2. Basis of Presentation

Certain information and disclosures normally included in annual financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America have been omitted and condensed. In the opinion of the Company’s management, all adjustments (consisting of only normal and recurring accruals) have been made to present fairly the results of operations, comprehensive income, financial position and cash flows for the periods presented. The results of operations for the periods presented are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year. Although the Company believes that the disclosures are adequate to make the information presented not misleading, these financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company’s audited consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2015.

Table of Contents

Earnings per Share

Basic earnings per share is based on the weighted effect of all common shares issued and outstanding, and is calculated by dividing earnings by the weighted average shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings per share is calculated by dividing earnings, adjusted for the effect, if any, from assumed conversion of all potentially dilutive common shares outstanding, by the weighted average number of common shares used in the basic earnings per share calculation plus the number of common shares that would be issued assuming conversion of all potentially dilutive common shares outstanding. The denominator used to compute basic and diluted earnings per share was as follows:

	Three Months Ended
	March 31,
	2016	2015
Basic earnings per share - weighted average shares	11,475,834	10,692,198
Effect of dilutive securities:
Employee and director restricted stock units	24,474	73,457
Warrants	—	507,267
Diluted earnings per share - weighted average shares	11,500,308	11,272,922

The computation of weighted average dilutive shares outstanding excluded grants of restricted stock units convertible into 135,906 shares of common stock for the three months ended March 31, 2016. The unrecognized compensation on a per unit basis for these restricted stock units was greater than the average market price of the Company's common stock for the period presented. For the three months ended March 31, 2015, there were no restricted stock units that were anti-dilutive to earnings per share.

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (the "FASB") issued a new accounting standard which provides guidance for revenue recognition which was amended in July 2015 and in March 2016. The most recent amendment provides revised guidance on when to record revenue gross as the principal or net as the agent in accordance with the new revenue standard's control principal. The new standard, along with the amendments which must be adopted at the same time as the new standard, is effective for the Company in the first quarter of 2018 with either full retrospective or modified retrospective adoption permitted. Early adoption is allowed from the first quarter of 2017. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of the adoption of this accounting standard on the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flows, and financial statement disclosures. As this process is still ongoing, the effect of adoption is not yet known.

In February 2016, the FASB issued a new standard for accounting for leases. The new standard requires lessees to recognize a right-of-use asset and a lease liability on the balance sheet for all leases with the exception of short-term leases. For lessees, leases will continue to be classified as either operating or finance leases in the income statement. Lessor accounting is similar to the current model but updated to align with certain changes to the lessee model. The updated standard is effective for the Company beginning in the first quarter of 2019. Early adoption is permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the effect that the new standard will have on the Company's consolidated financial statements and financial statement disclosures.

In March 2016, the FASB issued a new standard that simplifies the accounting for employee share-based payment transactions. The new standard impacts the accounting for related income taxes, forfeitures and statutory tax withholding requirements as well as the classification of certain related payments in the statement of cash flows. The new accounting guidance is effective for the Company in the first quarter of 2017 with early adoption permitted. The Company is evaluating the effect of the new guidance on the Company's consolidated financial statements and financial statement disclosures.

The Company has selected the Eurocurrency rate as of March 31, 2016 resulting in an interest rate currently at 5.00%.

The term loan provides for interest payments no less than quarterly. In addition, quarterly principal payments of $0.8 million are required. The balance of the loan is due at maturity on June 6, 2019. The Company must prepay, generally within three months after year end, 50% or 25% of excess cash flow, as defined. The percent of excess cash flow required is dependent on the Company's leverage ratio. There was no excess cash flow payment due for the year ended December 31, 2015. The Company must also make prepayments on loans in the case of certain events such as large asset sales.

In conjunction therewith, the Company agreed to an increase in the interest rate margin of 0.25% and modification to the prepayment requirement of up to 75% of excess cash flow. The interest rate margin is subject to a further increase of 0.25% for a decline in the debt rating, as defined.

The Company also has a revolving credit facility which matures on December 6, 2018. The facility has an available balance of $30.0 million with no amounts drawn as of or for the periods ended March 31, 2016 and 2015. A commitment fee is payable quarterly to the lender under the facility. Interest on amounts outstanding is based on, at the Company's option, the bank prime rate plus a margin of 3.0% to 6.0% or the Eurocurrency rate for one, two, three or six month periods plus a margin of 4.0% to 5.5%. The margin is dependent on the Company's leverage, as defined in the agreement, at the time of the borrowing.

Year ended December 31,

During the three months ended March 31, 2015, the Company's pension plan for union employees paid lump-sum benefits to plan participants in full settlement of obligations due amounting to $6.0 million. During the three months ended March 31, 2015, the Company's pension plan for management employees paid lump sum benefits in full settlement amounting to $0.6 million. This resulted in the recognition of a loss on settlement for both pension plans amounting to $0.9 million for the three months ended March 31, 2015. Because of the settlements, the Company measured its union and management pension plan obligations and plan assets as of March 31, 2015. The Company used a discount rate of 3.54% as of March 31, 2015 to measure the union pension plan obligations. The Company used a discount rate of 3.57% to measure the management plan obligations as of March 31, 2015. The new measurements resulted in a retirement plan loss which was charged to other comprehensive loss of $2.2 million for the three months ended March 31, 2015. For the three months ended March 31, 2016, lump sum benefits paid did not exceed the threshold requiring settlement accounting.

The Company previously disclosed in its consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2015 that it expected to contribute $9.3 million to its pension plan in 2016. As of March 31, 2016, the Company has contributed $1.9 million. The Company presently expects to contribute the full amount during the remainder of 2016.

8. Income Taxes

9. Stock Compensation

The Company has an equity incentive plan. The Compensation Committee of the Company's Board of Directors may grant awards under the plan in the form of incentive stock options, non-qualified stock options, stock appreciation rights, restricted stock, restricted stock units and other stock-based awards. The maximum number of shares issuable under the equity incentive plan is 1,400,000 shares with 632,000 shares remaining to be issued at March 31, 2016. All grants under the equity incentive plan will be issued to acquire shares at the fair value on date of grant.

Table of Contents

As of March 31, 2016, all awards were restricted stock units. Activity with respect to outstanding restricted stock units for the three months ended March 31, 2016 and 2015 was as follows:

The Company recognized compensation expense of $0.6 million and $0.4 million for the three months ended March 31, 2016 and 2015, respectively. The fair value as of the vesting date for the restricted stock units that vested during the three months ended March 31, 2016 and 2015 was $0.9 million and $2.5 million, respectively. Upon vesting, unit holders have the option to net share-settle to cover the required withholding tax and the remaining amount is converted into an equivalent number of shares of common stock. The total shares withheld were 15,234 and 35,714 for the three months ended March 31, 2016 and 2015, respectively, and were based on the value of the restricted stock units as determined by the Company's closing stock price on the date of vesting. Total payments for the employees' tax obligations to the tax authorities amounted to $0.4 million and $0.9 million for the three months ended March 31, 2016 and 2015, respectively. Other than reimbursements for tax withholdings, there was no cash received under all share-based arrangements.

The Company also has a performance based compensation plan. The incentive compensation is settled in March of each year for the prior year services and is based on Company performance relative to certain metrics. The Company recognizes the expense during the performance period based on the expected compensation amount. The compensation for the performance period ended December 31, 2015 was settled in cash in March 2016. Beginning for the 2016 performance period, a specified portion of the compensation amount for certain employees will be settled in Company shares based on the share price at the date of settlement. Upon settlement, employees may have the option to net share-settle to cover the required withholding tax and the remaining amount is converted into an equivalent number of shares of common stock. The estimated performance based compensation to be settled in stock amounted to $0.2 million for the three months ended March 31, 2016.

11. Commitments and Contingencies

Trans-Pacific Submarine Cable

In August 2014, the Company joined several other telecommunication companies to build and operate a trans-Pacific submarine cable system. The total system cost is expected to be $235 million and is primarily composed of a supply contract with the lead contractor. The Company will contribute $25 million over the multi-year construction period in exchange for a fractional ownership in the system. The Company will recognize its fractional share of the cost. In addition, the Company will construct a cable landing station in Hawaii and provide cable landing services. The system is expected to be completed in the first half of 2017. As of March 31, 2016, the Company had incurred costs of $6.3 million primarily to the cable contractor for construction with all such costs capitalized to telephone plant under construction.

The Company will have excess capacity on its share of the trans-Pacific cable that it will make available to other carriers for a fee. The Company is in the process of contracting with other carriers for long-term indefeasible right of use, or IRU, agreements for fiber circuit capacity. The Company may receive up-front payments for services to be delivered over a period of up to 25 years. The Company has entered into agreements for the sale of capacity for $27.0 million plus fees to activate assigned capacity, and for operations and maintenance. As of March 31, 2016, the Company had received up-front payments of $5.7 million. As provided for in one of the agreements, funds of $3.5 million were held in escrow. The funds in escrow will be released to the Company when the trans-Pacific cable is ready for service. The restricted cash is reflected in other assets in the condensed consolidated balance sheet. A liability to provide services in the future for all up-front payments is included in other liabilities. The Company will recognize revenue for the circuit, beginning upon activation of the services, on a straight-line basis over the contract term which is generally up to 25 years.

Connect America Fund Phase II

In conjunction with reforming the Universal Service Fund, the Federal Communications Commission (“FCC”) established the Connect America Fund (“CAF”) which provides incremental support to broadband service providers. CAF Phase II is the long-term component of the program. In August 2015, the Company notified the FCC that it was accepting CAF Phase II support which amounts to $4.4 million in annual funding. Support is retroactive through the beginning of 2015, net of certain other receipts from the Universal Service Fund, and will continue for six years. Under the terms of the CAF Phase II, the Company will offer broadband service at 10 Mbps downstream and 1 Mbps upstream or better to approximately 11,000 eligible locations in high-cost areas in the State of Hawaii and will provide voice and broadband services at reasonable rates.

For the three months ended March 31, 2016, the Company recognized $1.1 million in CAF Phase II funding as revenue.

Collective Bargaining Agreement

The Company has a collective bargaining agreement with the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Local 1357 (“IBEW”) that expires on December 31, 2017. The agreement covers approximately half of the Company’s work force.

Third Party Claims

In the normal course of conducting its business, the Company is involved in various disputes with third parties, including vendors and customers. The outcome of such disputes is generally uncertain and subject to commercial negotiations. The Company periodically assesses its liabilities in connection with these matters and records reserves for those matters where it is probable that a loss has been incurred and the loss can be reasonably estimated. Based on management’s most recent assessment, the Company believes that the risk of loss in excess of liabilities recorded is not material for all outstanding claims and disputes and the ultimate outcome of such matters will not have a material adverse effect on the Company’s results of operations, cash flows or financial position.

Litigation

The Company is involved in litigation arising in the normal course of business. The outcome of litigation is not expected to have a material adverse impact on the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements.

12. Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The following method and assumptions were used to estimate the fair value of each class of financial instruments for which it is practical to estimate the fair value.

Cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable and accounts payable – The carrying amount approximates fair value. The valuation is based on settlements of similar financial instruments all of which are short-term in nature and generally settled at or near cost. Cash and cash equivalents is measured at Level 1.

Debt – The fair value of debt is based on the value at which the debt is trading among holders.

Table of Contents

The estimated fair value of financial instruments is as follows (dollars in thousands):

	Carrying Value	Fair Value
March 31, 2016
Liabilities - long-term debt (carried at cost)	285,775	290,378
December 31, 2015
Liabilities - long-term debt (carried at cost)	286,046	291,306

Fair Value Measurements

Fair value for accounting purposes is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date (exit price).

Accounting standards establish a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurement) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurement).

Liabilities carried at amortized cost with fair value disclosure on a recurring basis represent long-term debt. A summary is as follows (dollars in thousands):

	March 31, 2016	December 31, 2015
Liability value measurements using:
Quoted prices in active markets for identical liabilities (Level 1)	$ —	$ —
Significant other observable inputs (Level 2)	290,378	291,306
Significant unobservable inputs (Level 3)	—	—
	$ 290,378	$ 291,306

13. Segment Information

The Company operates in two reportable segments of telecommunications and data center colocation. This conclusion is based on how resources are allocated and performance is assessed by the Chief Executive Officer, the Company's chief operating decision maker. The telecommunications segment provides local voice services, video, high-speed internet and long distance voice services. In addition, the segment provides network access which includes data transport. Various related telephony services are provided including equipment and managed services. The data center colocation segment provides physical colocation, virtual colocation and various related telephony services.

Table of Contents

The following table provides operating financial information for the Company's reportable segments for the three months ended March 31, 2016 and 2015 (dollars in thousands):

Background

In the following discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations, unless the context otherwise requires, “we,” “us” or the “Company” refers, collectively, to Hawaiian Telcom Holdco, Inc. and its subsidiaries.

Segments and Sources of Revenue

We operate in two reportable segments (telecommunication and data center colocation) based on how resources are allocated and performance is assessed by our chief operating decision maker. Our chief operating decision maker is our Chief Executive Officer.

Telecommunications

The telecommunication segment derives revenue from the following sources:

Business data which includes data products such as Ethernet and Dedicated Internet Access along with traditional High-Speed Internet (“HSI”) for business customers, and VoIP. Business VoIP, also referred to as BVoIP, is a unified hosted communications solution for business that includes digital voice services bundled with internet service.

Voice services for both business and residential customers includes local telephone service. These revenues include monthly charges for basic service, local private line services and enhanced calling features such as voice mail, caller ID and 3 way calling. Voice also includes long distance services and subscriber line charges imposed on voice customers.

Equipment and managed services includes installation and maintenance of customer premise equipment as well as managed service for customer telephone and IT networks.

High Speed Internet services are provided to residential customers as well.

Video services are marketed as Hawaiian Telcom TV which includes digital television as well as advanced entertainment services.

Wholesale revenue represents wholesale carrier data services.

We receive revenue from various other sources such as wireless services which includes the sale of wireless handsets and other wireless accessories, and switched carrier access which compensates us for origination, transport and termination of calls for long distance and other interexchange carriers. Also included in other revenue is government subsidies generally to provide service in rural or isolated areas.

Data Center Colocation

The data center colocation segment provides physical colocation, virtual colocation and various related telephony services. We consider data center colocation as part of our business channel.

Results of Operations for the Three Months Ended March 31, 2016 and 2015

Operating Revenues

The following tables summarize our volume information (lines or subscribers) as of March 31, 2016 and 2015, and our operating revenues for the three months ended March 31, 2016 and 2015. For comparability, we also present volume information as of March 31, 2016 compared to December 31, 2015.

Table of Contents

Volume information includes certain information by lines. The line counts represent the number of billed units as of the end of the period as reflected in the records of our primary billing system. The separation of units by the business and consumer channel is based on the customer account designation in the billing system which is generally consistent with how revenue information is separated by channel. Business data lines represent digital subscriber lines used to provide internet services. Video service subscribers are determined with a count of individual customers as reflected in our primary billing system as of period end. For bulk contracts for multi dwelling units, we count individual residences subject to the bulk contract. Video homes enabled is estimated based on a count of single family homes and homes in multi dwelling units that are able to obtain our television service as of the period end.

Beginning December 2015, we enhanced the presentation of volume information and operating revenue to provide more meaningful information. Prior period information has been revised to reflect the current presentation. Total revenue has not changed from that previously reported but the classification by channel has been modified and we now present product information by channel as well.

Business data, including internet and VoIP revenue, for the three months ended March 31, 2016 increased when compared to three months ended March 31, 2015 because of revenue from one new institutional customer amounting to $1.6 million including certain one-time charges. The customer has a contract for Dedicated Internet Access which can be terminated any time after June 30, 2016. In addition, we recognized the remaining balance of deferred up-front charges of $0.8 million when another institutional customer terminated the related services. In general, the demand for data services continues to rise as reflected in the growth in data lines and BVoIP lines.

The decrease in voice services revenues for both the business and consumer channel for the three months ended March 31, 2016 compared to the three months ended March 31, 2015 was caused primarily by the decline of voice access lines. Business voice access lines decreased 4.2% during the period which contributed an estimated $1.0 million to the reduction in business voice services revenue for the first quarter of 2016 compared to the first quarter of 2015. The balance of the revenue decline is related to the types of voice services delivered and competitive pricing. Consumer voice access lines decreased 10.7% during the period which contributed an estimated $2.2 million to the decline in consumer voice services revenue for the first quarter of 2016 compared to the first quarter of 2015. This was offset in part by pricing and other supplemental consumer voice services.

Continued competition in the telecommunications industry has increasingly resulted in customers using technologies other than traditional phone lines for voice and data. Residential customers are increasingly using wireless services in place of traditional wireline phone service as well as moving local voice service to VoIP technology offered by competitors. Generally, VoIP technology offered by cable providers is less expensive than traditional wireline phone service, requiring us to respond with more competitive pricing. Additionally, Competitive Local Exchange Carriers (CLECs) and our cable competitor continue to focus on business customers and selling services to our customer base.

In an effort to slow the rate of line loss, we are continuing retention and acquisition programs, and are increasingly focusing efforts on bundling of services. We have instituted various “saves” campaigns designed to focus on specific circumstances where we believe customer churn is controllable. These campaigns include targeted offers to “at risk” customers as well as other promotional tools designed to enhance customer retention. We also emphasize win back and employee referral programs. Additionally, we are intensifying our efforts relative to developing tools and training to enhance our customer service capability to improve customer retention and growth.

Table of Contents

Data center services revenues for the three months ended March 31, 2016 increased when compared to the same period in the prior year as a result of increased virtual colocation services. Data center colocation is deemed a separate business segment. However, we consider this part of our business channel.

Equipment and managed services revenue for the three months ended March 31, 2016 was comparable to the same quarter of the prior year. Revenue from equipment sales varies from period to period based on the volume of large installation projects.

We are continuing the roll out of Hawaiian Telcom TV on Oahu as we expand the number of homes enabled. Our volume is increasing as more homes become enabled for video service.

Residential internet revenues for the quarter ended March 31, 2016 decreased when compared to the quarter ended March 31, 2015 as a result of competitive pricing. Consumer internet lines did not change significantly between March 31, 2016 and March 31, 2015.

Wholesale carrier revenue decreased in the first quarter of 2016 compared to the first quarter of 2015 as certain carriers have replaced older legacy circuits with more cost effective alternatives.

Other revenue was impacted by government subsidies from the Universal Service Fund which increased for the three months ended March 31, 2016 compared to the same period in the prior year. In conjunction with reforming the Universal Service Fund, the Federal Communications Commission (“FCC”) established the Connect America Fund (“CAF”) which provides incremental support to broadband service providers. CAF Phase II is the long-term component of the program. In August 2015, we notified the FCC that we are accepting CAF Phase II support which amounts to $4.4 million in annual funding. Under the terms of the CAF Phase II, we will offer broadband service at 10 Mbps downstream and 1 Mbps upstream or better to approximately 11,000 eligible locations in high-cost areas in the State of Hawaii and will provide voice and broadband services at reasonable rates. For the three months ended March 31, 2016, we recognized $1.1 million in CAF Phase II subsidies as revenue.

Other revenues increased for the three months ended March 31, 2016 compared to the three months ended March 31, 2015. Offsetting the increase in government subsidies as discussed above, were decreases in certain other ancillary services revenue. There has been a reduction in marketing effort on certain ancillary products, such as wireless, as we focus on other telecommunication and data center services.

Operating Costs and Expenses

The following tables summarize our costs and expenses for all segments and by segments for the three months ended March 31, 2016 compared to the costs and expenses for the three months ended March 31, 2015 (dollars in thousands):

	Three Months Ended		Change Amount	Percentage

Cost of revenues (exclusive of depreciation and amortization)	$ 42,479	$ 40,183	$ 2,296	5.7	%
Selling, general and administrative expenses	29,865	29,732	133	0.4	%
Depreciation and amortization	21,950	21,280	670	3.1	%
	$ 94,294	$ 91,195	$ 3,099	3.4	%

Data center colocation	$ 3,168	$ 2,924	$ 244	8.3	%
Telecommunications	91,126	88,271	2,855	3.2	%
	$ 94,294	$ 91,195	$ 3,099	3.4	%

The increase in operating costs and expenses for the data center colocation segment for the three months ended March 31, 2016 compared to the same period in the prior year is because of greater costs for leased circuits and other direct cost of services of $0.2 million with increased service volumes.

Table of Contents

The cause of the increase in operating costs and expenses for the telecommunications segment of $2.9 million for the three months ended March 31, 2016 compared to the same period in 2015 are the same as those below explaining changes in costs and expenses for all segments.

The Company's total headcount as of March 31, 2016 was 1,318 compared to 1,336 as of March 31, 2015. Employee related costs are included in both cost of revenues and selling, general and administrative expenses.

Cost of revenues consists of costs we incur to provide our products and services including those for operating and maintaining our networks, installing and maintaining customer premise equipment, and cost of services sold directly associated with various products. Costs of revenue for the three months ended March 31, 2016 increased when compared to the prior year period because of increased content costs for Hawaiian Telcom TV of $1.8 million as we add subscribers. In addition, costs incurred for system repairs related to unusually heavy rains amounted to $0.7 million in the first quarter of 2016. This was offset by lower electricity costs of $0.6 million on reduced utility rates and energy saving initiatives.

Selling, general and administrative expenses include costs related to sales and marketing, information systems and other administrative functions. The increase for the three months ended March 31, 2016 relative to the three months ended March 31, 2015 is primarily because of higher wage related costs, such as for stock compensation, incurred in the first quarter of 2016 amounting to $0.7 million. This was offset by the pension settlement loss of $0.9 million recognized in the first quarter of 2015.

Depreciation and amortization for the three month period ended March 31, 2016 was higher than the same period in the prior year because of asset additions to support growth in the business for next-generation services such as video, and higher speed internet and data.

Other Income and (Expense)

The following tables summarize other income (expense) for the three months ended March 31, 2016 and 2015 (dollars in thousands).

	Three Months Ended		Change
	March 31, 2016	2015	Amount	Percentage
Interest expense	$ (4,240)	$ (4,337)	$ 97	(2.2)	%
Interest income and other	—	7	(7)	(100.0)	%
	$ (4,240)	$ (4,330)	$ 90	(2.1)	%

Interest expense was comparable for the three month periods ended March 31, 2016 and 2015. Interest capitalized amounted to $0.3 million for both the three months ended March 31, 2016 and 2015.

Income Tax Provision

We had effective tax rates of 40.8% and 38.6% for the three months ended March 31, 2016 and 2015, respectively. The effective tax rates increased for the year-to-date period as permanent differences between financial reporting and income tax income, primarily related to tax basis differences, increased relative to pretax income. We consider a variety of factors in determining the effective tax rate, including our forecasted full-year pretax results, the U.S. federal statutory rate, expected nondeductible expenses and estimated state taxes.

As of December 31, 2015, net operating losses available for carry forward through 2035 amounted to $136.2 million for federal tax purposes and $143.7 million for state tax purposes. Availability of net operating losses in future periods may be subject to additional limitations if there is a deemed change in control for income tax reporting purposes. Such change in control is determined for income tax reporting purposes based on cumulative changes in stock ownership over a defined period.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

As of March 31, 2016, we had cash of $20.9 million. From an ongoing operating perspective, our cash requirements in 2016 consist of supporting the development and introduction of new products, capital expenditure projects, pension funding obligations and other changes in working capital. A combination of cash-on-hand and cash generated from operating activities will be used to fund our cash requirements.

We continue to focus on improving operating results, including efforts to simplify product offerings, improve our customer service experience and increase our revenue enhancement activities. There can be no assurance that these actions will result in improved overall cash flow. We continue to have sizable retirement obligations for our existing employee base. Any sustained declines in the value of pension trust assets or relatively high levels of pension lump sum benefit payments, such as those paid in 2015, will increase the magnitude of future plan contributions.

Agreements with the Hawaii Public Utilities Commission and the debt agreements of Hawaiian Telcom Communications, Inc. limit the ability of our subsidiaries to pay dividends to the parent company and restrict the net assets of all of our subsidiaries. This can limit our ability to pay dividends to our shareholders. As the parent company has no operations, debt or other obligations, this restriction has no other immediate impact on our operations.

Cash Flows for Three Months Ended March 31, 2016 and 2015

Our primary source of funds continues to be cash generated from operations. We use the net cash generated from operations to fund network expansion and modernization. We expect that our capital spending requirements will continue to be financed through internally generated funds. We also expect to use cash generated in future periods for debt service. Additional debt or equity financing may be needed to fund additional development activities or to maintain our capital structure to ensure financial flexibility.

Net cash provided by operations amounted to $20.9 million for the three months ended March 31, 2016. Net cash provided by operations amounted to $18.9 million for the three months ended March 31, 2015. The increase in cash provided by operations was because of working capital demands during the three months ended March 31, 2015. The net use of cash from working capital changes amounted to $4.6 million for the first quarter of 2015 and was primarily related to additional payments to vendors and employees for operating uses in 2015.

Cash used in investing activities for the three months ended March 31, 2016 was comprised of capital expenditures of $28.1 million. Cash used in investing activities included capital expenditures of $29.2 million for the three months ended March 31, 2015. The level of capital expenditures for 2016 is expected to be in the high-$90 million range as we invest in systems to support new product introductions and transform our network to enable next-generation technologies.

Cash used in financing activities for the three months ended March 31, 2016 and 2015 was related primarily to the repayment of our debt and satisfaction of other obligations.

Outstanding Debt and Financing Arrangements

As of March 31, 2016, we had outstanding $292.4 million in aggregate long-term debt with a maturity date of June 2019. We do not expect to generate the necessary cash flow from operations to repay the facility in its entirety by the maturity date and repayment is dependent on our ability to refinance the credit facility at reasonable terms. The ability to refinance the indebtedness at reasonable terms before maturity cannot be assured.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

The preparation of condensed consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect amounts reported in the consolidated financial statements. Changes in these estimates and assumptions are considered reasonably possible and may have a material effect on the condensed consolidated financial statements and thus actual results could differ from the amounts reported and disclosed herein. The Company's critical accounting policies that require the use of estimates and assumptions were discussed in detail in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015, and have not changed materially from that discussion.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

As of March 31, 2016, our floating rate obligations consisted of $292.4 million of debt outstanding under our term loan facility. Accordingly, our earnings and cash flow are affected by changes in interest rates. Based on our borrowings at March 31, 2016 and assuming a 1.0 percentage point increase or decrease in the average interest rate under these borrowings, we estimate that our annual interest expense would increase or decrease by approximately $2.9 million.
