Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Stock and Asset Purchase Agreement

On April 22, 2014, Eli Lilly and Company, an Indiana Corporation (“Lilly”), entered into a Stock and Asset Purchase Agreement (the “Purchase Agreement”) with Novartis AG, a company incorporated under the laws of Switzerland (“Novartis”). Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, following the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions, Lilly will purchase the animal health business of Novartis (the “Business”), including all of the shares or other equity interests of certain Novartis subsidiaries and all of the assets of other Novartis subsidiaries that are exclusively related to the Business, for a cash purchase price of $5.35 billion, subject to working capital and other adjustments (the “Transaction”).

The Purchase Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants of Lilly and Novartis, including, among other things, covenants by Novartis to conduct the Business in the ordinary course during the period between the execution of the Purchase Agreement and the closing of the Transaction. In addition, the Purchase Agreement contains customary indemnification provisions and termination rights for both Lilly and Novartis.

The parties' obligations to consummate the Transaction, which is expected to close in early 2015, is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions, including, among other things, (i) the expiration or termination of applicable waiting periods under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and the receipt of other required governmental approvals or consents under applicable non-U.S. antitrust or competition laws or regulations and (ii) no material adverse effect on the Business having occurred since the date of the Purchase Agreement. The Transaction does not require the approval of Lilly shareholders and it is not subject to a financing condition.

Under the terms of the Purchase Agreement, at the closing of the Transaction, Novartis and Lilly will enter into certain ancillary agreements, including a Manufacturing and Supply Agreement, a Transition Services Agreement and a Technology License Agreement.

There is no material relationship between Lilly and Novartis other than in respect of the Purchase Agreement.
