INTRODUCTION

This Rule 13e-3 Transaction Statement on Schedule 13E-3 (this Transaction Statement) is being filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) pursuant to Section 13(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), by WebMD Health Corp., a Delaware corporation (WebMD), and HLTH Corporation, a Delaware corporation (HLTH). HLTH is the parent company of WebMD, currently owning approximately 84% of the combined issued and outstanding Common Stock of WebMD through its ownership of all outstanding shares of WebMD Class B Common Stock. HLTH Common Stock and WebMD Class A Common Stock are both publicly traded and listed on The Nasdaq Global Select Market. The holders of WebMD Class A Common Stock currently hold approximately 16% of WebMD s combined issued and outstanding Common Stock, but have approximately 3.8% of the combined voting power of the outstanding shares because the WebMD Class B Common Stock has five votes per share, while the WebMD Class A Common Stock has one vote per share. WebMD and HLTH are sometimes referred to herein collectively as the Filing Persons of this Transaction Statement.

This Transaction Statement relates to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated February 20, 2008, as amended by that certain amendment to the agreement and plan of merger, dated May 6, 2008, between WebMD and HLTH (the Merger Agreement). Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, HLTH will merge into WebMD, with WebMD continuing as the surviving company. Although HLTH is the parent company of, and controls WebMD, HLTH is considered the subject company for purposes of this Schedule 13E-3 because its equity securities are the ones being converted in the merger and, accordingly, would no longer be outstanding following the merger. The WebMD Board of Directors appointed a special committee, comprised of independent members of the WebMD Board of Directors who are not on the HLTH Board of Directors, to consider and negotiate the terms of the merger on behalf of the holders of WebMD Class A Common Stock.

In connection with the merger, WebMD s Class B Common Stock will cease to be outstanding and WebMD s certificate of incorporation will be amended and restated to eliminate the dual class structure of its shares. In addition, each outstanding share of HLTH Common Stock will be converted into the right to receive 0.1979 shares of WebMD Common Stock and between $6.63 and $6.89 in cash with the actual amount depending on whether HLTH sells certain auction rate securities that it owns before the completion of the merger and, if so, the amount of the proceeds that it receives. If HLTH s Porex business has not been sold at the time the merger occurs, WebMD may issue up to $250.0 million in 11% pay-in-kind redeemable subordinated notes (the Merger Notes) to the HLTH stockholders in lieu of a portion of the cash consideration that otherwise would be payable in the merger. The Merger Notes would be subject to mandatory redemption by WebMD from the proceeds of the divestiture of the Porex business. The redemption price would be equal to the principal amount of the notes to be redeemed plus accrued but unpaid interest through the date of the redemption.

If the merger is completed, holders of WebMD Class A Common Stock immediately before the merger will hold approximately 20% of WebMD s issued and outstanding Common Stock immediately following the merger (based on shares outstanding as of August 11, 2008) and will also have approximately 20% of the voting power of the issued and outstanding WebMD Common Stock, since there will no longer be a dual class structure. The remaining shares of WebMD Common Stock will be owned following the merger by holders of HLTH Common Stock immediately prior to the merger.

Concurrently with the filing of this Transaction Statement, WebMD and HLTH are filing with the SEC a joint proxy statement/prospectus on Form S-4 relating to the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of WebMD and the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of HLTH, each to be held on a date to be announced by the companies. At the respective Annual Meetings, the stockholders of WebMD and HLTH will each be asked to consider and vote on, among other proposals, a proposal seeking adoption of the Merger Agreement and approval of the transactions contemplated by that agreement, including the merger.

The cross references below are being supplied pursuant to General Instruction G to Schedule 13E-3 and show the location in the preliminary joint proxy statement/prospectus of the information required to be included in response to the items of Schedule 13E-3. Tender Offers

On October 20, 2006, HLTH commenced a tender offer to purchase shares of its Common Stock (2006 Tender Offer). On December 4, 2006, the 2006 Tender Offer was completed and, as a result, HLTH repurchased 129,234,164 shares of its Common Stock at a price of $12.00 per share.

Stock Repurchases

On January 23, 2006, HLTH announced the authorization of a stock repurchase program (the 2006 Repurchase Program), at which time HLTH was authorized to use up to $48 million to purchase shares of its Common Stock, from time to time, in the open market, through block trades or in private transactions, depending on market conditions and other factors. On February 8, 2006, the maximum aggregate amount authorized for purchases under the 2006 Repurchase Program was increased to $68 million and was then further increased on March 28, 2006 to $83 million. During 2006, 7,329,305 shares were repurchased under the 2006 Repurchase Program at a cost of approximately $71.8 million. In December 2006, HLTH terminated the 2006 Repurchase Program and announced a new stock repurchase program (New Repurchase Program). Under the New Repurchase Program, HLTH was authorized to use up to $100 million to purchase shares of its Common Stock from time to time beginning on December 19, 2006, subject to market conditions.

From time to time, HLTH also withholds shares from restricted stock awards upon the vesting of the awards in order to satisfy tax withholding requirements. The value of these shares is determined based on the closing fair market value of HLTH Common Stock on the date of vesting.

The following table lists all purchases of HLTH Common Stock during the past two years that were made by HLTH under the tender offers and stock repurchase programs, and to satisfy withholding tax requirements, described above.
