Dear Fellow Stockholders:

Harbinger Capital Partners NY, LLC, a limited liability company formed under the laws of Delaware (Harbinger NY), is the beneficial owner, as of [], 2008 of an aggregate of [] shares of Class A common stock, par value $0.10 per share (Class A Stock), of The New York Times Company, a New York Corporation (the Company) held in street name, representing approximately [] percent of the issued and outstanding shares of Class A Stock as of February 22, 2008 (based on the information disclosed in the Company's definitive proxy statement, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission). Harbinger Capital Partners Master Fund I, Ltd., an exempted company organized under the laws of the Cayman Islands (the Master Fund), and Harbinger Capital Partners Special Situations Fund, L.P., a limited partnership formed under the laws of Delaware (the Special Fund and, together with the Master Fund, the HCP Funds), Class A-1 Members of Harbinger NY (as described in greater detail in Annex A to this proxy statement), each hold 100 shares of Class A Stock as direct record owner. We believe Harbinger NY and the HCP Funds are collectively the largest holder of Class A Stock.

Harbinger NY believes that the future of The New York Times depends on the willingness of its management and board of directors to take bold action to adapt to the changing media landscape. We believe that this challenge requires fresh, independent leadership in the boardroom. Toward that end, we have nominated four highly motivated and talented individuals who we believe will bring to the Company's board of directors a renewed sense of urgency and responsiveness to stockholders.

Harbinger NY and certain of its affiliates and associates are seeking your support at the upcoming 2008 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, which is scheduled to be held on April 22, 2008 at 10:00 a.m., Eastern Time, at TheTimesCenter, 242 West 41st Street, New York, NY 10018, including any adjournments or postponements thereof and any special meeting that may be called in lieu thereof (the 2008 Annual Meeting), to take the following actions:

2008 ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

THE NEW YORK TIMES COMPANY

This proxy statement and the enclosed GREEN proxy card are being furnished to you, the Class A stockholders of The New York Times Company, a New York corporation (the "Company"), by Harbinger Capital Partners NY, LLC (formerly named Firebrand/Harbinger, LLC), a limited liability company formed under the laws of Delaware ("Harbinger NY"), in connection with the solicitation of proxies from the Company's Class A stockholders to be used at the 2008 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, including any adjournments or postponements thereof and any special meeting that may be called in lieu thereof (the "2008 Annual Meeting"). The 2008 Annual Meeting is scheduled to be held on April 22, 2008 at 10:00 a.m., Eastern Time, at TheTimesCenter, 242 West 41st Street, New York, NY 10018. The principal executive offices of the Company are located at 620 Eighth Avenue, New York, NY 10018.

This proxy statement and the form of GREEN proxy card are first being furnished to the Company's Class A stockholders on or about [], 2008. The Company has two classes of outstanding voting securities, Class A common stock, par value $0.10 per share ("Class A Stock") and Class B common stock, par value $0.10 per share ("Class B Stock"). Stockholders who are record holders of Class A Stock or Class B Stock at the close of business on February 22, 2008, the record date set by the Company's board of directors with respect to the 2008 Annual Meeting (the "Record Date"), will be entitled to vote at the 2008 Annual Meeting. For the number of shares of Class A Stock issued and outstanding as of the Record Date and entitled to vote at the 2008 Annual Meeting, please see the Company's definitive proxy statement when filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Pursuant to this proxy statement, Harbinger NY and certain of its affiliates and associates are soliciting proxies of Class A stockholders only to elect four nominees as Class A directors and to approve each of the proposals described in this proxy statement. Harbinger NY is not soliciting proxies of Class B stockholders with respect to any of the matters upon which the Class B stockholders are entitled to vote at the 2008 Annual Meeting. The Company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the "Certificate of Incorporation") provides Class A stockholders with one vote for each share of Class A Stock held in the election of 30 percent of the Company's board of directors (or the nearest larger whole number if such percentage is not a whole number), voting separately and as a class, and Class B stockholders with one vote for each share of Class B Stock held in the election of the balance of the Company's board of directors, voting separately and as a class. Accordingly, of the thirteen directors to be elected at the 2008 Annual Meeting, four will be elected by the Class A stockholders, voting separately as a class, and nine will be elected by the Class B stockholders, voting separately as a class. In addition, the affirmative vote of a majority of the Class A Stock and Class B Stock represented at the 2008 Annual Meeting, in person or by proxy, voting together as one class, is required to ratify the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's auditors for the fiscal year ending December 28, 2008. According to the Certificate of Incorporation, except as otherwise required by the laws of the State of New York and the matters specifically set forth in the Certificate of Incorporation, for all other matters requiring a vote of the Company's stockholders, the entire voting power is vested solely and exclusively in the Class B Stockholders.

This proxy statement and the enclosed GREEN proxy card are being furnished to the Company's Class A stockholders by Harbinger NY and certain of its affiliates and associates in connection with the solicitation of proxies of the holders of Class A Stock for the following:

- (1) To vote FOR the election of Scott Galloway, James A. Kohlberg, Allen L. Morgan and Gregory Shove (the "HCP Nominees") to serve as the four Class A directors on the Company's board of directors;

- (3) to grant to the proxy holders discretion to vote on all other matters as may properly come before the 2008 Annual Meeting for approval by Class A stockholders.

THIS SOLICITATION IS BEING MADE BY HARBINGER NY AND CERTAIN OF ITS AFFILIATES AND ASSOCIATES AND NOT ON BEHALF OF THE COMPANY'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS OR MANAGEMENT.

Harbinger NY is the beneficial owner, as of [], 2008 of [] shares of Class A Stock held in street name, representing in the aggregate approximately [] percent of the shares of Class A Stock issued and outstanding as of February 22, 2008 (based on the information disclosed in the Company's definitive proxy statement, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission). Vote by Mail If you do not have access to a touch-tone telephone or to the Internet or wish to vote by mail, please sign, date and return the proxy card in the envelope provided, or mail to: Harbinger Capital Partners NY, LLC, c/o D.F. King & Co., Inc. 48 Wall Street, 22nd Floor, New York, NY 10005.

The telephone and Internet voting procedures use a control number that appears on your GREEN proxy card to authenticate you as a stockholder of record and to allow you to confirm that your voting instructions have been correctly recorded. If you vote by Internet or telephone, you do not need to return the GREEN proxy card.

Your proxy voting instructions, whether by Internet, telephone or mail, cover all shares of Class A Stock registered in your name.

How do I vote shares I hold through a nominee?

How do I revoke a proxy?

You may revoke your proxy before it is voted at the meeting by:

delivering a second signed proxy card dated later than the first signed proxy card;

voting at a later time by telephone or the Internet; or attending the 2008 Annual Meeting and voting in person.

If you are a street name stockholder, and you vote by proxy, you may later revoke your proxy instructions by informing the holder of record in accordance with that holder's procedures.

What do I do if I receive a white proxy card from the Company?

Proxies on the white proxy card are being solicited by the Company's board of directors. If you submit a proxy to us by signing and returning the enclosed GREEN proxy card, do not sign or return the white proxy card for Class A stockholders or follow any voting instructions provided by the Company's board of directors unless you intend to change your vote, because only your latest-dated proxy will be counted at the 2008 Annual Meeting.

If you have already sent a white proxy card to the Company for the matters to be voted on by the Class A stockholders, you may revoke it and vote FOR the HCP Nominees by signing, dating and returning the enclosed GREEN proxy card or by voting by telephone or the Internet as described on the GREEN proxy card.

Should I submit a proxy if I plan to attend the 2008 Annual Meeting?

Whether you plan to attend the 2008 Annual Meeting or not, we urge you to sign, date and return a GREEN proxy card or vote by telephone or the Internet as described on the GREEN proxy card. Returning the enclosed GREEN proxy card by mail or voting by proxy by telephone or the Internet will not affect your right to attend the 2008 Annual Meeting and vote in person.

Will any other matters be considered at the 2008 Annual Meeting?

Harbinger NY does not know of any other matter that will be presented for consideration by the Class A stockholders at the Annual Meeting. BACKGROUND TO THE SOLICITATION

The HCP Funds and Firebrand formed Harbinger NY for the purpose of investing in public companies with strong brands and depressed stock prices. They found in The New York Times a dynastic business, over 150 years in the making, unparalleled in its name recognition and reputation for journalistic excellence, but hamstrung by poor capital allocation and an incremental strategy for adapting to a changing media landscape. They determined that the bold action necessary to enhance stockholder value, ensure the Company's economic viability and preserve the legacy and unique role of The New York Times required fresh leadership in the Company's board room. Toward that end, they assembled a slate of four highly qualified and motivated individuals who, nominated by a large stockholder rather than the existing directors, would be truly independent from management and the Ochs Sulzberger family.

Harbinger NY and the HCP Funds began acquiring shares of Class A Stock in December 2007. As of the date of this proxy statement, Harbinger NY is the beneficial owner, as of [], 2008, of an aggregate of [] shares of Class A Stock held in street name, representing approximately [] percent of the issued and outstanding Class A Stock as of February 22, 2008 (based on the information disclosed in the Company's definitive proxy statement, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission). The HCP Funds each hold 100 shares of Class A Stock as direct record owner. We believe the Harbinger NY and the HCP Funds are collectively the largest holder of Class A Stock.

On January 25, 2008, the HCP Funds delivered a formal notice of nomination for the 2008 Annual Meeting nominating Scott Galloway, James A. Kohlberg, Allen L. Morgan and Gregory Shove for election to the Company's board of directors as Class A directors. Later that day, the Company issued a press release confirming receipt by the Company of the notice of nomination.

On January 27, 2008, Mr. Galloway, sent to Arthur O. Sulzberger and Janet L. Robinson the following letter:

January 27, 2008

Mr. Arthur O. Sulzberger

Chairman and Publisher

Ms. Janet L. Robinson

President and Chief Executive Officer

The New York Times Company

620 Eighth Avenue

New York, New York 10018

Dear Arthur and Janet,

I hope this letter finds you well.

We had hoped to be able to meet with you informally to introduce ourselves and to initiate a constructive dialog. By now, I expect that you have had an opportunity to review the notice regarding our intention to nominate four Class A directors to The New York Times Company's Board at the 2008 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

It has been, and remains, our intention to pursue this effort in a spirit of cooperation with the Board and management that moves beyond the old dichotomy of hostile and friendly and focuses instead upon our shared interest in building shareholder value. To that end, I am writing on behalf of Firebrand/Harbinger, LLC, a company formed by Firebrand Partners and Harbinger Capital Partners, who together own approximately 4.9% of the outstanding common equity of the Company, to request a meeting with you and your Board.

Table of Contents

I want to assure you that we are not pursuing a change in the dual class shareholder structure. The New York Times is a great institution controlled by the Sulzberger family and we have no illusion about, or desire to change, that fact. Our efforts are focused on how we can work with management and the Board for the benefit of all stakeholders.

The New York Times is the world's foremost evangelist for democracy, capitalism and culture. This public trust is not at odds with the pursuit of shareholder value, but is complementary, as the Company's ability to fulfill this role is a function of its economic viability. The greatest threat to The New York Times is the continued diminution of its business model and destruction of shareholder value, both of which imperil the Company's ability to invest in and maintain the tradition of journalistic excellence that has made The New York Times one of the most trusted brands in the world.

There is nothing wrong with The New York Times Company that cannot be fixed with what is right with The New York Times. We believe a renewed focus on the core assets and the redeployment of capital to expedite the acquisition of digital assets affords the greatest shareholder appreciation and creates the appropriate platform to compete in today's media landscape.

The current Board, while impressive in stature, has not been effective in inspiring the requisite bold action this media environment demands. Our nominees bring deep expertise in capital allocation, Internet media and brand strategy. In addition to myself, our director nominees include: Allen Morgan, Managing Director at venture capital firm Mayfield Fund, whose investing practice focuses on internet media; Gregory Shove, a former executive at AOL and advisor to Firebrand Partners; and James Kohlberg, co-founder of private equity firm Kohlberg & Company. We are also joined in this effort by Harbinger Capital Partners, which has a long track record of identifying undervalued public companies with untapped potential and investing substantial resources to maximize shareholder value.

Our desire is to serve as an honest broker between the Company, its stakeholders and the opportunities presented for shareholder appreciation. In our meeting, we hope to discuss the optimal capital structure and a path for transforming The New York Times from a low growth company to a robust firm that is both the newspaper of record and the most trusted starting point on the Internet.

I can be reached at 646-262-9076 or sgalloway@firebrandpartners.com and look forward to hearing from you.

Regards,

Scott Galloway

Founder and CIO, Firebrand Partners

On February 8, 2008, following Mr. Galloway's request, representatives of Harbinger NY and certain of the nominees met with representatives of the Company in an effort by the Participants to introduce the nominees to Company management and commence a dialog. Following that meeting, Mr. Galloway again wrote to Mr. Sulzberger and Ms. Robinson to thank them for the meeting and to remind them that each of the nominees was free to meet with the members of the nominating committee at the committee's convenience. The Company's nominating committee made no request to meet with the nominees prior to the filing of the Company's preliminary proxy statement, as described below.

On February 11, 2008, the Harbinger Persons, Firebrand and Mr. Galloway (the Reporting Persons) filed a Schedule 13D with respect to their investment in the shares of Class A Stock. In the Schedule 13D, the Reporting Persons reserved the right to be in contact with members of the Company's management, the members of the Company's board of directors, other significant stockholders and others regarding alternatives that the Company could employ to maximize stockholder value. The Reporting Persons also reserved the right to act in concert with any other stockholder of the Company, or other persons, for a common purpose should they determine to do so, and/or to recommend courses of action to the Company's management, board and stockholders.

On February 12, 2008, the day after the filing the Schedule 13D, the Company announced that two of the incumbent board members, Brenda Barnes and James Kilts, would not be standing for re-election at the 2008 Annual Meeting, and that Robert Denham, a partner in the law firm Munger, Tolles & Olson LLP, and Dawn Lepore, the CEO and chairman of drugstore.com, inc., had agreed to be nominated to the Company's board of directors.

Over the subsequent days, Harbinger NY continued to acquire shares of Class A Stock, which it reported in amendments to the Schedule 13D.

On February 21, 2008, the Company filed a preliminary proxy statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission which included the nomination by the Company of a full slate of thirteen individuals for election to the Company's board of directors as Class A and Class B directors. In the filing, the Company's board of directors unanimously recommended the election of the nominees listed in the proxy statement and urged stockholders not to sign or return any proxy card provided by Harbinger NY.

Later on February 21, 2008, notwithstanding the nomination of a full slate of directors and the unanimous recommendation of the board that those nominees be elected, Mr. Galloway was contacted by a representative of the Company, who informed him that the nominating committee of the board wished to interview the HCP Nominees for consideration by the committee.

On February 22, 2008, certain of the nominees met with representatives of Company management to discuss the Company's digital strategy.

The Participants believe that the HCP Nominees will add horsepower and domain expertise to the Company's stated strategy of pursuing leadership positions in key content verticals, both print and online, and rebalancing the Company's portfolio of properties. The Participants feel that a bright light review of the Company's capital allocation and internet strategy are key to unlocking stockholder value. However, they believe this effort can only be successful if undertaken by a board that includes directors who are independent and responsive to stockholders and who bring a sense of urgency to the task.

Although four of the Company's directors will be elected by Class A stockholders at the 2008 Annual Meeting and the remaining directors will be elected by Class B stockholders, once elected, no director has any ongoing status as a Class A or Class B director. The HCP Nominees, if elected to the Company's board of directors, will serve with the other directors as members of one board of directors with fiduciary responsibilities towards all stockholders of the Company. The HCP Nominees will, if elected, constitute a minority of the Company's board of directors. Accordingly, the HCP Nominees, even if they act together, will not be able to adopt any measures proposed by any particular stockholder, including Harbinger NY or the HCP Funds, without the support of at least some incumbent members of the Company's board of directors. Each of the HCP Nominees is committed to acting in the best interest of the Company's stockholders and has consented to being named in this proxy statement and, if elected, to serving on the Company's board of directors.

PROPOSAL 1: ELECTION OF THE HCP NOMINEES AS CLASS A DIRECTORS TO THE COMPANY'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Harbinger NY proposes that the Class A stockholders elect Scott Galloway, James A. Kohlberg, Allen L. Morgan and Gregory Shove as Class A directors of the Company at the 2008 Annual Meeting. Each of the HCP Nominees, if elected, would hold office for a term ending at the annual meeting of stockholders for the year 2009 or until a successor has been duly elected and qualified.

Harbinger NY is soliciting proxies of Class A stockholders pursuant to this proxy statement to elect the HCP Nominees as Class A directors and to vote on the other matters set forth herein. Harbinger NY is not soliciting proxies of Class B stockholders with respect to any of the matters upon which the Class B stockholders are entitled to vote at the 2008 Annual Meeting. The Certificate of Incorporation provides Class A stockholders with one vote for each share of Class A Stock held in the election of 30 percent of the Company's board of directors (or the nearest larger whole number if such percentage is not a whole number) voting separately and as a class and Class B stockholders with one vote for each share of Class B Stock held in the election of the balance of the Company's board of directors voting separately and as a class. Accordingly, of the thirteen directors to be elected at the 2008 Annual Meeting, four will be elected by the Class A stockholders voting separately as a class and nine will be elected by the Class B stockholders voting separately as a class. The By-laws provide that the election of each class of directors will be by ballot, and nominees receiving the greatest number of votes of each class of stockholders entitled to vote for such directors will be elected.

OTHER INFORMATION ABOUT THE HCP NOMINEES AND HARBINGER NY

According to the Company's proxy statement, under the Company's compensation plan for directors, who hold office following their election and qualification until the next annual meeting of stockholders and until their successors are elected and qualified, non-employee directors receive compensation comprised of cash compensation and equity compensation. Cash compensation payable to non-employee directors elected at the 2007 annual meeting of stockholders was comprised of an annual retainer of $45,000 per director and an annual cash committee retainer in the following amounts: $20,000 for the audit committee, $10,000 for the compensation committee, $10,000 for the finance committee, $6,000 for the nominating and governance committee and $3,000 for the foundation committee. The presiding director also received a $10,000 annual retainer. The Company's Non-Employee Director Deferral Plan allows non-employee directors to defer the receipt of a portion of their cash compensation, with deferred amounts credited to a cash account or a phantom Class A Stock unit account, as elected by the director. Cash accounts are credited with interest at market rates and phantom Class A Stock unit accounts are credited with dividend equivalents.

Equity compensation payable to non-employee directors elected at the 2007 annual meeting of stockholders was comprised of a grant of phantom Class A Stock units and options to purchase the Class A Stock. For directors elected at the 2007 annual meeting, the discretionary grant of phantom stock units was valued at $35,000 per director. Options to purchase 4,000 shares of the Class A Stock are granted annually to non-employee directors. According to the Company's public filings, stock options are generally awarded annually to non-employee directors on the date of the annual meeting of stockholders at which they are elected under the Company's Non-Employee Directors' Stock Incentive Plan; options vest on the date of the next succeeding annual meeting of stockholders and have a term of ten years from the date of grant. The Company reimburses reasonable expenses incurred for attendance at board of directors and committee meetings and matches 150 percent of charitable contributions made by directors to colleges, schools, cultural, journalism or environmental organizations, up to a maximum Company contribution of $4,500 per person per year.

The Company maintains directors' and officers' liability insurance coverage for the directors of the Company. The aggregate limit for claims under the directors' and officers' policy, together with claims under policies providing employment practices, fiduciary and crime liability coverage, is $100 million. If the $100 million combined limit is exhausted, there is a separate $50 million side limit available solely for directors and officers' liability. The Company also provides directors with Company-provided indemnification to the fullest extent permitted by law and the Certificate of Incorporation, and legal protection from personal liability to the Company and its stockholders, as provided by state law and the Certificate of Incorporation. The Participants expect that the HCP Nominees, if elected, will be indemnified for service as directors of the Company to the same extent indemnification is provided to the current directors of the Company under the By-laws and Certificate of Incorporation. The Participants also believe that, upon election, the HCP Nominees will be covered by the Company's directors' and officers' liability insurance.

Harbinger NY and the other Participants derived the foregoing information from the Company's public filings and are not responsible for the accuracy or completeness of such public filings.

Except as described in Annex A to this proxy statement, the HCP Nominees will not receive any compensation from any Participant to serve as nominees for election or as a director, if elected. The HCP Funds have agreed to indemnify the HCP Nominees against losses incurred in connection with their service as nominees for election as directors of the Company and in connection with the solicitation of proxies in respect thereof, to the extent that indemnification is not otherwise available, including from the Company. The HCP Funds have also agreed to reimburse the HCP Nominees for out-of-pocket expenses incurred in their capacity as nominees, including, without limitation, reimbursement for reasonable travel expenses. Each HCP Nominee has executed a written consent agreeing to be a nominee for election as a director of the Company and to serve as a director if so elected.

- (1) no petition under the Federal bankruptcy laws or any State insolvency law has been filed by or against, and no receiver, fiscal agent or similar officer has been appointed by a court for the business or property of, any HCP Nominee, or any partnership in which any HCP Nominee was a general partner at or within two years before the time of such filing, or any corporation or business association of which he was an executive officer at or within two years before the time of such filing;

- (5) no HCP Nominee has been found by a court of competent jurisdiction in a civil action or by the Securities and Exchange Commission to have violated any Federal or State securities law, where the judgment in such civil action or finding by the Securities and Exchange Commission has not been subsequently reversed, suspended or vacated; and

The corporate governance guidelines of the Company, which are available on the Company's website at www.nytco.com, provide that determinations of independence will be made using the criteria for independence required by the New York Stock Exchange. Based on the standards of independence set forth in such guidelines, the Participants have no knowledge of any facts that would prevent the determination that each of the HCP Nominees is independent.

The Participants do not expect that any of the HCP Nominees will be unable to stand for election, but in the event that such persons are unable to serve or for good cause will not serve, the shares represented by the enclosed GREEN proxy card will be voted for substitute nominees. In addition, the Participants reserve the right to nominate substitute persons if the Company makes or announces any changes to its By-laws or takes or announces any other action that has, or if consummated would have, the effect of disqualifying any of the HCP Nominees. In any such case, shares of Class A Stock represented by the enclosed GREEN proxy card will be voted for such substitute nominees. The Participants reserve the right to nominate additional persons if the Company increases the size of the Company's board of directors above its existing size and as a result the Class A stockholders become entitled to elect additional Class A directors. Additional nominations made pursuant to the preceding sentence are without prejudice to the position of the Participants that any attempt to increase the size of the Company's board of directors or disqualify any of the HCP Nominees through By-law amendments or otherwise constitutes unlawful manipulation of the Company's corporate machinery.

In connection with the solicitation of proxies of Class A stockholders by Harbinger NY and certain of its affiliates and associates for use at the 2008 Annual Meeting, proxies may be solicited by mail, facsimile, telephone, telegraph, electronic mail, in person and by advertisements. The HCP Nominees may make solicitations of proxies but will not receive compensation for acting as nominees. Solicitations may be made by certain directors, officers, members and employees of Harbinger NY and the HCP Funds, none of whom will receive additional compensation for such solicitation.

The entire expense of soliciting proxies is being borne by Harbinger NY. Harbinger NY intends to seek reimbursement for the costs of this solicitation from the Company and does not expect to submit such reimbursement to a vote of Company's stockholders. The costs of this solicitation of proxies, and other costs specifically related to this solicitation, are currently estimated to be approximately $750,000. Harbinger NY estimates that through the date hereof, its total expenditures to date for, in furtherance of, or in connection with, this solicitation are approximately $[].
