MATERIAL NOTICE

ULTRAPAR, THROUGH ITS SUBSIDIARY IPIRANGA, ENTERS INTO AN AGREEMENT TO ACQUIRE ALESAT COMBUSTÍVEIS S.A.

São Paulo, Brazil, June 12, 2016 – Ultrapar Participações S.A. (Ultrapar) hereby announces that its subsidiary Ipiranga Produtos de Petróleo S.A. signed today a sale and purchase agreement for the acquisition of 100% of Alesat Combustíveis S.A. and the assets integrating its operations (ALE), under which Ultrapar is a guarantor.

Structure of the transaction

The total value of the acquisition is R$ 2,168 million. The amount to be paid to the sellers will be deducted of ALE 's net debt as of December 31, 2015 and is subject to working capital and net debt adjustments as of the closing date of the transaction. The parties also agreed to maintain an escrow account in order to pay for possible adjustments related to liabilities or contingencies whose triggering event occurred prior to the closing of the transaction.

The completion of the acquisition is subject to certain customary conditions precedent for this type of transaction, among which the approval by the Brazilian Antitrust Authority (Conselho Administrativo de Defesa Econômica CADE), and the approval by Ultrapar 's shareholders meeting, in accordance with article 256 of the Brazilian Corporate Law, that shall be called in due course. It is worth mentioning that, even if paragraph 2 of article 256 of Brazilian Corporate Law is applicable, our shareholders will not be entitled with withdrawal rights, once Ultrapar 's shares have market liquidity and dispersion.

ALE

ALE is a fuel distributor with 20 years of history, resulting from the merger between ALE Combustíveis and Satélite Distribuidora de Petróleo. ALE markets fuels in Brazil through a network of approximately 2 thousand service stations and 260 convenience stores, supported by a logistics infrastructure with 10 logistics facilities. In 2015, ALE sold 4.3 million cubic meters of diesel, gasoline, ethanol and natural gas for vehicles, and reported net revenues of R$ 11.4 billion and EBITDA of R$ 275 million. ALE 's net debt as of December 31, 2015 was R$ 737 million.

Acquisition rationale

Ipiranga has a network of 7,241 service stations throughout Brazil, aimed to provide a complete experience to its customers, from fuel and lubricants to the most innovative and daily-use products. Its network comprises 1,919 am/pm stores, of which 537 include bakeries, and 1,473 Jet Oil units (lubes change and car specialized services). Through its differentiation strategy, based on the offer of diversified products and services, Ipiranga has the largest loyalty program of Brazil, Km de Vantagens, with over 21 million participants. Having developed a wide business structure and a well-established service and convenience background in the service station, Ipiranga moves more decidedly towards the Posto Completo Digital (Complete and digital service station) concept, materialized by digital platforms of e-commerce and the applications connecting the customer to Ipiranga's service station network, such as the smartphone app Abastece Aí, a pioneer initiative that promotes a new refueling experience, offering further practicality to the consumer.

ALE's network is geographically complementary to Ipiranga's, especially in the Northeast region, where Ipiranga has lower market share and has focused its investments.

Ipiranga plans to extend its differentiation strategy to ALE's network, strengthening the company and the relationship with resellers by its investment capacity. The combination of the two companies also provides improved efficiency and competitiveness, resulting in benefits to consumers, resellers and to the society as a whole.
