ECHOSTAR AND DIRECTV IMPROVING CHOICE AND VARIETY FOR THE HISPANIC COMMUNITY

The Merger

The proposed merger between EchoStar's DISH Network and Hughes Electronics' DIRECTV would allow the combined company to offer an even greater variety of Spanish-language programming than is offered today. Currently, the two companies carry largely duplicative programming, thereby inefficiently utilizing limited spectrum. The merger would free up this limited spectrum and enable the new company to launch more independent networks that otherwise could not be carried, like those that carry programming from Caribbean, Latin American, and South American countries.

The combined company will also be able to offer local broadcast stations in all U.S. TV markets, some of which include Univision, Telemundo, Telefuturo, and TV Azteca stations, using one consumer-friendly mini-dish. In addition, the economies of scale achieved by the merger will support a competitively priced, high-speed Internet service via satellite, helping bridge the digital divide.

Programming

EchoStar's DISH Network and DIRECTV offer more television viewing options for Spanish-dominant and bilingual households in the U.S. than any cable television system. Before the launch of the DISH Latino and DIRECTV PARA TODOS Spanish-language packages, the only television programming available for Spanish speaking consumers was Univision and Telemundo, and those channels were only available in limited markets.

Many of the fastest growing Hispanic markets (e.g., Raleigh-Durham, Greenville, NC) do not have local off-air Univision or Telemundo affiliates. Hispanic households in these markets can keep in touch with their language and culture through the Spanish-language offerings of EchoStar and DIRECTV.

EchoStar offers 3 Spanish language packages:

- Ø DISH Latino includes 22 Spanish-language channels for $20.99 per month
- Ø DISH Latino Dos includes 22 Spanish-language and 22 English channels for $31.99 per month
- Ø DISH Latino Max includes 22 Spanish-language and over 60 English channels for $39.99 per month

DIRECTV offers 6 bilingual packages:

- Ø Opción Extra Especial® includes more than 125 Spanish and English channels for $31.99 per month
  - Ø Opción Extra Especial® with Local Channels for $37.99 per month
  - Ø Opción Ultra Especial includes more than 145 Spanish and English channels for $35.99 per month
  - Ø Opción Ultra Especial with Local Channels for $39.99 per month
  - Ø Opción Premier includes Opción Ultra Especial, HBO®, Cinemax, STARZ!®, SHOWTIME® and Sports Pack, more than 200 channels for $81.99 per month

Ø Opción Premier with Local Channels for $85.99 per month

In 18 markets for EchoStar, and 19 markets for DIRECTV, at least one of the local Spanish language broadcasters Univision, Telemundo, Telefutura, or TV Azteca is included in the local station package available to subscribers for $5.99 per month.

EchoStar offers the Spanish-language public interest channel Hispanic Information & Telecommunications Network (HITN). HITN's programming provides a cultural and educational link between the nation's fastest growing ethnic group and an increasingly complex American society. Offering Spanish-language television services, HITN was the first Hispanic Network of Public Television. In addition, DIRECTV offers Clara+Vision and EWTN R d Global Cat lica (Eternal Word Television Network). Clara+Vision promotes the well being of the entire family by focusing on cultural, artistic, educational and moral issues. EWTN is a global Catholic network with Spanish programming from more than a dozen countries.

Retailers

There are more than 1,400 Hispanic retailers across the country selling the DISH Network.

Employees

EchoStar employs more than 2,300 Hispanic employees representing about 20% of the entire workforce. These employees work at all levels, with the majority serving as bilingual installers and customer service representatives. EchoStar's El Paso, TX Call Center, launched in January 2000, has 1,750 employees, of which 80% are Hispanic and bilingual.

More than 800 bilingual customer service, technical support, and sales jobs have been created to support the DIRECTV PARA TODOS and DIRECTV English-language services.

Merger Supporters within the Hispanic Community

Congressman Silvestre Reyes (D-TX) The Chairman of the Congressional Hispanic Caucus, in a letter dated March 22, 2002, strongly urged Federal Communications Commission Chairman Powell and U.S. Attorney General Ashcroft to support the EchoStar/Hughes merger. He wrote, "The positive outcome of this merger would greatly benefit millions of Hispanic families by offering additional targeted services and delivering increased access to affordable high speed Internet service."

League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC) In a February 5, 2002 letter sent to FCC Chairman Powell, the oldest and largest Hispanic civil rights organization in the nation endorsed the merger because it "would provide improved communications services to the nation's Hispanic community, including access to affordable high speed Internet service and improved Spanish-language programming."
