Item 8.01. Other Information

On April 13, 2013 M&T Bank Corporation (M&T), Hudson City Bancorp, Inc. (Hudson City) and Wilmington Trust Corporation, a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of M&T (Merger Sub), entered into an amendment (the Amendment) to that certain Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement), dated as of August 27, 2012, by and among M&T, Hudson City and Merger Sub, pursuant to which, among other things, Hudson City will merge with and into Merger Sub, with Merger Sub continuing as the surviving corporation (the Merger).

The Amendment (1) extends, from August 27, 2013 to January 31, 2014, the date after which either M&T or Hudson City can elect to terminate the Merger Agreement if the Merger has not yet been completed, (2) specifies certain actions that Hudson City may take prior to the consummation of the Merger, including with respect to Hudson City's conduct of business, retiree benefits, retention incentives and certain other matters with respect to Hudson City personnel, notwithstanding the covenants and agreements in the Merger Agreement that prohibit Hudson City from taking certain actions prior to such time, and (3) provides that if (i) Hudson City receives an alternative acquisition proposal that Hudson City's board of directors determines, after taking into account all aspects of such proposal, is more favorable from a financial point of view to Hudson City's stockholders than the Merger and (ii) the proposal is approved by Hudson City's stockholders, then Hudson City may terminate the Merger Agreement, subject to payment of a termination fee to M&T.

The foregoing description of the Amendment does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Amendment, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Cautionary Statements Regarding Forward-Looking Information

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains forward looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 giving M&T's expectations or predictions of future financial or business performance or conditions. Forward-looking statements are typically identified by words such as believe, expect, anticipate, intend, target, estimate, continue, positions, prospects or potential, and conditional verbs such as will, would, should, could or may, or by variations of such words or by similar expressions. These forward-looking statements are subject to numerous assumptions, risks and uncertainties which change over time. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made and we assume no duty to update forward-looking statements.

In addition to factors previously disclosed in M&T's reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and those identified elsewhere in this filing, the following factors among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from forward-looking statements or historical performance: ability to obtain regulatory approvals and meet other closing conditions to the merger, including approval by M&T and Hudson City shareholders, on the expected terms and schedule; delay in closing the merger; difficulties and delays in integrating the M&T and Hudson City businesses or fully realizing cost savings and other benefits; business disruption following the Merger; changes in asset quality and credit risk; the inability to sustain revenue and earnings growth; changes in interest rates and capital markets; inflation; customer acceptance of M&T products and services; customer borrowing, repayment, investment and deposit practices; customer disintermediation; the introduction, withdrawal, success and timing of business initiatives; competitive conditions; the inability to realize cost savings or revenues or to implement integration plans and other consequences associated with mergers, acquisitions and divestitures; economic conditions; and the impact, extent and timing of technological changes, capital management activities, and other actions of the Federal Reserve Board and legislative and regulatory actions and reforms.

Important Additional Information.
