PROXY STATEMENT

This Proxy Statement contains information related to our Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on Wednesday, September 15, 2009, beginning at 1:30 p.m., local time, at the offices of Kramer Levin Naftalis & Frankel LLP, 1177 Avenue of the Americas, 29th Floor, New York, New York 10036, and at any adjournments or postponements thereof. This Proxy Statement is being made available to stockholders on or about July 27, 2010.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MEETING

Q: Why am I receiving these materials?

A: Our board of directors has made these materials available to you on the Internet, or, upon your request, has delivered printed proxy materials to you, in connection with the solicitation of proxies for use at our 2010 Annual Meeting of stockholders, which will take place on Wednesday, September 15, 2010 at 1:30 p.m. local time, at the offices of Kramer Levin Naftalis & Frankel LLP, 1177 Avenue of the Americas, 29th Floor, New York, New York. As a stockholder, you are invited to attend the Annual Meeting and are requested to vote on the items of business described in this proxy statement.

Q: Why did I receive a notice in the mail about the Internet Availability of Proxy Materials instead of a full set of proxy materials, as was the case in past years?

A: In accordance with rules adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), we may furnish proxy materials, including this proxy statement and our 2009 Annual Report, to our stockholders by providing access to such documents on the Internet instead of mailing printed copies. Most stockholders will not receive printed copies of the proxy materials unless they request them. Instead, they will receive a Notice of Internet Availability of Proxy Materials (the "Notice"). The Notice, which was mailed to most of our stockholders, will instruct you as to how you may access and review all of the proxy materials on the Internet. The Notice also instructs you as to how you may submit your proxy on the Internet. If you would like to receive a paper or email copy of our proxy materials, you should follow the instructions for requesting such materials in the Notice.

Q: How do I access the electronic versions of the proxy materials?

A: The Notice will provide you with instructions regarding how to view our proxy materials for the Annual Meeting on the Internet and how to instruct us to send our future proxy materials to you electronically by email. Choosing to receive your future proxy materials by email will save us the cost of printing and mailing documents to you and will reduce the impact of printing and mailing these materials on the environment. If you choose to receive future proxy materials by email, you will receive an email next year with instructions containing a link to those materials and a link to the proxy voting site. Your election to receive proxy materials by email will remain in effect until you terminate it.

Q: What is the record date for the Annual Meeting?

A: The board of directors has set July 19, 2010 as the record date for the Annual Meeting (the "Record Date") to determine what shares are eligible to vote.

Table of Contents

Q: Who is making this proxy solicitation?

A: This proxy statement is furnished to holders of the Company's common stock, Series A Convertible Preferred Stock ("Series A Preferred Stock") and Series B Convertible Preferred Stock ("Series B Preferred Stock"), as of the Record Date, as part of the solicitation of proxies by the Company's board of directors for use at the Annual Meeting and any adjournments or postponements of the Annual Meeting.

Q: What am I being asked to vote on at the Annual Meeting?

A: At the Annual Meeting, holders of our common stock, Series A Preferred Stock and Series B Preferred Stock, will vote together as a single class and on an as-converted basis on:

- a proposal to elect three Class III directors to hold office for a three-year term or until their respective successors are elected and qualified;
- a proposal to amend the Company's 2005 Incentive Compensation Plan to increase the number of shares available for grant under such plan from 1,600,000 shares to 1,750,000 shares; and
- a proposal to ratify the appointment by our board of directors of Somekh Chaikin, a member of KPMG International, to serve as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2010.

Q: How does the Company's board of directors recommend that I vote?

A: Our board of directors recommends that you vote your shares "FOR" the approval of the three proposals mentioned above.

Q: What vote is required to approve each proposal?

A: For the election of directors, the nominees who receive the highest number of votes will be elected as directors. All other proposals require the affirmative "FOR" vote of a majority of those voting shares present in person or represented by properly executed proxies and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting.

Q: What is the quorum requirement with respect to the Annual Meeting?

A: The presence, in person or by properly executed proxy, of the holders of a majority of the voting shares entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting will constitute a quorum.

Q: Under what circumstances will the Annual Meeting be adjourned?

A: Although it is not expected, the Annual Meeting may be adjourned in the absence of a quorum for the purpose of obtaining a quorum. Any adjournment may be made without notice, other than by an announcement made at the Annual Meeting, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the voting shares present in person or by properly executed proxy at the Annual Meeting.

Q: What shares can be voted at the Annual Meeting?

A: All shares of the Company's common stock that you own as of the Record Date may be voted by you. You may cast one vote per share of the Company's common stock that you held on the Record Date. These shares include shares that are: (1) held directly in your name as the stockholder of record and (2) held for you as the beneficial owner through a stockbroker, bank or other nominee.

All issued and outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock may be voted on an as converted basis with the shares of common stock. As of the Record Date, 60,000 shares of Series A Preferred Stock are issued and outstanding and are convertible into 1,356,785 shares of common stock, meaning the holders of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock have 1,356,785 votes.

All issued and outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock may be voted on an as converted basis with the shares of common stock. As of the Record Date, 70,000 shares of Series B Preferred Stock are issued and outstanding and are convertible into 1,272,727 shares of common stock, meaning the holders of Series B Preferred Stock have 1,272,727 votes.

Table of Contents

Q: What is the difference between a holder of record and a beneficial owner of the Company's common stock?

A: Most of our stockholders hold their shares through a stockbroker, bank or other nominee, rather than directly in their own name. As summarized below, there are some distinctions between shares held as a holder of record and those beneficially owned.

Holders of Record

If your shares of the Company's common stock are registered directly in your name with our transfer agent, American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, you are considered, with respect to those shares, the holder of record, and these proxy materials are being sent directly to you by the Company. As the holder of record, you have the right to grant your voting proxy directly to the Company or to vote in person at the Annual Meeting. We have enclosed a proxy card with this proxy statement for you to use.

Beneficial Owners

If your shares of the Company's common stock are held in a stock brokerage account or by a bank or other nominee, you are considered the beneficial owner of shares held in "street name", and these proxy materials will be accessible by you pursuant to the instructions included in the Notice. Proxy materials that are requested, pursuant to the instructions in the Notice, may be forwarded to you by your broker or nominee who is considered, with respect to those shares, the holder of record. As the beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your broker or nominee how to vote and are also invited to attend the Annual Meeting. However, since you are not the holder of record, you may not vote these shares in person at the Annual Meeting. Your broker or nominee has enclosed a voting instruction card with this proxy statement for you to use in directing the broker or nominee how to vote your shares. You may also vote by telephone as described below under "How can I vote my shares without attending the Annual Meeting?"

Q: How can I vote my shares in person at the Annual Meeting?

A: Shares of the Company's common stock, Series A Preferred Stock or Series B Preferred Stock held directly in your name as the holder of record may be voted in person at the Annual Meeting. If you choose to do so, please bring the enclosed proxy card or proof of identification. Even if you plan to attend the Annual Meeting, we recommend that you vote your shares in advance as described below so that your vote will be counted if you later decide not to attend the Annual Meeting. Shares held in street name may be voted in person by you only if you obtain a signed proxy from the record holder giving you the right to vote the shares.

Q: How can I vote my shares without attending the Annual Meeting?

A: Whether you hold shares directly as the holder of record or beneficially in street name, you may direct your vote without attending the Annual Meeting by telephone or by completing and mailing your proxy card or voting instruction card in the enclosed postage pre-paid envelope. You may also be able to direct your vote via the Internet. Please refer to the enclosed materials for details.

Q: Can I change my vote after I have voted by proxy?

A: Yes. You can change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the Annual Meeting by revoking your proxy.

If you are a holder of record of the Company's common stock, Series A Preferred Stock or Series B Preferred Stock, you may revoke your proxy by:

Table of Contents

- attending the Annual Meeting and voting your shares in person at the Annual Meeting. Your attendance at the Annual Meeting alone will not revoke your proxy — you must also vote at the Annual Meeting;
- filing an instrument in writing with the Secretary of the Company stating that you would like to revoke your proxy; or
- filing another duly executed proxy bearing a later date with the Secretary of the Company so that it arrives prior to the Annual Meeting.

You should send your revocation or new proxy card to the Company's Secretary at Answers Corporation, 237 West 35th Street, Suite 1101, New York, NY 10001.

If you are a beneficial owner of the Company's common stock and you instructed a broker or other nominee to vote your shares, you must follow your broker's directions for changing those instructions.

Q: What is a broker non-vote?

A: When shares are held in "street name", a broker non-vote may occur when a bank or brokerage firm does not vote on a proposal because it does not have discretionary voting power and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner of the shares. A broker non-vote is counted for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present. While brokers may vote your shares for some "routine matters" that properly come before the meeting (such as the ratification of Somekh Chaikin, a member of KPMG International, to serve as our independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2010), recent SEC rules have eliminated broker discretionary voting for the election of directors. This means that your broker is unable to vote for directors on your behalf without receiving specific voting instructions to that effect. We encourage you to provide instructions so that your shares will be counted in the election of directors.

Q: What does it mean if I receive more than one proxy card or voting instruction card?

A: It means your shares are registered differently or are in more than one account. Please provide voting instructions for each proxy and voting instruction card you receive.

Q: Who will count the votes?

A: Votes will be counted by the independent inspectors of election appointed for the meeting.

Q: Who pays for the solicitation of proxies?

A: We will pay for the entire cost of soliciting proxies. We will also reimburse brokerage firms, banks and other agents for the cost of forwarding proxy materials to beneficial owners. In addition, our directors and employees may solicit proxies in person, by telephone, by Internet, or by other means of communication. Directors and employees will not be paid any additional compensation for soliciting proxies.

Q: Where can I find the voting results of the Annual Meeting?

A: We will announce preliminary voting results at the Annual Meeting and publish final results in our Current Report on Form 8-K within four business days after the date of the Annual Meeting.

PROPOSAL 2

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE COMPANY'S 2005 INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN

Background

At the Company's annual meeting of stockholders held on July 12, 2005, Company stockholders approved the adoption of the Answers Corporation 2005 Incentive Compensation Plan, which we refer to as the 2005 Plan. The terms of the 2005 Plan provide for grants of stock options, stock appreciation rights or SARs, restricted stock, deferred stock, other stock-related awards and performance awards that may be settled in cash, stock or other property. At the Company's annual meeting of stockholders held on June 21, 2006, the stockholders approved an amendment to the 2005 Plan to increase the number of shares available for grant under such plan from 850,000 shares to 1,100,000 shares. Subsequently, at the Company's annual meeting of stockholders held on September 9, 2008, and September 9, 2009, the stockholders approved amendments to the 2005 Plan to increase the number of shares available for grant under such plan from 1,100,000 shares to 1,350,000 shares, and from 1,350,000 to 1,600,000, respectively.

The main purpose of the 2005 Plan is to provide a means for the Company and its subsidiaries, which we refer to as Related Entities, to attract key personnel to provide services to the Company and the Related Entities, as well as, to provide a means whereby those key persons can acquire and maintain stock ownership, thereby strengthening their commitment to the welfare of the Company and promoting the mutuality of interests between participants and the Company's stockholders. A further purpose of the 2005 Plan is to provide participants with additional incentive and reward opportunities designed to enhance the profitable growth of the Company and its Related Entities, and provide participants with annual and long term performance incentives to expend their maximum efforts in the creation of stockholder value. The persons eligible to receive awards under the 2005 Plan are the officers, directors, employees, consultants and other persons who provide services to the Company and the Related Entities.

New Plan Benefits

If the amendment to the 2005 Plan is approved, our Compensation Committee will be able to grant awards to eligible participants at its discretion. Consequently it is not possible to determine at this time the number of awards to be provided under the 2005 Plan should this proposal be approved.

As of the Record Date, 1,385,742 stock options were outstanding under the 2005 Plan and 207,654 stock options were available for grant under such plan. In addition, the Company's 2004 Stock Plan has 141,798 stock options available for grant.

Proposal

Stockholders are hereby requested to approve an amendment to the 2005 Plan to add an additional 150,000 shares to the number of shares of common stock issuable under the 2005 Plan.

The purpose of the amendment is to ensure that the Company will have a sufficient reserve of common stock available under the 2005 Plan to provide eligible employees and potential future hires of the Company and Related Entities with the opportunity to purchase shares of common stock. The board of directors believes that the number of shares currently available for issuance under the 2005 Plan is insufficient to continue providing our employees and future hires with the opportunity to acquire a proprietary interest in the Company and thereby attract, motivate, and retain the best available talent suitable for our success. With the exception of annual grants made to directors on the date of the Annual Meeting, the Company does not have a present intention to make any specific grants under the 2005 Plan.

RATIFY APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

The board of directors has selected Somekh Chaikin, a member of KPMG International, as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2010 and requests the ratification of the appointment of Somekh Chaikin by the stockholders at the Annual Meeting.

Stockholder ratification of the selection of Somekh Chaikin as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm is not required by the Company's Bylaws or otherwise. However, the Company is submitting the selection of Somekh Chaikin to the stockholders for ratification as a matter of good corporate practice. If the stockholders fail to ratify the selection, the Audit Committee will reconsider whether or not to retain Somekh Chaikin. Even if the selection is ratified, the Audit Committee in its discretion may direct the appointment of a different independent audit firm at any time during the year if it is determined that such a change would be in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders.

The Company's board of directors unanimously recommends a vote "FOR" Proposal No. 3.

Contributions to Israeli Employees

We make contributions on behalf of our Israeli employees, including on behalf of our Israeli named executive officers in accordance with their employment agreements, to a fund known as Managers' Insurance. This fund provides a combination of retirement plan, insurance and severance pay benefits to the employee, giving the employee, or his or her estate, payments upon retirement or death and securing the severance pay, if legally entitled, upon termination of employment. Each full-time employee is entitled to participate in the plan, and each employee who participates contributes an amount equal to 5% of his or her salary to the retirement plan, and we contribute between 13.33% and 15.83% of his or her salary (consisting of 5% to the retirement plan, 8.33% to secure severance payments and up to 2.5% for disability insurance).

Under the retirement plan component of the Managers' Insurance, both our 5% contribution and the 5% contribution made by the employee are immediately vested and non-forfeitable upon contribution to the Managers' Insurance. In some cases, we substitute other retirement arrangements, such as provident funds (kupot gemel) for the retirement plan feature of the Managers' Insurance. The features of the provident funds are substantially similar to those of the retirement plan feature of the Managers' Insurance.

In addition, we make contributions on behalf of our Israeli employees, including all of our Israeli named executive officers, in accordance with their employment agreements, to a fund known as a continued education fund (Keren Hishtalmut). We contribute an amount equal to 7.5% of the employee's salary and deduct 2.5% of the employee's salary. Our contributions to the continuing education fund are only up to the permissible tax-exempt salary ceiling according to the income tax regulations in effect from time to time, which ceiling was 15,712 NIS monthly as of December 31, 2009.

Performance-Based Compensation and Financial Restatement

We have not considered or implemented a policy regarding retroactive adjustments to any cash or equity-based incentive compensation paid to our executives and other employees where such payments were predicated upon the achievement of certain financial results that were subsequently the subject of a financial restatement.

Tax and Accounting Considerations

Compliance with Internal Revenue Code Section 162(m). Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, restricts deductibility of executive compensation paid to our Chief Executive Officer and each of the three other most highly compensated executive officers holding office at the end of any year (except for our Chief Financial Officer) to the extent such compensation exceeds $1,000,000 for any of such officers in any year and does not qualify for an exception under Section 162(m) or related regulations. The Compensation Committee's policy is to qualify its executive compensation for deductibility under applicable tax laws to the extent practicable. Income related to stock options granted under our 1999 Stock Option Plan, the 2000 Stock Plan, the 2003 Stock Plan, the 2004 Stock Plan and the 2005 Incentive Compensation Plan generally qualify for an exemption from these restrictions imposed by Section 162(m). In the future, the Compensation Committee will continue to evaluate the advisability of qualifying its executive compensation for full deductibility, in particular in light of the recent IRS Revenue Ruling 2008-13.

Two thirds of such amount was distributed among members of the executive management team and one third of such amount was allocated to other managers and employees of the company. Messrs Rosenschein, Steinberg and Smith each received a bonus grant of $26,700.

2010 Bonus Plan

The Compensation Committee has approved a 2010 Bonus Plan which is based on members of the executive management team and other members of management meeting certain criteria in the areas of revenue, Adjusted EBITDA and individualized professional goals.

The Manager’s Insurance fund amounts reflected in the table represent only the 5% towards pension. We make these deposits on a monthly basis. At December 31, 2009, the ceiling then in effect was NIS 15,712 (approximately $4,220). According to Israeli law, Mr. Steinberg is entitled to redeem his continuing education fund once every six years, independent of his status of employment with us and he has discretion over the type of fund in which the deposits are invested. The amount set forth in the table reflects the total sum we deposited on behalf of Mr. Steinberg since the beginning of his employment with us.

We shall have the right to require Mr. Steinberg to continue working during any notice period. Should Mr. Steinberg's employment be terminated without cause at any time during a period of 12 months subsequent to the effective date of a Change of Control, he will be entitled to 4 months written notice.

Option Grant Practice

The Compensation Committee has delegated the authority to make initial option grants to new employees (within an approved range) to executive management. During 2009, initial option grants that were within executive management's approved range were granted quarterly, on March 30, June 29 and September 28. According to our revised practice, we execute the grants on the 20th of the last month of each calendar quarter. If the 20th of the last month of a quarter falls on a Friday, Saturday or Sunday, US official holiday or Israel official holiday, the meeting approving the grant is postponed to the following business day of both the Israel and US offices. Options are granted at 100% of the closing sales price of our stock on the last market trading date prior to the grant date.

We did not have any initial hire grants that were above executive management's approved range. In the event such a case was to occur in the future, such grants would be approved by the Compensation Committee with the grant date being the day after the first day of service and the exercise price being the closing sale price on the last market trading day prior to the grant date. For annual option grants to all employees, the Compensation Committee must review and submit its approval. It is the Board of Directors' practice to approve the Compensation Committee's option grants. In 2009, these grants were made on September 9, 2009.

Mr. Rosenschein received an option grant to purchase 32,000 shares of our common stock on September 9, 2009, with an exercise price of $7.91 per share, based on the NASDAQ closing price on September 8, 2009. Mr. Steinberg received an option grant to purchase 25,000 shares of our common stock on September 9, 2009, with an exercise price of $7.91 per share, based on the NASDAQ closing price on September 8, 2009. Mr. Smith received an option grant to purchase 29,000 shares of our common stock on September 9, 2009, with an exercise price of $7.91 per share, based on the NASDAQ closing price on September 8, 2009. 25% of the options granted to Messrs. Rosenschein, Steinberg and Smith will vest after one year from the date of grant and 1/36th of the options vest in equal monthly installments thereafter. These options were granted under the Company's 2005 Incentive Compensation Plan.

Table of Contents

We do not time the granting of our options with any favorable or unfavorable news released by us. The initial grants are based on the timing of the quarterly pre-determined end-of-quarter dates. Proximity of any awards to an earnings announcement or other market events is coincidental.

Executive Equity Ownership

We encourage our executives to hold a significant equity interest in our company. However, we do not have specific share retention and ownership guidelines for our executives.

Performance-Based Compensation and Financial Restatement

We have not considered or implemented a policy regarding retroactive adjustments to any cash or equity-based incentive compensation paid to our executives and other employees where such payments were predicated upon the achievement of certain financial results that were subsequently the subject of a financial restatement.

Tax and Accounting Considerations

Compliance with Internal Revenue Code Section 162(m). Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, restricts deductibility of executive compensation paid to our Chief Executive Officer and each of the three other most highly compensated executive officers holding office at the end of any year (except for our Chief Financial Officer) to the extent such compensation exceeds $1,000,000 for any of such officers in any year and does not qualify for an exception under Section 162(m) or related regulations. The Compensation Committee's policy is to qualify its executive compensation for deductibility under applicable tax laws to the extent practicable. Income related to stock options granted under our 1999 Stock Option Plan, the 2000 Stock Plan, the 2003 Stock Plan, the 2004 Stock Plan and the 2005 Incentive Compensation Plan generally qualify for an exemption from these restrictions imposed by Section 162(m). In the future, the Compensation Committee will continue to evaluate the advisability of qualifying its executive compensation for full deductibility, in particular in light of the recent IRS Revenue Ruling 2008-13.

Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation. On January 1, 2006, we began accounting for stock-based payments including our stock option program in accordance with the requirements of FASB Statement 123(R).

HOUSEHOLDING

If you and other persons in your household own shares of our Common Stock as the beneficial owner, your broker or bank may have given notice that your household will receive only one copy of our annual report and proxy statement. This practice is known as “householding.” Unless you responded to that notice that you did not wish to participate in householding, you would be deemed to have consented to participating, and only one copy of our Annual Report and Proxy Statement would be sent to your address (however, each shareholder would continue to receive a separate proxy card). This procedure reduces our printing costs and postage fees. Any stockholder who wishes to receive his or her own set of our Annual Reports and Proxy Statements, or who shares an address with another stockholder of Answers Corporation and together would like to receive only one set of annual disclosure documents, should contact us at 237 West 35th Street, Suite 1001, New York, NY 10001, Attention: Corporate Secretary, being sure to supply the names of all stockholders at the same address, the name of the bank or brokerage firm, and the account number(s).
