Management Statement Regarding Compliance with Certain Provisions of the Investment Company Act of 1940

We, as members of management of Allied Capital Corporation (the "Company"), are responsible for complying with the requirements of subsections (b) and (c) of Rule 17f-2, "Custody of Investments by Registered Management Investment Companies," of the Investment Company Act of 1940. We are also responsible for establishing and maintaining effective internal controls over compliance with those requirements. We have performed an evaluation of the Company's compliance with the requirements of subsections (b) and (c) of Rule 17f-2 as of December 31, 2002, and from September 30, 2002 through December 31, 2002.

Based on this evaluation, we assert that the Company was in compliance with the requirements of subsections (b) and (c) of Rule 17f-2 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 as of December 31, 2002, and from September 30, 2002 through December 31, 2002, with respect to securities reflected in the investment account of the Company.

INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS' REPORT

The Board of Directors
Allied Capital Corporation:

We have examined management's assertion, included in the accompanying Management Statement Regarding Compliance With Certain Provisions of the Investment Company Act of 1940, that Allied Capital Corporation (the Company) complied with the requirements of subsections (b) and (c) of rule 17f-2 under the Investment Company Act of 1940 as of December 31, 2002. Management is responsible for the Company's compliance with those requirements. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on management's assertion about the Company's compliance based on our examination.

Our examination was made in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and, accordingly, included examining, on a test basis, evidence about the Company's compliance with those requirements and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. Included among our procedures were the following tests performed as of December 31, 2002, and with respect to agreement of security purchases and sales, for the period from September 30, 2002 (the date of the last examination performed by other accountants) through December 31, 2002:

- Count and inspection of all securities located in the vault of Riggs Bank N.A. (the Custodian);
- Confirmation of all securities placed in escrow or out for transfer with authorized parties;
- Reconciliation of all such securities to the books and records of the Company and the Custodian; and
- Agreement of 35 security purchases and 10 security sales or maturities, since the last report from other accountants, from the books and records of the Company to related agreements.

We believe that our examination provides a reasonable basis for our opinion. Our examination does not provide a legal determination of the Company's compliance with specified requirements.

In our opinion, management's assertion that Allied Capital Corporation complied with the requirements of subsections (b) and (c) of rule 17f-2 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 as of December 31, 2002, with respect to securities reflected in the investment account of the Company is fairly stated, in all material respects.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of management and the Board of Directors of Allied Capital Corporation and the Securities and Exchange Commission and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
