Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangement of Certain Officers.

5.02(e)

In early 2007 Centex Corporation, a Nevada corporation (the Company), initiated a review of its equity and incentive compensation plans, its deferred compensation plans and its supplemental retirement plan to ensure that awards granted and payments made under those plans are either exempt from or in compliance with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code (Section 409A) in accordance with the statute and the treasury regulations and other guidance issued thereunder and to reexamine and modify the procedures set forth in such plans relative to the time and form of payment to reflect the current policies established by the Compensation and Management Development Committee (the Compensation Committee) and the Company. Executive officers of the Company are participants in, or have received awards under, one or more of those plans.

On February 13, 2008, the Compensation Committee recommended, and the Board of Directors approved, the amendment and restatement of the following plans:

Centex Corporation 2003 Annual Incentive Compensation Plan;

Centex Corporation 2003 Equity Incentive Plan;

Amended and Restated Centex Corporation 2001 Stock Plan;

Amended and Restated 1998 Centex Corporation Employee Non-Qualified Stock Option Plan;

Centex Corporation Amended and Restated 1987 Stock Option Plan;

Centex Corporation Long Term Incentive Plan;

Centex Corporation Deferred Compensation Plan; and Centex Corporation Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan.

In addition, the Compensation Committee approved, and the Board of Directors ratified, the amendment and restatement of the Centex Corporation Executive Deferred Compensation Plan. Each restated plan listed above amends, restates and supersedes its respective prior plan in its entirety. Each amended and restated plan was modified to address the provisions of Section 409A and the Treasury Regulations and other guidance issued thereunder, including modifications to the definitions of key terms, as applicable, such as affiliate, disability, separation from service, fair market value, and change in control, to ensure exemption from or compliance with Section 409A. In some plans, provisions were added to distinguish between benefits subject to Section 409A and awards or accounts that were earned and vested before December 31, 2004 that are grandfathered awards or grandfathered accounts not subject to Section 409A. Plans with awards or accounts subject to Section 409A were amended to (1) add provisions relating to the time and form of payment of awards or distributions of accounts, including (a) a default rule for the payout of awards or distribution of accounts to be an administratively practicable date immediately following the lapse of any substantial risk or forfeiture applicable to the award or account, and (b) provisions permitting elections for deferred payouts, (2) impose a six-month delay upon payments or distributions made by reason of separation from service (including retirement) of awards or accounts subject to Section 409A to persons who are specified employees under Section 409A unless permitted exceptions apply, and (3) prohibit certain modifications of awards and accounts that are subject to Section 409A. No material changes were made to the plans, and stockholder approval was not required for any of the amendments. The above description of the provisions of the amended and restated plans is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the plans, which have been filed as exhibits to this report.
