Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

At the 2007 annual meeting of stockholders of Hewlett-Packard Company ( HP ), the stockholders of HP approved a non-binding proposal entitled Subject Any Future Poison Pill to Shareholder Vote. The proposal requested that the Board of Directors of HP (the Board ) amend HP s bylaws to require that HP submit any future stockholder rights plan to a vote of HP s stockholders. HP s existing policy regarding the adoption of stockholder rights plans provides that HP will submit any future stockholder rights plan to a stockholder vote unless, in the exercise of its fiduciary duties under Delaware law, the Board determines that the adoption of a stockholder rights plan prior to stockholder approval would be in the best interests of stockholders, in which case stockholder approval is not required.

In response to the stockholders action, the Board has approved an amendment to its amended and restated bylaws that adds a new Section 8.13 to Article VIII, effective as of September 20, 2007. The amendment formalizes HP s existing policy and provides that HP will seek stockholder approval prior to its adoption of a stockholder rights plan (as defined in the amendment), unless the Board, in the exercise of its fiduciary duties, determines that, under the circumstances existing at the time, it is in the best interests of the stockholders of HP to adopt or extend a stockholder rights plan without delay. In addition, consistent with the proposal approved by HP s stockholders, the amendment further provides that a stockholder rights plan adopted or extended by the Board of Directors without prior stockholder approval must provide that it will expire unless ratified by the stockholders of HP within one year of adoption. HP s amended and restated bylaws did not previously contain a provision specifically addressing the adoption of a stockholder rights plan.

HP currently does not have a stockholder rights plan, as the Board terminated the previous stockholder rights plan and the preferred share purchase rights issued under the rights plan effective January 21, 2003.

HP s amended and restated bylaws reflecting this amendment are filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this report.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

Also at HP s 2007 annual meeting of stockholders, the stockholders of HP approved a non-binding proposal entitled Link Pay to Performance. The proposal requested that the Board adopt a policy that a significant portion of future long-term equity compensation to senior executives be performance-based. In response to the stockholders action, the HR and Compensation Committee of the Board has approved a new program effective for the fiscal 2008 compensation review cycle, under which most equity grants will vest only upon the satisfaction of financial performance criteria over a three-year period. In doing so, the HR and Compensation Committee confirmed its policy that a significant portion of long-term incentive compensation for senior executives should be performance-based. The details of the new program, including specific performance metrics and targets, are still being developed; more information about the new program will be provided in HP s proxy statement for its 2008 annual meeting of stockholders.

HP s press release announcing the approval of this new program and the amendment to HP s amended and restated bylaws as described above is filed as Exhibit 99.2 to this report.
