ITEM 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

THE ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF THE COMPANY PROVIDE FOR INDEMNIFICATION OF EMPLOYEES AND OFFICERS IN CERTAIN CASES. IN SO FAR AS INDEMNIFICATION FOR LIABILITIES ARISING UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933 MAY BE PERMITTED TO DIRECTORS, OFFICERS OR PERSONS CONTROLLING THE COMPANY PURSUANT TO THE FOREGOING PROVISIONS, THE COMPANY HAS BEEN INFORMED THAT IN THE OPINION OF THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION SUCH INDEMNIFICATION IS AGAINST PUBLIC POLICY AS EXPRESSED IN THE ACT AND IS THEREFORE UNENFORCEABLE.

In addition, Section 78.751 of the Nevada General Corporation Laws provides as follows: 78.751 Indemnification of officers, directors, employees and agents; advance of expenses.

1. A corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, except an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorney's fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, does not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and that, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

2. A corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses, including amounts paid in settlement and attorneys' fees actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of the action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation.

Indemnification may not be made for any claim, issue or matter as to which such a person has been adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction, after exhaustion of all appeals therefrom, to be liable to the corporation or for amounts paid in settlement to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action or suit was brought or other court of competent jurisdiction determines upon application that in view of all the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court deems proper.

3. To the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsections 1 and 2, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he must be indemnified by the corporation against expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense.

4. Any indemnification under subsections 1 and 2, unless ordered by a court or advanced pursuant to subsection 5, must be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances. The determination must be made: (a) By the stockholders; (b) By the board of directors by majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to act, suit or proceeding; (c) If a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to the act, suit or proceeding so orders, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion; or (d) If a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to the act, suit or proceeding cannot be obtained, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion; or

5. The Articles of Incorporation, the Bylaws or an agreement made by the corporation may provide that the expenses of officers and directors incurred in defending a civil or criminal, suit or proceeding must be paid by the corporation as they are incurred and in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit or proceeding, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay the amount if it is ultimately determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that he is not entitled to be indemnified by corporation. The provisions of this subsection do not affect any rights to advancement of expenses to which corporate personnel other than the directors or officers may be entitled under any contract or otherwise by law.

6. The indemnification and advancement of expenses authorized in or ordered by a court pursuant to this section: (a) Does not exclude any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under the articles of incorporation or any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, for either an action in his official capacity or an action in another capacity while holding his office, except that indemnification, unless ordered by a court pursuant to subsection 2 or for the advancement of expenses made pursuant to subsection 5, may not be made to or on behalf of any director or officer if a final adjudication establishes that his act or omissions involved intentional misconduct, fraud or a knowing violation of the law and was material to the cause of action. (b) Continues for a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and endures to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable.

In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

The stock options shall bear a strike price of $0.05.

B. Except for the conditions described in paragraph A above, Quintiliana's compensation shall be subject to periodic review by the Company, and may be increased or decreased in the Company's discretion.

4. EXPENSE REIMBURSEMENT.

In addition to the compensation specified in Paragraph 3, Quintiliana shall be entitled, in accordance with the reimbursement policies in effect from time to time, to receive reimbursement from the Company for reasonable business expenses incurred by Quintiliana in the performance of his duties hereunder, provided Quintiliana furnishes the Company with vouchers, receipts and other details of such expenses in the form required by the Company sufficient to substantiate a deduction for such business expenses under all applicable rules and regulations of Federal and State taxing authorities.

5. FRINGE BENEFITS.

A. Quintiliana shall, throughout the Employment Period, shall not be eligible to participate in all group term life insurance plans, group health plans, accidental death and dismemberment plans and short-term disability programs and other employee perquisites which are made available to the Company's employees.

B. Notwithstanding any of the provisions of this agreement, Quintiliana's employment with the Company is at will, and may be terminated by the Company at any time for any reason without advance notice.

C. Should the Company terminate Quintiliana's employment for Cause, as defined below, or should Quintiliana voluntarily resign other than for Good Reason, the Company shall have no obligation to Quintiliana under this Agreement. Should the Company terminate Quintiliana's employment other than for Cause during this Agreement, or should Quintiliana resign for Good Reason, the Company shall have no further obligation under this Agreement,

6. GOOD REASON.

For Purposes of this agreement, "Good Reason" shall mean:

A. A material reduction in the duties, responsibilities, status, reporting responsibilities, title, or offices that Quintiliana had with the Company immediately before the reduction.

B. A change in control in which Quintiliana is not offered a similar position at no less than seventy-five percent (75%) of Quintiliana's compensation (defined as Base Salary).

C. The failure of any successor to the Company by merger, consolidation or acquisition of all or substantially all of the business of the Company to assume the Company's obligations under this Agreement.

D. A material breach by the Company of its obligations under this Agreement.

7. CAUSE

For purposes of this agreement, "Cause" shall mean a reasonable belief by the Board of Directors that Quintiliana has engaged in the following: (i) financial dishonesty, including, without limitation, misappropriation of funds or property, or any attempt by Quintiliana to secure any personal profit related to the business or business opportunities of the Company without the informed, written approval of the Company's Board of Directors; (ii) refusal to comply with reasonable directives of the Company's Executive Officer or Board of Directors; (iii) negligence or reckless willful misconduct in the performance of Quintiliana's duties; (iv) failure to perform, or continuing neglect in the performance of, duties assigned to Quintiliana; (v) misconduct which has materially adverse effect upon the Company's business or reputation; (vi) the conviction of, or plea of nolo contendere to, any felony or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude or fraud; (vii) the material breach of any provision of this Agreement; (viii)

A termination as a result of a Change in control shall not constitute cause.

8. CHANGE IN CONTROL

For purposes of this Agreement "Change in Control" shall mean any of the following transactions effecting change in ownership or control of the Company:

- (i) a merger, consolidation or reorganization approved by the Company's stockholders, UNLESS securities representing more than fifty percent (50%) of the total combined voting power of the voting securities of the successor Company are immediately thereafter beneficially owned, directly or indirectly and in substantially the same position, by the persons who beneficially owned the Company's outstanding voting securities immediately prior to such transaction, or
- (ii) any stockholder-approved transfer or other disposition of all or substantially all of the Company's assets, or
- (iii) the acquisition, directly or indirectly, by any person or related group of persons (other than the Company or a person that directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with the Company), or beneficial ownership (within the meaning of Rule 13d-3 of the Act 1934 Act) of securities possessing more than fifty (50%) of the total combined voting power of the Company's outstanding securities pursuant to a tender or exchange offer made directly to the Company's stockholders.

In no event, however, shall a Change in Control be deemed to occur in connection with any public offering of the Common Stock

9. RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS.

During the Employment Period:

(i) Quintiliana shall devote ample time and energy to the performance of Quintiliana's duties described herein, except during periods of illness or vacation periods.

(ii) Quintiliana shall not directly or indirectly provide services to or through any person, firm or other entity except the Company, unless otherwise authorized by the Board in writing. The Company does, however, reserve the right to demand Quintiliana's registration from those same Boards, if in the opinion of the CareDecision CEO, continued membership on those Boards by Quintiliana diminishes his ability to execute his responsibilities identified within this Agreement; or if continued association with those organizations becomes detrimental to the goals of the Company; or if continued membership represents a conflict, or potential conflict, with the business activities, or objectives, of the Company.

(iii) Quintiliana shall not render any services of any kind or character for Quintiliana's own account or for any other person, firm or entity without first obtaining the Company's written consent.

Quintiliana, however, shall have the right to perform such incidental services as necessary in connection with (a) Quintiliana's private passive investments, but only if Quintiliana is not obligated or required to (and shall not in fact) devote any managerial efforts which interfere with the services required to be performed by him, or (b) Quintiliana's charitable or community activities, or participation in trade or professional organizations but only if such incidental services do not interfere with the performance of Quintiliana's services to the Company.

10. NON-COMPETITION DURING THE EMPLOYMENT PERIOD.

Quintiliana acknowledges and agrees that given the extent and nature of the confidential and proprietary information he will obtain during the course of his employment with the Company, it would be inevitable that such confidential information would be disclosed or utilized by Quintiliana should he obtain employment from, or otherwise become associated with, an entity or person that is engaged in a business or enterprise that directly competes with the Company.

Consequently, during any period for which Quintiliana is receiving compensation from the Company, Quintiliana shall not, without prior written consent of the Company's Board of Directors, directly or indirectly own, manage, operate, join, control or participate in the ownership, management, operation or control of, or be employed by or connected in any manner with, any enterprise which is engaged in any business competitive with or similar to that of the Company; provided, however, that such restriction shall not apply to any passive investment representing an interest of less than two percent (2%) of an outstanding class of publicly-traded securities of any Company or other enterprise which is not, at the time of such investment, engaged in a business competitive with the Company's business.

11. NON-SOLICITATION.

During the Employment Period and for one (1) year following termination of Quintiliana's employment, Quintiliana shall not encourage or solicit any of the Company's employees to leave the Company's employ for any reason or interfere in an other manner with employment relationships at the time existing between the Company and its employees. In addition, Quintiliana shall not solicit, directly or indirectly, business from any client of the Company, including any of the Company's clients to terminate their existing business relationship with the Company, or interfere in any other manner with an existing business relationship between the Company and any client or other third party.

Quintiliana acknowledges that monetary damages may not be sufficient to compensate the Company for any economic loss, which may be incurred by reason of his breach of the foregoing restrictive covenants. Accordingly, in the event of any such breach, the Company shall, in addition to the termination of this Agreement and any remedies available to the Company at law, be entitled to obtain equitable relief in the form of an injunction precluding Quintiliana from continuing such breach.

12. SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS.

This Agreement is personal in its nature and Quintiliana shall not assign or transfer his rights under this Agreement. The provisions of this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of, and be binding on each successor of the Company whether by merger, consolidation, transfer of all or substantially all assets, or otherwise and the heirs and legal representatives of Quintiliana.

13. NOTICES.

Any notices, demands or other communications required or desired to be given by any party shall be in writing and shall be validly given to another party if served either personally or if deposited in the United States mail, certified or registered, postage prepaid, return receipt requested. If such notice, demand or other communication shall be served personally, service shall be conclusively deemed made at the time of such personal service. If such notice, demand or other communication is given by mail, such notice shall be conclusively deemed given forty-eight (48) hours after the deposit thereof in the United States mail addressed to the party to whom such notice, demand or other communication is to be given as hereinafter set forth:

Any party may change its address for the purpose of receiving notices, demands and other communications by providing written notice to the other party in the manner described in this paragraph.

13. GOVERNING DOCUMENTS.

This Agreement along with the documents expressly referenced in this Agreement constitute the entire agreement and understanding of the Company and Quintiliana with respect to the terms and conditions of Quintiliana's employment with the Company and the payment of severance benefits and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous written or verbal agreements and understandings between Quintiliana and the Company relating to such subject matter. This Agreement may only be amended by written instrument signed by Quintiliana and an authorized officer of the Company. Any and all prior agreements, understandings or representations relating to Quintiliana's relationship with the Company are terminated and cancelled in their entirety and are of no further force or effect.

14. GOVERNING LAW.

The provisions of this Agreement will be construed and interpreted under the laws of the State of Nevada. If any provision of this Agreement as applied to any party or to any circumstance should be adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction to be void or unenforceable for any reason, the invalidity of that provision shall in no way affect (to the maximum extent permissible by law) the application of such provision under circumstances different from those adjudicated by the court, the application of any other provision of this Agreement, or the enforceability or invalidity of this Agreement as a whole. Should any provision of this Agreement become or be deemed invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction by reason of the scope, extent or duration of its coverage, then such provision shall be deemed amended to the extent necessary to conform to applicable law so as to be valid and enforceable or, if such provision cannot be so amended without materially altering the intention of the parties, then such provision will be stricken and the remainder of this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect.

15. REMEDIES.

All rights and remedies provided pursuant to this Agreement or by law shall be cumulative, and no such right or remedy shall be exclusive of any other. A party may pursue any one or more rights or remedies hereunder or may seek damages or specific performance in the event of another party's breach hereunder or may pursue any other remedy by law or equity, whether or not stated in this Agreement.

16. NO WAIVER.

Edgar Filing: CAREDECISION CORP - Form S-8

The waiver by either party of a breach of any provision of this Agreement shall not operate as or be construed as a waiver of any later breach of that provision.

17. COUNTERPARTS.

This Agreement may be executed in more than one counterpart, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute but one and the same instrument.

The period during which Asbell provides services to the Company pursuant to this Agreement shall be referenced in this Agreement as the "Employment Period."

3. COMPENSATION.

A. Asbell will be paid in shares of the company's common stock, said shares to be registered under the company's S-8 registration. The number of shares that Asbell shall receive shall be equal to the number of the existing restricted common stock shares that Asbell requests the company to retire. Should any of Asbell's existing restricted common stock shares be retired ("retired shares"), Asbell understands and agrees that any piggyback registration rights that she held for those retired shares shall also be retired. Pursuant to this Agreement Asbell has agreed to retire at least 4,000,000 of her existing restricted common stock shares.

B. Except for the conditions described in paragraph A above, Asbell's compensation shall be subject to periodic review by the Company, and may be increased or decreased in the Company's discretion.

4. EXPENSE REIMBURSEMENT.

In addition to the compensation specified in Paragraph 3, Asbell shall be entitled, in accordance with the reimbursement policies in effect from time to time, to receive reimbursement from the Company for reasonable business expenses incurred by Asbell in the performance of her duties hereunder, provided Asbell furnishes the Company with vouchers, receipts and

5. FRINGE BENEFITS.

A. Asbell shall not be eligible to participate in all group term life insurance plans, accidental death and dismemberment plans and short-term disability programs and other employee perquisites which are made available to the Company's employees, unless Asbell has or is receiving these benefits currently.

B. Notwithstanding any of the provisions of this agreement, Asbell's employment with the Company is at will, may be terminated by the Company at any time for any reason without advance notice.

Edgar Filing: CAREDECISION CORP - Form S-8

C. Should the Company terminate Asbell's employment for Cause, as defined below, or should Asbell voluntarily resign other than for Good Reason, the Company shall have no obligation to Asbell under this Agreement. Should the Company terminate Asbell's employment other than for Cause during this Agreement, or should Asbell resign for Good Reason, the Company shall have no further obligation under this Agreement,

6. GOOD REASON.

For Purposes of this agreement, "Good Reason" shall mean:

A. A material reduction in the duties, responsibilities, status, reporting responsibilities, title, or offices that Asbell had with the Company immediately before the reduction.

B. A change in control in which Asbell is not offered a similar position at no less than seventy-five percent (75%) of Asbell's compensation (defined as Base Salary).

C. The failure of any successor to the Company by merger, consolidation or acquisition of all or substantially all of the business of the Company to assume the Company's obligations under this Agreement.

D. A material breach by the Company of its obligations under this Agreement.

7. CAUSE

For purposes of this agreement, "Cause" shall mean a reasonable belief by the Board of Directors that Asbell has engaged in the following: (i) financial dishonesty, including, without limitation, misappropriation of funds or property, or any attempt by Asbell to secure any personal profit related to the business or business opportunities of the Company without the informed, written approval of the Company's Board of Directors; (ii) refusal to comply with reasonable directives of the Company's Executive Officer or Board of Directors; (iii) negligence or reckless willful misconduct in the performance of Asbell's duties; (iv) failure to perform, or continuing neglect in the performance of, duties assigned to Asbell; (v) misconduct which has materially adverse effect upon the Company's business or reputation; (vi) the conviction of, or plea of nolo contendere to, any felony or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude or fraud; (vii) the material breach of any provision of this Agreement; (viii) violation of

/36/

Company policies including, without limitation, the Company's policies on equal employment opportunity and prohibition of unlawful harassment; (ix) death of Asbell; or (x) a disability which continues for a period in excess of 180 days. A termination as a result of a Change in control shall not constitute cause.

8. CHANGE IN CONTROL

For purposes of this Agreement "Change in Control"

shall mean any of the following transactions effecting change in ownership or control of the Company:

- (i) a merger, consolidation or reorganization approved by the Company's stockholders, UNLESS securities representing more than fifty percent (50%) of the total combined voting power of the voting securities of the successor Company are immediately thereafter beneficially owned, directly or indirectly and in substantially the same position, by the persons who beneficially owned the Company's outstanding voting securities immediately prior to such transaction, or
- (ii) any stockholder-approved transfer or other disposition of all or substantially all of the Company's assets, or directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with the Company), or beneficial ownership (within the meaning of Rule 13d-3 of the Act 1934 Act) of securities possessing more than fifty (50%) of the total combined voting power of the Company's outstanding securities pursuant to a tender or exchange offer made directly to the Company's stockholders.

In no event, however, shall a Change in Control be deemed to occur in connection with any public offering of the Common Stock

9. RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS.

During the Employment Period:

(i) Asbell shall devote ample time and energy to the performance of Asbell's duties described herein, except during periods of illness or vacation periods.

(ii) Asbell shall not directly or indirectly provide services to or through any person, firm or other entity except the Company, unless otherwise authorized by the Board in writing. The Company does, however, reserve the right to demand Asbell's registration from those same Boards, if in the opinion of the CareDecision CEO, continued membership on those Boards by Asbell diminishes his ability to execute his responsibilities identified within this Agreement; or if continued association with those organizations becomes detrimental to the goals of the Company; or if continued membership represents a conflict, or potential conflict, with the business activities, or objectives, of CareDecision.

(iii) Asbell, however, shall have the right to perform such incidental services as are necessary in connection with (a) Asbell's private passive investments, but only if Asbell is not obligated or required to (and shall not in fact) devote any managerial efforts which interfere with the services required to be performed by her, or (b) Asbell's charitable or community activities, or participation in trade or professional organizations, but only if such incidental services do not interfere with the performance of Asbell's service to the Company.

Edgar Filing: CAREDECISION CORP - Form S-8

10. NON-COMPETITION DURING THE EMPLOYMENT PERIOD.

Asbell acknowledges and agrees that given the extent and nature of the confidential and proprietary information he will obtain during the course of his business relationship with the Company, it would be inevitable that such confidential information would be disclosed or utilized by Asbell should he obtain employment from, or otherwise become associated with, an entity or person that is engaged in a business or enterprise that directly competes with the Company.

Consequently, during any period for which Asbell is receiving compensation from the Company, Asbell shall not, without prior written consent of the Company's Board of Directors, directly or indirectly own, manage, operate, join, control or participate in the ownership, management, operation or control of, or be employed by or connected in any manner with, any enterprise which is engaged in any business competitive with or similar to that of the Company; provided, however, that such restriction shall not apply to any passive investment representing an interest of less than two percent (2%) of an outstanding class of publicly-traded securities of any Company or other enterprise which is not, at the time of such investment, engaged in a business competitive with the Company's business.

11. NON-SOLICITATION.

During the Employment Period and for one (1) year following termination of Asbell's employment, Asbell shall not encourage or solicit any of the Company's employees to leave the Company's employ for any reason or interfere in any other manner with employment relationships at the time existing between the Company and its employees. In addition, Asbell shall not solicit, directly or indirectly, business from any client of the Company, including any of the Company's clients to terminate their existing business relationship with the Company, or interfere in any other manner with an existing business relationship between the Company and any client or other third party.

Asbell acknowledges that monetary damages may not be sufficient to compensate the Company for any economic loss, which may be incurred by reason of his breach of the foregoing restrictive covenants. Accordingly, in the event of any such breach, the Company shall, in addition to the termination of this Agreement and any remedies available to the Company at law, be entitled to obtain equitable relief in the form of an injunction precluding Asbell from continuing such breach.

12. SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS.

This Agreement is personal in its nature and Asbell shall not assign or transfer his rights under this Agreement. The provisions of this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of, and be binding on each successor of the Company whether by merger, consolidation, transfer of all or substantially all assets, or otherwise and the heirs and legal representatives of Asbell.

15. GOVERNING LAW.

The provisions of this Agreement will be construed and interpreted under the laws of the State of Nevada. Should any provision of this Agreement become or be deemed invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction by reason of the scope, extent or duration of its coverage, then such provision shall be deemed amended to the extent necessary to conform to applicable law so as to be valid and enforceable or, if such provision cannot be so amended without materially altering the intention of the parties, then such provision will be stricken and the remainder of this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect.

16. REMEDIES.

All rights and remedies provided pursuant to this Agreement or by law shall be cumulative, and no such right or remedy shall be exclusive of any other.
