ASX Announcement

Melbourne, Thursday 2 December 2004

National Income Securities

The Board of the National today agreed to include a resolution in the Notice of Annual General Meeting seeking the approval of shareholders to allow the National to buy back the National Income Securities (NIS).

The NIS were issued in 1999 (ASX Security Code NABHA) at a par value of $100 with an interest coupon of the 90 Day Bank Bill Rate plus 1.25% per annum paid quarterly. They qualify as Tier 1 capital.

As disclosed in the prospectus and the related ASX filings, at any time after 29 June 2004 the NIS can be bought back at their par value of $100 plus any unpaid accrued interest to the date of repayment.

As part of the National songoing capital management such a buy back may enable the National to replace the National Income Securities with a more efficient and cost-effective source of capital. This reflects developments in the capital markets, and will be a benefit to all shareholders.

No decision to buy back the NIS has been taken, but this could occur at any time after shareholder approval is obtained, subject to obtaining the consent of the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA).

A copy of the National Income Securities prospectus can be view at www.nabgroup.com in the Shareholder Services section.

The Notice of Annual General Meeting will be posted to shareholders in mid December 2004 and the meeting will be held on 31 January 2005.
