ITEM 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

MICHIGAN BUSINESS CORPORATION ACT. The Company is organized under the Michigan Business Corporation Act (the "MBCA") which, in general, empowers Michigan corporations to indemnify a person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to an action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative and whether formal or informal, other than an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another enterprise, against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, penalties, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred in connection therewith if the person acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation or its shareholders and, with respect to a criminal action or proceeding, if the person had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

The MBCA also empowers Michigan corporations to provide similar indemnity to such a person for expenses, including attorneys' fees, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with actions or suits by or in the right of the corporation if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the interests of the corporation or its shareholders, except in cases where the person has been found liable to the corporation and the court has not determined that the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification in view of all relevant circumstances. If a person is successful in defending against a derivative action or third-party action, the MBCA requires that a Michigan corporation indemnify the person against expenses incurred in the action.

The MBCA also permits a Michigan corporation to purchase and maintain on behalf of such a person insurance against liabilities incurred in such capacities.

The MBCA further permits Michigan corporations to include a provision in their articles of incorporation eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors to the corporation or its shareholders for money damages for a breach of their fiduciary duty other than for any of the following: (i) the amount of a financial benefit received by a director to which he or she is not entitled; (ii) intentional infliction of harm on the corporation or the shareholders; (iii) a violation of Section 551 of the MBCA; or (iv) an intentional criminal act. If such a provision is included in the corporation's articles of incorporation, the corporation may indemnify its directors without a determination that the applicable standard of conduct has been met, except where (i) the director received a financial benefit to which he or she is not entitled; (ii) intentionally inflicted harm on the corporation or the shareholders; (iii) violated Section 551 of the MBCA; or (iv) intentionally committed a criminal act.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION. As permitted by the MBCA, the Company's Articles of Incorporation limit the liability of directors to the Company and its shareholders for monetary damages to the extent provided by law. As a result, shareholders of the Company may be unable to recover monetary damages against directors for actions taken by them which constitute negligence or gross negligence or which are in violation of their fiduciary duties, although it may be possible to obtain injunctive or other equitable relief with respect to such actions.

The Articles of Incorporation also obligate the Company to indemnify directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by law. If a claim for indemnity is not paid in full by the Company within thirty days after a written claim has been received, the director or officer may bring suit against the Company to recover the unpaid amount of the claim and, if successful, is also entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting the claim. In any action brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right under the indemnification provisions in the Articles of Incorporation or by the Company to recover payments by the Company of advances, the burden of proof shall be on the Company.

BYLAWS. Similarly, the Company's Bylaws require the Company to indemnify its directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by law. Such indemnification will be provided if such persons acted in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company or its shareholders, or in respect to a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe such conduct was unlawful. The Company's Bylaws also provide that the Company may provide insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer of the Company, or was at the request of the Company serving as a director, officer, employee or agent of another entity, with respect to any liability incurred or asserted by or against them as a result of their status with the Company or such other entity. The Company has obtained such insurance.

ITEM 9. UNDERTAKINGS.

(1) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement: (i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933; (ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this registration statement

(or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this registration statement; (iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this registration statement or any material change to such information in this registration statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (1)(i) and (1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in this registration statement.

(2) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(5) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
