PHOENIX INTERNATIONAL PUBLISHING, LLC
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2005

NOTE 1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Business

Phoenix International Publishing is the UK's leading publisher of consumer travel magazines and guides about travel to the USA and Canada. In addition, the company distributes travel guides in multiple languages in many countries, including Germany, France, Belgium, Holland, Mexico, Brazil, Argentina and Japan. The company has offices in Dallas, Texas, London and Horsham, England. The primary client base of regional tourism offices, state and province tourism offices, convention and visitor bureaus and travel suppliers is spread throughout the USA and Canada.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure at the date of the financial statements and during the reporting period. The most significant of the estimates relates to third-party payer contractual allowances and the allowance for doubtful accounts. It is reasonably possible that these estimates will change in the near term due to one or more future confirming events. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Edgar Filing: ONLINE VACATION CENTER HOLDINGS CORP - Form 8-K/A

Revenue recognition

The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with provision of Staff Accounting Bulletin (SAB) No. 104 "Revenue Recognition in Financial Statements", which states that revenue is realized or realizable and earned when all of the following criteria are met: persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, services have been rendered, the seller's price to the buyer is fixed or determinable, and collectibility is reasonably assured. Revenue is recognized upon production of the magazine or travel guide.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. At December 31, 2005 and 2004 cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand and cash in the bank.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivables principally consist of amounts due from customers and are recorded net of doubtful accounts for financial statement reporting purposes. As of December 31, 2005 and 2004, there were no amounts recorded as doubtful accounts as all balances were fully collectible.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost and depreciation is provided using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets.

Major replacements and betterments are capitalized and depreciated over the remaining useful lives of the assets.

Advances

Amounts recorded as advance payments represent amounts received on publishing to be done in future years.

Income Taxes

As of December 31, 2005 and 2004, the Company was organized as a limited liability corporation, whereby the income of the corporation was reported on the personal income tax returns of the members.

Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of accounts receivable.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company's financial instruments include cash, trade receivables. The carrying amount of these financial instruments has been estimated by management to approximate fair value.

Foreign Currency Translation

The Company does conduct operations in both the United States and the United Kingdom, whose functional currency is the British pound. At the transaction date, each asset, liability, revenue and expense are recorded in British pounds by the use of the exchange rate in effect at that date. At the year end, monetary assets and liabilities are translated into US dollars by using the exchange rate in effect at that date. The resulting foreign currency transaction gains and losses are included in operating revenues and expenses for the year. These gains or losses were insignificant in 2005 and 2004.

Recent Accounting Policies

Non-monetary Exchange

In December 2004, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 153, "Exchanges of Nonmonetary Assets, an amendment of APB Opinion No. 29." The amendments made by SFAS No. 153 eliminate the exception for nonmonetary exchanges of similar productive assets and replace it with a general exception for exchanges of nonmonetary assets that do not have commercial substance. A nonmonetary exchange has commercial substance if the future cash flows of the entity are expected to change significantly as a result of the exchange. The provisions of this statement became effective for nonmonetary asset exchanges occurring in the Company's fourth quarter of 2005. The adoption of SFAS No. 153 did not have a material impact on The Company's financial statements.

Conditional Asset Retirement

In March 2005, the FASB issued FASB Interpretation (FIN) No. 47 - "Accounting for Conditional Asset Retirement Obligations - an Interpretation of SFAS 143 (FIN No. 47). FIN No. 47 clarifies the timing of liability recognition for legal obligations associated with the retirement of a tangible long-lived asset when the timing and/or method of settlement are conditional on a future event. FIN No. 47 is effective no later than December 31, 2005. FIN No. 47 did not impact the Company for the year ended December 31, 2005.

Accounting Changes and Error Corrections

In May 2005, the FASB issued SFAS No. 154, "Accounting Changes and Error Corrections." This statement replaces APB Opinion No. 20, "Accounting Changes", and SFAS No. 3, "Reporting Accounting Changes in Interim Financial Statements," and changes the requirements for the accounting for and reporting of a change in accounting principle. This statement applies to all voluntary changes in accounting principles. It also applies to changes required by an accounting pronouncement in the unusual instance that the pronouncement does not include specific transition provisions. When a pronouncement includes specific transition provisions, those provisions should be followed. SFAS No. 154 requires retrospective application to prior periods' financial statements of voluntary changes in accounting principles. SFAS No. 154 is effective for accounting changes and corrections of errors made during 2007, beginning on January 1, 2007. The Company does not believe the adoption of SFAS No. 154 will have a material impact on its financial statements.

NOTE 2. PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT
