ITEM 8.01 OTHER EVENTS

As previously disclosed, Fulton Financial Corporation (the Corporation) adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123R, Share-Based Payment (Statement 123R) in the quarter ended September 30, 2005. Statement 123R requires that the fair value of equity awards to employees be recognized as compensation expense over the period during which an employee is required to provide service in exchange for such award. The Corporation elected to adopt Statement 123R using modified retrospective application, which requires restatement of previously reported financial information.

Fulton is filing the historical annual and quarterly financial information included in this Current Report on Form 8-K to show the effects on prior periods of the adoption of Statement 123R using modified retrospective application. Such results are consistent with the previously reported pro forma disclosures required under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, which preceded Statement 123R. The treatment of stock-based compensation was appropriate in Fulton's prior filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, as the provisions of Statement 123R were not adopted until subsequent to the original filings; therefore, the filing of this Form 8-K is not an amendment to such filings. Except as specifically set forth in the Exhibits to this Current Report, the information in the Exhibits hereto does not reflect any other events occurring after Fulton filed its Form 10-K on March 16, 2005 for the year ended December 31, 2004. For a discussion of events and developments subsequent to March 16, 2005, please refer to the reports and other information that Fulton has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Corporation declared a 5-for-4 stock split on April 13, 2005 which was paid in the form of a 25% stock dividend on June 8, 2005 to shareholders of record as of May 17, 2005. The historical annual and quarterly share and per-share information included in this Current Report on Form 8-K has been restated for the effect of this stock split.
