EXPLANATORY NOTE

U.S. Cellular originally filed a Current Report on Form 8-K, dated January 21, 2015, to report that it had entered into a Term Loan Credit Agreement. Pursuant to the requirements of Item 2.03 of Form 8-K, this amendment to such original Form 8-K is being filed to report that, on July 20, 2015, U.S. Cellular borrowed the entire amount of the term loan credit facility of $225 million under the Term Loan Credit Agreement, to be used for general corporate purposes. Except for the foregoing, no other changes have been made to the original Form 8-K by this amendment.

Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 21, 2015, United States Cellular Corporation (“U.S. Cellular” or the “Company”) entered into a $225,000,000 Credit Agreement by and among U.S. Cellular as Borrower, CoBank, ACB as Administrative Agent, and the other lenders party thereto and identified therein (“Term Loan Credit Agreement”).

The Term Loan Credit Agreement provides U.S. Cellular with a $225 million senior term loan credit facility for general corporate purposes, including working capital, spectrum purchases and capital expenditures.

Borrowings under the Term Loan Credit Agreement bear interest, at U.S. Cellular’s option, either at a LIBOR rate or at an alternative base rate, plus an applicable margin. U.S. Cellular’s interest costs under the Term Loan Credit Agreement are based on credit ratings from Standard & Poor’s Rating Services, Moody’s Investor Services or Fitch Ratings. If U.S. Cellular’s credit ratings were lowered, the credit facility would not cease to be available solely as a result of a decline in its credit ratings.

The two financial covenants described below are included in the Term Loan Credit Agreement:

1. Consolidated Interest Coverage Ratio (the ratio of Consolidated EBITDA to Consolidated Interest Charges) may not be less than 3.00 to 1 as of the end of any fiscal quarter.

2. Consolidated Leverage Ratio (the ratio of Consolidated Funded Indebtedness to Consolidated EBITDA) may not be greater than the ratios indicated for each period specified below:

	Period		Ratios
	Through December 31, 2015		3.75 to 1.00
	From January 1, 2016 through June 30, 2016		3.50 to 1.00
	From July 1, 2016 through December 31, 2016		3.25 to 1.00
	From January 1, 2017 and thereafter		3.00 to 1.00

The term loan under the Term Loan Credit Agreement will be unsecured except for a lien on all equity which U.S. Cellular may have in the loan administrative agent, CoBank ACB, subject to certain limitations.

The Term Loan Credit Agreement provides, among other things, that U.S. Cellular may not, and may not cause or permit any of its subsidiaries to sell, or incur or permit to exist any liens on, any property or assets now owned or hereafter acquired by U.S. Cellular or by any such subsidiary, make investments, effect mergers or other fundamental changes, make dividends, distributions or other restricted payments, or enter into transactions with affiliates, other than as expressly excepted in the Term Loan Credit Agreement.

The Term Loan Credit Agreement includes representations and warranties, covenants, events of default and other terms and conditions that are substantially similar to U.S. Cellular's existing revolving credit agreement.

A Change in Control, as such term is defined in the Term Loan Credit Agreement, of TDS or U.S. Cellular would constitute a default and would require all borrowings outstanding under the Term Loan Credit Agreement to be repaid.

The continued availability of the Term Loan Credit Agreement requires U.S. Cellular to comply with certain negative and affirmative covenants, maintain the above financial ratios and provide representations on certain matters at the time of each borrowing.

The Term Loan Credit Agreement permits U.S. Cellular to make one or more borrowings aggregating up to $225,000,000 from the agreement date through the six month anniversary of the agreement date, or July 21, 2015. On July 20, 2015, U.S. Cellular borrowed the entire amount of the term loan credit facility of $225 million under the Term Loan Credit Agreement, to be used for general corporate purposes.

Amounts borrowed under the Term Loan Credit Agreement will be due and payable in quarterly installments of $2,812,500 beginning on March 31, 2016 through December 31, 2021, and the remaining unpaid balance will be due and payable in full on the seventh anniversary of the agreement date, or January 21, 2022.

The foregoing brief description is qualified by reference to the copy of the Term Loan Credit Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 4.1, which is incorporated herein by reference, and which identifies all the lenders thereto.

Some of the lenders and/or agent under the Term Loan Credit Agreement and/or their affiliates may have various relationships with U.S. Cellular's parent, Telephone and Data Systems, Inc. ("TDS"), U.S. Cellular and their subsidiaries involving banking or other financial services, including checking, cash management, brokerage, lending, investment banking, depository, indenture trustee and/or other services, including serving as a lender under the TDS and/or U.S. Cellular revolving credit agreements.

In connection with the Term Loan Credit Agreement, U.S. Cellular and TDS entered into a Subordination Agreement dated January 21, 2015 together with CoBank, ACB, as Administrative Agent. Pursuant to this Subordination Agreement, (a) any consolidated funded indebtedness from U.S. Cellular to TDS will be unsecured and (b) any (i) consolidated funded indebtedness (other than Refinancing Indebtedness as defined in the Subordination Agreement) in excess of $105,000,000, and (ii) Refinancing Indebtedness in excess of $250,000,000, will be subordinated and made junior in right payment to the prior payment in full of obligations to the lenders under the Term Loan Credit Agreement. As of the date of this Form 8-K, there is no outstanding funded indebtedness of U.S. Cellular that is subordinated pursuant to the Subordination Agreement. The form of the Subordination Agreement is attached as an exhibit to the Term Loan Credit Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 4.1.
