PROXY STATEMENT

ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

APRIL 26, 2005

SOLICITATION AND REVOCATION OF PROXIES

The accompanying proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors of Capital Properties, Inc. (the Company), in connection with the annual meeting of shareholders to be held April 26, 2005. The Company will bear the cost of such solicitation. It is expected that the solicitation of proxies will be primarily by mail. Proxies may also be solicited personally by regular employees of the Company at nominal cost. The Company may reimburse brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries holding stock for others in their names, or in those of their nominees, for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in sending proxy materials to their principals or beneficial owners and obtaining their proxies. Any shareholder giving a proxy has the power to revoke it at any time prior to its exercise, but the revocation of a proxy will not be effective until notice thereof has been given to the Secretary of the Company. Notice of revocation may be delivered in writing to the Secretary prior to the meeting or may be transmitted orally to the Secretary at the meeting. Every properly signed proxy will be voted in accordance with the specifications made thereon.

Edgar Filing: CAPITAL PROPERTIES INC /RI/ - Form DEF 14A

This proxy statement and the accompanying proxy are expected to be first sent to shareholders on or about March 23, 2005.

VOTING AT MEETING

Only shareholders of record at the close of business on March 1, 2005, will be entitled to vote at the meeting. Under the Company's articles of incorporation, as amended, each shareholder has one vote for every share of common stock owned. On the record date, there were 3,000,000 shares of Class A Common Stock and 299,956 shares of Class B Common Stock of the Company outstanding. There were no other outstanding securities of the Company entitled to vote.

The directors will be elected in each case by vote of the holders of a majority of the shares present or represented at the meeting.

Shares represented by proxies which are marked "withhold authority" with respect to the election of any particular nominee for director, "abstain" with respect to the approval of independent auditors, or to deny discretionary authority on any other matters will be counted as shares present and entitled to vote, and accordingly any such marking of a proxy will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to which it relates. Brokers who hold shares in street name may lack authority to vote such shares on certain items, absent specific instructions from their customers. Shares subject to such "broker non-votes" will not be treated as shares entitled to vote on the matters to which they relate and therefore will be treated as not present at the meeting for those purposes, but otherwise will have no effect on the outcome of the voting on such matters. It is not presently anticipated that any matter which might be the subject of a "broker non-vote" will come before the annual meeting.

1

officer or similar position of a charitable or non-profit organization to which the Company or its subsidiaries made charitable contributions or payments in fiscal year 2004 in excess of five percent of the organization's consolidated gross revenues, or $200,000, whichever is more, at any time during the past three years.

The Compensation Committee is responsible for recommending to the full Board of Directors appropriate compensation levels for all officers of the Company.

The Company does not maintain a nominating committee or a committee performing a similar function and is not required to under SEC or American Stock Exchange rules. In determining whether to nominate any such person for election by the shareholders, the Board of Directors considers the experience of such person as it relates to the business of the Company, together with such person's age, reputation and ability to carry out the requirements to serve as a director of the Company.

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004, the Board of Directors held seven meetings, the Audit Committee held seven meetings and the Compensation Committee held one meeting. Directors, other than directors who are employed by the Company, received a fee of $750 for attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors, together with related transportation and living expenses. Each member of the Audit Committee and Compensation Committee received $250 for each attended meeting of that committee.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires executive officers and directors and persons who beneficially own more than ten percent of the Company's common stock to file initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission and any national securities exchange on which the Company's securities are registered. Based solely on a review of the copies of such forms furnished to the Company and written representations from the executive officers and directors of the Company, the Company believes that, during 2004, its executive officers, directors and greater than ten percent beneficial owners complied with all applicable Section 16(a) requirements, except that one of the Company's executive officers, Avery L. Noe, failed to timely file a Form 3 in connection with his appointment as an executive officer of the Company and his ownership of 200 shares of the Company's Class A common stock which were purchased August 13, 1997.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit Committee is composed of three directors, all of whom are independent as defined by the American Stock Exchange listing standards. The Board of Directors has determined that Henry S. Woodbridge, Jr. is a financial expert as defined in the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Audit Committee operates under a written charter first adopted and approved by the Board of Directors on July 25, 1995.

Management is responsible for the Company's internal controls and financial reporting process. The independent auditors are responsible for performing an audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and to issue a report thereon. The Audit Committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes.

The Audit Committee has sole authority to select, evaluate and when appropriate, to replace the Company's independent auditors. Additionally, and as appropriate, the Audit Committee reviews and evaluates, and discusses and consults with the Company's management and independent auditors regarding the scope of the audit plan, the results of the audit, the Company's financial statement disclosure documents, the adequacy and effectiveness of the Company's accounting and financial controls and changes in accounting principles.

In connection with these responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviewed and discussed the audited consolidated financial statements with management and the Company's independent auditors, Lefkowitz, Garfinkel, Champi & DeRienzo P.C. The Audit Committee also discussed with such firm the matters required by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61. The Audit Committee received from Lefkowitz, Garfinkel, Champi & DeRienzo P.C. written disclosures and the letter regarding its independence as required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1. The Audit Committee discussed this information with Lefkowitz, Garfinkel, Champi & DeRienzo P.C. and also considered the compatibility of non-audit services provided by such firm with its independence. Based on the review of the audited consolidated financial statements and these various discussions, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited consolidated financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-KSB, to be filed with the SEC.

Audit Committee: Henry S. Woodbridge, Jr., Chairman, Harold J. Harris and Harris N. Rosen.

INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors has recommended that Lefkowitz, Garfinkel, Champi & DeRienzo P.C., who acted as independent auditors of the accounts of the Company for 2004, be appointed as independent auditors of the accounts of the Company for the year 2005 subject to ratification by the shareholders. The Company has recently been advised by Lefkowitz, Garfinkel, Champi & DeRienzo P.C. that they have no direct financial interest or any material indirect financial interest in the Company, nor have they had any connection during the past three years with the Company in the capacity of promoter, underwriter, voting trustee, director, officer or employee.

It is expected that a representative of Lefkowitz, Garfinkel, Champi & DeRienzo P.C. will be present at the annual meeting and will be provided the opportunity to make a statement if he so desires and that such representative will be available to respond to appropriate questions.
