Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On August 12, 2015, Banc of California, Inc. (the Company) entered into a Separation and Settlement Agreement with Ronald J. Nicolas, Jr. (the Separation Agreement), which provides for Mr. Nicolas's resignation as Chief Financial Officer of the Company effective as of November 15, 2015 and continued service as a consultant to the Company for a five-month period following his resignation.

Under the Separation Agreement, subject to Mr. Nicolas's execution and non-revocation of a general release of claims in favor of the Company, he will be provided with a lump sum cash payment equal to $750,000 upon his resignation, and a lump sum consulting fee of $250,000 on the resignation date and a health insurance subsidy during the consulting period as consideration for his services to the Company following his resignation. The Separation Agreement also provides that the outstanding equity awards held by Mr. Nicolas will continue to vest during the consulting period. If Mr. Nicolas's services are terminated by the Company without cause during the consulting period, Mr. Nicolas will be entitled to continue receiving the health insurance subsidy for the remainder of the consulting period and any outstanding equity awards that would have vested during the consulting period will become fully vested.

In addition, Mr. Nicolas will be subject to employee and customer nonsolicitation restrictions for 24 months following his resignation and perpetual confidentiality restrictions. The Separation Agreement also includes a mutual nondisparagement provision.

The Company intends to conduct a search for Mr. Nicolas's successor, with consideration of both internal and external candidates for the position.

The foregoing summary of the terms of the Separation Agreement does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Separation Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and incorporated by reference herein.
