ITEM 5.02 ELECTION OF DIRECTOR OR PRINCIPAL OFFICER

TAMPA, Fla. January 12, 2010 Stem Cell Therapy International, Inc. (OTCBB: SCII) (AmStem Corporation) announced that Rick van den Toorn has been appointed to the Company s Board of Directors effective January 22, 2010. In this role he will become a valued board member by overseeing the establishment of and providing oversight to several committees, including the compensation and audit committees and he will evaluate and monitor the Company s strategic operational plans.

Rick van den Toorn has been appointed to the Board of Directors until his respective successor is elected and qualified or until his earlier resignation, removal from office or death.

Mr. van den Toorn is an investor and advisor with a focus on U.S. based small to mid-capitalization companies. He is a citizen of the Netherlands and most recently worked for the Dutch Authority for the Financial Markets where he was a senior member of the team responsible for the oversight of audit firms. Before that, Mr. van den Toorn worked as a special consultant to corporations and entities including The World Bank. Mr. van den Toorn began his career with KPMG as an accountant and business consultant where he became a partner in the firm and gained broad experience in many areas such as risk management, accounting, and corporate governance. He holds a B.A. degree in Economics from the HEAO in Alkmaar, The Netherlands and is registered as a chartered accountant through NIVRA, the Dutch accounting institute.
