PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Form 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period. (Attach extra sheets if needed.)

As reported in its Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) on April 2, 2007 (as amended in Current Reports on Form 8-K/A filed with the SEC on April 3 and April 11, 2007), on March 27, 2007, Grant Thornton LLP (Grant Thornton), the registered independent public accounting firm for Accredited Mortgage Loan REIT Trust (REIT), advised REIT of its resignation as REIT's independent auditors and therefore declined to complete the audit of REIT's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2006. As further reported in its Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on April 12, 2007 (as amended in its Current Report on Form 8-K/A filed with the SEC on April 17, 2007), effective April 9, 2007, REIT engaged Squar, Milner, Peterson, Miranda & Williamson, LLP (Squar Milner), as its new independent registered public accounting firm.

As previously disclosed, REIT was unable to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the Year Ended December 31, 2006 until August 2, 2007 due to the time needed for Squar Milner to complete its audit of REIT's financial statements. As a result of the delay in the completion of the audit, REIT has been delayed in the filing of any financial statements for any periods ending after December 31, 2006, including the first and second quarters of 2007. REIT is endeavoring to file its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the periods ending March 31, 2007 and June 30, 2007 as soon as possible.

As a result of the foregoing, REIT is unable to complete the preparation of its financial statements for the period ended June 30, 2007 within the prescribed time period and, therefore, will not be able to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended June 30, 2007 within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort and expense.

If the answer is no, identify report(s). Yes No

As indicated in its Notification of Late Filing on Form 12b-25 with respect to its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2007, REIT was unable to timely file such report for the reasons set forth therein as well as for the reasons set forth in Part III above, and remains unable to file such reports at this time.

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes No

If so: attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Edgar Filing: Accredited Mortgage Loan REIT Trust - Form NT 10-Q

The following information is preliminary, not complete and subject to change, pending completion of REIT's financial statements for the quarters ended March 31, 2007 and June 30, 2007 and Squar Milner's review of such financial statements. For additional information, please see Note 15. Subsequent Events in the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements of REIT's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006 previously filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Total assets are expected to be $7.1 billion as of June 30, 2007 compared to $7.8 billion at June 30, 2006. Net earnings for the quarter ending June 30, 2007 are expected to be slightly positive, but down significantly from the comparable period in 2006. This is primarily the result of lower net interest margin and an increase in non-performing loans. Total provision for losses expense for the quarter ended June 30, 2007 is expected to increase by approximately $20 million compared to the comparable period in 2006.

REIT had approximately $65 million in liquidity at June 30, 2007, compared to $6 million at June 30, 2006 due primarily to the proceeds from the previously announced term loan from Farallon Capital Management, L.L.C.

While REIT believes that it has considered all factors which may impact its results of operations, there can be no assurance that REIT has successfully identified all matters affecting those results or that additional adjustments will not be required prior to the completion of REIT's financial statements for the three and six months ended June 30, 2007.

This Notification of Late Filing on Form 12b-25 contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, relating to REIT's expected results for the three and six months ended June 30, 2007 and REIT's expectations regarding its ability to file its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, 2007 and June 30, 2007. These forward-looking statements involve a number of risks and uncertainties, including significant risks and uncertainties relating to REIT's business, including the REIT's ability to profitably grow its portfolio, maintain liquidity, execute on strategic opportunities, complete the review of REIT's financial statements and assessment of its internal control over financial reporting, make other required SEC and regulatory filings and other risk factors as outlined in REIT's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006, and other documents filed by REIT with the SEC. These and other factors could cause REIT's actual results to differ materially from what it projects or contemplates in its forward-looking statements. REIT cautions readers that the non-prime mortgage industry and REIT's business are subject to numerous significant risks and uncertainties.
