Since the Company inception occurred on January 26, 2005, comparable historical data for the three months and for the year ended December 31, 2004 is not presented.

Sophocles Zoullas, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, commented, "We are extremely pleased with our fourth quarter and year-end results, which underscore Eagle's competitive advantages in the dry bulk shipping market. We have steadily and strategically expanded our modern fleet during the year, and deployed the 13 acquired vessels at very attractive medium to long term charter rates. Operationally, our fleet has performed very efficiently, with 99.7% fleet utilization since vessel operations began in April 2005. Our management team has also managed costs very aggressively, with the goal of achieving one of the lowest cash break-even points in the dry bulk shipping industry. As a result, our shareholders have received an aggregate $33.5 million in cash dividends since our public offering."

Mr. Zoullas continued, "Looking ahead to 2006, our entire organization is energized by the prospect of accelerating the progress we made in 2005. At present, for example, over 85% of our fleet's projected 2006 earnings are covered by fixed rate time charters at an average daily rate in excess of $22,600 thereby continuing to provide shareholders with visible earnings. With a very strong capital position and what we believe to be one of the strongest balance sheets in the industry, the Company is very well-positioned to continue our fleet expansion program, and make additional investments to grow the business. In sum, Eagle has the strategic focus, execution skills, and financial and human resources to be a leader in the dry bulk sector, and we look forward to continuing to update the investment community on our progress."

Results for the Period from January 26, 2005 to December 31, 2005:

Inception of the Company took place on January 26, 2005. Vessel operations commenced in April 2005. Accordingly, no comparisons can be made with previous periods.

For the period from inception on January 26, 2005 to December 31, 2005, the Company reported a net income of $6,653,400 or $0.30 per share, based on a weighted average of 21,968,824 basic and diluted shares outstanding for the period. The net income includes a non-cash, non-dilutive compensation expense of $11,734,812, non-recurring fees to affiliates of $6,175,046, and a one-time charge of $1,130,712 to write-off deferred financing costs associated with the retirement of the initial term loan facility. Excluding the non-cash charge, non-recurring fees, and the write-off, net income for the Period from January 26, 2005 to December 31, 2005 was $25,693,970 or $1.17 per share.

Revenues

All of the Company's revenues were earned from Time Charters. Net revenues, for the period since inception on January 26, 2005 to December 31, 2005, were $56,066,058 and included gross revenues of $59,997,448 and deductions for brokerage commissions of $3,040,890 and $890,500 in amortization of net prepaid and deferred charter revenue.

All of the Company's revenues for the period from inception on January 26, 2005 to December 31, 2005 were earned from time charters. As is common in the shipping industry, the Company pays commissions ranging from 1.25% to 6.25% of the total daily charter hire rate of each charter to unaffiliated ship brokers and in-house brokers associated with the charterers, depending on the number of brokers involved with arranging the charter.

Vessel Expenses

For the period since inception on January 26, 2005 to December 31, 2005, total vessel expenses incurred amounted to $11,052,429. These expenses included $8,156,481 in vessel operating costs, $692,605 in technical management fees, $1,678,695 in delivery and pre-operating costs associated with the acquisition of the 13 vessels in the Company's fleet, including providing these newly acquired vessels with initial provisions and stores, and $524,648 in costs associated with vessel onboard inventory stocks.

Vessel operating expenses include crew wages and related costs, the cost of insurance, expenses relating to repairs and maintenance, the cost of spares and consumable stores, tonnage taxes, other miscellaneous expenses, and technical management fees. With regard to vessel operating expenses, the Company has entered into technical management agreements for each of its vessels with V. Ships Management Ltd, an independent technical manager. In conjunction with management, V. Ships has established an operating expense budget for each vessel and performs the technical management of our vessels. All deviations from the budgeted amounts are for the Company's account. For the period since vessel operations commenced in April 2005 to December 31, 2005, the Company paid its technical manager, V. Ships, a fixed management fee of $8,333 per month for each vessel in the operating fleet in respect of which it provides technical management services. These fees are included in vessel expenses.

Depreciation and Amortization

The cost of the Company's vessels is depreciated on a straight-line basis over the expected useful life of each vessel. Depreciation is based on the cost of the vessel less its estimated residual value. The Company estimates the useful life of its vessels to be 28 years from the date of initial delivery from the shipyard to the original owner. Furthermore, the Company estimates the residual values of its vessels to be $150 per lightweight ton, which we believe is common in the dry bulk shipping industry. Depreciation charges will increase as the fleet is enlarged which will also lead to an increase of ownership days.

For the period since inception on January 26, 2005 to December 31, 2005, total depreciation and amortization expense was $10,412,227 of which amount $10,384,247 relates to depreciation and $27,980 relates to the amortization of deferred drydocking costs.

Amortization of deferred financing costs for the period since inception on January 26, 2005 to December 31, 2005 is included in interest expense. These amortization costs include a write-off of $1,130,712 relating to deferred financing fees associated with our term loan facility which was entirely repaid upon refinancing with our revolving credit facility in July 2005, and $98,065 relating to amortization of financing costs associated with our revolving credit facility.

General and Administrative Expenses

The Company's general and administrative expenses include recurring administrative costs and non-recurring formation and advisory costs. Recurring costs include onshore vessel administration related expenses such as legal and professional expenses and administrative and other expenses including payroll and expenses relating to the Company's executive officers and office staff, office rent and expenses, and directors and officers insurance. Non-recurring costs include costs relating to the formation of our company and related advisory costs. The Company expects general and administrative expenses to increase as its fleet is enlarged.

For the period from inception on January 26, 2005 to December 31, 2005, general and administrative expenses amounted to $3,491,330. This amount includes recurring administrative costs of $2,681,063 and non-recurring costs of $810,267.

Financial Advisory Fees

For the period since inception on January 26, 2005 to December 31, 2005, the Company recorded an expense of $5,175,046 in connection with an investment banking and financial advisory fee paid to Kelso & Company, L.P. and certain non-management affiliates of Eagle Ventures LLC pursuant to the financial advisory agreement that was entered into with Kelso. This fee was incurred in the quarter ended June 30, 2005 and was payable in connection with Kelso assisting the Company with its formation, strategic planning, obtaining debt and equity financing and acquiring vessels. In addition, the Company has recorded an expense of $1,000,000 which was also incurred in the quarter ended June 30, 2005 in connection with the termination of certain of the Company's obligations under the financial advisory agreement including the Company's obligation to pay an annual $500,000 fee thereunder.

Non-Cash Compensation Expense

For the period from inception January 26, 2005 to December 31, 2005, non-cash compensation expense was $11,734,812. Non-cash compensation relates to profits interests awarded to members of the Company's management by the Company's principal shareholder Eagle Ventures LLC. The profits interests dilute only the interests of the owners of Eagle Ventures LLC, and not holders of the Company's common stock. However, Generally Accepted Accounting Principles require that share-based awards to an employee of the Company by a shareholder (such as Eagle Ventures LLC) be accounted for as compensation for services provided to the Company. Consequently, the Company's income statement reflects such non-cash charges for compensation related to the profits interests in Eagle Ventures LLC.

Interest Expense

For the period from inception January 26, 2005 to December 31, 2005, interest expense was $7,208,641. This amount included $4,855,054 in loan interest, $516,588 in commitment fees, $608,222 in interest on a promissory note, a write-off of $1,130,712 relating to deferred financing fees associated with our term loan facility which was entirely repaid upon refinancing with our revolving credit facility in July 2005, and $98,065 relating to amortization of financing costs associated with our revolving credit facility. During the period from inception January 26, 2005 to December 31, 2005, the Company earned $661,827 in interest income.

From the first draw-down of the Company's debt of its loans through December 31, 2005, interest rates ranged from 4.10% to 5.49%, including a margin of 0.95% over LIBOR. The weighted average effective interest rate was 4.69%.

The Company has entered into interest rate swaps to effectively convert a portion of its debt from a floating to a fixed-rate basis. The swaps are designated and qualify as cash flow hedges. In September 2005, the Company entered into interest rate swap contracts for notional amounts of $100,000,000 and $30,000,000. These contracts mature in September 2010. Exclusive of a margin of 0.95%, the Company will pay fixed-rate interest of 4.22% and 4.54% respectively, and receive floating-rate interest amounts based on three month LIBOR settings (for a term equal to the swaps' reset periods). The Company records the fair value of the interest rate swap as an asset or liability in its financial statements. The effective portion of the swap is recorded in accumulated other comprehensive income (loss). Accordingly, $2,647,077 has been recorded in Other Assets in the financial statements as of December 31, 2005.

Disclosure of Non-GAAP Financial Measures

EBITDA represents operating earnings before extraordinary items, depreciation and amortization, interest expense, and income taxes, if any. EBITDA is included because it is used by certain investors to measure a company's financial performance. EBITDA is not an item recognized by GAAP and should not be considered a substitute for net income, cash flow from operating activities and other operations or cash flow statement data prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States or as a measure of profitability or liquidity. EBITDA is presented to provide additional information with respect to the Company's ability to satisfy its obligations including debt service, capital expenditures, and working capital requirements. While EBITDA is frequently used as a measure of operating results and the ability to meet debt service requirements, the definition of EBITDA used here may not be comparable to that used by other companies due to differences in methods of calculation.

The Company's new credit facility permits it to pay dividends in amounts up to its earnings before extraordinary or exceptional items, interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (Credit Agreement EBITDA), less the aggregate amount of interest incurred and net amounts payable under interest rate hedging agreements during the relevant period and an agreed upon reserve for dry-docking, provided that there is not a default or breach of loan covenant under the credit facility and the payment of the dividends would not result in a default or breach of a loan covenant. Therefore, the Company believes that this non-GAAP measure is important for its investors as it reflects its ability to pay dividends. The following table is a reconciliation of net income, as reflected in the condensed consolidated statements of operations, to the Credit Agreement EBITDA for the three-month period ended December 31, 2005 and year-to-date to December 31, 2005:

Liquidity and Capital Resources

As of December 31, 2005, the Company's cash balance was $24,526,528 with an additional $6.5 million in restricted cash deposits maintained with its lender for loan compliance purposes. Restricted cash also includes an amount of $124,616 which is collateralizing a letter of credit relating to the Company's office lease. For the next 18 months, the Company also has access to a $10 million working capital facility which is part of a ten-year $330 million revolving credit facility which the Company entered into in July 2005.

Prior to the initial public offering, the Company funded its capital requirements for the acquisition of nine initial vessels with $40,843,662 in equity contributions from Eagle Ventures LLC, $58,730,404 in debt financing in the form of a promissory note borrowings from Eagle Ventures LLC, and $214,450,000 in borrowings under a bank term loan facility.

The Company used $185,288,656 of the net proceeds from the initial public offering to repay $125,950,000 of the indebtedness under the term loan facility and $59,338,656 owed to Eagle Ventures LLC under the promissory note, including accrued interest.

In connection with the Company's initial public offering, in July 2005, the Company entered into a $330,000,000 revolving credit facility to refinance the remaining $88,500,000 portion of the outstanding indebtedness under its term loan facility, fund vessel acquisitions and provide funds for working capital purposes.

From July 2005 to October 2005, the Company borrowed $100,000,000 from the revolving credit facility to fund the purchase of four additional vessels.

The Company used $80,000,000 of the net proceeds from its follow-on public offering (see Sale of Common Stock below) to repay $48,500,000 of its outstanding indebtedness under the revolving credit facility and pay the balance $31,500,000 of the purchase price of the thirteenth vessel HERON which was acquired in December 2005.

As of December 31, 2005 the Company had a total outstanding debt of $140,000,000 under the revolving credit facility. As of December 31, 2005, the undrawn amount under the revolving credit facility was $190,000,000 which is available to fund future acquisitions. The facility matures in 2015 and has no principal repayment obligations until 2010.

Sale of Common Stock

On June 23, 2005, the Company completed its initial public offering by issuing and selling to the public 14,400,000 shares of common stock at $14.00 per share, raising gross proceeds of $201,600,000 before deduction of underwriting discounts, commissions and expenses of $15,070,710.

On October 28, 2005, the Company sold 6,000,000 shares of its common stock in a public offering at a price of $14.50 per share, raising gross proceeds of $87,000,000 before deduction of underwriting discounts, commissions and expenses of $4,954,227. The sale included an over-allotment portion of 825,000 shares of which 325,000 shares were offered by the Company's largest shareholder Eagle Ventures LLC.

Capital Expenditures

The Company makes capital expenditures from time to time in connection with its vessel acquisitions. In 2005, the Company acquired nine Supramax and four Handymax dry bulk vessels for a total cost of $427,144,953. In addition to the vessel acquisitions, the Company spent $820,904 on capital improvements to some of its vessels. These improvements are expected to enhance the revenue earning capabilities of these vessels.

DryDocking

In addition to acquisitions that the Company may undertake in future periods, other major capital expenditures include funding the Company's maintenance program of regularly scheduled drydocking necessary to preserve the quality of our vessels as well as to comply with international shipping standards and environmental laws and regulations. Although the Company has some flexibility regarding the timing of its dry docking, the costs are relatively predictable. Management anticipates that vessels are to be drydocked every two and a half years. Funding of these requirements is anticipated to be met with cash from operations. The Company anticipates that this process of recertification will require it to reposition these vessels from a discharge port to shipyard facilities, which will reduce available days and operating days during that period.

Edgar Filing: Eagle Bulk Shipping Inc. - Form 8-K

In 2005, the Company spent $421,682 on vessel drydockings and this amount will be amortized to expense on a straight-line basis over the period through the date the next drydocking is scheduled to become due.

The following table represents certain information about the estimated drydock costs until December 2007 along with the allocation of anticipated off-hire days:

Quarter Ending	Off-hire Days	Projected Costs
March 31, 2006	60	$1.40 million
June 30, 2006	--	--
September 30, 2006.....	15	$0.35 million
December 31, 2006.....	15	$0.35 million
March 31, 2007.....	30	$0.70 million
June 30, 2007.....	--	--
September 30, 2007.....	30	$0.70 million
December 31, 2007.....	15	$0.35 million

NOTES:

Actual costs vary based on various factors, including where the dry-dockings are actually performed.

Actual length will vary based on the condition of the vessel, yard schedules and other factors.

Dividends

The Company's policy is to declare quarterly dividends to stockholders in February, April, July and October in amounts that are substantially equal to its available cash from operations during the previous quarter less any cash reserves for drydocking and working capital.

The Company's revolving credit facility permits us to pay quarterly dividends in amounts up to our quarterly earnings before extraordinary or exceptional items, interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (Credit Agreement EBITDA), less the aggregate amount of interest incurred and net amounts payable under interest rate hedging agreements during the relevant period and an agreed upon reserve for dry-docking for the period, provided that there is not a default or breach of loan covenant under the credit facility and the payment of the dividends would not result in a default or breach of a loan covenant. Depending on market conditions in the dry bulk shipping industry and acquisition opportunities that may arise, the Company may be required to obtain additional debt or equity financing which could affect its dividend policy.

On October 31, 2005 the Company paid a cash dividend on its common stock of $0.54 per share for the third quarter of 2005 to all shareholders of record as of October 17, 2005. The aggregate amount of the cash dividend paid to its shareholders was $14,661,000.

On January 30, 2006 the Company declared a cash dividend for the fourth quarter of 2005 of $0.57 per share which was paid on February 24, 2006 to all shareholders of record as of February 15, 2006. The aggregate amount of this cash dividend was $18,895,500.

- (1) The time charter rates are gross daily charter hire rates before unaffiliated ship-broker commissions ranging from 1.25% to 6.25% of the charter hire rate. As all our vessels are employed on time charters, the charterer is responsible for voyage expenses such as port and canal charges, bunker (fuel oil) costs and port and canal agents costs and other voyage related costs.
 - (2) The date range provided represents the earliest and latest date on which the charterer may redeliver the vessel to the Company upon the termination of the charter.
 - (3) The charterer of the Osprey I has an option to extend the charter period by up to 26 months at a daily time charter hire rate of $25,000.
 - (4) Upon completion of the charter in March 2006, the GRIFFON has commenced a new charter at $13,550 per day until January 2007 to March 2007.

Commercial and strategic management of the fleet is carried out by a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, Eagle Shipping International (USA) LLC, a Marshall Islands limited liability company with offices in New York City.

Glossary of Terms:

Ownership days: The Company defines ownership days as the aggregate number of days in a period during which each vessel in its fleet has been owned. Ownership days are an indicator of the size of the fleet over a period and affect both the amount of revenues and the amount of expenses that is recorded during a period.

Available days: The Company defines available days as the number of ownership days less the aggregate number of days that its vessels are off-hire due to vessel familiarization upon acquisition, scheduled repairs or repairs under guarantee, vessel upgrades or special surveys and the aggregate amount of time that we spend positioning our vessels. The shipping industry uses available days to measure the number of days in a period during which vessels should be capable of generating revenues.

Operating days: The Company defines operating days as the number of its available days in a period less the aggregate number of days that the vessels are off-hire due to any reason, including unforeseen circumstances. The shipping industry uses operating days to measure the aggregate number of days in a period during which vessels actually generate revenues.
