Item 2.02. Results of Operations and Financial Condition.

On May 11, 2006 (Japanese Standard Time), MediciNova, Inc. (hereinafter the Company, we, or us) filed with the Osaka Securities Exchange (the OSE) a Japanese report referred to as Kessan Tanshin, which contained, among other things, our financial results for the quarter ended March 31, 2006 (the Tanshin).

The Tanshin is substantially the same as the Company's Financial Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2006 (the 10-Q), except the following supplemental information is provided:

In the Tanshin, we disclose that we have not changed our estimated results of operations for our fiscal year ending December 31, 2006, from those provided in our Kessan Tanshin filed with the OSE on February 17, 2006.

We state that the reason behind the increase of current liabilities by $0.7 million during the three months ended March 31, 2006 from $6.6 million at December 31, 2005 to $7.3 million at March 31, 2006 was due to:

an increase of accounts payable and accrued expenses; and a decrease of accrued compensation and related expenses

In the Tanshin, financial statements denominated in Japanese yen are disclosed as supplementary information. The numbers were translated at 117.47 Japanese yen per U.S. dollar, which was the Telegraphic Transfer Middle Rate as of March 31, 2006.

The information in this Form 8-K is being furnished and shall not be deemed filed for the purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, or otherwise subject to the liability of that section. The information in this Form 8-K shall not be incorporated by reference into any registration statement or filing of the Company, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in such a filing.
