MANAGEMENT PROPOSAL

Dear Shareholders,

The Management of Ultrapar Participações S.A. (“Ultrapar” or “Company”) hereby presents to the Company’s shareholders the following Management Proposal, regarding the matter to be deliberated upon at the Company’s Extraordinary Shareholders’ Meeting (“Meeting”), to be held on July 12, 2012, at 2:00 p.m.:

Approval, in accordance with the terms of Article 256, § 1 of the Brazilian Corporate Law, of the acquisition of the total shares issued by Temmar – Terminal Marítimo do Maranhão S.A. by Terminal Químico de Aratu S.A. – Tequimar, a liquid bulk storage company indirectly controlled by the Company, according to the Market Announcement released on 05.27.2012.

We propose the approval of the acquisition of Temmar by a subsidiary controlled by the Company, as it enhances Ultracargo’s operational scale, strengthening its position as a provider of storage for liquid bulk in Brazil. Additionally, the acquisition marks the entry of Ultracargo in the port of Itaqui, the second largest port in liquid bulk handling in Brazil, responsible for supplying the fuel market in the states of Maranhão, Piauí and Tocantins, states where fuel consumption has grown above the national average. Annex A to the current proposal contains additional information regarding the mentioned acquisition, in accordance with article 19 of CVM Instruction 481/09.

This acquisition has been submitted for approval by the Meeting in accordance with article 256, II, item “b” of the Brazilian Corporate Law, given the fact that the average price of each acquired share is higher than one and a half times the net equity value per share, with the net equity being valued at market prices.

We emphasize that, in accordance with § 2 of article 256 combined with item II of article 137, both of Brazilian Corporate Law, the shareholders who dissent from this resolution are not entitled to withdrawal rights, since the Company’s shares have liquidity and are widely traded.

The Acquisition was part of Ultracargo’s strategy to strengthen its position as a provider of storage for liquid bulk in Brazil.

6. Provide an analysis of the benefits, costs and risks of the transaction

The company has contracts with its clients for the entire capacity of the terminal and a long-term lease contract, which includes a large area for future expansions.

The port of Itaquí is the second largest port in liquid bulk handling in Brazil, with privileged location and efficient logistics, which includes access to railway. The port is responsible for supplying the fuel market in the states of Maranhão, Piauí e Tocantins, states where fuel consumption has grown above the national average – has attracted various investments and new projects.

This acquisition marks the entry of Ultracargo in this important market and enhances its operational scale, strengthening its position as a provider of storage for liquid bulk in Brazil and adding 8% to the company's current capacity. Ultracargo estimates that the Acquisition will add R$ 21 million/year to its EBITDA.

The main costs associated with the Acquisition are those related to the services of advisors of the transaction and the integration of operations, which include travel expenses, information systems and personnel costs. The costs associated to the Acquisition have been estimated at approximately R$ 3 million.

Regarding the risks, Ultrapar will assume certain liabilities of the business acquired; therefore, the risks of the performance of the activities will become the responsibility of Ultrapar.

7. Inform the costs to be incurred by the company if the transaction is not approved

The possible non-approval of the Acquisition will result in the non-satisfaction of a precedent condition for the closing of the Acquisition, thus resulting in the termination of the contract and the imposition of a R$ 3 million compensatory fine on the Buyer to the benefit of the Sellers.

8. Describe the sources of funding for the transaction

Ultrapar will use its existing cash resources to fund the Acquisition.

9. Describe management's plans for the company whose control was or will be acquired

Management's plan includes the integration of the acquired operation with that of Ultracargo, allowing for growth and stronger competitiveness through an increased storage capacity. Additionally, the acquired terminal has a large area for future expansion and is located in a fast-growing region. If these expansions show to be viable, the Company intends to conduct them.

10. Provide justified declaration of the management recommending the approval of the transaction

Considering the information provided in this Annex, the management of Ultrapar believes that the approval of the Acquisition will bring benefits to Ultrapar and its shareholders, given that the Acquisition strengthens Ultracargo's liquid bulk storage business and allows an improved positioning for growth in the segment.

11. Describe any existing corporate relationship, even if indirect, between:

- a. Any of the sellers or the company whose control has been or will be sold; and
- b. Related parties to the company, as defined by the accounting rules regarding this subject

Ultrapar is not aware of the existence of corporate relationship between related parties to Ultrapar, as defined by the accounting rules, and Sellers or Temmar.

Ultrapar is not aware of transactions made by related parties to Ultrapar, under the terms described above.

13. Provide copy of all studies and appraisal reports, prepared by the company or by third parties, which supported the negotiation of the price of the acquisition

The price of the Acquisition was established in negotiations between Ultrapar and the Sellers, independent and autonomous parties, based on the assessment that each party had of the business object of the Acquisition and the financial information sent to Ultrapar by the Sellers. It is worth mentioning that the management of Ultrapar has the necessary knowledge regarding the market where Temmar operates, for the evaluation of the business and discussion and negotiation of the price with the Sellers.

14. In relation to the third parties that prepared appraisal studies and report

a. Inform the name

VALUATION METHODOLOGIES

MARKET APPROACH – STOCK EXCHANGE LISTING

This methodology aims to assess a company by the sum of all its shares at market prices. As the price of a share is defined by the present value of the flow of future dividends and a sale price at the end of the period, at a required rate of return, on an Ideal Money Market, this approach would indicate the correct value of the company for investors.

ASSETS APPROACH – NET EQUITY AT MARKET PRICES

This methodology is derived from generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), where financial statements are prepared based on the principle of historic or acquisition cost. Due to this principle and to the fundamental principle of accounting, the book value of the assets of a company less the book value of its liabilities equals the book value of its net equity.

On the other hand, the basic principles of economics allow us to create the following appraisal technique: the value defined for assets less the value defined for liabilities equals the value defined for a company's net equity. From an appraisal perspective, the relevant value definitions are those appropriate to the purpose of the appraisal.

The assets approach, therefore, aims at appraising a company for the adjustment of the book value (net balance) to its respective fair market values. The assets and liabilities deemed relevant are appraised for their fair market value, with a comparison being made between this value and the book value (net balance).

These adjustments, properly analyzed, are added to the book value of equity, thereby determining the company's market value by the assets approach. The company's fair market value shall be the value of equity, considering the adjustments found for the assets and liabilities assessed.

INCOME APPROACH: FUTURE PROFITABILITY

This methodology defines the company's future profitability by the projected net income, bringing this result to present value.

The projective period of net income is determined by taking into account the time that the company will take to provide a stable operational activity, i.e., without operational changes deemed important. The net income is then brought to present value by using a discount rate, which will reflect the risk associated with the market, business and capital structure.

PROJECTION FOR FUTURE RESULTS

To calculate future profitability, we used Net Income as a measure of income, where:

Earnings before non-cash items, interest and taxes(EBITDA)

(-) Non-cash items (depreciation and amortization)

(=) Net income before taxes (EBIT)

(-) Income Tax and Social Contribution (IR/CSSL)

(=) Net income after taxes

COMPANY'S PROFILE

TEMMAR operates in the storage and handling of liquid bulks.

Located in the port of Itaquí, the terminal has 16 tanks that total a static capacity of 55 cubic meters.

The port of Itaquí is the second largest in Brazil in the handling of liquid bulks, just behind the port of Santos, and primarily serves the fuel market in three states (Maranhão, Piauí, and Tocantins).

TEMMAR has a lease contract for 13 years and renewable for another 25 years. The company has already auctioned for areas that will allow it to expand, thus allowing it to increase the terminal storage capacity to more than 78 cubic meters.

Ultrapar announces the acquisition of a terminal for liquid bulk in the port of Itaquí

São Paulo, Brazil, May 27, 2012 – Ultrapar Participações S.A. (BM&FBOVESPA:UGPA3 / NYSE:UGP) hereby announces that it signed, through Ultracargo, a sale and purchase agreement for the acquisition of 100% of the shares of the company TEMMAR - Terminal Marítimo do Maranhão S.A. (“Temmar”) from Temmar Netherlands B.V. and Noble Netherlands B.V., subsidiaries of Noble Group Limited. The acquisition value is R$160 million, subject to the customary working capital and indebtedness adjustments on the closing date. Additionally, Ultrapar will disburse a minimum extra value of R$12 million, which may reach approximately R$30 million as a result of possible future expansions in the storage capacity of the terminal, provided that such expansions are implemented within the next 7 years.

Temmar is a modern and well-designed terminal in the port area of Itaquí, in the state of Maranhão, in the Northeast region of Brazil, with a capacity of 55 thousand cubic meters and used mainly for the handling of fuels and biofuels. Temmar has contracts with its clients for the entire capacity of the terminal and a long-term lease contract, which includes a large area for future expansions.

The port of Itaquí is the second largest port in liquid bulk handling in Brazil, with privileged location and efficient logistics, which includes access to railway. Responsible for supplying the fuel market in the states of Maranhão, Piauí and Tocantins, where fuel consumption has grown above the national average, the Itaquí port region has attracted various investments and new projects.

This acquisition marks the entry of Ultracargo in this important market and enhances its operational scale, strengthening its position as a provider of storage for liquid bulk in Brazil and adding 8% to the company’s current capacity.

The closing of this acquisition is subject to the compliance with certain usual conditions precedent for this type of transaction, notably the opinion of port authorities and, if applicable, the approval by a general shareholders’ meeting of Ultrapar. In the event the shareholders’ meeting is required and the acquisition is not approved, Ultrapar will pay to the seller a break-up fee of R$ 3 million.

The company hereby clarifies that the acquisition of Temmar will not entitle Ultrapar’s shareholders to withdrawal rights, pursuant to paragraph 2 of Article 256 of the Brazilian Corporate Law. This transaction will be submitted to the competent regulatory authorities.

Additional information about Temmar is available at Ultrapar’s website (www.ultra.com.br).
