Item 4. Description of Securities.

Not applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Section 23B.08.320 of the Washington Business Corporation Act (the Washington Act) authorizes a corporation to eliminate or limit a director s personal liability to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for conduct as a director, provided that such provisions shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for acts or omissions that involve intentional misconduct by a director or a knowing violation of law by a director or approving illegal distributions, or any transaction from which the director will personally receive a benefit in money, property or services to which the director is not legally entitled.

Article VI of the Registrant s Articles of Incorporation (the Articles) contains provisions implementing, to the fullest extent permitted by the Washington Act, such limitations on a director s liability to the Registrant and its shareholders.

Table of Contents

Sections 23B.08.500 through 23B.08.600 of the Washington Act authorize a court to award, or a corporation's board of directors to grant, subject to certain limitations, indemnification to its directors and officers against liability and reasonable expenses incurred in defending litigation against them in their capacities as directors and officers. This indemnity to directors and officers is sufficiently broad to permit such indemnification under certain circumstances for liabilities (including reimbursement for expenses incurred) arising under the Securities Act. Under the Washington Act, by provision in a bylaw approved by its shareholders, a corporation has the power to indemnify a director or officer made a party to a proceeding, or advance or reimburse expenses incurred in a proceeding, under any circumstances, except that no such indemnification shall be allowed on account of: (i) acts or omissions of a director or officer finally adjudged to be intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law; (ii) conduct of a director or officer finally adjudged to be an unlawful distribution; or (iii) any transaction with respect to which it was finally adjudged that such director or officer personally received a benefit in money, property or services to which the director or officer was not legally entitled.

Article IX of the Registrant's Bylaws (the Bylaws) provides that the Registrant shall indemnify, subject to certain limitations, any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to proceeding, whether or not brought by or in the right of the Registrant, by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of the Registrant, against liability and reasonable expenses incurred by the director or officer in connection with such proceeding. Any indemnification under the Registrant's Bylaws, unless ordered by a court or advanced by the Registrant in the manner described below, must be made by the Registrant only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances. The determination must be made by one of the following: (a) by the board of directors of the Registrant by majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to the proceeding; (b) if a quorum of the board cannot be obtained, by majority vote of a committee designated by the board of directors, which committee shall consist solely of two or more directors who were not parties to the proceeding; (c) by special legal counsel selected by the board of directors of Registrant; or (d) by the shareholders. Reasonable expenses incurred by a director or officer may also be advanced by or reimbursed by the Registrant in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding and in advance of any determination and authorization of indemnification.

The Registrant has obtained and maintains a standard form directors' and officers' liability insurance policy insuring its directors and officers against certain liabilities for certain acts or omissions while acting in their official capacity, including liability under the Securities Act. The above discussion of the Washington Act, the Bylaws and the Articles is not intended to be exhaustive and is qualified in its entirety by reference to such statute, the Bylaws and the Articles.

A. The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

Table of Contents

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof), which individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this Registrant Statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (1)(i) and (1)(ii) above do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement.

(2) For the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act, to treat each post-effective amendment as a new registration statement of the securities offered therein, and the offering of the securities at that time to be the initial bona fide offering.

(3) To file a post-effective amendment to remove from registration any of the securities that remain unsold at the end of the offering.

B. The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

C. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
