NEWMONT RECEIVES FIRB APPROVAL FOR ACQUISITION OF NORMANDY

SYDNEY, 14 January 2002 (Denver, 13 January 2002) -- Newmont Mining Corporation (NYSE: NEM) announced today that it has received approval from Australia's Foreign Investment Review Board (FIRB) for its acquisition of Normandy Mining Limited (ASX:NDY). The approval was granted on the basis that:

- Newmont adheres to its undertaking regarding Normandy's commitment to Australian Magnesium Corporation Limited,
- Newmont/Normandy maintains a corporate headquarters in Australia, and
- Newmont/Normandy maintains a listing on Australian Stock Exchange

all of which are consistent with Newmont's strategic plans.

Newmont Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer Wayne W. Murdy said, "We have now received another significant regulatory approval in relation to our acquisitions of Normandy and Franco-Nevada Mining Corporation Limited. The formal approval from FIRB of our investment in Normandy,together with last week's SEC declaration of effectiveness of our registration statements, should remove any doubt as to our ability to complete the Normandy bid and acquisition of Franco-Nevada by mid-February."

Shareholders should obtain current quotes for the Newmont, Normandy and AngloGold shares.

IMPORTANT NOTICE
Although the Normandy Board, subject to its fiduciary duties, has recommended Newmont's offer to Normandy shareholders, Normandy has not provided unqualified assistance to Newmont in making its offer. Among other things, Normandy has refused to provide Newmont with certain financial information, and it has not permitted its auditors to issue a consent in respect of financial information relating to Normandy.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

This press release contains forward-looking information and statements about Newmont Mining Corporation, Franco-Nevada Mining Corporation Limited, Normandy Mining Limited and the combined company after completion of the transactions. Forward-looking statements are statements that are not historical facts.
