INDENTURE SECURITIES

8. Analysis of Indenture Provisions.

The New Notes will be subject to the Indenture among the Applicants and Wilmington Trust, National Association, as trustee (the Trustee) to be entered into and dated as of the Effective Date of the Plan of Reorganization. The following is a general description of certain provisions of the Indenture, and the description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the form of Indenture, filed as Exhibit T3C herewith. Capitalized terms used below and not defined herein have the meanings ascribed to them in the Indenture.

(a) Events of Default; Withholding of Notice of Default.

The Indenture will contain certain customary events of default, including: (1) default in the payment of principal of the New Notes when due and payable as provided for in the Indenture, (2) failure to comply with covenants related to securing the New Notes by the Collateral if required by the Indenture, (3) failure to convert the New Notes, (4) failure to comply with covenants related to consolidations, mergers, sales or other dispositions of all or substantially all assets, (5) failure to comply with any other covenants or agreements related to the New Notes, subject to any applicable notice and cure period as provided for in the Indenture, (6) default under other indebtedness in excess of $50,000,000, (7) entry of a final judgment in excess of $50,000,000, subject to a cure period as provided for in the Indenture, (8) any guarantee by the Guarantors is held to be unenforceable or invalid, or is disaffirmed by any Guarantor and (9) certain events of bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization with respect to the Company, any Guarantor or any of its significant subsidiaries (as defined under Regulation S-X).

If a default occurs and is continuing and is actually known to the Trustee, the Trustee must send to each holder of the New Notes notice of the default within 90 days after it occurs, unless such default shall have been cured or waived before the giving of such notice. Except in the case of certain defaults in payment with respect to any New Notes, the Trustee may withhold notice if and so long as it in good faith determines that withholding notice is in the interests of the holders of the New Notes.

(b) Authentication and Delivery of the New Notes; Application of Proceeds.

The New Notes will be signed by one or more officers of the Company. No New Note will be entitled to any benefit under the Indenture unless it bears a certificate of authentication executed by the Trustee in manual signature. The Trustee may appoint an authenticating agent.

The Company will not receive any proceeds from the issuance of the New Notes pursuant to the Plan of Reorganization.

(c) Release of Collateral.

If the New Notes or the guarantees by the Guarantors are required to be secured by certain property of the Company and the Guarantors wherever located and whether now owned or at any time acquired after the date the New Notes are issued (the Collateral) pursuant to the terms of the Indenture, the Trustee's liens upon the Collateral will no longer secure the New Notes outstanding under the Indenture or any other obligations under the Indenture, and the right of the holders of the New Notes to the benefits and proceeds of the Trustee's liens on the Collateral will terminate and be discharged:

(i) upon satisfaction and discharge of the Indenture in accordance with the terms thereof;

(ii) upon payment in full and discharge of all of the New Notes outstanding under the Indenture and all other obligations of the Company under the New Notes and of each Guarantor under any guarantees of the New Notes by the Guarantors, due and payable under the Indenture at the time the New Notes are paid in full and discharged (other than contingent indemnity obligations for which no claim has been made);

(iii) as to any Collateral of the Company or a Guarantor that is sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of by the Company or any Guarantor to a person that is not (either before or after such sale, transfer or disposition) the Company or any of its subsidiaries in a transaction or other circumstance that complies with the terms of the Indenture and is permitted by all of the other security documents contemplated thereunder, at the time of such sale, transfer or other disposition or to the extent of the interest sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of;

(iv) in whole or in part, with the consent of the holders of the New Notes of the requisite aggregate principal amount of New Notes in accordance with the Indenture;

(v) with respect to the assets of any Guarantor, at the time that such Guarantor is released from its guarantee in accordance with the terms of the Indenture; or

(vi) if and to the extent required by the intercreditor and subordination agreement between the Trustee and the administrative agent under the Company's first lien credit facility.

(d) Satisfaction and Discharge.

The Indenture will cease to be of further effect as to all outstanding New Notes when (i)(1) all the New Notes theretofore authenticated and delivered have been delivered to the Trustee for cancellation or (2) all the New Notes not theretofore delivered to the Trustee for cancellation have become due and payable, and the Company has deposited with the Trustee or delivered to the holders of the New Notes amounts of consideration sufficient to pay all of the outstanding amounts under the New Notes and all other sums due and payable under the Indenture by the Company with respect to the New Notes; and (ii) the Company has delivered to the Trustee an officers' certificate and an opinion of counsel stating that all conditions precedent under the Indenture relating to the satisfaction and discharge of the Indenture have been complied with.

(e) Evidence of Compliance with Conditions and Covenants.

The Company is required to deliver to the Trustee within 120 days after the end of each fiscal year of the Company an officers' certificate stating whether the signers thereof have knowledge of any failure by the Company to comply with all conditions and covenants then required to be performed under the Indenture and, if so, specifying each such failure and the nature thereof. The Company is required to deliver to the Trustee, as soon as possible and in any event within 30 days after the occurrence of any event of default or default, an officers' certificate setting forth the details of such event of default or default, its status and the action that the Company is taking or proposing to take in respect thereto.
