No member of the Group has purchased any shares of Common Stock since the filing of the Original Schedule 13D.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

The Group's purpose in acquiring shares of Common Stock was to profit from their appreciation through the assertion of shareholder rights. The Group believed the value of Issuer's assets was not adequately reflected in the Common Stock's market price.

On May 1, 2006, Issuer announced that it had entered into a definitive agreement to be acquired by The Banc Corporation. Members of the Group are filing this Eighth Amendment to report, as further discussed below, that, having accomplished its purpose, the Group is continuing the process of selling all or a portion of its holdings of shares of Common Stock, and now holds less than 5 percent of the outstanding Common Stock.

As we reported in our previous filings, before the Issuer announced its sale, members of the Group believed that Issuer's management made good progress in resolving Issuer's regulatory issues, lawsuits, problem loans, and non-performing assets. However, members of the Group believed that Issuer's return on equity was substantially below average, and, were it to remain independent, its return on equity would likely remain below average for the foreseeable future. Members of the Group previously disclosed their belief that Issuer should be sold and, if Issuer did not announce a sale, that the Group intended to solicit proxies to elect its slate of directors at the 2006 annual meeting.

On December 2, 2005, the Group wrote to Issuer demanding that Issuer confirm whether it interprets its bylaws to prohibit shareholders from nominating an alternate slate of directors and, if so, stating that the Group would sue Issuer to nullify Issuer's bylaws to enable the Group to nominate an alternate slate. Issuer confirmed to the Group that Issuer would permit shareholders to nominate alternate slates at the annual meeting and would recognize such nominations. On January 6, 2006, the Group informed Issuer of the names of the three people it planned to nominate for election as directors at Issuer's 2006 annual meeting, to wit: Spencer L. Schneider, Esq., Joseph D. Stilwell and Charles E. Ward, III.

On February 9, 2006, Issuer announced it had expanded its board to twelve seats and added two new directors. On February 10, 2006, the Group demanded Issuer's shareholders list. On February 24, 2006, the Group wrote to Issuer's shareholders disclosing its belief that Issuer should be sold and on March 8, 2006, the Group filed its preliminary proxy materials with the SEC in order to solicit proxies to elect its slate at the 2006 annual meeting. On May 1, 2006, Issuer announced that it had agreed to be sold to The Banc Corporation. Having achieved its objective, the Group will not pursue its proxy solicitation and is in the process of selling all or a portion of its holdings of shares of Common Stock. As a result of such sales, the Group now holds less than 5 percent of the outstanding Common Stock.

On May 1, 2000, certain members or affiliates of the Group (the Stilwell SPN Group ) filed a Schedule 13D in connection with the common stock of Security of Pennsylvania Financial Corp. ( SPN ). Thereafter, the Stilwell SPN Group communicated with management of SPN and scheduled a meeting with senior management in order to discuss maximizing the short and long-term value of SPN 's assets. On June 2, 2000, prior to the scheduled meeting, SPN and Northeast Pennsylvania Financial Corp. announced the signing of a definitive agreement under which Northeast Pennsylvania Financial Corp. agreed to acquire SPN, and the Stilwell SPN Group disposed of its shares of SPN on the open market.

On July 7, 2000, certain members or affiliates of the Group (the Stilwell CMRN Group ) filed a Schedule 13D in connection with the common stock of Cameron Financial Corporation ( Cameron ). Thereafter, the Stilwell CMRN Group exercised its shareholder rights by, among other things, requesting that Cameron management hire an investment banker, demanding Cameron 's list of shareholders, meeting with Cameron 's management, demanding that Cameron invite the Stilwell CMRN Group 's representatives to join the board of directors, writing to other Cameron shareholders to express their dismay with management 's inability to maximize shareholder value, and publishing that letter in the local press. On October 6, 2000, Cameron announced that it had entered into an agreement to be acquired by Dickinson Financial Corp. and the Stilwell CMRN Group disposed of its shares of Cameron on the open market.

On January 4, 2001, certain members or affiliates of the Group (the Stilwell CFIC Group ) filed a Schedule 13D in connection with the common stock of Community Financial Corp. ( CFIC ). The Stilwell CFIC Group reported that it acquired the stock of CFIC for investment purposes after CFIC announced the sale of two of its four subsidiary banks and its intention to sell one or more of its remaining subsidiaries. On January 25, 2001, CFIC announced the sale of one of its remaining subsidiaries. The Stilwell CFIC Group then announced its intention to run an alternate slate of directors at the 2001 annual meeting if CFIC did not sell the remaining subsidiary by then. On March 27, 2001, members of the Stilwell CFIC Group wrote to CFIC confirming that CFIC had agreed to meet with one of the Stilwell CFIC Group 's proposed nominees to the board of directors. On March 30, 2001, before the meeting took place, CFIC announced that it had agreed to be merged with First Financial Corporation. The Stilwell CFIC Group, having accomplished its purpose of maximizing shareholder value, announced that it would not seek board representation or solicit proxies for use at the annual meeting.

On February 23, 2001, certain members or affiliates of the Group (the Stilwell MONT Group) filed a Schedule 13D in connection with the common stock of Montgomery Financial Corporation (Montgomery). In its Schedule 13D, the Stilwell MONT Group stated that it acquired the stock of Montgomery for investment purposes and that it believed the value of Montgomery's assets exceeded its current market price. On April 20, 2001, members of the Stilwell MONT Group met with Montgomery's management, suggested to management that it should maximize shareholder value by selling the institution, and notified management that it would run an alternate slate of directors at the 2001 annual meeting unless Montgomery entered into a transaction. Eleven days after the Schedule 13D was filed, Montgomery's board of directors amended its bylaws to require that nominees to its board must: (a) reside locally, (b) have a loan or deposit relationship with Montgomery's subsidiary bank for at least twelve months prior to nomination, (c) have served as a member of a local civic or community organization for at least twelve months during the five years prior to nomination to the board, and (d) own 100 shares of Montgomery's stock. Additionally, the amended bylaws shortened the time for shareholders to notice their intention to nominate alternate directors at the 2001 annual meeting. On June 5, 2001, Montgomery announced that it had hired an investment banking firm, to help evaluate available alternatives to improve financial performance and maximize shareholder value. . . . [including] a potential acquisition or merger. On June 13, 2001, the Stilwell MONT Group timely noticed its intention to nominate to Montgomery's board two persons who qualified under the amended bylaws. On July 24, 2001, Montgomery announced that it had signed a definitive agreement with Union Community Bancorp (Union) providing for the merger of Montgomery into Union.

On June 14, 2001, certain members or affiliates of the Group (the Stilwell HCBB Group) filed a Schedule 13D in connection with the common stock of HCB Bancshares, Inc. (HCBB). On or about September 4, 2001, the Stilwell HCBB Group reported that it had entered into a standstill agreement with HCBB whereby, among other things, HCBB would appoint a director selected by the Stilwell HCBB Group. HCBB also agreed to consider conducting a Dutch tender auction. Additionally, HCBB agreed to adopt annual financial targets. HCBB also agreed that if it did not achieve the financial targets, it would retain an investment banking firm to help it to explore available alternatives to maximizing shareholder value. On October 22, 2001, the Stilwell HCBB Group reported that HCBB had named its nominee, John G. Rich, Esq., as a director. On January 31, 2002, HCBB announced a modified Dutch tender auction to repurchase 20% of its shares. After entering into the standstill agreement, HCBB announced and completed a number of 5% share repurchase programs, and, between the filing of the Stilwell HCBB Group's Schedule 13D and up until August 31, 2003, HCBB's outstanding share count decreased by 33%. HCBB did not achieve the financial target enumerated in the standstill agreement for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2003. Pursuant to the terms of the standstill agreement, on August 12, 2003, HCBB announced that it retained Gerrish & McCreary PC (a regional investment banking firm) to assist HCBB in exploring available alternatives for maximizing shareholder value, including a sale of HCBB. On January 14, 2004, HCBB announced that it had agreed to be acquired by Rock Bancshares Inc. and, having accomplished its objective of maximizing shareholder value, the Stilwell HCBB Group disposed of its shares of HCBB on the open market.

On December 15, 2000, certain members or affiliates of the Group (the Stilwell OTFC Group) filed a Schedule 13D in connection with the common stock of Oregon Trail Financial Corp. (OTFC). In January 2001, members of the Stilwell OTFC Group met with the management of OTFC to discuss its concerns that management was not maximizing shareholder value and it proposed that OTFC voluntarily place its nominees on the board of directors. OTFC rejected this proposal and the Stilwell OTFC Group immediately announced its intention to solicit proxies to elect an alternate nominee. OTFC refused to produce its complete shareholder list to the Stilwell OTFC Group, which sued OTFC in Baker County, Oregon. The court ultimately ordered OTFC to produce the complete list and to pay $10,000 in attorneys' fees to the Stilwell OTFC Group. The Stilwell OTFC Group also initiated lawsuits against two OTFC directors, alleging that one director had allegedly violated OTFC's residency requirement and that the other director had allegedly committed perjury while testifying about his co-director in the first suit. Both suits were dismissed pre-trial but the Stilwell OTFC Group filed an appeal in one suit and was permitted to re-file the other suit in state court. On or about August 16, 2001, the Stilwell OTFC Group began to solicit proxies from shareholders to elect Kevin D. Padrick, Esq. to the OTFC board. On September 12, 2001, OTFC filed suit against the Stilwell OTFC Group in Portland, Oregon's federal district court and moved to invalidate the Stilwell OTFC Group's proxies, but the court denied the motion and the election proceeded. During the election, OTFC announced the hiring of an investment banking firm. The Stilwell OTFC Group argued in its proxy materials that OTFC should have used its excess capital to repurchase its shares at prices below book value. In the five months after the filing of the Stilwell OTFC Group's first proxy statement (i.e., from August 1, 2001, through December 31, 2001), OTFC repurchased approximately 15% of its shares.

On October 12, 2001, at OTFC's Annual Meeting, OTFC's shareholders elected the Stilwell OTFC Group's nominee by a 2 to 1 margin. On March 12, 2002, OTFC and members of the Stilwell OTFC Group entered into a standstill agreement pursuant to which, among other things, OTFC agreed to achieve annual targets for its return on equity, to reduce its current capital ratio, to obtain advice from its investment banker regarding annual 10% stock repurchases, to re-elect the Stilwell OTFC Group's director to the board at the end of his current term, to maintain a seat for the Stilwell OTFC Group's director, or a replacement director, for five years, to reimburse a portion of the Stilwell OTFC Group's expenses incurred in the proxy contest, and to withdraw, with prejudice, the pending lawsuit against members of the Stilwell OTFC Group. In exchange, members of the Stilwell OTFC Group agreed, among other things, to refrain from seeking additional seats on OTFC's board and to support OTFC. On or about February 24, 2003, OTFC and FirstBank NW Corp. (FBNW) announced the signing of a definitive agreement whereby OTFC and FBNW would be merged, and the Stilwell OTFC Group subsequently announced that, having accomplished its objective of maximizing shareholder value, it had disposed of substantially all of its shares of OTFC stock on the open market.

On November 25, 2002, certain members or affiliates of the Group (the Stilwell ACAP Group) filed a Schedule 13D in connection with the common stock of American Physicians Capital, Inc. (ACAP). The Schedule 13D reported that on January 18, 2002, the Michigan Insurance Department approved the Stilwell ACAP Group's petition for permission to solicit proxies to elect two directors to ACAP's board of directors. On January 29, 2002, the Stilwell ACAP Group noticed its intention to nominate two directors at the 2002 annual meeting. On February 20, 2002, the Stilwell ACAP Group entered into a three-year standstill agreement with ACAP providing for, among other things, ACAP to add the Stilwell ACAP Group's nominee, Spencer L. Schneider, Esq., to its board. Additionally, ACAP agreed to consider using a portion of its excess capital to repurchase ACAP's shares in each of the fiscal years 2002 and 2003 so that its outstanding share count would decrease by 15% for each of those years. In its 2002 fiscal year, ACAP repurchased 15% of its outstanding shares. Such repurchases were highly accretive to per share book value. On November 6, 2003, ACAP announced a reserve charge and that it would explore its options to maximize shareholder value. Subsequently, ACAP announced that it had retained Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P. to assist the board. Also, on November 6, 2003, ACAP announced that it would exit from the healthcare and workers compensation insurance businesses. On December 2, 2003, ACAP announced that its President and Chief Executive Officer would take early retirement. On December 23, 2003, ACAP named R. Kevin Clinton as its new President and Chief Executive Officer. On June 24, 2004, ACAP announced that, after a diligent and thorough review and examination, the board determined that the best means to maximize shareholder value would be to continue to execute ACAP's business strategy of shedding non-core businesses and to focus on its core business line in its core markets. In August 2004, the Stilwell ACAP Group disclosed that it had increased its stake in ACAP and that it intended to seek additional representation on the board and to exercise its shareholder rights upon the expiration of the standstill agreement. On November 10, 2004, at ACAP's invitation, Joseph Stilwell joined ACAP's board and the parties entered into a new standstill agreement providing for Mr. Stilwell and Mr. Schneider to remain on the board through the annual meeting in 2008.

On June 30, 2003, certain members or affiliates of the Group (the Stilwell FPIC Group) filed a Schedule 13D in connection with the common stock of FPIC Insurance Group, Inc. (FPIC). The Stilwell FPIC Group also reported that it reserved its right to dispose of its holdings of FPIC stock when FPIC's market price more adequately reflected the value of its assets. On August 12, 2003, the Florida Office of Insurance Regulation approved the Stilwell FPIC Group's application to acquire more than 5% of FPIC's shares of common stock and to hold board seats and exercise its shareholder rights. On November 10, 2003, pursuant to the Stilwell FPIC Group's request to FPIC, the Stilwell FPIC Group's nominee, John G. Rich, Esq., became a director of FPIC. In connection with Mr. Rich's appointment to the board, FPIC and members of the Stilwell FPIC Group entered into a confidentiality agreement. On June 7, 2004, the Stilwell FPIC Group reported that, inasmuch as FPIC's shares were somewhat less undervalued because of the substantial increase in the market price of the stock, it had decreased its holdings of FPIC to below 5%.

On June 20, 2005, certain members or affiliates of the Group (the Stilwell PBIP Group ) filed a Schedule 13D in connection with the common stock of Prudential Bancorp, Inc. of Pennsylvania ( PBIP ), disclosing their belief that PBIP 's board should include shareholders who beneficially own a substantial number of its shares and that the Stilwell PBIP Group would seek a board seat. PBIP is majority owned by a mutual holding company (the "MHC") controlled by its management. Although the MHC has the ability to outvote public shareholders on most corporate actions, the Stilwell PBIP Group believes that, pursuant to applicable federal regulations, the MHC cannot vote on approval of PBIP's stock benefit plans; only PBIP 's public shareholders can vote on such plans. In July 2005, Mr. Stilwell asked to be placed on PBIP 's board, but PBIP refused. PBIP 's prospectus for its initial public offering indicated its intention to seek shareholder approval of its stock benefit plans. But after the Stilwell PBIP Group announced its intention to solicit proxies to oppose approval of any stock benefit plans unless PBIP added Mr. Stilwell to its board, PBIP decided not to submit any stock benefit plans to a shareholder vote at its 2006 annual meeting. Therefore, the Stilwell PBIP Group solicited proxies from shareholders to withhold their votes on the election of directors as a referendum that PBIP should appoint a public shareholder with substantial share holdings to its board. At PBIP 's February 3, 2006, annual meeting, 71% of its voting public shares were withheld from voting on the election of directors. On April 6, 2006, PBIP announced that it had scheduled a special meeting of shareholders to vote on proposed stock benefit plans and that it had received "advice" from the FDIC that the MHC could vote on approval of the plans. The Stilwell PBIP Group announced its intention to seek regulatory review of such "advice" and filed preliminary proxy materials with the SEC to solicit proxies to oppose adoption of the plans. On April 19, 2006, PBIP announced the postponement of the special meeting to ensure that "no uncertainty exists with respect to the vote standard."

On January 19, 2006, certain members or affiliates of the Group (the Stilwell SKP Group ) filed a Schedule 13D in connection with the common stock of SCPIE Holdings Inc. ( SKP ). The Stilwell SKP Group announced its intention to run an alternate slate of directors at the 2006 annual meeting and requested SKP 's shareholder list. SKP failed to timely produce the list and the Stilwell SKP Group sued it in Delaware Chancery Court on January 25, 2006. On February 3, 2006, SKP agreed to provide its shareholder list to the Stilwell SKP Group. The Stilwell SKP Group filed preliminary proxy materials on Schedule 14A with the SEC in March 2006, and filed definitive proxy materials under cover of Schedule 14A on May 4, 2006, reflecting the Stilwell SKP Group 's solicitation of proxies to elect three nominees, Joseph Stilwell, Spencer L. Schneider, Esq., and Gregory Noonan, to the board of directors at SKP 's annual meeting of shareholders scheduled for June 22, 2006.
