the merger may not prevent the filing of antitrust actions by private persons or the state attorney general.

California Department of Business Oversight Applications

The prior approval of the California Department of Business Oversight will be required under Section 4880 et seq. of the California Financial Code to merge Tri-Valley Bank with and into HBC. In reviewing the merger of Tri-Valley Bank with and into HBC, the Department of Business Oversight will consider (i) the competitive impact of the merger, (ii) the adequacy of the surviving depository corporation's shareholders' equity and financial condition, (iii) whether the directors and executive officers of the surviving depository institution will be satisfactory, (iv) whether the surviving depository corporation will afford reasonable promise of successful operation and whether it is reasonable to believe that the surviving depository corporation will be operated in a safe and sound manner and in compliance with all applicable laws, and (v) whether the merger is fair, just and equitable to the disappearing depository corporations and the surviving depository corporations.

Table of Contents

Additional Regulatory Approvals, Notices and Filings

Additional notifications, filings and/or applications will be submitted to various other federal and state regulatory authorities and self-regulatory organizations in connection with the merger.

Although Heritage and Tri-Valley Bank expect to obtain the required regulatory approvals, there can be no assurances as to if, or when, these regulatory approvals will be obtained, the terms and conditions on which the approvals may be granted, or whether there will be litigation challenging such approvals. There can likewise be no assurances that U.S. or state regulatory authorities will not attempt to challenge the merger on antitrust grounds or for other reasons, or, if such a challenge is made, as to the result of any such challenge.

Management and Board of Directors of Heritage After the Merger

Upon completion of the merger, the composition of the board of directors of the combined company will be the same as the current board of Heritage. The Heritage board of directors currently consists of nine directors and, upon the completion of the merger, they will continue as the members of the board of directors.

The current executives and senior officers of Heritage and HBC will continue in their current positions. Information about the current Heritage directors and executive officers can be found in the documents listed under the section entitled "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 87.

Interests of Tri-Valley Bank Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors with respect to the merger, Tri-Valley Bank shareholders should be aware that the executive officers and directors of Tri-Valley Bank have certain interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of Tri-Valley Bank shareholders generally. The Tri-Valley Bank board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and making its recommendation that Tri-Valley Bank shareholders vote to approve the merger proposal. These interests are described in further detail below.

Stock Ownership

The directors and executive officers of Tri-Valley Bank beneficially owned (excluding options and warrants) as of the record date, a total of 20,336,488 shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock, representing approximately 52.06% of the total outstanding shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock. Each of the directors and executive officers of Tri-Valley Bank has entered into a shareholder agreement with Heritage pursuant to which, among other things, the directors and executive officers have agreed to vote any shares they beneficially own in favor of the merger proposal. The directors and executive officers of Tri-Valley Bank will receive the same per share exchange ratio as the other shareholders of Tri-Valley Bank.

Stock Options

Each outstanding option to purchase shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock, including options held by executive officers and directors, whether or not then vested and whether or not then exercisable, will be cancelled and the holder of the option will be entitled to receive, subject to any required tax withholding, an amount in cash, without interest, from Tri-Valley Bank equal to the product of the total number of shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock subject to the option, times the excess of the exercise price per share, if any, of the per share exchange ratio multiplied by the volume weighted average of the closing prices for shares of Heritage common stock as quoted on the NASDAQ Global Select Market for the twenty consecutive trading days ending on the fifth trading day immediately before the closing date, which we refer to as the stock option consideration.

The directors and executive officers of Tri-Valley Bank hold options to purchase an aggregate of 1,485,715 shares of common stock of Tri-Valley Bank which are exercisable or will become exercisable at the effective time of the merger. Each of these option holders has executed an option holder agreement with Heritage pursuant to which the option holders have agreed not to exercise their options prior to the effective time of the merger and providing that their options will terminate at the effective time of the merger in consideration for payment at the effective time of the merger of an amount in cash equal to the stock option consideration. The form of option holder agreement is included as Annex E to the merger agreement attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A.

Each executive officer of Tri-Valley Bank holds restricted shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock that have not vested as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. Under the terms of their restricted stock agreements and the Tri-Valley Bank equity plan, these shares of restricted stock will fully vest as a result of the merger, subject to any tax withholding, and the holders of the restricted stock will receive the same consideration as the other shareholders of Tri-Valley Bank. The following table sets forth the number of unvested shares of restricted stock held by executive officers that will become vested as a result of the merger and the value of such shares, assuming the closing share price of Heritage common stock of $15.51 on December 19, 2017:

	Number of shares of Unrestricted Stock	Value as of December 19, 2017
Marshall Griffin	150,000	$ 113,766
Arnold T. Grisham	240,000	$ 182,025
Glen E. Lezama	150,000	$ 113,766

Warrant

Stephen S. Taylor, one of Tri-Valley Bank's directors, beneficially owns a warrant to purchase 2,020,202 shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock with an exercise price of $0.33 per share. The warrant expires on April 23, 2019, and by its terms Mr. Taylor has the right to have his warrant assumed by Heritage. Mr. Taylor has agreed with Heritage not to exercise the warrant prior to the closing of the merger as required by the merger terms. At the close of the merger, Mr. Taylor will be entitled to receive, subject to any required tax withholding, an amount in cash, without interest, from Heritage equal to $888,889, representing the excess of $0.77 over the exercise price per share. In addition, Tri-Valley Bank will pay Mr. Taylor $50,000 for relinquishing his right to have the warrant assumed by Heritage.

Change in Control Payments under Employment Agreements

Tri-Valley Bank's three executive officers, Marshall Griffin, Arnold T. Grisham and Glen E. Lezama, have entered into contracts with Tri-Valley Bank that provide severance payments on a change of control. Each employment agreement provides that if within two years of a change in control, the executive's employment is terminated by the Tri-Valley Bank (or its successor), or the executive terminates the employment agreement for a "good reason," the executive is entitled to a sum equal to twelve months salary, plus accrued and unpaid salary and any incentive compensation earned but yet paid up through the date of termination. In the event any payments made to the executive would be nondeductible by reason of Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code, the amounts payable to the executive will be reduced to the largest amount that could be paid without any portion being nondeductible by reason of Section 280G. The merger will constitute a change of control for purposes of the employment agreements. The forgoing severance payments are conditioned upon the executive executing and delivering to Tri-Valley Bank (or its successor) a release of claims agreement.

Summary of Payments to Executive Officers

The following table summarizes certain payments to be received by the executive officers of Tri-Valley Bank as a result of the consummation of the transactions under the merger agreement. These estimated amounts are based on multiple assumptions that may or may not actually occur, including assumptions described in this proxy statement/prospectus. Some of these assumptions are based on information not currently available and, as a result, the actual amounts, if any, to be received by an executive officer may differ from the amounts set forth below.

Name(1)	Cash(2)	Stock Options(3)	Restricted Stock(4)	Total
Marshall Griffin	$ 160,000	$	$ 113,766	$ 273,766

- (1) If applicable, values computed assuming the closing share price of Heritage common stock of $15.51 on December 19, 2017, the last trading day before the announcement of the merger, and is calculated based on the difference between the per share exchange ratio and the exercise price of the options.
- (2) Represents estimated amount payable under employment agreements with respect to termination of executive following a change in control. It is not anticipated that any of these amounts will be reduced, as required by Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code as excess parachute payments.
- (3) Represents amount payable to executive with respect to options that will accelerate as a result of the merger.
- (4) Represents the value of the shares of restricted stock that will be accelerated and assumes that the closing value of Heritage common stock is $15.51 per share, which was the closing price of Heritage common stock on December 19, 2017, the last day of trading before the announcement of the merger.

The cash amounts to be paid to the executive officers described in the table and footnotes above will be paid in a lump sum by Tri-Valley Bank immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

Insurance

Pursuant to the merger agreement, Heritage is required to maintain in effect the current policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance maintained by Tri-Valley Bank (or comparable coverage) for a period of six years from the effective date of the merger with respect to possible claims against directors and/or executive officers of Tri-Valley Bank arising from facts or events which occurred prior the effective time of the merger.

Indemnification

Heritage agreed to indemnify the directors and officers of Tri-Valley Bank, against all losses, claims, damages, costs, expenses (including attorneys' fees), liabilities or judgments or amounts that are paid in settlement of or in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding, investigation or other legal proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of matters existing or occurring at or before the effective time of the merger, whether asserted or claimed before, at or after the effective time of the merger, arising in whole or in part out of or pertaining to the fact that he or she was acting in his or her capacity as a director or officer of Tri-Valley Bank or a subsidiary thereof to the fullest extent that the indemnified party would be entitled under the articles of incorporation and bylaws of Tri-Valley Bank as in effect on the date of the merger agreement and to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Shareholder Agreements

In connection with entering into the merger agreement and as an inducement to the willingness of Heritage and HBC to enter into the merger agreement, each of the Tri-Valley Bank directors and executive officers executed and delivered to Heritage a shareholder agreement, which we refer to collectively as the shareholder agreements. Each director and executive officer entered into the shareholder agreement in his or her capacity as the record or beneficial owner of shares and/or stock options of Tri-Valley Bank and not in his or her capacity as a director or executive officer of Tri-Valley Bank. The following summary of the shareholder agreements is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the full text of the shareholder agreements attached as Annex A to the merger agreement included this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A.

Pursuant to the shareholder agreements, each director and executive officer agreed to vote his or her shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock:

in favor of the merger, the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

against any action or agreement that could be expected to result in a breach in any material respect of any covenant, representation or warranty or any other obligation or agreement under the merger agreement; and except with the prior written consent of Heritage, vote against the following actions (other than the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement): (i) any extraordinary corporate transactions, such as a merger, consolidation or other business combination; (ii) any sale, lease or transfer of a material amount of the assets; (iii) any change in the majority of the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors; (iv) any material change in the present capitalization; (v) any amendment of the articles of incorporation or bylaws; (vi) any other material change in the corporate structure or business; or (vii) any other action which is intended, or could reasonably be expected to, impede, interfere with, delay, postpone, discourage or materially adversely affect the merger.

Each director, in his or her capacity as a shareholder, also agreed not to enter into any agreement or understanding with any person or entity to vote or give instructions in any manner inconsistent with the above clauses.

Until the earlier of the termination of the merger agreement or the effective time of the merger, each director agreed not to, directly or indirectly:

sell, transfer, exchange, pledge, assign, hypothecate, encumber, tender or otherwise dispose of, or enforce or permit execution of the provisions of any redemption, share purchase or sale, recapitalization or other agreement with Tri-Valley Bank or any other person;

enter into any contract, option or other agreement, arrangement or understanding with respect to the transfer of, directly or indirectly, any of the shares or any securities convertible into or exercisable for shares, any other capital stock of Tri-Valley Bank or any interest in any of the foregoing with any person;

enter into swap or any other agreement or any transaction that transfers, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, the economic consequence of ownership of the shares;

take any action that would make any of the shareholder's representations or warranties contained in the shareholder agreement untrue or incorrect in any material respect or have the effect of preventing or disabling the shareholder from performing the shareholder's obligations under the shareholder agreement; or deposit any Tri-Valley Bank shares in a voting trust or grant any proxy (other than to the proxy holders identified by the Tri-Valley Bank board for the special shareholders' meeting to approve the merger) or enter into any voting agreement with respect to the shares.

Each director and executive officer, in his or her capacity as a shareholder, has further agreed to not directly or indirectly initiate, solicit, induce or knowingly encourage, or knowingly take any action to facilitate the making of, any inquiry, offer or proposal which constitutes, or reasonably would be expected to lead to an acquisition proposal, or participate in any discussion or negotiations regarding any acquisition proposal, or furnish, or otherwise afford access, to any person (other than Heritage) to any information or data with respect to Tri-Valley Bank or otherwise relating to an acquisition proposal.

Mr. Taylor also agreed not to exercise the warrant he holds that is exercisable into 2,020,202 shares of Tri-Valley Bank Common Stock.

The obligations of the shareholders will terminate upon the earlier of the consummation of the merger, or if the merger is not consummated, upon the termination of the merger agreement.

Non-Solicitation and Confidentiality Agreements

In order for Heritage and HBC to have the full benefit of ownership of Tri-Valley Bank and the business it conducts, including its goodwill, following the effective time of the merger each Tri-Valley Bank director and executive officer has entered into a non-solicitation and confidentiality agreement with Heritage. The following summary is subject to, and qualified in its entirety in reference to, the full text of the agreements attached as Annex B and Annex C to the merger agreement included in this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A. The agreements provide that, each director and executing officer will not:

take any affirmative action, directly or indirectly, to hire, contact or solicit with respect to hiring, any person who was an employee of Tri-Valley Bank at the effective time of the merger and who becomes an employee of Heritage, HBC or any of their respective subsidiaries in connection with the merger, or induce or otherwise counsel, advise or knowingly encourage any such person to leave the employ of Heritage, HBC or any of their respective subsidiaries, and not directly or indirectly (i) induce, persuade, encourage or influence or attempt to induce, persuade, encourage or influence any person having a business relationship with Tri-Valley Bank at the effective time of the merger and who continues to have a business relationship with HBC or Heritage on or after the effective time, to discontinue, reduce or restrict such relationship, or (ii) solicit or target the deposits, loans or other products and services from or to persons who were depositors, borrowers or customers of Tri-Valley Bank at the effective of the merger, except for general solicitations that are directed to the general public and not directed specifically to persons who were depositors, borrowers or customers of Tri-Valley Bank.

General advertising or general solicitation through newspapers or other media of general circulation that is not specifically directed at employees of Tri-Valley Bank, Heritage, HBC or their respective affiliates or subsidiaries is not prohibited by the agreement.

The non-solicitation and confidentiality agreements also provide that, other than for the benefit of Tri-Valley Bank, Heritage, HBC or their respective affiliates or subsidiaries, the Tri-Valley Bank directors and executives shall (i) not use confidential information, (ii) not disclose trade secrets, or any part of any confidential information, to any other person, and (iii) upon the request of Heritage or HBC, deliver all documents, reports, drawings, designs, plans, proposals and other tangible evidence of confidential information possessed at the effective time of the merger or thereafter acquired by the director to Heritage and HBC.

The Tri-Valley Bank directors and executive officers also agreed to hold any and all information regarding the merger and the merger agreement in strict confidence, and not to divulge any information to any third person, until such time as the merger had been publicly announced by Tri-Valley Bank, Heritage and HBC, at which time he or she could divulge only such information as has been publicly disclosed. Each director and executive officer agreed for a two year period from the effective time of the merger to support and refrain from (i) disparaging the goodwill and reputation of

Heritage, HBC and Tri-Valley Bank, and (ii) harming the customer and client relationships of Tri-Valley Bank as of the effective time of the merger.

Each director also agreed for a two year period from the effective time of the merger without the prior written consent of Heritage (which may be withheld in Heritage's sole and absolute discretion), with a few specific exceptions, he or she would not, directly or indirectly, own, manage, operate, control, engage in or have any interest in any person, firm, corporation or business (whether as an employee, officer, director, agent, security holder, or consultant, provided that the director is not be prohibited from holding or making a passive investment (or in the case of some directors not to exceed 10%) of the outstanding shares in any class of security or the total outstanding equity of any such company that engages, in any manner, in the provision of commercial banking services in the specified restrictive areas (as defined in the agreement).

The term of the non-solicitation and confidentiality agreements ends on the second anniversary of the effective time of the merger.

Dissenters' Rights of Tri-Valley Bank's Shareholders

Dissenters' rights will be available to the Tri-Valley Bank shareholders in accordance with Chapter 13 of the California Corporations Code. The required procedure set forth in Chapter 13 of the California Corporations Code must be followed exactly or any dissenters' rights may be lost.

The information set forth below is a general summary of dissenters' rights as they apply to Tri-Valley Bank shareholders and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Chapter 13 of the California Corporations Code which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix C.

Fair Market Value of Shares

If the merger is approved, Tri-Valley Bank shareholders who dissent from the merger by complying with the procedures set forth in Chapter 13 of the California Corporations Code will be entitled to receive an amount equal to the fair market value of their shares immediately prior to the first public announcement of the merger on December 19, 2017, excluding any change in such value as a consequence of the proposed merger.

Voting Procedure

In order to be entitled to exercise dissenters' rights, the shares of Tri-Valley Bank capital stock which are outstanding on the record date and entitled to vote at the special shareholders' meeting must not have been voted "FOR" the merger by the holder of such shares. Thus, any Tri-Valley Bank shareholder who wishes to dissent and executes and returns a proxy in the accompanying form or votes at the special shareholders' meeting must not vote "FOR" the merger. If the shareholder returns a proxy without voting instructions or with instructions to vote "FOR" the merger, or votes in person at the special shareholders' meeting "FOR" the merger, his or her shares will be counted as votes in favor of the merger and the shareholder will lose any dissenters' rights.

Written Demand

Furthermore, in order to preserve his or her dissenters' rights, a Tri-Valley Bank shareholder must make a written demand upon Tri-Valley Bank for the purchase of dissenting shares and payment to the shareholder of their fair market value, specifying the number of shares held of record by the shareholder and a statement of what the shareholder claims to be the fair market value of those shares as of December 19, 2017. The demand must be addressed to Tri-Valley Bank, 3160 Crow Canyon Rd., Suite 160, San Ramon, California 94583; Attention: Corporate Secretary, and the demand must be received by Tri-Valley Bank not later than thirty days after the date on which the written notice of approval, described below, is sent to shareholders who have not voted "FOR" approval of the merger. A vote "AGAINST" the merger does not constitute the written demand.

Notice of Approval

If the merger is approved by the Tri-Valley Bank shareholders, Tri-Valley Bank will have ten days after the approval to send to those shareholders who have not voted "FOR" approval of the merger a written notice of the approval accompanied by a copy of sections 1300 through 1304 of the California Corporations Code, a statement of the price determined by Tri-Valley Bank to represent the fair market value of the dissenting shares as of December 19, 2017, and a brief description of the procedure to be followed if a shareholder desires to exercise dissenters' rights. The statement of price determined by Tri-Valley Bank to represent the fair market value of dissenting shares, as set forth in the notice of approval, will constitute an offer by Tri-Valley Bank to purchase the dissenting shares at the stated price if the merger becomes effective and the dissenting shares do not otherwise lose their status as such.

Surrender of Certificates

Within thirty days after the date on which the notice of the approval of the merger is mailed, the dissenting shareholder must surrender to Tri-Valley Bank, at the office designated in the notice of approval, both the written demand and the certificates representing the dissenting shares to be stamped or endorsed with a statement that they are dissenting shares or to be exchanged for certificates of appropriate denomination so stamped or endorsed. Any shares of Tri-Valley Bank capital stock that are transferred prior to their submission for endorsement lose their status as dissenting shares.

Agreement on Price and Payment

If Tri-Valley Bank and the dissenting shareholder agree that the surrendered shares are dissenting shares and agree upon the price of the shares, the dissenting shareholder will be entitled to the agreed price with interest thereon at the legal rate on judgments from the date of the agreement between Tri-Valley Bank and the dissenting shareholder. Payment of the fair market value of the dissenting shares will be made within thirty days after the amount thereof has been agreed upon or thirty days after any statutory or contractual conditions to the merger have been satisfied, whichever is later, subject to the surrender of the certificates therefor, unless provided otherwise by agreement.

Disagreement on Price and Court Determination

If Tri-Valley Bank denies that the shares surrendered are dissenting shares, or Tri-Valley Bank and the dissenting shareholder fail to agree upon a fair market value of the shares of Tri-Valley Bank capital stock, then the dissenting shareholder of Tri-Valley Bank must, within six months after the notice of approval is mailed, file a complaint at the Superior Court of the proper county requesting the court to make the determination or intervene in any pending action brought by any other dissenting shareholder. If the complaint is not filed or intervention in a pending action is not made within the specified six-month period, the dissenters' rights are lost. If the fair market value of the dissenting shares is at issue, the court will determine, or will appoint one or more impartial appraisers to determine, the fair market value.

Withdrawal of Demand

A dissenting shareholder may not withdraw his or her dissent or demand for payment unless Tri-Valley Bank consents to the withdrawal.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following is a summary of the material terms and conditions of the merger agreement. This summary does not purport to be complete and may not contain all of the information about the merger agreement that is important to you. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A to, and incorporated by reference into, this proxy statement/prospectus. The rights and obligations of the parties are governed by the express terms and conditions of the merger agreement and not by this summary or any other information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus. You are urged to read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety before making any decisions regarding the merger.

Effects of the Merger

The merger agreement provides for the merger of Tri-Valley Bank with and into HBC, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Heritage, with HBC surviving the merger. The merger agreement provides that the articles of incorporation and the bylaws of HBC as in effect immediately prior to the merger will be the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the surviving corporation. Each share of Tri-Valley Bank common stock issued and outstanding (other than shares with respect to which dissenters' rights have been perfected) will be converted into the right to receive 0.0489 shares of Heritage common stock. Each share of Heritage common stock outstanding immediately before the merger closes will remain outstanding after the effectiveness of the merger.

As a result of the merger, there will no longer be any publicly held shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock. Tri-Valley Bank shareholders will only participate in the surviving corporation's future earnings and potential growth through their ownership of Heritage common stock. All of the other incidents of direct ownership of Tri-Valley Bank common stock, such as the right to vote on certain corporate decisions, to elect directors and to receive dividends and distributions from Tri-Valley Bank, will be extinguished upon completion of the merger. All of the property, rights, privileges and powers of HBC and Tri-Valley Bank will vest in the surviving corporation, and all claims, obligations, liabilities, debts and duties of HBC and Tri-Valley Bank will become the claims, obligations, liabilities, debts and duties of the surviving corporation.

Effective Time of the Merger

The merger agreement provides that the merger will be consummated no later than five business days after the satisfaction or waiver of all the closing conditions, including the receipt of all regulatory and shareholder approvals and after the expiration of all regulatory waiting periods. The merger will be consummated legally at the time the agreement of merger has been duly filed with the California Department of Business Oversight and the Secretary of State of the State of California. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the parties expect that the merger will be effective in the second or early third quarter of 2018. However, there can be no assurance as to when or if the merger will occur.

If the merger is not completed by the close of business on October 1, 2018, the merger agreement may be terminated by either Tri-Valley Bank or Heritage, unless the failure of the closing to occur by such date is due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement to perform or observe the covenants and agreements of such party set forth in the merger agreement.

Letter of Transmittal; Exchange Agent; and Exchange Procedure

Following the effectiveness of the merger, a letter of transmittal form will be sent by an exchange agent containing instructions for endorsing and surrendering the Tri-Valley Bank stock certificates or book entry shares. Heritage has appointed EQ Shareowner Services as its exchange agent for the purpose of exchanging the merger consideration for Tri-Valley Bank stock certificates or book-entry shares. Tri-Valley Bank shareholders must follow the instructions on the letter of transmittal to send in their Tri-Valley Bank stock certificates in exchange for new Heritage stock certificates or book-entry shares.

Edgar Filing: HERITAGE COMMERCE CORP - Form S-4

Tri-Valley Bank shareholders will not receive any dividends or other distributions of any kind which are declared payable to shareholders of record of Heritage common stock after the effective time of the merger until such shareholder properly surrenders his, her or its Tri-Valley Bank stock certificates. Upon proper surrender, such shareholder will be paid, without interest, any dividends or other distributions with respect to the shares of Heritage common stock as to which the record date and payment date occurred on or after the effective time of the merger and on or before the date on which the shareholder surrendered his, her or its Tri-Valley Bank stock certificates.

Neither Tri-Valley Bank nor Heritage will be liable to Tri-Valley Bank shareholders for such shares (or dividends or distributions thereon) or cash delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law.

In order for Tri-Valley Bank shareholder stock certificate surrender or book-entry shares to be accepted by the exchange agent, the letter of transmittal must be properly completed and signed and accompanied by the applicable Tri-Valley Bank stock certificates or instruments of transfer as described in the letter of transmittal. If a shareholder is unable to locate his, her or its stock certificate, the shareholder must follow instructions in the letter of transmittal regarding lost stock certificates.

Following the completion of the merger and upon surrender of all of the certificates or book-entry shares representing former shares of Tri-Valley Bank common stock registered in the shareholder's name, or a satisfactory indemnity, if any, of certificates that are lost, stolen or destroyed, together with a properly completed letter of transmittal form, the exchange agent will mail to the shareholder the Heritage shares of common stock and any cash in lieu of fractional shares to which such shareholder is entitled, less the amount of any required withholding taxes. Tri-Valley Bank shareholders will not receive interest on any cash.

Certain of the representations and warranties by Tri-Valley Bank and Heritage are qualified as to "materiality" or "material adverse effect."

"Material Adverse Effect" means for Tri-Valley Bank and Heritage (and its subsidiaries), any effect, event fact, development, condition, change, occurrence or circumstance that, individually or in the aggregate, (a) is, or is reasonably expected to be, materially adverse to the business, condition, capitalization, assets, liabilities, operations, or financial performance, of such party taken as a whole, or (b) prevents or materially delays, or is reasonably likely to prevent or materially delay, the ability of such party to perform its obligations under the merger agreement or to consummate the merger or the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement on a timely basis; provided, however, that such a material adverse effect shall not be deemed to include an effect on such a party arising out of relating to or resulting from, (i) changes generally affecting the economy, financial or securities markets, (ii) the announcement of the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, (iii) any outbreak or escalation of war or hostilities or any act of terrorism, (iv) changes in the trading price or trading volume of the such party's common stock in and of itself, but not including the underlying changes thereof, (v) general conditions in the financial industry, including changes in laws, regulations rules, GAAP or regulatory accounting requirements or (vi) any changes made or actions taken or not taken by a party at the request or with the consent of the other; provided further, however, that any effect referred to in clauses (i), (iii) or (v) immediately above shall be taken into account in determining whether a material adverse effect has occurred or is reasonably expected to occur to the extent that such effect has a disproportionate effect on the referenced party, taken as a whole, compared to other participants in the financial industry in which such party conducts its business.

Certain of the representations and warranties are made to the "knowledge" of a party. The term "knowledge" means facts and other information which as of the date of the merger agreement, the president, chief executive officer, the chief financial officer, the chief operating officer or the chief credit officer of a party knows as a result of the performance of his or her duties, or that any such officer of a bank or bank holding company reasonably should know in the normal course of his or her duties, and includes such diligent inquiry as is reasonable under the circumstances.

In addition, Tri-Valley Bank has agreed to, perform its material obligations under all of its material contracts, use reasonable best efforts to preserve its business organization intact, keep available the services of its current officers and employees, and maintain its relations and goodwill with all suppliers, customers, depositors,

In addition to the general covenants above, Tri-Valley Bank has agreed that prior to the effective time of the merger, subject to specified exceptions, it will not without the written consent of Heritage (at its sole and absolute discretion):

Regulatory Matters

Heritage and Tri-Valley Bank have agreed to promptly prepare this proxy statement/prospectus and Heritage agreed to promptly file with the SEC a registration statement on Form S-4, of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part. Heritage and Tri-Valley Bank have each agreed to use their commercially reasonable efforts to have the Form S-4 declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as practicable after such filing. Heritage and Tri-Valley Bank have each agreed to furnish all information concerning themselves, their affiliates and the holders of their capital stock to the other and provide such other assistance and cooperation as may be reasonably requested in connection with the preparation, filing and distribution of the Form S-4 and this proxy statement/prospectus.

Heritage and Tri-Valley Bank have each agreed to cooperate with each other and use their reasonable best efforts to promptly prepare and file all necessary documentation, to effect all applications, notices, petitions and filings, and to obtain as promptly as practicable all permits, consents, waivers, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and any governmental entity that are necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Shareholder Approval

The Tri-Valley Bank board of directors has unanimously resolved to recommend to the Tri-Valley Bank shareholders that they adopt and approve the merger agreement (subject to certain exceptions if, following the receipt of a superior proposal (as defined below), such recommendation would result in a violation of the board's fiduciary duties under applicable law), and to submit to the Tri-Valley Bank shareholders the merger agreement, to include the recommendation that Tri-Valley Bank shareholders adopt and approve the merger agreement attached to this proxy statement/prospectus, and use reasonable best efforts to obtain from its shareholders a vote adopting the merger agreement. Tri-Valley Bank has an unqualified obligation to submit the merger agreement to its shareholders at its shareholder meeting unless the merger agreement is validly terminated.

NASDAQ Listing

Heritage has agreed to use its reasonable commercial efforts to cause the shares of Heritage common stock to be issued in the merger to be approved for listing on the NASDAQ Capital Market, subject to official notice of issuance, prior to or at the effective time of the merger.

Access to Information; Cooperation

Prior to the effectiveness of the merger Tri-Valley Bank has agreed to:

make its books and records available to Heritage for ongoing review;

provide Heritage copies of board reports and agendas and letters and communications sent to Tri-Valley Bank shareholders;

allow Heritage and its representatives to discuss Tri-Valley Bank's business affairs with its chief financial officer, chief credit officer and controller;

provide Heritage with monthly and year-end financial statements and internal management reports; and cooperate, and cause its independent auditor to cooperate, with Heritage regarding the inclusion of financial information and other correspondence that may be required in connection with applicable regulatory filings.

Each party agreed to give prompt notice to the other parties of any fact, event or circumstance known to it that (i) is reasonably likely, individually or taken together with all other facts, events and circumstances known to it, to result in any material adverse effect with respect to such party, (ii) would cause or constitute a material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement, or (iii) lead to litigation or regulatory action that would delay or prevent the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Each party agreed to use all reasonable efforts to take all actions proper or advisable under applicable law to consummate the merger and use its reasonable efforts to consummate the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Employee Matters

Employees of Tri-Valley Bank who become employees of Heritage or HBC, referred to as continuing employees, will be offered salary or wage levels at least equal to the salary or wage levels to which such employees were entitled to immediately prior to the merger closing date. As soon as administratively practicable after the effective time of the merger, Heritage will take all reasonable action so that continuing employees will be entitled to participate in each employee benefit plan, program or arrangement of Heritage and HBC of general applicability, referred to as the Heritage benefit plans, to the same extent as similarly-situated employees of Heritage and HBC, except that coverage will be continued under corresponding benefit plans of Tri-Valley Bank (to the extent such Tri-Valley Bank plans have not been terminated) until such employees are permitted to participate in the Heritage benefit plans. Continuing employees will not have the opportunity to participate in the HBC 2005 amended and restated supplemental executive retirement plan, referred to as the SERP. Heritage and HBC will use reasonable efforts to ensure that from the merger closing date through the next open enrollment date for a Heritage or HBC group health, dental, and vision, continuing employees will continue to be covered by Tri-Valley Bank's group health, dental, and vision plans. The prior service of a continuing employee with Tri-Valley Banks will be recognized for purposes of eligibility, participation, vesting and benefit accrual under Heritage employee benefit plans to the same extent that such service was recognized immediately prior to the effective time of the merger under a corresponding Tri-Valley Bank benefit plan in which such continuing employee was eligible to participate, except that that such recognition of service shall not (i) operate to duplicate any benefits of a continuing employee with respect to the same period of service, (ii) apply for purposes of any retiree medical plans, (iii) apply for purposes of the Heritage employee stock ownership plan, (iv) apply for any benefit accrual under the SERP, or (v) apply for purposes of any plan, program or arrangement under which similarly situated employees of Heritage and HBC do not receive credit for prior service or that is grandfathered or frozen, either with respect to the level of benefits or participation.

If any continuing employee becomes eligible to participate in any health or dental benefit plan, Heritage or HBC, as applicable, will request from the appropriate sponsor or provider that (i) any pre-existing condition limitations or eligibility waiting periods under such plan be waived with respect to such continuing employee and his or her covered dependents to the extent such limitation would have been waived or satisfied under a Tri-Valley Bank employee benefit plan in which such continuing employee participated immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, and (ii) recognize any health expenses incurred by such continuing employee and his or her covered dependents in the year that includes the merger closing date (or, if later, the year in which such continuing employee is first eligible to participate) for purposes of any applicable deductible and annual out-of-pocket expense requirements under any such plan.

After the effective time of the merger, Heritage and HBC will provide a severance benefit to each person who was an employee of Tri-Valley Bank immediately before the effective time (except for any employee who is a party to any written agreement relating to severance) and whose employment is terminated involuntarily, other than for "cause" (as defined below), by Heritage or HBC as of the effective time or with regard to a continuing employee within six months after the effective time. The severance benefit will consist of a lump sum payment equal to such employee's regularly scheduled base salary or base wages at the time of termination of employment for a period equal to (i) thirty days multiplied by (ii) the number of full years of continuous service completed by such employee with Tri-Valley Bank (but not less than sixty days or more than 365 days), subject to applicable tax withholding. "Cause" means the employee's personal dishonesty or misconduct, breach of fiduciary duty involving personal profit, failure to comply with any legal directive of Heritage or HBC, as applicable, failure to perform required duties, the violation of any law (other than traffic violations or similar minor offenses that do not harm the reputation of Heritage or HBC) or any legal order issued by a governmental entity.

On or after the effective time of the merger, Heritage, in its sole discretion, may elect to terminate the Tri-Valley Bank 401(k) Plan or to discontinue contributions to the Tri-Valley Bank 401(k) plan, to cause Tri-Valley Bank to terminate the 401(k) Plan, or to merge the Tri-Valley Bank 401(k) Plan with and into the Heritage Bank of Commerce 401(k) Plan.

The merger agreement specifies that none of its provisions should be interpreted or construed to confer upon any employee of Tri-Valley Bank who continues to be employed by the surviving corporation after the effective time with any right with respect to continuance of employment by or other service with the surviving corporation or any of its subsidiaries. Nor does the merger agreement interfere in any way with the right of the surviving corporation and its subsidiaries to terminate the employment or other association of any person at any time. The terms of the merger agreement do not constitute an amendment of, or interfere in any way with the right of the surviving corporation and its subsidiaries to amend, terminate or otherwise discontinue, any or all Heritage employee plans and any other plans, practices or policies of the surviving corporation or any of its subsidiaries in effect from time to time.

No provision in the merger agreement creates any right to employment or continued employment or to a particular term or condition of employment with the surviving corporation or any of its subsidiaries nor does the merger agreement create any third party beneficiary right in any person.

No Solicitation and Change in Recommendation

Tri-Valley Bank has agreed to (and agreed to cause its representatives to), cease and terminate any existing activities, discussions or negotiations with any person (other than Heritage) with respect to an Acquisition Proposal (as defined below). Tri-Valley Bank has also agreed not, and to cause each of its representatives not to, directly or indirectly:

solicit, initiate, encourage, induce, or facilitate any inquiries, offers or the making or announcement of any proposal or other action designed to facilitate any inquires or proposals that constitutes or may reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal;

furnish any information regarding Tri-Valley Bank or provide any access to the properties, books and records of Tri-Valley Bank to any person in connection with or in response to an Acquisition Proposal or an inquiry or indication of interest that may reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal;

initiate, engage or participate in discussions or negotiations with any person with respect to any Acquisition Proposal or that may reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal; or approve, endorse, or recommend, or enter into any agreement, arrangement or understanding with respect to any Acquisition Proposal constituting or related to or intended to, or that may reasonably be expected to lead to, an Acquisition Proposal, or that is intended or that may reasonably be expected to result in the abandonment, termination or failure to consummate the merger (except a confidentiality agreement).

However, if at any time prior to obtaining the approval of the shareholders of Tri-Valley Bank to adopt the merger agreement, Tri-Valley Bank receives a bona fide, unsolicited written Acquisition Proposal, Tri-Valley Bank may furnish nonpublic information regarding Tri-Valley Bank or enter into negotiations or discussions if and only if:

the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors concludes in good faith (after consultation with its financial advisor and its outside legal counsel) that the Acquisition Proposal constitutes or is more likely than not to result in a Superior Proposal (as defined below);

neither Tri-Valley Bank nor any of its representatives has violated the non-solicitation provisions under the merger agreement; and the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors concludes in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel) that such action is required or is reasonably likely required in order for the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors to comply with its fiduciary obligations under applicable law.

Prior to furnishing any material nonpublic information to a person who has made an Acquisition Proposal, Tri-Valley Bank must receive from such person an executed confidentiality agreement with terms at least as restrictive in all material respects on such person as the confidentiality agreement between Heritage and Tri-Valley Bank is on Heritage. Tri-Valley Bank has agreed to notify Heritage within 24 hours after receipt of (i) any inquiry or indication of interest that may lead to an Acquisition Proposal, (ii) an Acquisition Proposal (including any modification of or any amendment to an Acquisition Proposal), or (iii) any request for nonpublic information relating to Tri-Valley Bank by any person that has made, or to the knowledge of Tri-Valley Bank, may be considering making, an Acquisition Proposal, and provide details about the person submitting any of the foregoing, and the terms of any such Acquisition Proposal, inquiry, indication or request. Tri-Valley Bank also agreed to keep Heritage fully informed on a current basis of any additional information requested or provided by Tri-Valley Bank and any changes in the status and any changes or modifications in the terms of any such Acquisition Proposal, inquiry, indication or request.

Under the merger agreement the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors may not do any of the following, which we refer to as a "change in recommendation":

withdraw, modify, amend or qualify in a manner adverse to Heritage the recommendation that the Tri-Valley Bank shareholders approve and adopt the merger agreement;

adopt a resolution to withdraw, amend or qualify its recommendation in a manner adverse to Heritage;

take any other action that is or becomes disclosed publicly and which can reasonably be interpreted to indicate that the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors (or any committee thereof) does not support the merger and the merger agreement or does not believe that the merger and the merger agreement are in the best interests of the Tri-Valley Bank shareholders;

publicly announce its intention to withdraw, modify, amend or qualify its recommendation in a manner adverse to Heritage;

fail to reaffirm without qualification its recommendation, or fail to state publicly without qualification that the merger and the merger agreement are in the best interests of the Tri-Valley

Bank shareholders, within five business days after Heritage requests in writing that such action be taken;

fail to announce publicly, within ten business days after a tender offer or exchange offer relating to securities of Tri-Valley Bank shall have been commenced, that the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors recommends rejection of such tender offer or exchange offer;

fail to issue, within ten business days after an Acquisition Proposal is publicly announced, a press release announcing its opposition to such Acquisition Proposal;

approve, endorse or recommend any Acquisition Proposal; or resolve or propose to take any of the foregoing actions.

Prior to its shareholders adopting the merger agreement, Tri-Valley Bank may effect a change its recommendation that its shareholders vote in favor of adopting the merger agreement if (i) Tri-Valley Bank has complied with the obligations with respect to the Tri-Valley Bank shareholders' meeting and the non-solicitation of competing Acquisition Proposals described in the merger agreement, (ii) the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors receives an unsolicited bona fide, written Acquisition Proposal from any person that is not withdrawn, and (iii) a majority of the entire Tri-Valley Bank board of directors determine in good faith (after consultation with its independent financial advisors and legal counsel), that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal.

However, Tri-Valley Bank may only change its recommendation to shareholders if:

the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors determines in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel) that the failure of the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors to take such action would be or would more likely than not result in a violation of its fiduciary duties to the shareholders of Tri-Valley Bank under applicable law;

Tri-Valley Bank provides Heritage prior written notice at least three business days prior to taking such action, which notice states that the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors has received a Superior Proposal and, absent any revision to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, the Tri-Valley Bank board of directors has resolved to change its recommendation to shareholders to vote to adopt the merger agreement, which notice must specify the basis for the change of recommendation, including the material terms of the Superior Proposal (including the proposed documents and agreements);

during such three business day period, Tri-Valley Bank negotiates in good faith with Heritage (if it desires to negotiate) to enable Heritage to make an offer that is at least as favorable to the shareholders of Tri-Valley Bank so that such Acquisition Proposal would cease to constitute a Superior Proposal; and at the end of such three business day period, a majority of the entire Tri-Valley Bank board of directors, after taking into account any modifications to the terms of the merger agreement and the merger agreed to by Heritage, continues to believe (after consultation with its financial and legal advisors) that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal and the failure to accept the Acquisition Proposal would or would more likely than not result in a violation of its fiduciary duties to the shareholders of Tri-Valley Bank under applicable law.

The merger agreement provides that any amendment or modification to the financial or other material terms of such Acquisition Proposal will constitute a new Acquisition Proposal giving rise to a new three business day response period for Heritage, consequently extending the periods referenced above.

by Tri-Valley Bank, if prior to the receipt of the vote of the Tri-Valley Bank shareholders approving the merger and the merger agreement, Tri-Valley Bank (i) receives an unsolicited bona fide written competing Acquisition Proposal from any person that is not withdrawn, and a majority of the entire Tri-Valley Bank board of directors determines in good faith (after consideration with its independent financial advisors and a legal counsel) that such competing Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal and after consultation with its legal counsel that failure to take action on the competing Acquisition Proposal would or would more likely than not result in a violation of its fiduciary duties, (ii) has complied with its obligations and covenants relating to the non-solicitation of competing Acquisition Proposals and in responding to unsolicited Acquisition Proposals, (iii) has complied with its obligation to call a shareholders' meeting, to prepare and mail to its shareholders this proxy statement/prospectus, to include in this proxy statement/prospectus its recommendation that its shareholders vote in favor of the approval of the merger, or to refrain from soliciting alternative Acquisition Proposals, (iv) pays Heritage a termination fee and (v) simultaneously or substantially simultaneously with such termination Tri-Valley Bank enters into an agreement to effect the Superior Proposal; except that before Tri-Valley Bank can terminate the merger agreement under these circumstances it must:

give Heritage at least three business days prior notice providing a copy of the proposed agreement to effect the Superior Proposal and the person who has submitted the Superior Proposal;

during such three business day period negotiate in good faith with Heritage (if Heritage desires to negotiate) to enable Heritage to make an offer that is at least as favorable to the shareholders of Tri-Valley Bank so that such competing Acquisition Proposal would cease to constitute a Superior Proposal; and at the end of such three business day period, a majority of the entire Tri-Valley Bank board of directors, after taking into account any modifications to the terms of the merger agreement and the merger, continues to believe (after consultation with its financial advisors and legal counsel) that such competing Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal and, that failure to accept the competing Acquisition Proposal would or would more likely than not result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law.

Tri-Valley Bank terminates the merger agreement to enter into a Superior Proposal under the circumstances discussed above; or

Tri-Valley Bank or Heritage terminates the merger agreement because the merger was not consummated by October 1, 2018, or the Tri-Valley Bank shareholders do not approve the merger agreement or Heritage terminates the merger agreement because Tri-Valley Bank has breached the merger agreement in such a way as would prevent certain closing conditions from being obtained and would give Heritage the right to terminate the merger agreement; if (i) prior to termination any person has announced, disclosed or otherwise made known an Acquisition Proposal to the Tri-Valley Bank shareholders, senior management or board of directors and not withdrawn, and (ii) within twelve months of such termination Tri-Valley Bank consummates or enters into a definitive agreement, letter of intent, agreement in principle or similar contract with respect to an Acquisition Proposal.

The termination fee is to compensate Heritage for entering into the merger agreement, taking actions to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and incurring the costs and expenses related to the merger and other losses and expenses, including foregoing the pursuit of other opportunities by Heritage. The payment of the termination fee is Heritage's sole and exclusive remedy with respect to termination of the merger agreement, subject to a willful material breach by Tri-Valley Bank or an action for fraud.

Effect of Termination

If the merger agreement is validly terminated, the agreement will become void and have no effect without any liability on the part of Heritage or Tri-Valley Bank unless there is a willful material breach of the merger agreement by either party or either party commits fraud. However, the provisions of the merger agreement relating to confidentiality obligations of the parties, the termination fee and certain other technical provisions will continue in effect notwithstanding termination of the merger agreement.

Amendments, Extensions and Waivers

The merger agreement may be amended by the parties, by action taken or authorized by their respective boards of directors, at any time before or after approval of matters presented in connection with the merger by the shareholders of Tri-Valley Bank, except that after any approval of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement by Tri-Valley Bank's shareholders, there may not be any amendment of the merger agreement without further approval of such shareholders if required by applicable law.

At any time prior to the effective time of the merger, the parties, by action taken or authorized by their respective boards of directors, may, to the extent legally allowed, (i) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other party, (ii) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement, or (iii) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained in the merger agreement. Any agreement on the part of a party to any extension or waiver must be in writing.

Fees and Expenses

The termination fee, as described elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the merger, the merger agreement, and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement will be paid by the party incurring such fees or expenses, whether or not the merger is consummated.

Voting Rights

Each Tri-Valley Bank shareholder entitled to vote is entitled to one vote for each share held of record on all matters submitted to a vote of shareholders. In the election of directors, each shareholder may cumulate votes and give one candidate a number of votes equal to the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of votes to which the shareholder's shares are normally entitled, or distribute the shareholder's votes on the same principle among as many candidates as the shareholder thinks fit. No shareholder is entitled to cumulate votes in favor of any candidate or candidates unless such candidate's or candidates' names have been placed in nomination prior to the voting and the shareholder has given notice at the meeting prior to the voting of the shareholder's intention to cumulate the shareholder's votes. ARTICLE I
THE MERGER

Section 1.01 The Merger. On the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, and pursuant to the provisions of the California General Corporation Law ("CGCL") and, to the extent applicable, the California Financial Code ("CFC") and the rules and regulations promulgated by the California Department of Business Oversight ("DBO"), at the Effective Time, Tri-Valley shall merge with and into HBC (the "Merger") and the separate corporate existence of Tri-Valley shall cease. waived at Closing) or such other time as the parties may agree, at the offices of Buchalter, a Professional Corporation, at 10:00 a.m. Pacific time (the "Closing Date"). On or before the Closing Date, Tri-Valley and HBC will file, or cause to be filed, with the DBO and the California Secretary of State an agreement of merger in substantially the form of Annex D to this Agreement. The Merger shall become effective at the time that such agreement of merger has been filed with the DBO as provided in Section 4887(c) of the CFC (the "Effective Time").

Section 1.03 Effect of the Merger. Upon the consummation of the Merger, the separate corporate existence of Tri-Valley shall cease and HBC shall continue as the surviving entity under the laws of the State of California. The name of Heritage Bank of Commerce as the surviving entity of the Merger shall remain "Heritage Bank of Commerce." From and after the Effective Time, HBC, as the surviving entity of the Merger, shall possess all of the properties and rights and be subject to all of the liabilities and obligations of Tri-Valley.

Section 1.04 Articles of Incorporation; By-laws. The Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of HBC as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation.

Section 1.06 Possible Alternative Structures. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, prior to the Effective Time, HCC shall be entitled, after consultation with Tri-Valley, to revise the structure of effecting the acquisition of Tri-Valley, provided, however, that (a) there are no adverse federal or state income tax consequences to Tri-Valley's shareholders as a result of the modification (including no impact upon the opinions of counsel related to tax matters to be delivered pursuant to this Agreement), (b) the consideration to be paid to the holders of Tri-Valley Common Stock and Tri-Valley Stock Options under this Agreement is not thereby changed in kind, value or reduced in amount and the delivery of such consideration will not be delayed, (c) the benefits to be received by Tri-Valley's directors, officers and employees under this Agreement are not diminished, and (d) such modification will not delay materially or jeopardize the receipt of any regulatory approvals or other consents and approvals relating to the consummation of the Merger or otherwise cause any condition to Closing set forth in Article VI not to be capable of being fulfilled. The parties agree to appropriately amend this Agreement and any related documents in order to reflect any such revised structure.

Section 1.07 Additional Actions. If at any time after the Effective Time the Surviving Corporation shall consider or be advised that any deeds, bills of sale, assignments or assurances or any other acts or things are necessary, desirable or proper (a) to vest, perfect or confirm, of record or otherwise, in the Surviving Corporation its right, title or interest in or to or under any of the rights, privileges, powers, franchises, properties or assets of Tri-Valley, or (b) otherwise to carry out the purposes of this Agreement, the Surviving Corporation and its proper officers and directors or their designees shall be authorized to execute and deliver, in the name and on behalf of Tri-Valley all such deeds, bills of sale, assignments and assurances and to do, in the name and on behalf of Tri-Valley, all such other acts and things as may be necessary, desirable or proper to vest, perfect or confirm the Surviving Corporation's right, title or interest in or to or under any of the rights, privileges, powers, franchises, properties or assets of Tri-Valley and otherwise to carry out the purposes of this Agreement.

ARTICLE II
EFFECT OF THE MERGER ON CAPITAL STOCK

Section 2.01 Effect of the Merger on Capital Stock. At the Effective Time, as a result of the Merger and without any action on the part of HCC, HBC or Tri-Valley or the holder of any capital stock of HCC, HBC or Tri-Valley:

(a) Cancellation of Certain Tri-Valley Common Stock. Each share of Tri-Valley Common Stock that is owned by HCC or Tri-Valley (as treasury stock or otherwise) or any of their respective direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries will automatically be cancelled and retired and will cease to exist, and no consideration will be delivered in exchange therefor.

(b) HCC Capital Stock. Each share of HCC Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall remain issued and outstanding and shall not be affected by the Merger.

(c) HBC Capital Stock. Each share of HBC common stock, no par value, issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall remain issued and outstanding and shall not be affected by the Merger.

(d) Conversion of Tri-Valley Common Stock. Each share of Tri-Valley Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than shares to be cancelled and retired in accordance with Section 2.01(a), and (ii) Dissenting Shares) shall, by virtue of the Merger, be converted into the right to receive the number of shares of HCC Common Stock equal to 0.0489 (the "Per Share Exchange Ratio"), together with any cash in lieu of fractional shares as specified in Section 2.01(g) (the "Merger Consideration").

(e) Dilution. If HCC changes (or the HCC Board sets a related record date that will occur before the Effective Time for a change in) the number or kind of shares of HCC Common Stock outstanding by way of a stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, reclassification, reorganization or similar transaction, then the Per Share Exchange Ratio (and any other items dependent thereon, such as the amounts payable to holders of Tri-Valley Stock Options) will be adjusted proportionately to account for such change to provide to the holders of HCC Common Stock (and holders of Tri-Valley Stock Options) the same economic effect contemplated by this Agreement prior to such change.

(f) Cancellation of Shares and Closing of Tri-Valley's Transfer Books. At the Effective Time (i) none of the shares of Tri-Valley Common Stock shall be outstanding and shall automatically be cancelled and shall cease to exist, and each holder of a valid certificate (each a "Certificate") previously representing any such shares of Tri-Valley Common Stock or owner designated by a book entry previously representing a non-certificated share of Tri-Valley Common Stock (a "Book-Entry Share") shall thereafter cease to have any rights with respect to such securities, except the right to receive (i) the Merger Consideration, (ii) any dividends and other distributions in accordance with Section 2.03(e), and (iii) any cash to be paid in lieu of any fractional share of HCC Common Stock in accordance with Section 2.01(g). The stock transfer books of Tri-Valley shall be closed with respect to all shares of Tri-Valley Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, and no further transfer of any such shares of Tri-Valley Common Stock shall be made on such stock transfer books after the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, Tri-Valley Certificates or Book-Entry Shares representing such shares of Tri-Valley Common Stock are presented for transfer to the Exchange Agent or to the Surviving Corporation or HCC, they shall be cancelled and shall be exchanged as provided in Section 2.03.

(g) No Fractional Shares. No fractional shares of HCC Common Stock shall be issued in connection with the Merger, and no certificates or scrip for any such fractional shares shall be issued upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates or Book-Entry Shares. Any holder of Tri-Valley Common Stock who would otherwise be entitled to receive a fraction of a share of HCC Common Stock (after aggregating all fractional shares of HCC Common Stock issuable to such holder), in lieu of such fraction of a share and, upon surrender of such holder's Certificates or Book-Entry Shares to the Exchange Agent, shall be paid in cash the dollar amount (rounded to the nearest whole cent), without interest, determined by multiplying such fraction of a share of HCC Common Stock multiplied by the HCC Average Closing Price.

Section 2.02 Exchange Agent; Deposit of Merger Consideration. Prior to the Closing Date, HCC shall select a bank or trust company to act as exchange agent (which, if different than HCC's then-serving registrar and stock transfer agent shall be reasonably acceptable to Tri-Valley) in the Merger (the "Exchange Agent") and provide the Exchange Agent with appropriate instructions regarding the matters described in this Article II in form and substance reasonably acceptable to HCC and Tri-Valley, all in accordance with the provisions of an agreement executed between HCC and the Exchange Agent. HCC shall deposit, or cause to be deposited, with the Exchange Agent (by instruction to HCC's transfer agent) prior to the Effective Time (a) certificates representing the shares of HCC Common Stock issuable pursuant to Section 2.01(d) (or make appropriate alternative arrangements if uncertificated shares of HCC Common Stock represented by a book entry will be issued), and (b) cash sufficient in lieu of fractional shares to be paid in accordance with Section 2.01(g). The shares of HCC Common Stock and cash amounts so deposited with the Exchange Agent are referred to collectively as the "Exchange Fund."

Section 2.03 Exchange of Certificates and Book-Entry Shares.

(a) HCC shall take all steps necessary to cause the Exchange Agent, not later than five (5) business days after the Effective Time, to mail to holders of Tri-Valley Common Stock of record immediately prior to the Effective Time (i) a letter of transmittal ("Letter of Transmittal") in a customary form that is reasonably acceptable to Tri-Valley, and (ii) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of such holder's Certificates and Book-Entry Shares in exchange for the Merger Consideration in exchange therefore.

(b) Upon surrender of a Certificate or Book-Entry Share to the Exchange Agent for exchange, together with a properly completed Letter of Transmittal and such other documents as may be reasonably required by the Exchange Agent or HCC, the holder of such Certificate or Book-Entry Share shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor (i) a certificate representing the number of whole shares of HCC Common Stock (or uncertificated shares of HCC Common Stock represented by a book entry) to which such holders of Tri-Valley Common Stock shall have become entitled in accordance with Section 2.01(d), and (ii) a check representing the amount of cash in lieu of any fractional share of HCC Common Stock, if any, which such holder has the right to receive in respect of the Certificate or Book-Entry Share surrendered pursuant to Section 2.01(g). No interest will be paid or accrued on the cash in lieu of fractional shares. The Certificates or Book-Entry Shares so surrendered shall be canceled.

(c) If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, HCC or the Exchange Agent may in its sole discretion require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed Certificate to make and deliver to HCC or the Exchange Agent an affidavit of that fact and an agreement in customary form that is reasonably satisfactory to HCC indemnifying HCC and the Surviving Corporation against any claim that may be made against HCC or the Surviving Corporation and to deliver a bond (in such sum as HCC or the Exchange Agent may reasonably direct) as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the Exchange Agent, HCC, or the Surviving Corporation with respect to such Certificate.

(d) If any portion of the HCC Common Stock that a person has the right to receive pursuant to the provisions of Section 2.01(d) is to be issued in a name other than that in which the Certificate or Book-Entry Share surrendered is registered, it shall be a condition to such issuance thereof that the Certificate or Book-Entry Shares surrendered shall be properly endorsed (or accompanied by an appropriate instrument of transfer) and otherwise in proper form for transfer, and the person requesting such exchange shall pay to the Exchange Agent in advance any transfer or other Tax required by reason of a certificate or uncertificated book entry share, as applicable, or establish to the reasonable satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such Tax has been paid or is not payable.

(e) No dividends or other distributions declared after the Effective Time with respect to HCC Common Stock and payable to the holders of record thereof shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate or Book-Entry Share until the holder thereof shall surrender such Certificate or Book-Entry Share in accordance with this Article II. After the surrender of a Certificate or Book-Entry Share in accordance with this Article II, the record holder thereof shall be entitled to receive any such dividends or other distributions, without any interest thereon, which theretofore had become payable with respect to shares of HCC Common Stock represented by such Certificate or Book-Entry Share.

(f) Any portion of the Exchange Fund that remains undistributed to holders of Certificates or Book-Entry Shares as of the date twelve (12) months after the Effective Time shall be delivered to HCC upon demand, and any holders of Certificates or Book-Entry Shares who have not theretofore surrendered their Certificates or Book-Entry Shares in accordance with this Section 2.03 shall thereafter look only to HCC for satisfaction of their claims for the Merger Consideration, cash in lieu of fractional shares of HCC Common Stock, and any dividends or distributions with respect to HCC Common Stock, in each case without interest thereon. Notwithstanding the foregoing, none of HCC, the Surviving Corporation, Tri-Valley or the Exchange Agent or any other person shall be liable to any former holder of shares of Tri-Valley Common Stock for any amount properly delivered to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Law. HCC and HBC shall be entitled to rely upon the stock transfer books of Tri-Valley to establish the identity of those persons entitled to receive merger consideration specified in this Agreement, which books shall be conclusive with respect thereto. In the event of a dispute with respect to ownership of stock represented by any Certificate, HCC and HBC shall be entitled to deposit the Merger Consideration in respect thereof in escrow with an independent third party and thereafter be relieved with respect to any claims thereto.

(g) Each of the Exchange Agent, HCC, and HBC shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from any consideration payable or otherwise deliverable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder or former holder of Tri-Valley Common Stock such amounts as may be required to be deducted or withheld therefrom under the Code or any provision of state, local, or foreign Tax law or under any other applicable Law. To the extent such amounts are so deducted or withheld, such amounts shall be treated for all purposes under this Agreement as having been paid to the person to whom such amounts would otherwise have been paid.

(h) Any portion of the HCC Common Stock made available to the Exchange Agent in respect of any Dissenting Shares shall be returned to HCC upon demand.

Section 2.04 Dissenting Shares. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, shares of Tri-Valley Common Stock that are outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and that are held by a shareholder who is entitled to demand, and who properly demands, the fair market value of such shares pursuant to, and who complies in all respects with, Chapter 13 of the CGCL (a "Dissenting Shareholder") shall not be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration. For purposes of this Agreement, "Dissenting Shares" means any shares of Tri-Valley Common Stock as to which a Dissenting Shareholder has properly exercised a demand for fair market value pursuant to Chapter 13 of the CGCL. At the Effective Time all Dissenting Shares shall be cancelled and retired and shall cease to exist. No Dissenting Shareholder shall be entitled to any Merger Consideration in respect of any Dissenting Shares unless and until such holder shall have failed to perfect or shall have effectively withdrawn or lost such holder's right to demand fair market value of its Dissenting Shares under the CGCL, and any Dissenting Shareholder shall be entitled to receive only the payment provided by Chapter 13 of the CGCL with respect to the Dissenting Shares owned by such Dissenting Shareholder and not any Merger Consideration. Tri-Valley shall give HCC (a) prompt notice of any written demands for fair market value, attempted withdrawals of such demands and any other instruments served pursuant to applicable Law relating to shareholders' demands for fair market value, and (b) the opportunity to direct all negotiations and proceedings with respect to demands for fair market value under the CGCL. Tri-Valley shall not, except with the prior written consent of HCC, voluntarily make any payment with respect to any demands for fair market value of Dissenting Shares, offer to settle or settle any such demands.

Section 2.05 Treatment of Stock Options, Restricted Stock and Warrant.

(a) Prior to and effective as of the Effective Time, Tri-Valley shall have taken all such action as is necessary to terminate, subject to compliance with this Section 2.05, the Tri-Valley Equity Plans and shall have provided written notice to each holder of an option to acquire shares of Tri-Valley Common Stock (each, a "Tri-Valley Stock Option") that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, whether or not then vested or exercisable, that such Tri-Valley Stock Option shall terminate at the Effective Time and that, if such Tri-Valley Stock Option is not exercised or otherwise terminated on or before the Effective Time, such holder shall be entitled to receive in cancellation of each Tri-Valley Stock Option a cash payment in an amount, without interest, equal to the product of (i) the total number of shares of Tri-Valley Common Stock subject to the Tri-Valley Stock Option times (ii) the excess, if any, of the product of the Per Share Exchange Ratio multiplied by the HCC Average Closing Price over the exercise price per share under such Tri-Valley Stock Option ("Option Consideration"), payment will be payable in accordance with Tri-Valley payroll procedures including deduction and withhold from the consideration paid in accordance with this Section 2.05(a) on account of Tri-Valley Stock Options such amounts as required under the Code or any similar Law. At the Effective Time the Tri-Valley Equity Plans and all Tri-Valley Stock Options issued thereunder that have not previously been exercised, whether or not then vested and whether or not then exercisable, shall terminate and be of no further effect. Any payments pursuant to this Section 2.05(a) shall be made only after the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in Article VI.

(b) At least ten (10) business days prior to the Closing Date and prior to any such payment, Tri-Valley shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain a written acknowledgement and waiver (in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to HCC) from each holder of a Tri-Valley Stock Option (i) confirming the number of Tri-Valley Stock Options held, (ii) confirming that the treatment of such Tri-Valley Stock Options pursuant to this Agreement and the amounts to be paid pursuant to this Agreement have been correctly calculated, (iii) acknowledging that in consideration for the cancellation of such Tri-Valley Stock Option, the holder agrees to accept the Option Consideration, and (iv) containing waivers for such other matters as reasonably determined by HCC. Tri-Valley shall provide a copy of each such acknowledgement and waiver to HCC at least five (5) business days prior to the Closing Date.

(c) Each executive officer and director shall have entered into a Stock Option Agreement in the form of Annex E attached to this Agreement (the "Stock Option Holder Agreement") dated the date of this Agreement providing for the termination of such holder's Tri-Valley Stock Options and restricting the exercise of the Tri-Valley Stock Options. Each holder of such terminated Tri-Valley Stock Options shall be entitled to receive the Stock Option Consideration in lieu of each share of Tri-Valley Common Stock that would otherwise have been issuable upon exercise.

(d) Tri-Valley shall take all actions necessary to ensure that from and after the Effective Time neither HCC nor the Surviving Corporation will be required to deliver shares of HCC Common Stock or Tri-Valley Common Stock or other capital stock to any person pursuant to or in settlement of Tri-Valley Stock Options after the Effective Time.

Table of Contents

(e) The transactions contemplated by this Section 2.05 shall in all cases be completed in a manner designed to comply with Section 409A of the Code and, to the extent applicable, Section 424 of the Code.

(f) At or prior to the Closing Date, Tri-Valley and the Tri-Valley Board and its compensation committee, as applicable, shall adopt any resolutions and take any actions which are necessary to effectuate the provisions of this Section 2.05(a).

(g) Immediately prior to the Effective Time, any vesting conditions applicable to each award of restricted shares of Tri-Valley Common Stock granted under a Tri-Valley Equity Plan shall, automatically and without any action on the part of the holder thereof and consistent with the terms of the Tri-Valley Equity Plan, accelerate in full and such restricted stock shall become free of any restrictions and any repurchase right shall lapse, and the holder thereof shall be entitled to receive shares of HCC Common Stock in accordance with the Per Share Exchange Ratio (provided that any fractional shares of HCC Common Stock shall be treated as set forth in Section 2.01(g)), less any applicable Taxes required to be withheld with respect to such vesting.

(h) The holder of the Warrant shall be entitled to receive in cancellation of the Warrant a cash payment in an amount, without interest, equal to the product of (i) the total number of shares of Tri-Valley Common Stock subject to the Warrant times (ii) the excess, if any, of $0.77 over the exercise price per share, subject to any such amounts as required under the Code. Payment pursuant to this Section 2.05(h) shall be made on after the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in Article VI.

Section 2.06 Intended Tax Treatment. It is intended that the Merger shall constitute a "reorganization" as that term is used in Section 368(a) of the Code ("Reorganization"), and that this Agreement shall constitute a "plan of reorganization" as that term is used in Sections 354 and 361 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). Until the Closing, each party hereto shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Merger to so qualify, and will not knowingly take any action, cause any action to be taken, fail to take any action or cause any action to fail to be taken which action or failure to act could prevent the Merger from qualifying as a Reorganization.

Neither HCC, HBC nor any of their respective Subsidiaries nor any of their respective properties (i) is a party to or is subject to any Order from any Governmental Entity or (ii) neither HCC nor HBC has received any written notice that there is any formal or informal investigation relating to any regulatory matter pending before any Governmental Entity with respect to HCC or HBC, or that such Governmental Entity is contemplating issuing or requesting any Order.

Section 4.09 Community Reinvestment Act. HBC had a rating of "satisfactory" or better as of its most recent CRA compliance examination and it has no knowledge of any facts that may result in not receiving a rating of "satisfactory" or better at its next CRA compliance examination or have any basis to believe that any Governmental Entity may seek to restrain, delay or prohibit the Contemplated Transactions as a result of any act or omission of HBC under the CRA.

Section 4.10 Litigation. There is no Legal Action pending, or to the knowledge of the HCC, threatened against HCC or HBC or any of their respective properties or assets or, to the knowledge of HCC, against any executive officer or director of HCC or any of its Subsidiaries in their capacities as such. To the knowledge of HCC, there is no reasonable basis for and no event has occurred or circumstance exists that (with or without notice or lapse of time or both) would reasonably be expected to give rise to or serve as a basis for, constitute or result in, any material Legal Action against HCC or HBC any. No matter described in Section 4.10 of the HCC Disclosure Schedule, individually or in the aggregate, had or would reasonably be expected to have a HCC Material Adverse Effect.

Section 4.11 No Brokers. Other than HCC's engagement of MJC Partners, LLC, whose fees and costs will be borne by HCC, no action has been taken by HCC, or HBC that would give rise to any valid claim against any party hereto for a brokerage commission, finder's fee or other like payment with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby.

Section 4.12 HCC Information. The information provided by HCC relating to HCC, HBC and their Subsidiaries that is to be contained in the Registration Statement, the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, any filings or approvals under applicable state securities laws, any filing pursuant to Rule 165 or Rule 425 under the Securities Act or Rule 14a-12 under the Exchange Act, or in any other document filed with any other Governmental Entity in connection with the matters set forth in this Section 4.12, will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances in which they are made, not misleading and will comply in all material respects with the provisions of the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, the rules and regulations thereunder, and any other Laws, as applicable. The representations and warranties contained in this Article IV, and no statement by HCC or HBC in any certificate, agreement, schedule or other document furnished or to be furnished in connection with the Contemplated Transactions, was or will be inaccurate, incomplete or incorrect in any material respect as of the date furnished or contains or will contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omits or will omit to state any material fact necessary to make such representation, warranty or statement not misleading.

Section 4.13 Regulatory Reports and Filings. HCC agrees that through the Effective Time, each of its reports and other filings and the reports and filing of HBC and its Subsidiaries required to be filed with any Governmental Entity will comply in all material respects with all of the applicable Law of such Governmental Entity with which it will be filed and none of the reports or other filings will contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they will be made, not misleading. Any financial statement contained in any such report, or other filing that is intended to present the financial position of HCC or HBC and its Subsidiaries (or as on a consolidated basis) will fairly present in all material respects the financial position of HCC and HBC and their Subsidiaries (or as on a consolidated basis) and will be prepared in accordance with GAAP. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Section 4.13. HCC makes no representation or warranty with respect to any information supplied by Tri-Valley for inclusion in any such reports.

Section 4.14 Governmental Approvals And Other Conditions. Neither HCC nor any of its Subsidiaries has taken or intend to take any action, nor does HCC have knowledge of any fact or circumstance that would materially impede or delay the consummation of the Contemplated Transactions, or the ability of the parties to obtain any approval of any Governmental Entity required for the Contemplated Transactions or to perform its covenants and agreements under this Agreement. To the knowledge of HCC, no event has occurred and no circumstances exists that are reasonably likely to (a) cause the approvals that are required to be obtained from any Governmental Entity having approval authority in connection with the Contemplated Transactions not be granted, (b) cause such Governmental Entity approvals to be subject to a condition which would differ from conditions customarily imposed by a Governmental Entity in orders approving acquisitions of the type contemplated by this Agreement, or (c) make any of the conditions precedent to the obligations of HCC and its Subsidiaries to consummate the Contemplated Transactions unlikely to be fulfilled within the applicable time period or periods required for satisfaction of such condition or conditions.

Section 4.15 Labor. To the knowledge of HCC and HBC, each have complied and are in compliance in all material respects with applicable Law with respect to employment, termination of employment, and terms, practices, conditions and classification of employment (including applicable Law regarding family and medical leave, disability, labor relations, workers compensation, wage and hour requirements, immigration, discrimination, employee health and safety, employee scheduling, occupational safety and health and the WARN Act), and have not engaged in any unfair labor practices or similar prohibited practices that would reasonably be expected to have a HCC Material Adverse Effect.

(f) Tri-Valley acknowledges that this Section 5.04 is a significant inducement for HCC and HBC to enter into this Agreement and the absence of such provision would have resulted in either (i) a material reduction in the consideration to be paid to shareholders of Tri-Valley in the Merger, or (ii) a failure to induce HCC and HBC to enter into this Agreement.

Section 5.05 Registration Statement; Proxy Statement/Prospectus; NASDAQ Listing.

(a) As promptly as practicable, by in any event no later than forty-five (45) days from the date of this Agreement, Tri-Valley and HCC shall jointly cause the Registration Statement to be prepared, and HCC shall cause the Registration Statement (in which the Proxy Statement/Prospectus will be included with respect to the issuance of HCC Common Stock in the Merger) to be filed with the SEC. (b) Each of HCC and Tri-Valley shall use reasonable commercial efforts to cause all documents that it is responsible for filing with the SEC in connection with the Contemplated Transactions to comply as to form and substance in all material respects with the applicable requirements of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act, as applicable.

(c) Prior to the Effective Time, HCC shall use reasonable commercial efforts to qualify the HCC Common Stock under the securities or the "blue sky" laws of such jurisdictions as may be required; provided, however, that HCC shall not be required to (i) qualify to do business as a foreign corporation in any jurisdiction in which it is not now so qualified, (ii) file a general consent to service of process in any jurisdiction, or (iii) subject itself to taxation in any jurisdiction in which it is not so subject.

(b) Subject to Section 6.06(d) and (e), the Tri-Valley Board shall at all times prior to and during the Tri-Valley Meeting recommend approval of this Agreement and the Merger and shall use its reasonable best efforts to solicit such approval by its shareholders (the "Tri-Valley Board Recommendation"). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, unless this Agreement has terminated in accordance with Section 7.01, this Agreement and the Merger shall be submitted to the shareholders of Tri-Valley at the Tri-Valley Meeting whether or not (i) the Tri-Valley Board shall have effected a Change of Recommendation or (ii) any Acquisition Proposal shall have been publicly proposed or announced or otherwise submitted to Tri-Valley or any of its advisors. In addition to the foregoing, Tri-Valley shall not submit to the vote of its shareholders at or prior to the Tri-Valley Meeting any proposal (including an Acquisition Proposal) other than the Merger without the approval of HCC.

(c) Tri-Valley shall cooperate and keep HCC informed on a current basis regarding its solicitation efforts and voting results following the dissemination of the Proxy Statement/Prospectus to the shareholders of Tri-Valley. HCC may require Tri-Valley to adjourn, delay or postpone the Tri-Valley Meeting once for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days (but prior to the date that is two (2) business days prior to the End Date) to solicit additional proxies necessary to obtain the Requisite Tri-Valley Vote. Tri-Valley shall not, without the prior written consent of HCC, adjourn or postpone the Tri-Valley Meeting; provided, however, that Tri-Valley may, without the prior written consent of HCC, adjourn or postpone the Tri-Valley Meeting (i) if on the date initially scheduled for the Tri-Valley, Tri-Valley notifies HCC that it has not received proxies representing a sufficient number of shares of Tri-Valley Common Stock to obtain the Requisite Tri-Valley Vote, Tri-Valley shall adjourn the Tri-Valley Meeting until such date as shall be mutually agreed upon by Tri-Valley and HCC, which date shall not be less than five (5) business days nor more than ten (10) business days after the date of adjournment, and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall continue to use all reasonable best efforts, together with its proxy solicitor, to assist in the solicitation of proxies from shareholders relating to the Requisite Tri-Valley Vote, or (ii) after consultation with HCC, if the failure to adjourn or postpone the Tri-Valley Meeting would reasonably be expected to be a violation of applicable Law for the distribution of any required supplement or amendment to the Proxy Statement. Once Tri-Valley has established the record date for determining shareholders of Tri-Valley entitled to vote at the Tri-Valley Meeting, Tri-Valley shall not change such record date or establish a different record date for the Tri-Valley Meeting without the prior written consent of HCC, unless required to do so by applicable Law or the Tri-Valley Charter Documents. During any such period of adjournment, delay or postponement, Tri-Valley shall continue in all respects to comply with its obligations under this Section 5.06 and, shall in good faith use reasonable best efforts (including engaging a proxy solicitor) to obtain the Requisite Tri-Valley Vote.

(d) Subject to Section 5.06(e), neither the Tri-Valley Board nor any committee thereof shall (i) withdraw, modify, amend or qualify the Tri-Valley Board Recommendation in a manner adverse to HCC (it being understood that the failure of the Tri-Valley Board Recommendation to be unanimous shall constitute a withdrawal, modification, amendment or qualification that is adverse to HCC), (ii) adopt a resolution to withdraw, amend or qualify the Tri-Valley Board Recommendation in a manner adverse to HCC, (iii) take any other action that is or becomes disclosed publicly and which can reasonably be interpreted to indicate that the Tri-Valley Board or any committee thereof does not support the Merger and this Agreement or does not believe that the Merger and this Agreement are in the best interests of Tri-Valley's shareholders (it being understood that taking a neutral position or no position with respect to any Acquisition Proposal shall constitute an adverse modification), (iv) publicly announce its intention to withdraw, modify, amend or qualify the Tri-Valley Board Recommendation in a manner adverse to HCC, (v) fail to reaffirm without qualification the Tri-Valley Board Recommendation, or fail to state publicly without qualification that the Merger and this Agreement are in the best interests of Tri-Valley's shareholders, within five (5) business days after HCC requests in writing that such action be taken, (vi) fail to announce publicly, within ten (10) business days after a tender offer or exchange offer relating to securities of Tri-Valley shall have been commenced, that the Tri-Valley Board recommends rejection of such tender or exchange offer, (vii) fail to issue, within ten (10) business days after an Acquisition Proposal is publicly announced, a press release announcing its opposition to such Acquisition Proposal, (viii) approve, endorse, or recommend any Acquisition Proposal, or (ix) resolve or propose to take any action described in clauses (i) through (viii) of this sentence (each of the foregoing actions described in clauses (i) through (viii) of this sentence being referred to as a "Change in Recommendation").

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 5.06(d), at any time prior to, but not after obtaining the Requisite Tri-Valley Vote, the Tri-Valley Board may effect a Change of Recommendation or terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.01(h), if (i) Tri-Valley has not breached its obligations under Section 5.04 and 5.06(a), (b) and (c), and not otherwise in material breach of this Agreement, (ii) Tri-Valley receives an unsolicited bona fide, written Acquisition Proposal from any person that is not withdrawn, and (iii) (A) a majority of the entire Tri-Valley Board determines in good faith, (after consultation with its independent financial advisors and outside legal counsel), that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal and after consultation with its outside legal counsel, that the failure of the Tri-Valley Board to take such action on the Acquisition Proposal would or would more likely than not result in a violation of its fiduciary duties to the shareholders of Tri-Valley under applicable Law, and (B) (1) Tri-Valley provides HCC prior written notice at least three (3) business days (or such longer period as it may be extended upon the modification or amendment of the Acquisition Proposal as contemplated below) ("Notice of Superior Proposal") prior to taking such action, which notice shall state that the Tri-Valley Board has received a Superior Proposal and, absent any revision to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Tri-Valley Board has resolved to effect a Change of Recommendation or to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.01(h), as applicable, which notice shall specify the basis for such Change of Recommendation or termination, and which includes a copy of the proposed agreement to effect the Superior Proposal) and the identity of the person making the Superior Proposal (it being understood that the Notice of Superior Proposal shall not in and of itself be deemed a Change of Recommendation or termination); (2) during such three (3) business day period (as it may be extended upon the modification or amendment of the Acquisition Proposal as contemplated below), Tri-Valley negotiates in good faith (including by making its officers, directors and its financial and legal advisors reasonably available to negotiate) with HCC (to the extent that HCC wishes to negotiate) to enable HCC to make an improved offer that is favorable to the shareholders of Tri-Valley so that such Acquisition Proposal would cease to constitute a Superior Proposal; and (3) at the end of such three (3) business day period (as it may be extended upon the modification or amendment of the Acquisition Proposal as contemplated below, or such earlier time that HCC advises Tri-Valley in writing that it no longer wishes to negotiate to amend this Agreement), a majority of the entire Tri-Valley Board, after taking into account any modifications to the terms of this Agreement and the Merger agreed to by HCC after receipt of the Notice of Superior Proposal, continues to believe (after consultation with its independent financial advisors and outside legal counsel) that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal and, after consultation with its outside legal counsel, that the failure to accept the Acquisition Proposal would or would more likely than not result in a violation of its fiduciary duties to the shareholders of Tri-Valley under applicable Law. In the event of any revisions to the terms of an Acquisition Proposal that are material to such Acquisition Proposal and made after the start of the three (3) business day period of clause (iii)(B)(1), such revisions shall be deemed a new Acquisition Proposal and Tri-Valley shall be required to deliver a new written notice as required by clause (iii)(B)(1) to HCC and to comply with the requirements of this Section 5.06(e) with respect to such new Acquisition Proposal.

(f) Nothing in Section 5.06(e) shall be interpreted to excuse Tri-Valley and the Tri-Valley Board from complying with its unqualified obligation to submit this Agreement to its shareholders at the Tri-Valley Meeting and Tri-Valley shall not submit to the vote of its shareholders at or prior to the Tri-Valley Meeting any Acquisition Proposal other than the Merger. Without limiting the foregoing, if the Tri-Valley Board has withdrawn or modified the Tri-Valley Board Recommendation as permitted by Section 5.06(e), then, unless this Agreement has been terminated in accordance with Section 7.01, the Tri-Valley Board shall submit this Agreement to Tri-Valley's shareholders without recommendation (although the resolutions adopting this Agreement as of the date of this Agreement may not be rescinded or amended), in which event the Tri-Valley Board may communicate the basis for its lack of a recommendation to Tri-Valley's shareholders in Proxy Statement/Prospectus or an appropriate amendment or supplement thereto to the extent required by applicable Law.

Section 5.07 Approvals.

(a) Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement (including those contained in this Section 5.07), each of HCC, HBC and Tri-Valley shall use its reasonable best efforts to take or cause to be taken all actions, and to do or cause to be done, and to assist and cooperate with the other parties in doing, all things necessary, proper or advisable to consummate and make effective, and to satisfy all conditions to the Contemplated Transactions, including (i) obtaining all necessary Governmental Authorizations, and the making all necessary registrations and filings (including filings with Governmental Entities, which shall be made within forty-five (45) days of the date of this Agreement) and the taking of all steps as may be necessary or advisable to obtain an approval or waiver from or to avoid an action or proceeding by any Governmental Entity, (ii) obtaining all necessary consents or waivers from or providing notice to third parties (including actions required in order to continue any Tri-Valley Material Contract (including any Contract entered into following the date of this Agreement that would have been a Tri-Valley Material Contract at the time this Agreement was entered into) following the Closing or to avoid any penalty or other fee under such Tri-Valley Material Contract, in each case arising in connection with the Contemplated Transactions, and (iii) the execution and delivery of any additional instruments necessary to consummate the Merger and to fully carry out the purposes of this Agreement. Subject to applicable Law, Tri-Valley and HCC shall promptly cooperate and coordinate with the other in the taking of the actions contemplated by clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) immediately above and supply the other with any information that may be reasonably required in order to effectuate the taking of such actions. Each party hereto shall promptly inform the other party of any communication from any Governmental Entity regarding any of the Contemplated Transactions, except to the extent prohibited by applicable Laws related to the exchange of information. If Tri-Valley or HCC receives a request for additional information or documentary material from any Governmental Entity with respect to Contemplated Transactions, then it shall use reasonable commercial efforts to make, or cause to be made, as soon as reasonably practicable and after consultation with the other party, an appropriate response in compliance with such request. Neither HCC, HBC nor Tri-Valley shall commit to or agree with any Governmental Entity to stay, toll or extend any applicable waiting period under any applicable Law without the prior written consent of the other. In the event that any party shall fail to obtain any such third party consent as required in clause (ii), that party shall use reasonable commercial efforts, and shall take any such actions reasonably requested by the other party, to minimize any adverse effect on the consummation of the Merger on the Surviving Corporation businesses and financial condition resulting, or that would be reasonably likely to result after the Effective Time, from the failure to obtain such consent.

(b) Subject to applicable Law relating to the exchange of information, HCC and Tri-Valley shall upon request furnish each other with all information concerning HCC, HBC, Tri-Valley and their respective directors, officers and shareholders and such other matters as may be reasonably necessary in connection with any statement, filing, notice or application made by or on behalf of HCC, HBC, or Tri-Valley to any Governmental Entity in connection with the Contemplated Transactions. HCC and Tri-Valley shall have the right to review in advance and, to the extent practicable, each will consult the other on, in each case subject to applicable Law relating to the exchange of information, any filing made or proposed to be made with, or written materials submitted or proposed to be submitted to, any third party or any Governmental Entity in connection with the Contemplated Transactions.

(c) Notwithstanding anything set forth in this Agreement, under no circumstances shall HCC, HBC or Tri-Valley be required, and any other party be permitted (without the other parties' written consent in its sole discretion), to take any action or commit to take any action, or agree to any condition, restriction or requirement, involving any of them pursuant to this Section 5.07 or otherwise in connection with obtaining the foregoing Government Authorizations, that would, or would be reasonably likely to, individually or in the aggregate, materially reduce the financial benefits of the Merger to such a degree that HCC, HBC or Tri-Valley, as applicable would not have entered into this Agreement had such conditions, restrictions or requirements been known at the date of this Agreement (a "Burdensome Condition"); provided, however, that if requested by HCC, then Tri-Valley will take or commit to take any such action, or agree to any such condition or restriction, so long as such action, commitment, agreement, condition or restriction is binding on Tri-Valley only in the event the Closing occurs.

(d) Subject to applicable Law (including applicable Law relating to the exchange of information), Tri-Valley and HCC shall keep each other apprised of the status of matters relating to the completion of the Contemplated Transactions. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing (i) each of HCC, HBC and Tri-Valley shall timely furnish the other with copies of notices or other communications received by it (or written summaries of communications received orally), from any third party or Governmental Entity with respect to the Contemplated Transactions, (ii) each of HCC, HBC and Tri-Valley shall provide the other a reasonable opportunity to review in advance, and to the extent practicable accept the reasonable comments of the other in connection with, any proposed non-confidential written communication to, including any filings with, any Governmental Entity, and (iii) Tri-Valley and HCC shall consider in good faith the other party's views with respect to and confer in good faith with each other to resolve any disagreement as to strategy with respect to any communication by Tri-Valley, HCC or HBC with any Governmental Entity or third party relating to the Contemplated Transactions.

(e) In the event that any Legal Action is instituted (or threatened to be instituted) by a Governmental Entity challenging the Contemplated Transactions, Tri-Valley and HCC shall cooperate in all respects with each other and shall use their reasonable commercial efforts to contest and resist any such Legal Action and to have vacated, lifted, reversed or overturned any Order, whether temporary, preliminary or permanent, that is in effect and that prohibits, prevents or restricts consummation of the Contemplated Transactions.

Section 5.08 Current Information and Reports. During the Pre-Closing Period:

(a) Tri-Valley shall, upon the request of HCC, cause one or more of its designated representatives to confer on a monthly or more frequent basis with representatives of HCC regarding its financial condition, operations and business and matters relating to the completion of the Contemplated Transactions, and will provide such access and support as is reasonably necessary for HCC to perform audits of the financial condition, operations and business of HCC and its Subsidiaries.

(b) Tri-Valley and HCC shall promptly notify the other party, and in any event not later than three (3) business days of (i) any Legal Action commenced, or to such party's knowledge threatened against it, (ii) any event which may materially and adversely affect the ordinary course of business, and (iii) any event, change or effect during the Pre-Closing Period which causes or is reasonably likely to cause the failure of the conditions set forth in Article VI.

(c) During the Pre-Closing Period, (i) Tri-Valley shall furnish HCC, as soon as practicable, and in any event within five (5) business days after it is prepared, or concurrent with distribution to the Tri-Valley Board or any committees thereof if prepared for such purpose, a copy of any report, package, materials, or agenda submitted to the Tri-Valley Board or any of its committees and access to the working papers and materials related thereto prepared for and distributed to the Tri-Valley Board, whether prior to, at or subsequent to a meeting, provided, however, that Tri-Valley need not furnish any materials relating to deliberations of the Tri-Valley Board, with respect to (A) this Agreement, or the Contemplated Transaction, or the exercise of any rights thereunder, by Tri-Valley, (B) communications of legal counsel of Tri-Valley with the Tri-Valley Board or officers of Tri-Valley regarding Tri-Valley's rights against or obligations to HCC or HBC under this Agreement, or (C) books, records and documents covered by the attorney-client privilege or which are attorneys' work product, (ii) as soon as reasonably practicable after they become available, and in no event later than fifteen (15) days after the end of each calendar month ending after the date of this Agreement, (A) financial statements (including balance sheets, statements of operations and stockholders' equity) of Tri-Valley prepared in accordance with current accounting practices, (B) internal management reports showing actual financial performance against plan, and (C) to the extent permitted by applicable Law, any reports provided to the Tri-Valley Board or any committee thereof relating to the financial performance and risk management, (iii) as reasonably practical after they become available, and in no event ninety (90) days after the year ended December 31, 2017, ending after the audited balance sheet of Tri-Valley for the year ended as of December 31, 2017 and the related audited statements of income, shareholders' equity and cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2017 prepared in accordance with the standards set forth in the third sentence of Section 3.02(a) (as if restated herein), (iv) as soon as available, all letters and communications sent by Tri-Valley to its shareholders and all reports filed by Tri-Valley with the DBO and FDIC and any other Governmental Entity, and (v) such other reports, financial data, and loan reports as HCC may reasonably request relating to Tri-Valley, provided however, that Tri-Valley shall not be required to provide access to or disclose information where such access or disclosure would violate the attorney-client privilege or contravene any applicable Law, or fiduciary duty, or violate the rights, interests or confidence of any customer (it being agreed that the parties shall use their reasonable commercial efforts to cause such information to be provided in a manner that would not result in such violation or contravention).

Section 5.09 Certain Loans and Other Extensions of Credit by Tri-Valley. During the Pre Closing Period:

(a) Tri-Valley will furnish HCC a list of all Loans, which when aggregated with all other Loans outstanding or committed to each customer and its Affiliates would exceed $250,000 for such customer and its Affiliates, scheduled to be considered by the Tri-Valley Loan Committee and, within five (5) business days following such meetings, a copy of the related credit authorization documentation.

(b) Tri-Valley will furnish to HCC, as soon as reasonably practicable, and in any event not later than fifteen (15) days after the end of each month schedules including a listing of (i) Loans charged off during the previous month showing with respect to each such Loan, the credit type and office, (ii) Loans subject to write down or change to risk rating during the previous month, including, with respect to each Loan, the original amount, the write-off amount, credit type and office, Loans that have been classified by any Governmental Entity or by any internal review by Tri-Valley as "Substandard," "Doubtful," "Loss" or any comparable classification, (providing with respect to each such credit the aggregate dollar amount, the classification category, credit type and office), (iii) other real estate or assets owned, (iv) a reconciliation of the ALLL, identifying specifically the amount and sources of all additions and reductions to the ALLL, (v) all new Loans, and (vi) any standby letters of credit issued by Tri-Valley. Tri-Valley will promptly provide to HCC (and not later than five (5) business days after delivery) reports and other documents provided to the Loan Committee and the ALCO Committee (or similar committee) of the Tri-Valley Board.

Section 5.10 Supplemental Disclosure Schedules and Notification. During the Pre-Closing Period:

(a) Tri-Valley and HCC will promptly supplement or amend its disclosure schedule the execution of this Agreement to reflect any matter which, if existing, occurring or known at the date of this Agreement, would have been required to be set forth or described in such disclosure schedule or which is necessary to correct any information in such disclosure schedule which has been rendered inaccurate thereby. No supplement or amendment to such disclosure schedule shall have any effect for the purpose of determining satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Section 6.02(a) or Section 6.02(b) (in the case of HCC) or Section 6.03(a) or Section 6.03(b) (in the case of Tri-Valley) or otherwise affect the respective rights, obligations, representations, warranties, covenants or agreements of the parties or the conditions to the obligations of the parties under this Agreement.

(b) Each party shall give prompt notice to the other parties of any fact, event or circumstance known to it that (i) is reasonably likely, individually or taken together with all other facts, events and circumstances known to it, to result in a Tri-Valley Material Adverse Effect or HCC Material Adverse Effect, as applicable with respect to such party, (ii) would cause or constitute a material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained herein, or (iii) could reasonably be expected to lead to litigation or regulatory action that would delay or prevent the consummation of the Contemplated Transactions.

Section 5.11 Employees; Benefit Plans.

(a) HCC and HBC shall have the right but not the obligation to offer employment immediately following the Effective Time to any and all persons who are Tri-Valley employees immediately before the Effective Time (employees of Tri-Valley who will be employed by HCC or HBC are referred to as "Continuing Employees"). Tri-Valley will provide HCC with information regarding such persons' current employment arrangements with Tri-Valley and will otherwise assist HCC and HBC in making such offers. Continuing Employees shall be offered salary or wage levels at least equal to the salary or wage levels to which such employees were entitled to immediately prior to the Closing Date. Subject to the provisions of this Section 5.11, as soon as administratively practicable after the Effective Time, HCC shall take all reasonable action so that Continuing Employees shall be entitled to participate in each employee benefit plan, program or arrangement of HCC and HBC of general applicability (the "HCC Benefit Plans") to the same extent as similarly-situated employees of HCC and HBC (it being understood that inclusion of Continuing Employees in HCC Benefit Plans may occur at different times with respect to different plans), provided, however, that coverage shall be continued under corresponding benefit plans of Tri-Valley (to the extent such Tri-Valley plans have not been terminated) until such employees are permitted to participate in the HCC Benefit Plans and, provided further, that Continuing Employees shall not have the opportunity to participate in the HBC 2005 Amended and Restated Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan ("SERP"). Accordingly, HCC and HBC shall use reasonable efforts to ensure that from the Closing Date through the next open enrollment date for a HCC or HBC group health, dental, and vision, Continuing Employees shall continue to be covered by Tri-Valley's group health, dental, and vision.

(b) To the extent that a Continuing Employee becomes eligible to participate in an employee benefit plan maintained by HCC or HBC, HCC or HBC, as applicable, shall cause such employee benefit plan to recognize the service of such Continuing Employee with Tri-Valley for purposes of eligibility, participation, vesting and benefit accrual under such employee benefit plan of HCC or HBC, to the same extent that such service was recognized immediately prior to the Effective Time under a corresponding Tri-Valley Benefit Plan in which such Continuing Employee was eligible to participate immediately prior to the Effective Time; provided, however, that such recognition of service shall not (i) operate to duplicate any benefits of a Continuing Employee with respect to the same period of service, (ii) apply for purposes of any retiree medical plans, (iii) apply for purposes of the HCC Employee Stock Ownership Plan, (iv) apply for any benefit accrual under the SERP or (v) apply for purposes of any plan, program or arrangement (A) under which similarly situated employees of HCC and HBC do not receive credit for prior service or (B) that is grandfathered or frozen, either with respect to level of benefits or participation.

(c) If any Continuing Employee becomes eligible to participate in any HCC Benefit Plan that provides medical, hospitalization or dental benefits, HCC or HBC, as applicable, shall request from the appropriate sponsor or provider that (i) any pre-existing condition limitations or eligibility waiting periods under such HCC Benefit Plan be waived with respect to such Continuing Employee and his or her covered dependents to the extent such limitation would have been waived or satisfied under a Tri-Valley employee benefit plan in which such Continuing Employee participated immediately prior to the Effective Time, and (ii) recognize any health expenses incurred by such Continuing Employee and his or her covered dependents in the year that includes the Closing Date (or, if later, the year in which such Continuing Employee is first eligible to participate) for purposes of any applicable deductible and annual out-of-pocket expense requirements under any such HCC Benefit Plan.

(d) HCC in its sole discretion, may elect to terminate the Tri-Valley 401(k) Plan or to discontinue contributions to the Tri-Valley 401(k) Plan anytime following the Effective Time, to cause Tri-Valley to terminate the 401(k) Plan to be effective at the Effective Time, or to merge the Tri-Valley 401(k) Plan with and into the HBC 401(k) Plan after the Effective Time. In no event shall the Tri-Valley 401(k) Plan be merged with and into the HBC 401(k) Plan, unless HCC determines in its reasonable judgment that (i) the Tri-Valley 401(k) Plan is a qualified plan under Section 401(a) of the Code, both as to the form of the Tri-Valley 401(k) Plan and as to its operation, and (ii) there are no facts in existence that would be reasonably likely to adversely affect the qualified status of the Tri-Valley 401(k) Plan. If HCC determines in its sole discretion not to merge the Tri-Valley 401(k) Plan into the HBC 401(k) Plan and that the Tri-Valley 401(k) Plan should be terminated prior to the Effective Time, Tri-Valley agrees to take all action necessary to have the Tri-Valley 401(k) Plan terminated prior to the Effective Time.

(e) After the Effective Time, HCC and HBC, will provide a severance benefit to each employee of Tri-Valley immediately before the Effective Time (except for any employee who is a party to any written agreement relating to severance which agreement has been provided to HCC) and whose employment is terminated involuntarily, other than for "Cause" (as defined below), by HCC or HBC as of the Effective Time or with regard to a Continuing Employee within six (6) months after the Effective Time. The severance benefit shall consist of a lump sum payment equal to such employee's regularly scheduled base salary or base wages at the time of termination of employment for a period equal to (i) thirty (30) days multiplied by (ii) the number of full years of continuous service completed by such employee with Tri-Valley, but not less than sixty (60) days or more than 365 days, subject to applicable tax withholding. For purposes of this Section 5.11(e), "Cause" shall mean the employee's personal dishonesty or misconduct, breach of fiduciary duty involving personal profit, failure to comply with any legal directive of HCC or HBC, as applicable, failure to perform required duties, the violation of any Law (other than traffic violations or similar minor offenses that do not harm the reputation of HCC or HBC) or any Order. After the Effective Time, HCC and HBC will honor and perform the obligations of Tri-Valley under any written agreement (previously provided to HCC) relating to employment or severance with Tri-Valley.

(f) Without limiting the generality of Section 8.09, the provisions of this Section 5.11 are solely for the benefit of the parties to this Agreement, and no current or former employee or any other individual associated therewith shall be regarded for any purpose as a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement. In no event shall the terms of this Agreement be deemed to (i) establish, amend or modify any Tri-Valley Benefit Plan or any "employee benefit plan" as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA, or any other benefit plan, program, agreement or arrangement maintained or sponsored by HCC, HBC, or Tri-Valley, (ii) alter or limit the ability of HCC or HBC to amend, modify or terminate any Tri-Valley Benefit Plan or HCC Benefit Plan, employment agreement or any other benefit or employment plan, program, agreement or arrangement after the Closing Date, or (iii) confer upon any current or former employee, officer, director or consultant any right to employment or continued employment or continued service with HCC or HBC, or constitute or create an employment agreement with any employee.

(g) Tri-Valley will not send any written notices or other written communication materials to its employees without the prior written consent of HCC with respect to matters described in this Section 5.11.

Section 5.12 Directors' and Officers' Indemnification and Insurance.

(a) From and after the Effective Time, HCC shall indemnify and hold harmless each person who is now, or who has been at any time before the date of this Agreement, or who becomes before the Effective Time, an officer, director or employee of Tri-Valley (each an "Indemnified Party" and collectively, "Indemnified Parties") against all losses, claims, damages, costs, expenses (including attorneys' fees), liabilities or judgments or amounts that are paid in settlement (which settlement shall require the prior written consent of HCC) of or in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding, investigation or other legal proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative or investigation (each, a "Claim"), in which an Indemnified Party is, or is threatened to be made, a party or witness, arising out of, in whole or in part, the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee, agent or fiduciary of Tri-Valley if such Claim pertains to any matter of fact arising, existing or occurring at or before the Effective Time (including the Merger and the other Contemplated Transactions), regardless of whether such Claim is asserted or claimed before or after the Effective Time, to the fullest extent permitted under Tri-Valley's Charter Documents and applicable Law. HCC shall advance and pay all reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) in advance of the final disposition of any such proceeding to each Indemnified Party to the extent permissible under applicable Law upon receipt of an undertaking to repay such advance payments if he or she shall be adjudicated or determined to be not entitled to indemnification under this Section 5.12.

(b) Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under Section 5.12(a), upon learning of any Claim, shall promptly notify HCC thereof; provided, however, that failure to so notify will not affect the obligations of HCC under Section 5.12(a) unless and to the extent that HCC is actually prejudiced as a consequence. In the event of any such Legal Action (whether arising before or after the Effective Time), (i) HCC shall have the right to assume the defense thereof and HCC shall not be liable to such Indemnified Parties for any legal expenses of other counsel or any other expenses subsequently incurred by such Indemnified Parties in connection with the defense thereof, except that if HCC elects not to assume such defense, or if counsel for any of the Indemnified Parties advises HCC that there are issues which raise conflicts of interest between the Indemnifying Party and any of the Indemnified Parties that make joint representation inappropriate, the Indemnified Parties may retain counsel satisfactory to the Indemnified Parties, and HCC shall pay all reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel for Indemnified Parties promptly as statements therefor are received; provided, however, that HCC shall be obligated pursuant to this Section 5.12(b) to pay for only one firm of counsel for all Indemnified Parties in any jurisdiction, (ii) Indemnified Parties will cooperate in the defense of any such Claim, and (iii) HCC shall not be liable for any settlement effected without its prior written consent; and provided, further, that HCC shall not have any obligation hereunder to any Indemnified Party when and if a court of competent jurisdiction shall determine, and such determination shall have become final, that the indemnification of such Indemnified Party in the manner contemplated under Section 5.12(a) is prohibited by applicable Law.

(c) Prior to the Effective Time, HCC and Tri-Valley shall cause the persons serving as officers and directors of Tri-Valley immediately prior to the Effective Time to be covered by a directors' and officers' liability insurance tail policy obtained from Tri-Valley's carrier (the "Tail Insurance Policy") of substantially the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions which are generally not less advantageous than Tri-Valley's current policy with respect to acts or omissions occurring prior to the Effective Time that were committed by such officers and directors in their capacity as such for a period of six (6) years; provided, however, that in no event shall the cost of the Tail Insurance Policy be more than two hundred seventy-five percent (275%) of the current amount expended on an annual basis by Tri-Valley for its current policy; provided, further, that if the Tail Insurance Policy cannot be obtained as provided by this Section 5.12(c), HCC shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain as much comparable insurance as is available for a premium amount up to such limit; provided, further, that officers and directors of Tri-Valley may be required to make application and provide customary representations and warranties to an insurance carrier for the purpose of obtaining the Tail Insurance Policy.

(d) This Section 5.12 shall survive the Effective Time and is intended to benefit each Indemnified Person and his or her heirs and representatives (each of whom shall be entitled to enforce this Section 5.12 against HCC) and shall be binding on all successors and assigns of HCC.

Section 5.13 Human Resources Issues.

(a) Communication with Employees. Prior to making any initial written or oral communications to the employees of Tri-Valley, Tri-Valley concerning the Merger, Tri-Valley will consult in good faith with HCC regarding the nature and content of any formal presentation of the Merger to employees of Tri-Valley and will, if requested by HCC, include an HCC representative in any group presentation or any formal group meeting at which the transaction is explained or discussed, under an arrangement that is mutually satisfactory to the parties. Tri-Valley and HCC agree to work in good faith with each other to facilitate the timely and accurate dissemination of information to Tri-Valley employees regarding matters related to the Merger in such a manner as to cause minimal disruption of the business of Tri-Valley with its employees and to facilitate the transition of such relationships to HCC and HBC. In addition, Tri-Valley shall advise HCC of any material informal communications to Tri-Valley, its officers or employees, pertaining to compensation or benefit matters that are affected by the Contemplated Transactions; provided, however, that such communications must be consistent with pre-agreed to talking points prepared by Tri-Valley and HCC. Tri-Valley shall provide HCC with a copy of any intended communication, and will consult respecting the contents of any oral communications, in order to maintain a message consistent with the pre-agreed to talking points. HCC and Tri-Valley shall cooperate in providing any such mutually agreeable communication.

Such training shall be at the expense of HCC and HBC and shall be conducted during normal business hours. At the request of Tri-Valley, HCC shall compensate employees, in accordance with Tri-Valley's customary policies and practices, for the employee's time being trained by HCC and HBC. Tri-Valley shall cooperate with HCC to make such employees available for such training prior to Closing.

(c) Nothing in this Section 5.13 is intended, nor shall it be construed, to confer any rights or benefits upon any persons other than HCC, HBC or Tri-Valley.

Section 5.14 Transition.

(a) Commencing following the date of this Agreement, and in all cases subject to applicable Law, Tri-Valley shall cooperate with HCC and HBC to facilitate the integration of the parties and their respective businesses. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, during the Pre-Closing Period and consistent with the performance of their day-to-day operations and the continuous operation of Tri-Valley in the ordinary course of business, Tri-Valley shall cause the employees and officers of Tri-Valley to cooperate with HCC and HBC in performing tasks reasonably required in connection with such integration, including requesting reasonable support from its outside contractors and vendors. Tri-Valley shall cooperate with HCC and HBC in minimizing the extent to which any contracts will continue in effect following the Effective Time.

(b) Without limiting the generality of Section 5.14(a), Tri-Valley shall use all reasonable efforts to provide data processing, item processing and other processing support or outside contractors to assist HCC and HBC performing all tasks reasonably required to result in a successful conversion of the data and other files and records of Tri-Valley to the production environment of HCC and HBC, when requested by HCC and in such a manner sufficient to ensure that a successful conversion will occur at the time (on or after the Effective Time) designated by HCC; provided, however, that if requested by

HCC, Tri-Valley shall take all steps reasonably necessary to allow HCC and HBC to convert to Tri-Valley's existing production environment. Among other things, Tri-Valley shall (i) cooperate with HCC and HBC to establish a mutually agreeable project plan to effectuate the conversion, (ii) use its commercially reasonable efforts to have Tri-Valley's outside contractors continue to support both the conversion effort and its on-going needs until the conversion can be established, (iii) provide, or use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain from any outside contractors, all data or other files and layouts requested by HCC or HBC for use in planning the conversion, as soon as reasonably practicable, (iv) provide reasonable access to the personnel and facilities of Tri-Valley and, with the consent of its outside contractors, its outside contractors' personnel and facilities, to enable the conversion effort to be completed on schedule, and (v) give notice of termination, conditioned upon the completion of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Section 5.14, of the Contracts of outside data, item and other processing contractors or other third-party vendors when directed to do so by HCC. HCC agrees that all actions taken pursuant to this Section 5.14 shall be taken in a manner intended to minimize disruption to the customary business activities of Tri-Valley. HCC further agrees that Tri-Valley shall not be obligated to take any action pursuant to this Section 5.14 that would obligate Tri-Valley to pay, or become committed to pay or accrue any amounts prior to the Effective Time unless conditioned upon the completion of the Merger.

Section 5.15 Pre-Closing Policies and Actions. At or before the Closing Date, provided, however, that all of the conditions in Article VI are satisfied or waived (other than those conditions that, by their natures, would be satisfied or waived at or as of the Closing):

(a) Tri-Valley shall, consistent with GAAP and applicable banking laws and regulations, to the extent requested by HCC, modify or change its loan, OREO, accrual, reserve, tax, litigation and real estate valuation policies and practices (including loan classifications and levels of reserves) so as to be applied on a basis that is consistent with that of HCC and HBC.

(b) Tri-Valley shall (i) make such accounting entries or adjustments as HCC shall direct as a result of its on-going review of Tri-Valley that are consistent with GAAP in order to implement its plans following the Closing or to reflect expenses and costs related to the Merger, and (ii) shall, consistent with GAAP, the rules and regulations of the SEC and the rules and regulations of any bank regulatory agency and applicable Law, modify or change its loan, OREO, accrual, reserve, Tax, litigation and real estate valuation policies and practices (including loan classifications and levels of reserves) so as to be applied on a basis that is consistent with that of HCC.

(c) Unless the recording adjustments pursuant to Section 5.15(a) or (b) or modification or changes pursuant to this Section 5.15 would otherwise be necessary to be consistent with applicable Law or with regulatory accounting principles or GAAP, no such adjustment or modification or change shall constitute or be deemed to be a breach, violation of or failure to satisfy any representation, warranty, covenant, agreement, condition or other provision of this Agreement or otherwise be considered in determining whether any such breach, violation or failure to satisfy shall have occurred, or as an admission or acknowledgement by Tri-Valley that any such adjustment or modification or change is appropriate or required or that any financial statement or information previously provided by Tri-Valley was incorrect in any respect.

(d) Tri-Valley shall fully correct, remedy and otherwise resolve any fact or circumstance to the knowledge of Tri-Valley, that has resulted, or could reasonably be expected to result, in any Loan that (i) is not evidenced by Loan Documentation that is correct and complete, (ii) does not represent the valid and legally binding obligation of the Obligor thereunder, or (iii) is not enforceable against the Obligor in accordance with its terms thereunder (except as may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium, or other similar Law affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally, and subject to general principles of equity (whether considered in a proceeding whether in equity or at law)), such that the applicable Loan or Loan Documentation fully complies with Section 3.15.

This SHAREHOLDER AGREEMENT ("Agreement") is made and entered into as of December 20, 2017 by and among Heritage Commerce Corp, a California corporation ("HCC"), Tri-Valley Bank, a California banking corporation ("TVB"), and the undersigned shareholder of TVB ("Shareholder").

Recitals

A. HCC, Heritage Bank of Commerce, a California banking corporation ("HBC"), and TVB are entering into an Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization (and as it may be amended, the "Merger Agreement"), dated as of the date of this Agreement, pursuant to which TVB will merge with and into HBC (the "Merger") on the terms and conditions set forth therein and, in connection therewith, each share of TVB common stock ("TVB Common Stock") will be converted into the right to receive the consideration set forth in the Merger Agreement. Unless otherwise indicated, capitalized terms used and not defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Merger Agreement.

B. As a condition to its willingness to enter into the Merger Agreement, HCC has required that each executive officer and director of the TVB, solely in his or her capacity as a shareholder and beneficial owner or record holder of TVB Common Stock, enter into, and Shareholder has agreed to enter into, this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing, for good and valuable consideration, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Representations and Warranties of Shareholder. Shareholder hereby represents and warrants to HCC as follows:

(a) Authority; No Violation. Shareholder has all necessary power and authority to enter into and perform all of Shareholder's obligations hereunder. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by Shareholder will not violate any other agreement to which Shareholder is a party, including any voting agreement, shareholders' agreement, trust agreement or voting trust, any order, arbitration award, judgment or decree to which Shareholder is a party or by which Shareholder is bound, or any statute, rule or regulation to which Shareholder is subject. This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by Shareholder (and Shareholder's spouse, if the Shares (as defined below) constitute community property) and constitutes a valid and binding agreement of Shareholder and such spouse, enforceable against Shareholder and Shareholder's spouse in accordance with its terms.

(b) Ownership of Shares. Shareholder is the beneficial owner or record holder of the number of shares of TVB Common Stock indicated under Shareholder's name on the signature page hereto (the "Existing Shares", and together with any shares of TVB Common Stock acquired by Shareholder after the date of this Agreement, the "Shares") and, as of the date of this Agreement, the Existing Shares constitute all the shares of TVB Common Stock owned of record or beneficially by Shareholder. With respect to the Existing Shares, subject to applicable community property laws, Shareholder has sole voting power and sole power to issue instructions with respect to the matters set forth in Section 2 of this Agreement, sole power of disposition, sole power to demand appraisal rights and sole power to engage in actions set forth in Section 2 of this Agreement, with no restrictions on the voting rights, rights of disposition or otherwise, subject to applicable laws and the terms of this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "beneficial ownership" shall be interpreted in accordance with Rule 13d-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

(c) Consents and Approvals. Shareholder has taken all actions necessary to approve the actions contemplated by this Agreement. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by Shareholder does not, and the performance by Shareholder of his or her obligations under this Agreement and the consummation by him or her of the transactions contemplated hereby will not, require Shareholder to obtain any consent, approval, authorization or permit of, or to make any filing with or notification to, any Governmental Entity.

(d) Absence of Litigation. There is no suit, action, investigation or proceeding pending or, to the knowledge of Shareholder, threatened against or affecting Shareholder or any of his or her Affiliates before or by any Governmental Entity that could reasonably be expected to materially impair the ability of Shareholder to perform his or her obligations hereunder or to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby on a timely basis.

2. Voting Agreement; Agreement Not to Transfer; Non-Exercise of Warrant(1).

(a) Shareholder agrees that at any meeting of the shareholders of TVB which relates to or may impact, either directly or indirectly, the Merger or the Merger Agreement, or in connection with any written consent of the shareholders of TVB, Shareholder will (i) appear at each such meeting or otherwise cause the Shares to be counted as present thereat for purposes of establishing a quorum; and (ii) vote (or cause to be voted), in person or by proxy, or deliver a written consent (or cause a consent to be delivered) covering all the Shares that are owned of record or beneficially by Shareholder or as to which Shareholder has, directly or indirectly, the right to vote or direct the voting: (A) in favor of adoption and approval of the Merger, the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; (B) against any action or agreement that could be expected to result in a breach of any covenant, representation or warranty or any other obligation or agreement of TVB or Shareholder under this Agreement or the Merger Agreement, and (C) except with the prior written consent of HCC, against the following actions (other than the Merger and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement): (1) any extraordinary corporate transactions, such as a merger, consolidation or other business combination involving TVB; (2) any sale, lease or transfer of a material amount of the assets of TVB; (3) any change in the majority of the board of TVB; (4) any material change in the present capitalization of TVB; (5) any amendment of TVB's Charter Documents; (6) any other material change in TVB's corporate structure or business; or (7) any other action which is intended, or could reasonably be expected to, impede, interfere with, delay, postpone, discourage or materially adversely affect the Merger. Shareholder shall not enter into any agreement or understanding with any Person prior to the date of termination of this Agreement in accordance with Section 8 to vote or give instructions after the date of termination of this Agreement in accordance with Section 8 in any manner inconsistent with clauses (i) or (ii) of the preceding sentence.

(b) Until the earlier of the termination of this Agreement or the Effective Time, Shareholder will not, directly or indirectly (i) sell, transfer, exchange, pledge, assign, hypothecate, encumber, tender or otherwise dispose of (collectively, a "Transfer"), or enforce or permit execution of the provisions of any redemption, share purchase or sale, recapitalization or other agreement with TVB or any other Person or enter into any contract, option or other agreement, arrangement or understanding with respect to the Transfer of, directly or indirectly, any of the Shares or any securities convertible into or exercisable for Shares, any other capital stock of TVB or any interest in any of the foregoing with any Person, (ii) enter into swap or any other agreement or any transaction that transfers, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, the economic consequence of ownership of the Shares, (iii) take any action that would make any of Shareholder's representations or warranties contained in this Agreement untrue or incorrect in any material respect or have the effect of preventing or disabling Shareholder from performing Shareholder's obligations under this Agreement, or (iv) deposit any Shares in a voting trust or grant any proxy (other than to the proxyholder(s) named in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus mailed to shareholders of TVB in connection with the Tri-Valley Meeting) or enter into any voting agreement or similar agreement or arrangement with respect to any of the Shares; provided, however, that this Agreement shall not prohibit Shareholder from transferring and delivering Shares to TVB to effect the exercise of an option to purchase TVB Common Stock.

(c) Prior to the termination of this Agreement, Shareholder will not exercise, or cause to be exercised, that certain Warrant for the Purchase of Shares of Common Stock (the "Warrant"), certificate number W-1, with an original issue date of April 23, 2015, representing the right to acquire 2,020,202 shares of TVB Common Stock, at a price of $0.33 per share. At the Effective Time, in consideration for the cancellation of the Warrant, Shareholder will be entitled to receive a cash payment in an amount, without interest, equal to the product of (i) the total number of shares of TVB Common Stock subject to the Warrant times (ii) the excess, if any, of $0.77 over the exercise price per share, subject to any such amounts as required under the Code. Payment shall be made pursuant to Section 2.05(h) of the Merger Agreement.

3. Cooperation. Shareholder agrees that he or she will not directly or indirectly (i) initiate, solicit, induce or encourage, or take any action to facilitate the making of, any inquiry, offer or proposal which may constitute, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, an Acquisition Proposal, or (ii) participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding any Acquisition Proposal, or furnish, or otherwise afford access, to any Person (other than HCC) to any information or data with respect to TVB or otherwise relating to an Acquisition Proposal.

4. No Solicitation. Shareholder hereby agrees that during the term of this Agreement he or she shall not, and shall not permit any Representative retained by him or her to, directly or indirectly, (a) take any of the actions specified in clauses (i)-(iv) of Section 5.04(a) of the Merger Agreement as if he or she were TVB, (b) agree to release, or release, any Person from any obligation under any existing standstill agreement or arrangement relating to TVB, or (c) participate in, directly or indirectly, a "solicitation" of "proxies" (as such terms are used in the rules of the SEC) or powers of attorney or similar rights to vote, or seek to advise or influence any Person with respect to the voting of, any shares of TVB Common Stock in connection with any vote or other action on any matter of a type described in Section 2(a) of this Agreement, other than to recommend that shareholders of TVB vote in favor of the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and the Merger and as otherwise expressly permitted by this Agreement. Shareholder agrees immediately to cease and cause to be terminated any activities, discussions or negotiations conducted before the date of this Agreement with any Persons other than HCC with respect to any possible Acquisition Proposal and will take all necessary steps to inform any Representative retained by him or her of the obligations undertaken by Shareholder pursuant to this Section 4.

5. Notice of Acquisitions; Proposals Regarding Prohibited Transactions. Shareholder hereby agrees to notify HCC promptly (and in any event within two (2) Business Days) in writing of the number of any additional shares of TVB Common Stock or other securities of TVB of which Shareholder acquires beneficial or record ownership on or after the date of this Agreement. Shareholder will comply with the provisions of Section 5.04(c) of the Merger Agreement as if he or she were TVB.

6. Shareholder Capacity. Shareholder is entering this Agreement in his or her capacity as the record or beneficial owner of Shareholder's Shares, and not in his or her capacity as an executive officer or director of TVB or as a trustee of any TVB benefit plan, as applicable. Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed in any manner to limit the discretion of Shareholder to take any action, or fail to take any action, in his or her capacity as an executive officer or director of TVB or as a trustee of any TVB benefit plan, as applicable, that may be required of Shareholder in the exercise of his or her fiduciary duties and responsibilities as a director of TVB or as a trustee of any TVB benefit plan.

7. Stop Transfer Order. In furtherance of this Agreement, Shareholder hereby authorizes and instructs TVB to enter a stop transfer order with respect to all of Shareholder's Shares for the period from the date of this Agreement through the date this Agreement is terminated in accordance with Section 8. TVB agrees that it shall comply with such stop transfer instructions.

8. Term of Agreement; Termination. The term of this Agreement shall commence on the date hereof and terminate at the Effective Time. If the Merger is not consummated and the Merger Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms (other than as a result of a breach of this Agreement), this Agreement shall be null and void.

9. Specific Performance. Shareholder acknowledges that it is a condition to the willingness of HCC to enter into the Merger Agreement that Shareholder execute and deliver this Agreement and that it will be impossible to measure in money the damage to HCC if Shareholder fails to comply with the obligations imposed by this Agreement and that, in the event of any such failure, HCC will not have an adequate remedy at law or in equity. Accordingly, Shareholder agrees that injunctive relief or other equitable remedy is the appropriate remedy for any such failure and will not oppose the granting of such relief by a court of competent jurisdiction on the basis that HCC has an adequate remedy at law. Shareholder further agrees that Shareholder will not seek, and agrees to waive any requirement for, the securing or posting of a bond in connection with TVB's seeking or obtaining such equitable relief. Such injunctive and other equitable remedies are cumulative and shall be HCC's sole remedy under this Agreement, unless HCC shall have sought and been denied by a court of competent jurisdiction injunctive or other equitable remedies and such denial is other than by reason of violation of this Agreement by HCC.

10. Confidentiality. Shareholder agrees (a) to hold any and all information regarding this Agreement, the Merger and the Merger Agreement in strict confidence, and (b) not to divulge any information regarding this Agreement, the Merger or the Merger Agreement to any third party, until such time as the Merger has been publicly announced by HCC and TVB, at which time Shareholder may only divulge such information as has been publicly disclosed by HCC and TVB.

11. Miscellaneous.

(a) Entire Agreement. This Agreement supersedes all prior agreements, written or oral, among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and contains the entire agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement may not be amended, supplemented or modified, and no provisions hereof may be modified or waived, except by an instrument in writing signed by each party hereto. No waiver of any provisions hereof by any party shall be deemed a waiver of any other provisions hereof by any such party, nor shall any such waiver be deemed a continuing waiver of any provision hereof by such party.

(b) Attorney's Fees. If any action at law or in equity is necessary to enforce or interpret the terms of this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to attorneys' fees, costs and disbursements, in addition to any other relief to which the prevailing party is entitled.

(c) Severability. If any provision of this Agreement shall be held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unreasonable as to duration, activity or subject, it shall be deemed to extend only over the maximum duration, range of activities or subjects as to which such provision shall be valid and enforceable under applicable Law. If any provision of this Agreement shall, for any reason, be held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect any other provision of this Agreement, but this Agreement shall be construed as if such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision had never been contained herein.

FORM OF NON-SOLICITATION, NON-COMPETITION AND CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

This NON-SOLICITATION, NON-COMPETITION AND CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT (this "Agreement"), dated as of December 20, 2017, is made by and among Heritage Commerce Corp, a California corporation ("HCC"), Heritage Bank of Commerce, a California state-chartered bank and wholly-owned subsidiary of HCC ("HBC"), and the undersigned director ("Representative") of Tri-Valley Bank, a California banking corporation ("TVB"). The Agreement shall become effective at the Effective Time as defined in the Merger Agreement (described below).

Recitals

A. HCC, HBC and TVB are entering into an Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization (and as it may be amended, the "Merger Agreement"), dated the date of this Agreement, pursuant to which TVB shall merge with and into HBC (the "Merger") on the terms and conditions set forth therein and, in connection therewith, each share of TVB common stock ("TVB Common Stock") will be converted into the right to receive the consideration set forth in the Merger Agreement. Unless otherwise indicated, capitalized terms used and not defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Merger Agreement.

B. Representative owns shares of TVB Common Stock and/or options to purchase TVB Common Stock, and, as a result Representative has a material economic interest in the consummation of the Merger.

C. Following the Merger, the business and operations of HCC, HBC and TVB could be irreparably injured if Representative were to undertake certain activities competitive with HCC, HBC or TVB.

D. In order to induce HCC and HBC to enter into the Merger Agreement and consummate the Merger, Representative has agreed to enter into and perform this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and the benefits to be derived, directly or indirectly, by Representative under the Merger Agreement, and in consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt, sufficiency and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto, intending to be legally bound, agree as follows:

1. Acknowledgments by Representative; Support.

(a) Representative acknowledges that by virtue of his or her positions with TVB, he or she has developed considerable expertise in the business operations of TVB and has access to extensive confidential information with respect to TVB and has access to Confidential Information (as defined below). Representative recognizes that HCC and HBC would be irreparably damaged, and HCC's and HBC's substantial investment as a result of the acquisition of TVB in the Merger would be materially impaired, if Representative were to (i) disclose or make unauthorized use of any Confidential Information, (ii) take certain actions relative to employees of TVB, or (iii) solicit current or prospective clients, customers, suppliers, agents or certain other Persons. Accordingly, Representative expressly acknowledges that he or she is voluntarily entering into this Agreement and that the terms and conditions of this Agreement are fair and reasonable to Representative in all respects.

(b) Representative agrees during the Applicable Period (as defined below) to support and refrain from (i) disparaging the goodwill and reputation of HCC, HBC and TVB, and (ii) harming the customer and client relationships of TVB as of the Effective Time of the Merger. For purposes of this Agreement, "Applicable Period" shall mean the period commencing on the Effective Time and ending on the later of: (i) two (2) years from and after the Effective Time, or (ii) one (1) year from and after the date on which Representative is no longer a director or employee of HCC or HBC.

2. Non Solicitation.

(a) In order that HCC and HBC may have and enjoy the full benefit of ownership of TVB and the business it conducts, including its goodwill, following the Effective Time of the Merger, Representative agrees that during the Applicable Period, (i) Representative will not take any affirmative action directly or indirectly to attempt to hire, contact or solicit (other than general solicitations through newspapers or other media of general circulation not specifically targeted at such employees) with respect to hiring, any Person who was an employee of TVB at the Effective Time of the Merger and who becomes an employee of HCC, HBC or any of their respective Subsidiaries in connection with the Merger, or induce or otherwise counsel, advise or knowingly encourage any such Person to leave the employ of HCC, HBC or any of their respective Subsidiaries, and (ii) Representative will not directly or indirectly (A) induce, persuade, encourage or influence or attempt to induce, persuade, encourage or influence any Person who had a business relationship with TVB as of the Effective Time of the Merger and who continues to have a business relationship with HBC, HCC or any of its respective Subsidiaries on or after the Effective Time of the Merger, to discontinue, reduce or restrict such relationship or (B) solicit or target the deposits, loans or other products and services from or to Persons who were depositors, borrowers or customers of TVB as of the Effective Time of the Merger, whether by personal contact, by telephone, by facsimile, by mail or other form of solicitation or communication, or in any other way except for general solicitations that are directed to the general public and not directed specifically to Persons who were depositors, borrowers or customers of TVB as of the Effective Time of the Merger.

(b) Representative acknowledges and agrees that the business conducted by TVB is highly competitive, a significant portion of TVB's competitiveness and its value as a going enterprise is derived from its workforce and business relationships, and that the covenants made by Representative in this Section 2 are made in consideration of the Merger Consideration Representative will receive in exchange for Representative's TVB Common Stock and, if applicable, the payments of cash Representative will receive on account of certain options to purchase TVB Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Merger, and as a necessary inducement for HCC and HBC to enter into the Merger Agreement and consummate the transactions contemplated thereby. It is the desire and intent of the parties to this Agreement that the provisions of this Section 2 shall be enforced to the fullest extent permissible under the laws and public policies of each jurisdiction in which enforcement is sought. It is expressly understood and agreed that, although Representative, HCC and HBC each consider the restrictions contained in this Section 2 to be reasonable, if a final determination is made by a court of competent jurisdiction or an arbitrator that any restriction contained in this Section 2 is unenforceable against any party, the provisions of this Section 2 shall be deemed amended to apply to the maximum extent as such court may judicially determine or indicate to be enforceable. Representative acknowledges that breach of this Section 2 may cause HCC and HBC irreparable harm and that they may be entitled to the entry of an injunction without bond in the event Representative breaches or threatens to breach this Section 2.

3. Non-Competition. Without the prior written consent of HCC, which may be withheld in HCC's sole and absolute discretion, during the Applicable Period, with the exception of a director position with each of United American Bank, First Banks, Inc., and Medley Management, Inc., with the exception of Representative's management, ownership and control of, and director position with, Neighborhood Bancorp Inc. and Neighborhood National Bank, Representative shall not, directly or indirectly, own, manage, operate, control, engage in or have any interest in any Person, firm, corporation or business (whether as an employee, officer, director, agent, security holder, or consultant, provided that Representative shall not be prohibited from holding or making a passive investment in any such company not to exceed 10% of the outstanding shares in any class of security or the total outstanding equity of any such company) that engages, in any manner, in the provision of Commercial Banking Services (as defined below) in the Counties of Alameda, Contra Costa, San Benito and Santa Clara in the State of California. For purposes of this Agreement, "Commercial Banking Services" shall mean services that include both (i) the origination of secured or unsecured commercial, real estate, residential, construction and SBA loans, together with (ii) the solicitation and provision of deposits.

4. Confidential Information; Trade Names and Styles.

(a) Without limiting the generality of Section 2 above, other than for the benefit of TVB, HCC, HBC or their respective Subsidiaries, Representative (i) shall make no use of Confidential Information, or any part thereof, and (ii) shall not disclose Confidential Information, or any part thereof, to any other Person, and (iii) shall, upon the request of HCC or HBC, deliver all documents, reports, drawings, designs, plans, proposals and other tangible evidence of Confidential Information now possessed or hereafter acquired by Representative to HCC and HBC. For purposes of this Agreement, "Confidential Information" shall mean (a) all secrets and other confidential information, trade secrets, ideas, concepts, knowledge, know-how, techniques, secret processes, improvements, discoveries, methods, inventions, sales information, financial information, lists of customers and prospective customers, broker lists, potential brokers, rate sheets, market studies, marketing plans, business plans, concepts, strategies or products, as well as all documents, reports, drawings, designs, plans, and proposals otherwise pertaining to same, with respect to TVB, (b) any non-public personal information on any present or past customer or client of TVB, and (c) any other information, however documented, that is a trade secret within the meaning of applicable trade secret protection Law. Notwithstanding the foregoing, "Confidential Information" shall not include any (i) information which is or has become available from an independent third party who learned the information independently and is or was not bound by a confidentiality agreement with TVB, HCC or HBC with respect to such information, (ii) information which Representative independently develops or has developed without reference to such information, or (iii) information readily ascertainable from public, trade or other non-confidential sources (other than as a result, directly or indirectly, of disclosure or other dissemination in violation of an obligation or duty of confidentiality owed to TVB, HCC or HBC).

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, Representative may disclose or reveal any information, whether including in whole or part any Confidential Information, that:

(i) Representative is required to disclose or reveal under applicable Law; provided, however, that Representative makes a good faith request that the confidentiality of the Confidential Information be preserved and, to the extent not prohibited by applicable Law and gives, HCC and HBC prompt advance notice of such requirement.

(ii) Representative is otherwise required to disclose or reveal by any Governmental Entity; provided, however, that Representative makes a good faith request that the confidentiality of the Confidential Information be preserved and, to the extent not prohibited by applicable Law, gives HCC and HBC prompt advance notice of such requirement.

(3) Bracketed language to be included in agreements for Lefanowicz and Taylor.

(4) Bracketed language to be excluded from agreements for Lefanowicz and Taylor.

(iii) In the written opinion of Representative's legal counsel, Representative is compelled to disclose or else stand liable for contempt or suffer other censure or penalty imposed by any Governmental Entity; provided, however, that Representative makes a good faith request that the confidentiality of the Confidential Information be preserved and, to the extent not prohibited by applicable Law, gives HCC and HBC prompt advance notice of such requirement.

(c) Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 1833(b), an individual shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that (i) is made (A) in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney; and (B) solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; or (ii) is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, if such filing is made under seal. Further, an individual who files a lawsuit for retaliation by an employer for reporting a suspected violation of law may disclose the trade secret to the attorney of the individual and use the trade secret information in the court proceeding, if the individual (X) files any document containing the trade secret under seal; and (Y) does not disclose the trade secret, except pursuant to court order.

(d) Representative acknowledges and agrees that any and all trade names and styles used by TVB, including, but not limited to, the terms "Tri-Valley Bank" and all trademarks, visual designs and logos under which TVB did business (collectively, the "Marks"), are valuable trade names and service marks, the ownership of which will remain with TVB upon the Merger. The undersigned agrees that use by any entity, other than HCC or HBC or one of their respective Subsidiaries, of the Marks in the Counties of Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, San Benito, San Francisco, San Mateo, and Santa Clara in the State of California would both cause public and customer confusion, and dilute the value of HCC's and HBC's investment. Therefore, Representative unconditionally agrees that after the date hereof, he or she will not enter into any business arrangement or agreement, whether formal or informal, directly or indirectly, where the term "Tri-Valley Bank" or any other Mark, is used.

5. Confidentiality. Representative agrees (a) to hold any and all information regarding this Agreement, the Merger and the Merger Agreement in strict confidence, and (b) not to divulge any information regarding this Agreement, the Merger or the Merger Agreement to any third person, until such time as the Merger has been publicly announced by HCC and TVB, at which time Representative may only divulge such information as has been publicly disclosed by HCC and TVB.

6. Independence of Obligations. The covenants of Representative set forth in this Agreement shall be construed as independent of any other agreement or arrangement between Representative, on the one hand, and HCC and HBC, or their respective Subsidiaries on the other; and the existence of any claim or cause of action by Representative against HCC, HBC, or their respective Subsidiaries shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement of such covenants against Representative.

7. Termination. This Agreement shall terminate automatically without further action in the event that the Merger Agreement is terminated prior to the Effective Time in accordance with its terms. Unless sooner terminated under the immediately preceding sentence, the obligations of Representative under Section 4(a) of this Agreement shall survive the termination of this Agreement, and the obligations of Representative under Sections 1(b), 2, and 3 of this Agreement shall terminate at the end of the Applicable Period.

8. Specific Performance. Representative acknowledges and agrees that irreparable injury will result to HCC and HBC in the event of a breach of any of the provisions of this Agreement and that HCC and HBC will have no adequate remedy at law with respect thereto. Accordingly, in the event of a material breach of this Agreement, and in addition to any other legal or equitable remedy HCC or HBC may have, HCC and HBC shall be entitled to seek the entry of a preliminary injunction and a permanent injunction (including, without limitation, specific performance) by a court of competent jurisdiction, to restrain the violation or breach thereof by Representative or any affiliates, agents or any other Persons acting for or with Representative in any capacity whatsoever, and Representative submits to the jurisdiction of such court in any such action. In addition, after discussing the matter with Representative, HCC and HBC shall have the right to inform any third party that HCC and HBC reasonably believes to be, or to be contemplating, participating with Representative or receiving from Representative assistance in violation of this Agreement, of the terms of this Agreement and of the rights of HCC and HBC hereunder, and that participation by any such Persons with Representative in activities in violation of Representative's agreement with HCC and HBC set forth in this Agreement may give rise to claims by HCC and HBC against such third party.

9. Entire Agreement. This Agreement supersedes all prior agreements, written or oral, among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and contains the entire agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement may not be amended, supplemented or modified, and no provisions hereof may be modified or waived, except by an instrument in writing signed by each party hereto. No waiver of any provisions hereof by any party shall be deemed a waiver of any other provisions hereof by any such party, nor shall any such waiver be deemed a continuing waiver of any provision hereof by such party.

10. Attorneys' Fees. If any action at law or in equity is necessary to enforce or interpret the terms of this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and necessary disbursements, in addition to any other relief to which the prevailing party is entitled.

11. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement shall be held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unreasonable as to duration, activity or subject, it shall be deemed to extend only over the maximum duration, range of activities or subjects as to which such provision shall be valid and enforceable under applicable Law. If any provision of this Agreement shall, for any reason, be held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect any other provision of this Agreement, but this Agreement shall be construed as if such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision had never been contained herein.

12. Notices. All notices and other communications given or made pursuant to this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed effectively given: (a) upon personal delivery to the party to be notified, (b) when sent by confirmed facsimile if sent during normal business hours of the recipient, and if not so confirmed, then on the next business day, (c) four (4) days after having been sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, or (d) one (1) business day after deposit with an internationally recognized overnight courier, specifying next business day delivery, with written verification of receipt. All communications shall be sent to the respective parties at their

Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer upon any other person any rights or remedies of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement. Representative shall not be entitled to assign his or her obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of HCC and HBC, and any purported assignment without such consent shall be null and void. 14. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and interpreted in accordance with, the laws of the State of California applicable to contracts made and entirely to be performed within such state, without regard to any applicable conflicts of law principles that would require the application of the laws of any other jurisdiction. The state or federal courts located within the counties of Alameda and Contra Costa in the state of California shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any and all disputes between the parties hereto, whether in law or equity, arising out of or relating to this Agreement and the agreements, instruments and documents contemplated hereby and the parties consent to and agree to submit to the jurisdiction of such courts. Each of the parties hereby waives and agrees not to assert in any such dispute, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, any claim that (i) such party is not personally subject to the jurisdiction of such courts, (ii) such party and such party's property is immune from any legal process issued by such courts or (iii) any litigation or other proceeding commenced in such courts is brought in an inconvenient forum. The parties hereby agree that mailing of process or other papers in connection with any such action or proceeding in the manner provided in Section 12, or in other manner as may be permitted by law, shall be valid and sufficient service thereof and hereby waive any objections to service accomplished in the manner herein provided.

FORM OF NON-SOLICITATION AND CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

This NON-SOLICITATION AND CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT (this "Agreement"), dated as of December 20, 2017, is made by and among Heritage Commerce Corp, a California corporation ("HCC"), Heritage Bank of Commerce, a California state-chartered bank and wholly-owned subsidiary of HCC ("HBC"), and the undersigned executive ("Representative") of Tri-Valley Bank, a California banking corporation ("TVB"). The Agreement shall become effective at the Effective Time as defined in the Merger Agreement (described below).

Recitals

A. HCC, HBC and TVB are entering into an Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization (and as it may be amended, the "Merger Agreement"), dated the date of this Agreement, pursuant to which TVB shall merge with and into HBC (the "Merger") on the terms and conditions set forth therein and, in connection therewith, each share of TVB common stock ("TVB Common Stock") will be converted into the right to receive the consideration set forth in the Merger Agreement. Unless otherwise indicated, capitalized terms used and not defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Merger Agreement.

B. Representative owns shares of TVB Common Stock and/or options to purchase TVB Common Stock, and, as a result Representative has a material economic interest in the consummation of the Merger.

C. Following the Merger, the business and operations of HCC, HBC and TVB could be irreparably injured if Representative were to undertake certain activities competitive with HCC, HBC or TVB.

D. In order to induce HCC and HBC to enter into the Merger Agreement and consummate the Merger, Representative has agreed to enter into and perform this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and the benefits to be derived, directly or indirectly, by Representative under the Merger Agreement, and in consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt, sufficiency and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto, intending to be legally bound, agree as follows:

1. Acknowledgments by Representative; Support.

(a) Representative acknowledges that by virtue of his or her positions with TVB, he or she has developed considerable expertise in the business operations of TVB and has access to extensive confidential information with respect to TVB and has access to Confidential Information (as defined below). Representative recognizes that HCC and HBC would be irreparably damaged, and HCC's and HBC's substantial investment as a result of the acquisition of TVB in the Merger would be materially impaired, if Representative were to (i) disclose or make unauthorized use of any Confidential Information, (ii) take certain actions relative to employees of TVB, or (iii) solicit current or prospective clients, customers, suppliers, agents or certain other Persons. Accordingly, Representative expressly acknowledges that he or she is voluntarily entering into this Agreement and that the terms and conditions of this Agreement are fair and reasonable to Representative in all respects.

(b) Representative agrees during the Applicable Period (as defined below) to support and refrain from (i) disparaging the goodwill and reputation of HCC, HBC or TVB, and (ii) harming the customer and client relationships of TVB as of the Effective Time of the Merger. For purposes of this Agreement, "Applicable Period" shall mean the period commencing on the Effective Time and ending on the later of: (i) two (2) years from and after the Effective Time, or (ii) one (1) year from and after the date on which Representative is no longer a director or employee of HCC or HBC.

2. Non Solicitation.

(a) In order that HCC and HBC may have and enjoy the full benefit of ownership of TVB and the business it conducts, including its goodwill, following the Effective Time of the Merger, Representative agrees that during the Applicable Period, (i) Representative will not take any affirmative action directly or indirectly to attempt to hire, contact or solicit (other than general solicitations through newspapers or other media of general circulation not specifically targeted at such employees) with respect to hiring, any Person who was an employee of TVB at the Effective Time of the Merger and who becomes an employee of HCC, HBC or any of their respective Subsidiaries in connection with the Merger, or induce or otherwise counsel, advise or knowingly encourage any such Person to leave the employ of HCC, HBC or any of their respective Subsidiaries, and (ii) Representative will not directly or indirectly (A) induce, persuade, encourage or influence or attempt to induce, persuade, encourage or influence any Person who had a business relationship with TVB as of the Effective Time of the Merger and who continues to have a business relationship with HBC, HCC or any of its respective Subsidiaries on or after the Effective Time of the Merger, to discontinue, reduce or restrict such relationship or (B) solicit or target the deposits, loans or other products and services from or to Persons who were depositors, borrowers or customers of TVB as of the Effective Time of the Merger, whether by personal contact, by telephone, by facsimile, by mail or other form of solicitation or communication, or in any other way except for general solicitations that are directed to the general public and not directed specifically to Persons who were depositors, borrowers or customers of TVB as of the Effective Time of the Merger.

(b) Representative acknowledges and agrees that the business conducted by TVB is highly competitive, a significant portion of TVB's competitiveness and its value as a going enterprise is derived from its workforce and business relationships, and that the covenants made by Representative in this Section 2 are made in consideration of the Merger Consideration Representative will receive in exchange for Representative's TVB Common Stock and, if applicable, the payments of cash Representative will receive on account of certain options to purchase TVB Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Merger, and as a necessary inducement for HCC and HBC to enter into the Merger Agreement and consummate the transactions contemplated thereby. It is the desire and intent of the parties to this Agreement that the provisions of this Section 2 shall be enforced to the fullest extent permissible under the laws and public policies of each jurisdiction in which enforcement is sought. It is expressly understood and agreed that, although Representative, HCC and HBC each consider the restrictions contained in this Section 2 to be reasonable, if a final determination is made by a court of competent jurisdiction or an arbitrator that any restriction contained in this Section 2 is unenforceable against any party, the provisions of this Section 2 shall be deemed amended to apply to the maximum extent as such court may judicially determine or indicate to be enforceable. Representative acknowledges that breach of this Section 2 may cause HCC and HBC irreparable harm and that they may be entitled to the entry of an injunction without bond in the event Representative breaches or threatens to breach this Section 2.

3. Confidential Information; Trade Names and Styles.

(a) Without limiting the generality of Section 2 above, other than for the benefit of TVB, HCC, HBC or their respective Subsidiaries, Representative (i) shall make no use of Confidential Information, or any part thereof, and (ii) shall not disclose Confidential Information, or any part thereof, to any other Person, and (iii) shall, upon the request of HCC or HBC, deliver all documents, reports, drawings, designs, plans, proposals and other tangible evidence of Confidential Information now possessed or hereafter acquired by Representative to HCC and HBC. For purposes of this Agreement, "Confidential Information" shall mean (a) all secrets and other confidential information, trade secrets, ideas, concepts, knowledge, know-how, techniques, secret processes, improvements, discoveries, methods, inventions, sales information, financial information, lists of customers and prospective customers, broker lists, potential brokers, rate sheets, market studies, marketing plans, business plans, concepts, strategies or products, as well as all documents, reports, drawings, designs, plans, and proposals otherwise pertaining to same, with respect to TVB, (b) any non-public personal information on any present or past customer or client of TVB, and (c) any other information, however documented, that is a trade secret within the meaning of applicable trade secret protection Law. Notwithstanding the foregoing, "Confidential Information" shall not include any (i) information which is or has become available from an independent third party who learned the information independently and is or was not bound by a confidentiality agreement with TVB, HCC or HBC with respect to such information, (ii) information which Representative independently develops or has developed without reference to such information, or (iii) information readily ascertainable from public, trade or other non-confidential sources (other than as a result, directly or indirectly, of disclosure or other dissemination in violation of an obligation or duty of confidentiality owed to TVB, HCC or HBC).

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, Representative may disclose or reveal any information, whether including in whole or part any Confidential Information, that:

(i) Representative is required to disclose or reveal under applicable Law; provided, however, that Representative makes a good faith request that the confidentiality of the Confidential Information be preserved and, to the extent not prohibited by applicable Law and gives, HCC and HBC prompt advance notice of such requirement.

(ii) Representative is otherwise required to disclose or reveal by any Governmental Entity; provided, however, that Representative makes a good faith request that the confidentiality of the Confidential Information be preserved and, to the extent not prohibited by applicable Law, gives HCC and HBC prompt advance notice of such requirement.

(iii) In the written opinion of Representative's legal counsel, Representative is compelled to disclose or else stand liable for contempt or suffer other censure or penalty imposed by any Governmental Entity; provided, however, that Representative makes a good faith request that the confidentiality of the Confidential Information be preserved and, to the extent not prohibited by applicable Law, gives HCC and HBC prompt advance notice of such requirement.

(c) Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 1833(b), an individual shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that (i) is made (A) in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney; and (B) solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; or (ii) is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, if such filing is made under seal. Further, an individual who files a lawsuit for retaliation by an employer for reporting a suspected violation of law may disclose the trade secret to the attorney of the individual and use the trade secret information in the court proceeding, if the individual (X) files any document containing the trade secret under seal; and (Y) does not disclose the trade secret, except pursuant to court order.

(d) Representative acknowledges and agrees that any and all trade names and styles used by TVB, including, but not limited to, the terms "Tri-Valley Bank" and all trademarks, visual designs and logos under which TVB did business (collectively, the "Marks"), are valuable trade names and service marks, the ownership of which will remain with TVB upon the Merger. The undersigned agrees that use by any entity, other than HCC or HBC or one of their respective Subsidiaries, of the Marks in the Counties of Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, San Benito, San Francisco, San Mateo, and Santa Clara in the State of California would both cause public and customer confusion, and dilute the value of HCC's and HBC's investment. Therefore, Representative unconditionally agrees that after the date hereof, he or she will not enter into any business arrangement or agreement, whether formal or informal, directly or indirectly, where the term "Tri-Valley Bank" or any other Mark, is used.

4. Confidentiality. Representative agrees (a) to hold any and all information regarding this Agreement, the Merger and the Merger Agreement in strict confidence, and (b) not to divulge any information regarding this Agreement, the Merger or the Merger Agreement to any third person, until such time as the Merger has been publicly announced by HCC and TVB, at which time Representative may only divulge such information as has been publicly disclosed by HCC and TVB.

5. Independence of Obligations. The covenants of Representative set forth in this Agreement shall be construed as independent of any other agreement or arrangement between Representative, on the one hand, and HCC and HBC, or their respective Subsidiaries on the other; and the existence of any claim or cause of action by Representative against HCC, HBC, or their respective Subsidiaries shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement of such covenants against Representative.

6. Termination. This Agreement shall terminate automatically without further action in the event that the Merger Agreement is terminated prior to the Effective Time in accordance with its terms. Unless sooner terminated under the immediately preceding sentence, the obligations of Representative under Section 3(a) of this Agreement shall survive the termination of this Agreement, and the obligations of Representative under Sections 1(b) and 2 of this Agreement shall terminate at the end of the Applicable Period.

7. Specific Performance. Representative acknowledges and agrees that irreparable injury will result to HCC and HBC in the event of a breach of any of the provisions of this Agreement and that HCC and HBC will have no adequate remedy at law with respect thereto. Accordingly, in the event of a material breach of this Agreement, and in addition to any other legal or equitable remedy HCC or HBC may have, HCC and HBC shall be entitled to seek the entry of a preliminary injunction and a permanent injunction (including, without limitation, specific performance) by a court of competent jurisdiction, to restrain the violation or breach thereof by Representative or any affiliates, agents or any other Persons acting for or with Representative in any capacity whatsoever, and Representative submits to the jurisdiction of such court in any such action. In addition, after discussing the matter with Representative, HCC and HBC shall have the right to inform any third party that HCC and HBC reasonably believes to be, or to be contemplating, participating with Representative or receiving from Representative assistance in violation of this Agreement, of the terms of this Agreement and of the rights of HCC and HBC hereunder, and that participation by any such Persons with Representative in activities in violation of Representative's agreement with HCC and HBC set forth in this Agreement may give rise to claims by HCC and HBC against such third party.

8. Entire Agreement. This Agreement supersedes all prior agreements, written or oral, among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and contains the entire agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement may not be amended, supplemented or modified, and no provisions hereof may be modified or waived, except by an instrument in writing signed by each party hereto. No waiver of any provisions hereof by any party shall be deemed a waiver of any other provisions hereof by any such party, nor shall any such waiver be deemed a continuing waiver of any provision hereof by such party.

9. Attorneys' Fees. If any action at law or in equity is necessary to enforce or interpret the terms of this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and necessary disbursements, in addition to any other relief to which the prevailing party is entitled.

10. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement shall be held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unreasonable as to duration, activity or subject, it shall be deemed to extend only over the maximum duration, range of activities or subjects as to which such provision shall be valid and enforceable under applicable Law. If any provision of this Agreement shall, for any reason, be held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect any other provision of this Agreement, but this Agreement shall be construed as if such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision had never been contained herein.

11. Notices. All notices and other communications given or made pursuant to this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed effectively given: (a) upon personal delivery to the party to be notified, (b) when sent by confirmed facsimile if sent during normal business hours of the recipient, and if not so confirmed, then on the next business day, (c) four (4) days after having been sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, or (d) one (1) business day after deposit with an internationally recognized overnight courier, specifying next business day delivery, with written verification of receipt. All communications shall be sent to the respective parties at their address as set forth below, or to such facsimile number or address as subsequently modified by written notice given in accordance with this Section 11.

(b) Effect of the Merger. At the Effective Time, TVB shall be merged with and into HBC and the separate corporate existence of TVB shall cease. HBC shall be the surviving corporation (the "Surviving Corporation") in the Merger. The Surviving Corporation shall thereupon succeed, without other transfer, to all rights and properties of, and shall be subject to all the debts and liabilities of, TVB and the separate existence of Surviving Corporation as a California corporation, with all its purposes, objects, rights, powers, privileges and franchises, shall continue unaffected and unimpaired by the Merger.

(e) Further Actions. TVB shall execute and deliver any documents and instruments and take all action, as requested by the Surviving Corporation, necessary or desirable to evidence or carry out the Merger.

Section 2. Corporate Governance Matters.

(a) Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws. From and after the Effective Time and until thereafter amended as provided by law, the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of HBC as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be and continue to be the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation.

Re: Options to Purchase Stock

Gentlemen:

Reference is hereby made to that certain Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization ("Merger Agreement") dated the date hereof by and among Heritage Commerce Corp ("HCC"), Heritage Bank of Commerce ("HBC") and Tri-Valley Bank ("Tri-Valley") pursuant to which Tri-Valley will be merged with and into HBC ("Merger") and the separate corporate existence of Tri-Valley shall cease.

I previously have been granted options to acquire shares of Tri-Valley Common Stock, pursuant to one or more stock option agreements (the "Option Agreements") between Tri-Valley and me, each of every one of which are listed on the attachment to this letter. With respect to the number of shares of Tri-Valley Common Stock for which I have unexercised options under the Option Agreements to purchase such shares, which number of shares is set forth below my signature (the "Covered Options"), I acknowledge and agree that immediately prior to consummation of the Merger described above (the "Effective Time"), my Covered Options shall be terminated with no further action necessary on my part. In consideration therefor, I shall receive, in lieu of the Covered Options and any and all shares of Tri-Valley Common Stock that otherwise would have been issuable upon exercise of the Covered Options, an amount in cash without interest equal to (i) the Per Share Exchange Ratio times the HCC Average Closing Price (as these terms are defined in the Merger Agreement) minus (ii) the exercise price per share with respect to the Covered Option in question (such amount, the "Option Consideration").

I acknowledge that the Option Consideration to be received by me pursuant to this letter agreement is adequate consideration for my agreement to the terms and conditions of this letter agreement, including, without limitation, the cancellation of the Option Agreements and the Covered Options and the release set forth below.

I hereby agree (a) not to exercise any of my Covered Options before the Effective Time, (b) to accept the Option Consideration for all of my Covered Options in full satisfaction of all my rights under the Covered Options, and (c) that, without limitation, subject to receipt of the Option Consideration for the Covered Options, such Covered Options and the Option Agreements will be cancelled and will terminate at the Effective Time; provided, however, that if my employment with Tri-Valley or position on the Tri-Valley Board, as applicable, is terminated for any reason (including retirement or resignation) before the Effective Time, then I may exercise the Covered Options at my sole discretion in accordance with the terms of the Option Agreements.

I acknowledge that receipt of the Option Consideration is subject to the satisfaction or fulfillment or waiver of the conditions of Closing contained in the Merger Agreement, and that the Tri-Valley may collect in cash (and timely pay) all applicable withholding and payroll taxes with respect to such options and shall comply with all payroll reporting requirements with respect thereto.

I further agree to take such additional actions and deliver such additional documents and certificates as may be reasonably requested by Tri-Valley or HCC to effect the transactions described in this Agreement.

Dear Members of the Board:

You have requested our opinion as investment bankers as to the fairness, from a financial perspective, to the common shareholders (the "Shareholders") of Tri-Valley Bank, San Ramon, California (the "Company") of the proposed consideration to be received by the Company's Shareholders in the proposed merger of the Company with and into Heritage Commerce Corp ("HTBK"), a California corporation and sole shareholder of Heritage Bank of Commerce, San Jose, California (the "Transaction"). In the Transaction, the Company's Shareholders will receive, per share, fixed consideration of 0.0489 shares of HTBK common stock (the "Per Share Consideration"), subject to the terms and conditions of the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization by and among HTBK, Heritage Commerce Bank, and the Company. In aggregate, based upon 39,062,712 shares outstanding of the Company, the Shareholders will receive approximately 1,910,166 shares of HTBK, representing consideration of $0.76 per share based on the closing price of HTBK (NASDAQ: HTBK) as of December 19, 2017 of $15.51 or $31.1 million in total aggregate consideration, including payments to holders of options and warrants (collectively the "Merger Consideration").

Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Agreement. The terms of the Transaction are set forth more fully in the Agreement and descriptions of any such terms herein are qualified in their entirety by reference to the Agreement.

FIG Partners, LLC ("FIG"), as part of its investment banking business, is continually engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive bidding, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes. As specialists in the securities of financial institutions, we have experience and knowledge of the valuation of banking institutions. As you are aware, in the course of its daily trading activities, investment funds controlled by an affiliate (as such term is defined in Regulation 12G-2 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) of FIG and its affiliates may from time to time effect transactions and hold securities of the Company or HTBK; to the extent that we have any such position as of the date of this opinion it has been disclosed to the Company and HTBK. This opinion has been reviewed and approved by FIG's Fairness Committee. In addition FIG has not had a material relationship with the Company for which we have received compensation during the prior two years.

We were retained by the Company to act as its exclusive financial advisor in connection with the proposed Transaction and in rendering this fairness opinion. We will receive compensation from the Company in connection with our services, including a fee for rendering this opinion and a fee that is contingent upon the successful completion of the Transaction. The Company has agreed to indemnify us for certain liabilities arising out of our engagement.

During the course of our engagement and for the purposes of the opinion set forth herein, we have:

- (vii) used in its analyses certain assumptions related to transaction expenses, purchase accounting adjustment as well as certain cost savings. With respect to these estimates, the senior management of the Company and HTBK confirmed to us that they reflected the best currently available estimates of the senior management of the Company and HTBK;

We have taken into account our assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and our experience in other transactions as well as our knowledge of the banking industry and our general experience in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities.

In rendering our opinion, we have assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information and representations contained in the materials provided to us by the Company and HTBK and in the discussions with the Company and HTBK's management teams. We have not independently verified the accuracy or completeness of any such information. In that regard, we have assumed that the financial estimates, and estimates and allowances regarding under-performing and nonperforming assets and net charge-offs have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available information, judgments and estimates of the Company and HTBK and that such estimates will be realized in the amounts and at the times contemplated thereby. We have assumed that the proposed Transaction will be consummated substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the Agreement. We have assumed that the proposed Transaction is, and will be, in compliance with all laws and regulations that are applicable to the Company and HTBK. In rendering this opinion, we have been advised by both the Company and HTBK that there are no known factors that could impede or cause any material delay in obtaining the necessary regulatory and governmental approvals of the proposed Transaction.

Our opinion is based solely upon the information available to us and the economic, market and other circumstances, as they exist as of the date hereof. Events occurring and information that becomes available after the date hereof could materially affect the assumptions and analyses used in preparing this opinion. We have not undertaken to reaffirm or revise this opinion or otherwise comment upon any events occurring or information that becomes available after the date hereof, except as otherwise agreed in our engagement letter.

Our opinion does not address the merits of the underlying decision by the Company to engage in the proposed Transaction and does not constitute a recommendation to any Shareholder of the Company as to how such Shareholder should vote on the proposed Transaction or any other matter related thereto. We do not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the proposed Transaction by any officer, director, or employee, or class of such persons.

This letter is solely for the information of the Board of Directors of the Company in its evaluation of the proposed Transaction and is not to be used, circulated, quoted or otherwise referred to for any other purpose, nor is it to be filed with, included in or referred to in whole or in part in any proxy statement or any other document, except in each case in accordance with our prior written consent which shall not be unreasonably withheld; provided, however, that we hereby consent to the inclusion and reference to this letter in any proxy statement, information statement or tender offer document to be delivered to the Company's Shareholders in connection with the proposed Transaction if and only if this letter is quoted in full or attached as an exhibit to such document.

Subject to the foregoing and based on our experience as investment bankers, our activities and assumptions as described above, and all other factors we have considered and deemed relevant, we are of the opinion as of the date hereof that the Merger Consideration to be received by the Shareholders of the Company under the Agreement is fair from a financial perspective.

Sincerely,

FIG PARTNERS, LLC

Excerpt from Chapter 13 of the California Corporations Code

CALIFORNIA CORPORATIONS CODE
TITLE 1. CORPORATIONS
DIVISION 1. GENERAL CORPORATION LAW
CHAPTER 13. Dissenters' Rights

- 1300.
- (a) If the approval of the outstanding shares (Section 152) of a corporation is required for a reorganization under subdivisions (a) and (b) or subdivision (e) or (f) of Section 1201, each shareholder of the corporation entitled to vote on the transaction and each shareholder of a subsidiary corporation in a short-form merger may, by complying with this chapter, require the corporation in which the shareholder holds shares to purchase for cash at their fair market value the shares owned by the shareholder which are dissenting shares as defined in subdivision (b). The fair market value shall be determined as of the day of, and immediately prior to, the first announcement of the terms of the proposed reorganization or short-form merger, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in consequence of the proposed reorganization or short-form merger, as adjusted for any stock split, reverse stock split, or share dividend that becomes effective thereafter.
- (b) As used in this chapter, "dissenting shares" means shares to which all of the following apply:
- (1) That were not, immediately prior to the reorganization or short-form merger, listed on any national securities exchange certified by the Commissioner of Corporations under subdivision (o) of Section 25100, and the notice of meeting of shareholders to act upon the reorganization summarizes this section and Sections 1301, 1302, 1303 and 1304; provided, however, that this provision does not apply to any shares with respect to which there exists any restriction on transfer imposed by the corporation or by any law or regulation; and provided, further, that this provision does not apply to any shares where the holder of those shares is required, by the terms of the reorganization or short-form merger, to accept for the shares anything except: (A) shares of any other corporation, which shares, at the time the reorganization or short-form merger is effective, are listed on any national securities exchange certified by the Commissioner of Corporations under subdivision (o) of Section 25100; (B) cash in lieu of fractional shares described in the foregoing subparagraph (A); or (C) any combination of the shares and cash in lieu of fractional shares described in the foregoing subparagraphs (A) and (B).
 - (2) That were outstanding on the date for the determination of shareholders entitled to vote on the reorganization and (A) were not voted in favor of the reorganization or, (B) if described in paragraph (1), were voted against the reorganization, or were held of record on the effective date of a short-form merger; provided, however, that subparagraph (A) rather than subparagraph (B) of this paragraph applies in any case where the approval required by Section 1201 is sought by written consent rather than at a meeting.
 - (3) That the dissenting shareholder has demanded that the corporation purchase at their fair market value, in accordance with Section 1301.
 - (4) That the dissenting shareholder has submitted for endorsement, in accordance with Section 1302.
- (c) As used in this chapter, "dissenting shareholder" means the record holder of dissenting shares and includes a transferee of record.

- 1301.
- (a) If, in the case of a reorganization, any shareholders of a corporation have a right under Section 1300, subject to compliance with paragraphs (3) and (4) of subdivision (b) thereof, to require the corporation to purchase their shares for cash, that corporation shall mail to each of those shareholders a notice of the approval of the reorganization by its outstanding shares (Section 152) within 10 days after the date of that approval, accompanied by a copy of Sections 1300, 1302, 1303, and 1304 and this section, a statement of the price determined by the corporation to represent the fair market value of the dissenting shares, and a brief description of the procedure to be followed if the shareholder desires to exercise the shareholder's right under those sections. The statement of price constitutes an offer by the corporation to purchase at the price stated any dissenting shares as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 1300, unless they lose their status as dissenting shares under Section 1309.
- (b) Any shareholder who has a right to require the corporation to purchase the shareholder's shares for cash under Section 1300, subject to compliance with paragraphs (3) and (4) of subdivision (b) thereof, and who desires the corporation to purchase shares shall make written demand upon the corporation for the purchase of those shares and payment to the shareholder in cash of their fair market value. The demand is not effective for any purpose unless it is received by the corporation or any transfer agent thereof (1) in the case of shares described in subdivision (b) of Section 1300, not later than the date of the shareholders' meeting to vote upon the reorganization, or (2) in any other case, within 30 days after the date on which the notice of the approval by the outstanding shares pursuant to subdivision (a) or the notice pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 1110 was mailed to the shareholder.
- (c) The demand shall state the number and class of the shares held of record by the shareholder which the shareholder demands that the corporation purchase and shall contain a statement of what the shareholder claims to be the fair market value of those shares as determined pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1300. The statement of fair market value constitutes an offer by the shareholder to sell the shares at that price.
- 1302.
- Within 30 days after the date on which notice of the approval by the outstanding shares or the notice pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 1110 was mailed to the shareholder, the shareholder shall submit to the corporation at its principal office or at the office of any transfer agent thereof, (a) if the shares are certificated securities, the shareholder's certificates representing any shares which the shareholder demands that the corporation purchase, to be stamped or endorsed with a statement that the shares are dissenting shares or to be exchanged for certificates of appropriate denomination so stamped or endorsed or (b) if the shares are uncertificated securities, written notice of the number of shares which the shareholder demands that the corporation purchase. Upon subsequent transfers of the dissenting shares on the books of the corporation, the new certificates, initial transaction statement, and other written statements issued therefor shall bear a like statement, together with the name of the original dissenting holder of the shares.
- 1303.
- (a) If the corporation and the shareholder agree that the shares are dissenting shares and agree upon the price of the shares, the dissenting shareholder is entitled to the agreed price with interest thereon at the legal rate on judgments from the date of the agreement. Any agreements fixing the fair market value of any dissenting shares as between the corporation and the holders thereof shall be filed with the secretary of the corporation.
- (b) Subject to the provisions of Section 1306, payment of the fair market value of dissenting shares shall be made within 30 days after the amount thereof has been agreed or within 30 days after any statutory or contractual conditions to the reorganization are satisfied, whichever is later, and in the case of certificated securities, subject to surrender of the certificates therefor, unless provided otherwise by agreement.

- 1304.
- (a) If the corporation denies that the shares are dissenting shares, or the corporation and the shareholder fail to agree upon the fair market value of the shares, then the shareholder demanding purchase of such shares as dissenting shares or any interested corporation, within six months after the date on which notice of the approval by the outstanding shares (Section 152) or notice pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 1110 was mailed to the shareholder, but not thereafter, may file a complaint in the superior court of the proper county praying the court to determine whether the shares are dissenting shares or the fair market value of the dissenting shares or both or may intervene in any action pending on such a complaint.
- (b) Two or more dissenting shareholders may join as plaintiffs or be joined as defendants in any such action and two or more such actions may be consolidated.
- (c) On the trial of the action, the court shall determine the issues. If the status of the shares as dissenting shares is in issue, the court shall first determine that issue. If the fair market value of the dissenting shares is in issue, the court shall determine, or shall appoint one or more impartial appraisers to determine, the fair market value of the shares.
- 1305.
- (a) If the court appoints an appraiser or appraisers, they shall proceed forthwith to determine the fair market value per share. Within the time fixed by the court, the appraisers, or a majority of them, shall make and file a report in the office of the clerk of the court. Thereupon, on the motion of any party, the report shall be submitted to the court and considered on such evidence as the court considers relevant. If the court finds the report reasonable, the court may confirm it.
- (b) If a majority of the appraisers appointed fail to make and file a report within 10 days from the date of their appointment or within such further time as may be allowed by the court or the report is not confirmed by the court, the court shall determine the fair market value of the dissenting shares.
- (c) Subject to the provisions of Section 1306, judgment shall be rendered against the corporation for payment of an amount equal to the fair market value of each dissenting share multiplied by the number of dissenting shares which any dissenting shareholder who is a party, or who has intervened, is entitled to require the corporation to purchase, with interest thereon at the legal rate from the date on which judgment was entered.
- (d) Any such judgment shall be payable forthwith with respect to uncertificated securities and, with respect to certificated securities, only upon the endorsement and delivery to the corporation of the certificates for the shares described in the judgment. Any party may appeal from the judgment.
- (e) The costs of the action, including reasonable compensation to the appraisers to be fixed by the court, shall be assessed or apportioned as the court considers equitable, but, if the appraisal exceeds the price offered by the corporation, the corporation shall pay the costs (including in the discretion of the court attorneys' fees, fees of expert witnesses and interest at the legal rate on judgments from the date of compliance with Sections 1300, 1301 and 1302 if the value awarded by the court for the shares is more than 125 percent of the price offered by the corporation under subdivision (a) of Section 1301).
- 1306.
- To the extent that the provisions of Chapter 5 prevent the payment to any holders of dissenting shares of their fair market value, they shall become creditors of the corporation for the amount thereof together with interest at the legal rate on judgments until the date of payment, but subordinate to all other creditors in any liquidation proceeding, such debt to be payable when permissible under the provisions of Chapter 5.

1307. Cash dividends declared and paid by the corporation upon the dissenting shares after the date of approval of the reorganization by the outstanding shares (Section 152) and prior to payment for the shares by the corporation shall be credited against the total amount to be paid by the corporation therefor.
1308. Except as expressly limited in this chapter, holders of dissenting shares continue to have all the rights and privileges incident to their shares, until the fair market value of their shares is agreed upon or determined. A dissenting shareholder may not withdraw a demand for payment unless the corporation consents thereto.
1309. Dissenting shares lose their status as dissenting shares and the holders thereof cease to be dissenting shareholders and cease to be entitled to require the corporation to purchase their shares upon the happening of any of the following:
- (a) The corporation abandons the reorganization. Upon abandonment of the reorganization, the corporation shall pay on demand to any dissenting shareholder who has initiated proceedings in good faith under this chapter all necessary expenses incurred in such proceedings and reasonable attorneys' fees.
 - (b) The shares are transferred prior to their submission for endorsement in accordance with Section 1302 or are surrendered for conversion into shares of another class in accordance with the articles.
 - (c) The dissenting shareholder and the corporation do not agree upon the status of the shares as dissenting shares or upon the purchase price of the shares, and neither files a complaint or intervenes in a pending action as provided in Section 1304, within six months after the date on which notice of the approval by the outstanding shares or notice pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 1110 was mailed to the shareholder.
 - (d) The dissenting shareholder, with the consent of the corporation, withdraws the shareholder's demand for purchase of the dissenting shares.
1310. If litigation is instituted to test the sufficiency or regularity of the votes of the shareholders in authorizing a reorganization, any proceedings under Sections 1304 and 1305 shall be suspended until final determination of such litigation.
1311. This chapter, except Section 1312, does not apply to classes of shares whose terms and provisions specifically set forth the amount to be paid in respect to such shares in the event of a reorganization or merger.
1312. (a) No shareholder of a corporation who has a right under this chapter to demand payment of cash for the shares held by the shareholder shall have any right at law or in equity to attack the validity of the reorganization or short-form merger, or to have the reorganization or short-form merger set aside or rescinded, except in an action to test whether the number of shares required to authorize or approve the reorganization have been legally voted in favor thereof; but any holder of shares of a class whose terms and provisions specifically set forth the amount to be paid in respect to them in the event of a reorganization or short-form merger is entitled to payment in accordance with those terms and provisions or, if the principal terms of the reorganization are approved pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1202, is entitled to payment in accordance with the terms and provisions of the approved reorganization.
- (b) If one of the parties to a reorganization or short-form merger is directly or indirectly controlled by, or under common control with, another party to the reorganization or short-form merger, subdivision (a) shall not apply to any shareholder of such party who has not demanded payment of cash for such shareholder's shares pursuant to this chapter; but if the shareholder institutes any action to attack the validity of the reorganization or short-form merger or to have the reorganization or short-form merger set aside or rescinded, the shareholder shall not thereafter have any right to demand payment of cash for the shareholder's shares pursuant to this chapter. The court in any action attacking the validity of the reorganization or short-form merger or to have the reorganization or short-form merger set aside or rescinded shall not restrain or enjoin the consummation of the transaction except upon 10 days' prior notice to the corporation and upon a determination by the court that clearly no other remedy will adequately protect the complaining shareholder or the class of shareholders of which such shareholder is a member.

(c) If one of the parties to a reorganization or short-form merger is directly or indirectly controlled by, or under common control with, another party to the reorganization or short-form merger, in any action to attack the validity of the reorganization or short-form merger or to have the reorganization or short-form merger set aside or rescinded, (1) a party to a reorganization or short-form merger which controls another party to the reorganization or short-form merger shall have the burden of proving that the transaction is just and reasonable as to the shareholders of the controlled party, and (2) a person who controls two or more parties to a reorganization shall have the burden of proving that the transaction is just and reasonable as to the shareholders of any party so controlled.

1313. A conversion pursuant to Chapter 11.5 (commencing with Section 1150) shall be deemed to constitute a reorganization for purposes of applying the provisions of this chapter, in accordance with and to the extent provided in Section 1159.

PART II
INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The following summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of Heritage Commerce Corp articles of incorporation, as amended, and its bylaws, as amended.

Heritage Commerce Corp is subject to the California General Corporation Law (the "CGCL"), which provides a detailed statutory framework covering indemnification of any officer or other agent of a corporation who is made or threatened to be made a party to any legal proceeding by reason of his or her services on behalf of such corporation.

With respect to indemnification, the CGCL provides that to the extent any officer, director or other agent of a corporation is successful "on the merits" in defense of any legal proceeding to which such person is a party or is threatened to be made a party by reason of his or her service on behalf of such corporation or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, such agent shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the agent in connection therewith, but does not require indemnification in any other circumstance. The CGCL also provides that a corporation may indemnify any agent of the corporation, including officers and directors, against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in a third party proceeding against such person by reason of his or her services on behalf of the corporation, provided the person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in the best interests of such corporation. The CGCL further provides that in derivative suits a corporation may indemnify such a person against expenses incurred in such a proceeding, provided such person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the corporation and its shareholders. Indemnification is not available in derivative actions (i) for amounts paid or expenses incurred in connection with a matter that is settled or otherwise disposed of without court approval or (ii) with respect to matters for which the agent shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless the court shall determine that such person is entitled to indemnification.

The CGCL permits the advancing of expenses incurred in defending any proceeding against a corporate agent by reason of his or her service on behalf of the corporation upon the giving of a promise to repay any such sums in the event it is later determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified. Finally, the CGCL provides that the indemnification provided by the statute is not exclusive of other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled, by bylaw, agreement or otherwise, to the extent additional rights are authorized in a corporation's articles of incorporation. The law further permits a corporation to procure insurance on behalf of its directors, officers and agents against any liability incurred by any such individual, even if a corporation would not otherwise have the power under applicable law to indemnify the director, officer or agent for such expenses.

The bylaws of Heritage Commerce Corp provide that it shall, to the maximum extent permitted by the CGCL, have power to indemnify each of its agents against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with any proceeding arising by reason of the fact any such person is or was an agent of the corporation, and shall have power to advance to each such agent expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding to the maximum extent permitted by that law.

Directors' and Officers' Liability Insurance

Heritage Commerce Corp presently maintains a policy of directors' and officers' liability insurance that provides coverage sufficiently broad to permit indemnification under certain circumstances for liabilities (including reimbursement for expenses incurred) arising under the Securities Act of 1933.

Indemnification Agreements

Heritage Commerce Corp has entered into indemnification agreements with each of its directors and certain of its senior executive officers, including Heritage's named executive officers (each, an "Indemnitee") to provide them with, among other things, indemnification against liabilities relating to their services as directors and officers of Heritage and the advancement of expenses under certain circumstances. The indemnification agreements also require Heritage to use its reasonable best efforts to purchase and maintain one or more policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance to cover liabilities asserted against, or incurred by, the Indemnitees.

Item 22. Undertakings

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

Table of Contents

(2) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) that, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement.

(3) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

(b) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered that remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(d) For purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(e) That prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus that is a part of this Registration Statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

(f) That every prospectus (1) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (e) immediately preceding, or (2) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933 and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(g) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the provisions described in Item 20 above, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question of whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(h) To respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Item 4, 10(b), 11, or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first-class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(i) To supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and Heritage being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
