The members of the Compensation and Nomination Committee were Messrs. Dyer (Chairman), Newman, and Rockwell. The Compensation and Nomination Committee has the responsibility to help formulate short and long-term compensation plans and help develop the Company's compensation philosophy. OPTIONS

Set forth below is certain information concerning stock options granted during fiscal 2002 by the Company to the named executive officers.

Edgar Filing: ADVO INC - Form DEF 14A

The hypothetical present values on the date of grant of stock options granted in fiscal 2002 shown below are presented pursuant to the SEC proxy rules and are calculated under the modified Black-Scholes model for pricing options. (See footnote 3.) The actual before-tax amount, if any, realized upon the exercise of stock options will depend upon the excess of the market price of the Common Stock over the exercise price per share of the stock option. There is no assurance that the hypothetical present values of the stock options reflected in this table will be realized.

(1) Stock options granted in fiscal 2002 will become exercisable in 25% increments at one-year intervals from the date of grant. All options are subject to the reload feature of the 1998 Incentive Compensation Plan.

(2) Represent reload option grants received upon the exercise of previously outstanding exercisable options (the "existing options"). The number of reload options awarded upon the exercise of existing options is equal to the number of previously held shares an optionee tenders to pay the exercise price of the existing options and the number of shares an optionee elects to have withheld from the exercise of the existing options to pay minimum statutory tax withholding requirements. The reload options retain the expiration date of the existing options and have an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of exercise of the existing options. Reload options become exercisable on the earlier of one year from the date of grant or termination of employment with the Company.

- (3) The present values on grant date are calculated under the modified Black-Scholes model, which is a mathematical formula used to value options traded on stock exchanges, modified for pricing employee stock options. This formula considers a number of factors in order to estimate the option's present value, including the stock's historical volatility (32%), the exercise period of the option, and the risk free rate of return (ranging from 3.0% to 6.3% depending on the option's grant and expiration dates).

Set forth below is certain information concerning the number of shares acquired and the amounts realized on the exercise of stock options by the named executive officers during fiscal 2002, and the number and value of options held by the named executive officers at September 28, 2002. The value of exercised and unexercised in-the-money stock options at September 28, 2002 shown below is presented pursuant to SEC rules. The actual before-tax amount, if any, realized upon exercise of stock options will depend upon the excess, if any, of the market price of the Common Stock over the exercise price per share of the stock option at the time the stock option is exercised. There is no assurance that the values of unexercised in-the-money stock options reflected in this table will actually be realized.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION AND NOMINATION COMMITTEE

A primary role of the Compensation and Nomination Committee of the Board of Directors is to represent the Board of Directors in its dealings with management in overseeing the process and substance of ADVO's Executive Compensation Policy and Philosophy, and in aligning the interests of stockholders and the needs of management. The Compensation and Nomination Committee believes it is generally in the Company's best interest, and it is the Company's intent, where possible, to preserve full compensation deductibility as permitted under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). However, the Company recognizes that flexibility is necessary and must be maintained for those extraordinary circumstances that may arise on occasion for which the interests of the Company are better served by foregoing full deductibility. The Compensation and Nomination Committee is composed entirely of non-employee directors.

Compensation Philosophy:

ADVO's compensation programs are designed to:

- Provide a fair, competitive and dynamic compensation program.
- Attract, retain, and develop a highly skilled and motivated workforce.
- Tie compensation directly to the accomplishment of superior Company performance, creation of long-term stockholder value and attainment of specific strategic initiatives by emphasizing variable rather than fixed compensation.
- Align stockholders' and management's interests.

To accomplish these objectives, ADVO's executive compensation program is composed of base salary, and short-term and long-term incentives, which taken together provide a competitive compensation package that is highly leveraged toward the attainment of superior Company performance.

Cash Compensation:

ADVO's philosophy is to pay competitive cash compensation as compared with a broad spectrum of organizations. To assess its competitive position, ADVO participates in and reviews salary surveys with participant companies from multiple industry segments. These companies represent a cross section of organizations in all industries and are of similar size and scope to ADVO. These companies may or may not be included in the peer group analysis under "Company Financial Performance," since many of the Company's competitors for executive talent are outside the Company's business competitor peer group of companies or are privately held companies. The surveys are professionally administered by third parties and represent the different functional areas of ADVO's organization. In general, ADVO's cash compensation position is within the third quartile of the marketplace (better than the bottom 50% and less remunerative than the top 25%). Based on these surveys, ADVO annually reviews its salary and incentive structure and adjusts it as necessary to reflect the market.

Base Pay:

Individual base pay is determined by considering:

- The individual's background, competencies, experience and current salary in relation to the market.
- Accomplishments as determined by the individual's performance appraisal.
- The financial spending guidelines of the Company.

Edgar Filing: ADVO INC - Form DEF 14A

Short-Term Incentive:

ADVO's philosophy is to provide significant financial incentives for its associates to attain and exceed the Company's financial objectives. These incentives are made under the 1998 Incentive Compensation Plan, approved by stockholders in 1999, and the ADVO Incentive Plan. These plans provide a strong link between the associate's accountabilities, scope of impact and business performance through the use of operationally tailored measurement criteria focusing on margin improvement and/or operating income goals. These plans provide a competitively benchmarked target award based on the level of the individual's job. The target awards range from 5% to 100% of salary. To realize the target award, certain Company financial performance objectives must be attained. These objectives include corporate, regional and business unit measures, and are measured in terms of achievement versus the annually established plan. The corporate measure is based on consolidated operating income. Regional and business unit objectives incorporate profitability objectives that are margin-based in the form of operating income or margin.

The mix and weighting of these objectives is dependent on the organizational role of the individual. All individuals have at least a portion of their incentive based on the corporate measure as described above. The specific plan targets are not disclosed herein because they are considered confidential and their disclosure could competitively injure ADVO's business. The performance attainment and resulting payout for each objective is evaluated and calculated independently. Performance below plan results in ratably lower payouts, or none at all, and performance above plan results in ratably higher payouts. The combined payout percentages based upon these results are limited to 150% of the associate's target award. A minimum threshold of plan attainment is in place, below which no payout is made. The Compensation and Nomination Committee has the discretion to modify the actual awards. The bonuses of the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") and any associate subject to Section 162(m) of the Code are based solely on corporate consolidated operating income financial results as defined above, and are subject to a capped individual payout.

The Company's financial performance for fiscal 2002 fell below its operating income target. As a result, no awards were made to its executives.

Long-Term Incentive:

The 1998 Incentive Compensation Plan is the primary vehicle for long-term incentives. The plan is meant to:

- Link compensation opportunities to Company achievements.
- Balance annual results with ADVO's long-term performance.
- Strengthen the partnership between ADVO's executives and stockholders.

Participation is limited to key management and executives in the Company. Long-term compensation targets vary by the level of the individual's position and were established based on market analysis provided from third party external consultants. Periodically, these targets are reviewed. These targets are expressed as a fixed share amount, based on the level of the associate's position. Stock options granted in fiscal 2002 were granted at market price with 10-year terms.

Service-based options are also used for hiring, promotion and retention situations and are determined in the same manner as described above.

The Company's executives are also given the opportunity to receive "reload options". To receive such options, the plan requires executives to exercise their options by tendering mature shares of stock to "pay" for the underlying cost of the options and withholding shares to meet minimum statutory federal tax obligations.

In return, they receive reload options in the same number as the number of shares utilized in the exercise. Net shares that result from the exercise are returned to the executive in the form of stock, which are to be retained for two years.

Restricted stock may also be granted under the plan. While the governing plan allows for broader usage, historically grants of restricted stock have been used only for hiring, promotion and retention situations. When these situations arise, the number of shares granted is based upon the level of the job. The Company granted restricted stock for the purposes of hiring and promotion to a limited number of key positions during fiscal 2002.

To foster greater alignment of the interests of executives and stockholders, ADVO expects executives who receive stock options to also make a personal financial commitment to acquire and hold significant amounts of ADVO stock. Individuals receiving stock options are asked to acquire ADVO stock in an amount expressed as a portion of their annual base salary, to be acquired over a five-year period. The guidelines increased during fiscal 2002 and range from 300% of base salary for the CEO to 25% of base salary for entry level stock option recipients. The guidelines cover approximately 110 persons.

CEO Compensation and Company Performance:

Mr. Mulloy's salary is reviewed annually and may be increased, but not decreased, by the committee. External executive compensation consultants, at the request of the Board, prepared a comprehensive competitive compensation analysis. Based on this analysis, Mr. Mulloy was granted a 10.1% increase or $55,000 bringing his salary to $600,000. This represented a combination of a competitive equity adjustment and merit increase.

As provided in his employment agreement, Mr. Mulloy's short-term incentive is determined under the 1998 Incentive Compensation Plan. Under this plan, the CEO's bonus is determined based solely on financial results and is awarded at the discretion of the Board. Mr. Mulloy received no short-term incentive for fiscal 2002.

Mr. Mulloy was awarded options under the 1998 Incentive Compensation Plan to purchase 70,000 shares of Common Stock in the annual grant using the approach for options granted to executives generally as described above.

Benefits:

ADVO offers benefits to its key executives, serving a different purpose than do the above described elements of compensation. In general, these benefits provide a level of security against financial misfortune, which may result from illness, disability or death. The benefits are principally those that are offered to all ADVO employees, with some variations, and generally promote tax efficiency and replacement of benefit opportunities afforded other employees, but which are lost to executives due to regulatory limits.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

In accordance with its written charter adopted by the Board of Directors ("Board"), the Audit Committee of the Board ("Audit Committee") assists the Board in fulfilling its responsibility for the oversight of the quality and integrity of the financial reporting process and internal and financial controls.

The Audit Committee is composed entirely of non-employee Directors who have no relationship to the Company that may interfere with the exercise of their independence from management and the Company and who are otherwise independent under applicable New York Stock Exchange standards. The Company has a contract with Staples, Inc. to purchase office products and other supplies. Mr. Mahoney, who is a Director of the Company and Chair of the Audit Committee, is Executive Vice President and Chief Administrative Officer of Staples, Inc. The Board has determined this contract does not interfere with Mr. Mahoney's independence since it was determined by competitive bidding with which Mr. Mahoney was not involved directly or indirectly, and the contract is not material to either party.

Audit Committee members for the fiscal year ended September 28, 2002 were Messrs. Newman (who served as Chairman through March 6, 2002), Brown and

Edgar Filing: ADVO INC - Form DEF 14A

Mahoney. Mr. Mahoney was elected to the chairmanship on March 6, 2002. The New York Stock Exchange rules require that at least one member of the Audit Committee has "financial expertise" and the Company is in full compliance with this requirement. The Audit Committee met six times during the fiscal year ended September 28, 2002, and no member of the Audit Committee missed a meeting.

The Audit Committee has received the written disclosures and the letter from the independent auditors required by the Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, "Independence Discussions with Audit Committees" and has discussed with the independent auditors the auditors' independence from management and the Company, including matters in such written disclosures, and has considered the compatibility of non-audit services with the auditors' independence.

The Audit Committee discussed and reviewed with the Company's independent auditors all communications required by generally accepted auditing standards, including those described in Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as amended, "Communications with Audit Committees" and, with and without management present, discussed and reviewed, the overall scope and plans for the audit, the results of their examination of the financial statements, their evaluation of the Company's internal controls, and the overall quality of the Company's financial reporting. The Audit Committee also discussed audit plans and results of the internal audit examinations.

The Audit Committee reviewed the audited financial statements of the Company as of and for the fiscal year ended September 28, 2002 with management and the independent auditors. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process, including the systems of internal controls. The independent auditors have a responsibility for expressing an opinion on the conformity of the audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles.

In reliance on reviews and discussions with management and the independent auditors, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board that the Company's audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended September 28, 2002 for filing with the SEC. The Audit Committee and the Board have also recommended, subject to stockholder approval, the reappointment of the Company's independent auditors.

Audit Fees

Fees for the fiscal 2002 annual audit and reviews of the financial statements included in the Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q were $0.3 million.

Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees

The Company's auditors did not render any services to the Company related to financial systems design and implementation for fiscal year ended September 28, 2002.

All Other Fees

All other fees for fiscal 2002 were $0.6 million, including audit related services of $0.4 million and non-audit services of $0.2 million. Audit related services generally include fees for employee benefit audits, business acquisitions, internal audit and accounting consultations. The Audit Committee has considered whether the provision of non-audit services is compatible with maintaining the principal outside auditor's independence and concluded that performing such services does not affect Ernst & Young LLP's independence.

As of June 30, 2002, the Company ceased to use its outside auditors to perform the internal audit function. Beginning in July 2002, the Company's internal audit function was performed by PricewaterhouseCoopers.

EXECUTIVE AGREEMENTS

Employment Agreement -- Mulloy

On July 31, 1998, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Mulloy, pursuant to which he is employed as Chief Executive Officer of the Company. The employment agreement has a term of six years from its effective date of January 1, 1999. The salary under the employment agreement is $500,000 per year, subject to increases as determined by the Board of Directors (or the Compensation and Nomination Committee) plus bonuses pursuant to the Company's bonus plan. In addition, Mr. Mulloy receives a housing allowance of $2,000 per month throughout the employment period.

In accordance with the employment agreement, Mr. Mulloy received, on January 1, 1999, options to purchase 100,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock at a price of $27.063 per share, such options becoming exercisable in installments of one-fourth each year from the date of grant. Mr. Mulloy was also granted 25,000 shares of restricted stock units on January 21, 1999. Under the terms of the agreement, the restrictions lapsed one-third each year on January 1, 2000, 2001, and 2002.

The employment agreement provides that if the Company terminates Mr. Mulloy's employment for any reason other than for Cause (as defined), the Company will continue to pay a salary to Mr. Mulloy at the same rate, plus a bonus of 75% (subsequently changed by the Board to 100%) of such salary, and allow him to continue to participate in other benefit programs, for two years after the date of termination.

EXECUTIVE SEVERANCE AGREEMENTS

The Board of Directors authorized the Company to enter into individual Executive Severance Agreements (the "Agreements") with Messrs. Mulloy, McCombs, Lubin, Harless, and Sanders. These Agreements were dated as follows:

Mr. Mulloy.....	November 4, 1996
Mr. McCombs.....	January 4, 1999
Mr. Lubin.....	October 17, 1995
Mr. Harless.....	August 14, 2000
Mr. Sanders.....	May 19, 1997

The structure of the Agreements is substantially similar, but the terms of the individual Agreements differ in some important respects as noted below.

The Agreements' provisions become effective upon the occurrence of a Change of Control (as described below) and continue for the duration of the severance period. With regard to Messrs. Mulloy, McCombs and Harless, the severance period is two years following a Change of Control. With regard to Messrs. Lubin and Sanders, the severance period is one and one-half years following a Change of Control. In all cases, the severance period ends with the death of the executive. If, during the severance period, an executive's employment is terminated by the Company for any reason other than death, disability or Cause (as described below), or if the executive terminates his employment for Good reason (as described below), the Company must pay to the executive a lump sum severance payment. With regard to Messrs. Mulloy and Harless, the severance payment due upon such a termination of employment is equal to two times the sum of (i) the executive's annual base pay at the highest rate in effect at any time within the 90-day period preceding the date a notice of termination of employment is given or, if higher, at the highest rate of base pay in effect within the 90-day period immediately preceding the Change of Control and (ii) the greatest amount of incentive (bonus) pay received by the executive for any calendar year or portion thereof from and including the third year prior to the first occurrence of a Change of Control. With regard to Messrs. McCombs, Lubin and Sanders, the severance payment is equal to one and one-half times the foregoing sum. Additionally, upon termination, Messrs. Mulloy, McCombs and Harless will be entitled to receive medical and life insurance benefits for the period of two years from the date of the termination or cash in lieu thereof. Messrs. Lubin and Sanders will be entitled to receive medical and life insurance benefits for the period of one and one-half years from the date of termination or cash in lieu thereof.

Under the Agreements, "Cause" means an executive's intentional act of fraud, embezzlement, theft, damage to Company property or disclosure of confidential information that causes material harm to the Company. "Good reason" means (i) an adverse change in the executive's responsibilities; (ii) a reduction in the executive's base pay, bonus pay, or benefits; (iii) a failure of any successor to the Company to assume the obligations under the Agreement; (iv) any material breach of the Agreement by the Company; or (v) any action of the Company requiring the executive to perform his or her services at a location which is more than thirty-five miles from the location where the executive was employed immediately preceding the date of the Change in Control.

A "Change in Control" means the occurrence of any of the following events:

(i) Any person (other than the Company, any trustee or other fiduciary holding securities under any employee benefit plan of the Company, or any company owned, directly or indirectly, by the stockholders of the Company in substantially the same proportions as their ownership of the common stock of the Company) acquires securities of the Company and immediately thereafter is the beneficial owner (as defined) of securities of the Company representing 30% or more of the combined voting power of the Company's then outstanding securities (except that an acquisition of securities directly from the Company shall not be deemed an acquisition for purposes of this clause (i));

(ii) During any period of two consecutive years, individuals who at the beginning of the period constitute the Board, plus any new directors treated as continuing directors (as described below), cease to constitute at least a majority of the Board (treating as continuing directors all persons whose nomination or election was approved by a vote of at least two-thirds of the directors then in office who either were directors of the Company at the beginning of such two-year period or whose nomination or election to the Board was previously so approved, but excluding any director designated by a person who has entered into an agreement with the Company to effect a transaction described in clause (i), (iii) or (iv) of this paragraph, and any director whose initial assumption of office occurs as a result of either an actual or threatened election contest or actual or threatened solicitation of proxies by or on behalf of any person other than the Board);

(iii) The consummation of a merger or consolidation of the Company with any other entity, other than (i) a merger or consolidation which would result in the voting securities of the Company outstanding immediately prior thereto continuing to represent (either by remaining outstanding or by being converted into voting securities of the surviving or resulting entity) more than 50% of the combined voting power of the surviving or resulting entity outstanding immediately after such merger or consolidation or (ii) a merger or consolidation in which no premium is intended to be paid to any shareholder participating in the merger or consolidation;

(iv) The stockholders of the Company approve a plan or agreement for the sale or disposition of all or substantially all of the consolidated assets of the Company (other than such a sale or disposition immediately after which such assets will be owned directly or indirectly by the stockholders of the Company in substantially the same proportions as their ownership of the common stock of the Company immediately prior to such sale or disposition) in which case the Board shall determine the effective date of the Change in Control resulting therefrom; or

(v) any other event occurs which the Board determines, in its discretion, would materially alter the structure or its ownership.

Each executive is solely responsible for all federal, state, local or foreign taxes due with respect to any payment received under the Agreements, including, without limitation, any excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code. However, all payments under the Agreements would be reduced to the extent necessary so that no portion of the payments would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code, but only if, by reason of such reduction, the net after-tax benefit received by the executive exceeds the net benefit received by the executive if no such reduction was made.

If the Company fails to comply with any of its obligations under the Agreements or, in the event that the Company or any other person takes or threatens to take action to declare the Agreements void or unenforceable, or institutes any litigation or other action or proceeding designed to deny, or to recover from the executive, the benefits provided or intended to be provided to the executive by the Company, the executive is authorized by the Agreements to retain counsel of the executive's choice, at the expense of the Company, to advise and represent the executive in connection with any such interpretation, enforcement, or defense, including without limitation the initiation or defense of any litigation or other legal action, whether by or against the Company or any member of the Board of Directors, officer, stockholder, or other person or entity affiliated with the Company, in any jurisdiction.

Benefits under the Agreements are in addition to severance amounts payable under an executive's employment agreement.

2. APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

The Board of Directors recommends that proxies be voted in favor of the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP, certified public accountants, as independent auditors for the fiscal year ending September 27, 2003. Approval of this proposal will be determined by a majority of votes cast.

Edgar Filing: ADVO INC - Form DEF 14A

Abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of this proposal.

Representatives of Ernst & Young LLP are expected to be present at the Annual Meeting where they will have an opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so and are expected to be available to answer appropriate questions.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" PROPOSAL 2.

OTHER BUSINESS

The Board of Directors does not know of any matters to be presented at the Annual Meeting other than those set forth in the Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders. However, if any other matters properly come before such meeting, the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy will have discretionary authority to vote all proxies on such matters in accordance with their judgment.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

In order to be considered for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement and form of proxy for the 2004 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, any stockholder proposal must be received by the Secretary of the Company prior to August 14, 2003. In addition, the form of proxy issued with the Company's 2004 proxy statement will confer discretionary authority to vote for or against any proposal made by a stockholder at the 2003 Annual Meeting and which is not included in the Company's proxy statement. However, under the rules of the SEC, such discretionary authority may not be exercised if the stockholder proponent has given the Secretary of the Company notice of such proposal prior to October 28, 2003, and certain other conditions provided for in the SEC rules have been satisfied.
