INFORMATION TO BE INCLUDED IN THE REPORT

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

(e) Carlisle Companies Incorporated (the Company) has entered into Amended and Restated Executive Severance Agreements (collectively, the Restated Severance Agreements) with its principal executive officer, principal financial officer and named executive officers. The Restated Severance Agreements will become effective as of December 31, 2008.

The Restated Severance Agreements provide that the executives will not, in the event of the commencement of steps to effect a change of control (defined generally as an acquisition of 20% or more of the outstanding voting stock of the Company or a change in a majority of the Board of Directors of the Company), voluntarily leave the employ of the Company until the potential acquirer of the Company or control of the Company has terminated his or its efforts to effect a change of control or until a change of control has occurred.

In the event of any termination of an executive's employment (including due to the executive's resignation) within three (3) years of a change of control (other than due to the executive's death or disability or after the executive attains age 65), each Restated Severance Agreement provides that the executive will be entitled to receive three years' compensation, including bonus, retirement benefits equal to the benefits the executive would have received had he or she completed three additional years of employment, continuation of all life, accident, health, savings, and other fringe benefits for three years, and relocation assistance. The three year benefit period is reduced if the executive terminates within three years of the date the executive would attain age 65. In addition, the Restated Severance Agreements provide that the executives will become fully vested in all outstanding stock option and restricted stock awards.

The severance agreements previously entered into between the Company and the executives provided that if any payments or benefits under the agreements would be considered nondeductible parachute payments under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code, the payments or benefits would be reduced to the maximum permissible deductible amount under Code Section 280G. The Restated Severance Agreements do not provide for any such reduction. In addition, under certain circumstances the Company is required under the Restated Agreements to provide a gross up to the executives for any excise taxes the executives would be required to pay with respect to any payments or benefits from the Company. The Restated Severance Agreements are also intended to comply with the requirements of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code.
