Item 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

As previously disclosed in Time Inc.'s (the Company) Information Statement filed as Exhibit 99.1 to Amendment No. 4 to the Company's Registration Statement on Form 10, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) on May 8, 2014 (the Information Statement), in connection with the spin-off (the Spin-off) of the Company from Time Warner Inc. (Time Warner), the Company entered into a credit agreement, dated as of April 24, 2014 (the Credit Agreement), with the subsidiary guarantors party thereto, the lenders party thereto and Citibank, N.A., as administrative agent. The Credit Agreement provides for, among other things, a term loan facility in an initial principal amount of $700 million (the Term Loan). On May 29, 2014, the Company borrowed the full committed amount of $700 million under the Term Loan.

As previously disclosed in the Information Statement, the Company expects to use a portion of the proceeds from the Term Loan to fund the repayment in cash of the outstanding balance of a note (the IPC Note) issued by a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company to a wholly owned subsidiary of Time Warner in connection with the Company's acquisition of the Company's U.K. publishing business, and to use the remaining proceeds from the Term Loan to declare and distribute a special cash dividend to Time Warner (the Special Dividend). The Company expects that the amount needed to repay the IPC Note will be approximately $121 million and the amount of the Special Dividend will be approximately $590 million.

All then-outstanding principal and interest under the Term Loan will be due and payable on April 24, 2021, the date that is seven years after the date of the execution of the Credit Agreement. Borrowings under the Term Loan bear interest at a rate equal to an applicable margin plus, at the Company's option, either a base rate calculated in a customary manner or a eurocurrency rate calculated in a customary manner. The applicable margin for the Term Loan is 2.25% for base rate loans and 3.25% for eurocurrency rate loans (subject to a eurocurrency floor equal to 1.00%). Subject to certain exceptions, the Term Loan requires the Company to prepay certain amounts outstanding thereunder with the net cash proceeds of certain asset sales, casualty events and issuances of debt. If prepayment of the Term Loan is made on or prior to May 29, 2015, as a result of certain refinancing or repricing transactions, the Company will be required to pay a fee equal to 1.00% of the principal amount of the obligations so refinanced or repriced. The Credit Agreement contains customary restrictive covenants that impose significant operating and financial restrictions on the Company and its subsidiaries, including but not limited to restrictions on their ability to incur debt, create liens, pay dividends, make certain investments and dispose of certain assets.

The foregoing description of the Credit Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Credit Agreement, a copy of which was attached as Exhibit 10.24 of Amendment No. 4 to the Company's Registration Statement on Form 10, filed with the SEC on May 8, 2014, and is incorporated by reference into this Item 2.03.
