Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On January 10, 2011, Simon Clement-Davies was appointed as an independent board director and Chairman of the Audit Committee of the Seven Arts' Board of Directors. Mr. Clement-Davies is Oxford educated and has a strong banking and media background. He started his career in mergers and acquisitions, working in this arena for over a decade, first for Hill Samuel & Co Limited and then for Henry Ansbacher & Co Limited. Mr. Clement-Davies was then appointed a Vice President at Bankers Trust (Deutsche Bank), where he ran the media group in London for five years, numbering many of Europe's largest media companies amongst his clients. Since 1998 Mr. Clement-Davies has pursued an independent career as a producer and a distributor. He has been involved in the release of over 30 feature films, including several Oscar winners ('Gods & Monsters', 'The Last Days'), and produced the first series of full-length concerts in Hi Definition, broadcast on Virgin One. Starting in 2008, Mr. Clement-Davies became a Senior Advisor to the boutique merchant bank Augusta & Co.

There are no family relationships between Mr. Clement-Davis and any other director or officer of Seven Arts.
