Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On November 21, 2013, T-Mobile USA, Inc. (T-Mobile USA), a direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of T-Mobile US, Inc. (the Company), issued $1,000,000,000 principal amount of its 6.125% Senior Notes due 2022 (the 2022 Notes) and $1,000,000,000 principal amount of its 6.500% Senior Notes due 2024 (the 2024 Notes), and collectively with the 2022 Notes, the Notes) pursuant to an Indenture (the Base Indenture), dated as of April 28, 2013, among T-Mobile USA, the guarantors party thereto and Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas, as trustee, as amended and supplemented with respect to the 2022 Notes by the Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture, dated as of November 21, 2013 (the Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture) and as amended and supplemented with respect to the 2024 Notes by the Fifteenth Supplemental Indenture, dated as of November 21, 2013 (the Fifteenth Supplemental Indenture), each among T-Mobile USA, the Company, the other guarantors party thereto and Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas, as trustee (the Base Indenture, as amended and supplemented with respect to the 2022 Notes by the Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture, and as amended and supplemented with respect to the 2024 Notes by the Fifteenth Supplemental Indenture, the Indenture). The 2022 Notes will bear interest at a rate of 6.125% per year and mature on January 15, 2022. The 2024 Notes will bear interest at a rate of 6.500% per year and mature on January 15, 2024. The Issuer will pay interest on each series of notes semiannually in arrears on each January 15 and July 15, commencing July 15, 2014. The Notes will initially be guaranteed on a senior unsecured basis by the Company and all of T-Mobile USA's wholly-owned domestic restricted subsidiaries (excluding certain designated special purpose entities, a certain reinsurance subsidiary and immaterial subsidiaries), all of T-Mobile USA's restricted subsidiaries that guarantee certain of its indebtedness, and any future subsidiary of the Company that directly or indirectly owns all of T-Mobile USA's equity interests (the Guarantors). The Notes and the guarantees will be T-Mobile USA's and the Guarantors' senior unsecured obligations and will rank equally in right of payment with all of T-Mobile USA's and the Guarantors' existing and future indebtedness and other liabilities that are not by their terms subordinated in right of payment to the Notes and the guarantees, and will rank senior in right of payment to any future indebtedness of T-Mobile USA or any Guarantor that provides by its terms that it is subordinated in right of payment to the Notes and the guarantees. The Notes and the guarantees will be effectively subordinated to all of T-Mobile USA's and the Guarantors' existing and future secured indebtedness to the extent of the assets securing such indebtedness, and will be structurally subordinated to all of the liabilities and preferred stock of any of T-Mobile USA's subsidiaries that do not guarantee the Notes.

If T-Mobile USA experiences specific kinds of changes of control as set forth in the Indenture and any such change of control is accompanied or followed by rating downgrades during a specified period of time after the change of control, each holder of the Notes may require T-Mobile USA to repurchase all or a portion of the Notes so held at a price equal to 101% of the principal amount of such Notes, plus any accrued and unpaid interest on the Notes repurchased to, but not including, the date of repurchase.

The Indenture contains covenants that, among other things, restrict the ability of T-Mobile USA and its restricted subsidiaries to incur more debt, pay dividends and make distributions, make certain investments, repurchase stock, create liens or other encumbrances, enter into transactions with affiliates, enter into agreements that restrict dividends or distributions from subsidiaries, and merge, consolidate or sell, or otherwise dispose of, substantially all of their assets. These limitations are subject to a number of important qualifications and exceptions.

The Indenture contains customary Events of Default (as defined in the Indenture), including:

default for 30 days in the payment when due of interest (including Additional Interest (as defined in the Indenture)) on the applicable series of Notes;

default in the payment when due (at maturity, upon redemption or otherwise) of the principal of, or premium, if any, on, the applicable series of Notes;

failure by T-Mobile USA to comply with its other obligations under the Indenture, in certain cases subject to notice and grace periods;

payment defaults and accelerations with respect to other indebtedness of T-Mobile USA and certain of its restricted subsidiaries in the aggregate principal amount of $100.0 million or more;

specified events involving bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization of T-Mobile USA or certain of its restricted subsidiaries; and failure by T-Mobile USA or certain of its restricted subsidiaries to pay certain final judgments aggregating in excess of $100.0 million within 60 consecutive days of such final judgment.

Upon an Event of Default, the trustee or the holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the applicable series of Notes then outstanding may declare all the Notes of that series to be due and payable immediately. In the case of Events of Default relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization, all outstanding Notes will become due and payable immediately without further action or notice.

This description of the Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture and Fifteenth Supplemental Indenture is a summary only and is qualified in its entirety by the full and complete terms of each of the Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture and Fifteenth Supplemental Indenture, copies of which are attached as exhibits hereto, and incorporated herein by reference.

Morgan Securities LLC is acting as representative, and the Guarantors, relating to an underwritten public offering of 2022 Notes in an aggregate principal amount of $1,000,000,000 and 2024 Notes in an aggregate principal amount of $1,000,000,000.
