NEWMONT TO EXTEND BID FOR NORMANDY TO 26 FEBRUARY 2002
O INTENDS TO DECLARE BID UNCONDITIONAL ON 15 FEBRUARY IF CERTAIN CONDITIONS SATISFIED
O ACCELERATES PAYMENT FOR EARLY ACCEPTANCES

SYDNEY, 7 February 2002 (Denver, February 6, 2002) -- Newmont Mining Corporation (NYSE:NEM) announced that it intends to declare its bid for Normandy Mining Limited (ASX:NDY) unconditional on 15 February 2002, if certain conditions are satisfied by that time. Newmont also announced that it will extend the period for acceptance of its bid to 7:00 p.m. local time in Sydney (3:00 a.m. local time in New York) on 26 February 2002. The bid had been scheduled to expire on 15 February.

A number of the conditions to Newmont's bid now have been satisfied. Newmont noted that it intends to declare its bid free of all remaining conditions if certain of the outstanding conditions are satisfied by 15 February 2002. These conditions include approval of the transaction by Newmont stockholders at the special meeting that will be held on 13 February 2002 in Denver, approval from the Australian Stock Exchange for both the admission of Newmont to the ASX Official List and the quotation of Newmont CDIs, and Newmont having acquired relevant interests in at least 50.1% of the Normandy shares (calculated on a fully-diluted basis), including the approximately 19.8% of Normandy owned by Franco-Nevada Mining Corporation Limited (TSE:FN).

Mr. Wayne Murdy, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Newmont, stated, "We have every confidence in our ability to satisfy the necessary conditions to our bid before the close of business in Australia on February 15th so we can declare our bid unconditional. More than 97% of the proxies received for our special meeting of stockholders have been cast in favor of the transaction and we have a relevant interest in approximately 22% of the Normandy shares, calculated on a fully-diluted basis. Our ASX listing application is well advanced and we are hopeful of having ASX approval early next week."

Mr. Murdy added, "The extension of our bid is intended to afford Normandy shareholders in various locations around the globe the opportunity to accept our bid after Newmont stockholder approval has been obtained on February 13th and the other conditions to our bid have been satisfied or waived."

Newmont has arranged for payment to be made following the close of ASX trading on Wednesday, 20 February for acceptances received by 7:00 p.m. local time in Sydney (3:00 a.m. local time in New York) on 15 February 2002 if, as currently anticipated, the bid becomes unconditional on 15 February. Payment for acceptances received after that time will be made within five business days, as provided under the terms of the bid.

Mr. Murdy said, "We want to assist Normandy shareholders in completing this transaction and encourage them to accept our bid before February 15th. If shareholders have any questions about how to do so, they should consult their financial or other professional advisor or call Newmont's stockholder information line."

Normandy shareholders may call Newmont's stockholder information line at 1 800 507 507 (toll-free within Australia), 1 888 750 5835 (toll-free within the United States or Canada) or +61 2 9278 9331 (if outside Australia, the United States or Canada).

The Board of Directors of Normandy, subject to its fiduciary duties, has recommended that shareholders of Normandy accept Newmont's bid. The Normandy directors have stated their intention to accept (or procure acceptance of) Newmont's bid in respect of the shares of Normandy of which they can control the disposal.

A copy of the Notice of Variation to be lodged today accompanies this press release.
