MAGAL SECURITY SYSTEMS LTD. ANNOUNCES THE RESIGNATION OF A DIRECTOR

YAHUD, Israel – October 9, 2014 -- Magal Security Systems, Ltd. (NASDAQ GM: MAGS) (the “Company”) today announced that Mr. Shaul Kobrinsky, a member of the Company’s board of directors (the “Board”), has resigned from the Board. Mr. Kobrinsky also served as an external director pursuant to the requirements of the Israeli Companies Law. In that capacity, he served as a member of the Company’s audit and compensation committees. Mr. Kobrinsky’s resignation was mandated by the independence provisions applicable to external directors under Israeli law as a result of his affiliation with Fimi Opportunity Fund, which recently became the largest shareholder of the Company.

The Company intends to schedule an extraordinary general meeting of its shareholders in the near future to elect a new external director who will meet the independence requirements of the Israeli Companies Law, the Securities and Exchange Commission and the NASDAQ listing rules. Once elected, the Company intends that such external director will be appointed to serve as a member of the Company's audit and compensation committees in order to comply with NASDAQ listing rules.
