TSARITSINO DAIRY PLANT GETS LICENCE TO EXPORT DAIRY PRODUCTS TO EU

Moscow, Russia December 6, 2005 Wimm-Bill-Dann Foods OJSC [NYSE: WBD] today announced that Tsaritsino Dairy Plant has been certified to sell dairy products in the European Union.

During the licensing process all equipment, production, technological and control processes were inspected to ensure they strictly comply with uniform international norms and standards.

Last year, as part of the company's strategy of enhancing its dairy export capabilities, Wimm-Bill-Dann received a corresponding license for Lianozovo Dairy Plant. Lianozovo Dairy Plant currently supplies dairy products to the Baltic States and Germany and increasingly sends exports to other European countries. On the basis of growing demand for its products, the company decided to seek certification for the Tsaritsino Dairy Plant.

The certification process received support from the non-commercial National Dairy Exporters organization and the Russian Ministry of Agriculture.
