Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

On September 30, we entered into three loan transaction with “accredited investors”, two of our board members and shareholders, Murali Ranganathan and Todd Hackett.

Mr. Hackett financed a Convertible Promissory Note, payable with interest at 8% per annum in the amount of $150,000, convertible into shares of common stock of the Company at a price of $0.04 per share, which represents a 50% discount from the market price as of the date of the note. The note is due thirty six months from the date of the note in cash, on or before September 30, 2016.

Mr. Hackett financed a short term Promissory Note in the amount of $260,000, payable with interest at 10% per annum, in cash on or before November 29, 2013. The funds provided will be used solely for payments of accounts payable as prioritized by the Board of Directors. Promissory Note is secured by license agreement between PCS Edventures!.com and Creya Learning, originally entered into in 2011, with respect to curriculum access and in-country usage in private educational facilities, together with support and training on an asset needed basis.

Mr. Ranganathan financed a Convertible Promissory Note, payable with interest at 8% per annum in the amount of $25,000, convertible into shares of common stock of the Company at a price of $0.04 per share, which represents a 50% discount from the market price as of the date of the note. The note is due thirty six months from the date of the note in cash, on or before September 30, 2016.

These securities were offered and sold pursuant to an exemption from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), pursuant Section 4(2) thereof.
