Except as expressly indicated or unless the context otherwise requires, "Opus360", "we", "our", or "us" means Opus360 Corporation, a Delaware corporation, and its subsidiaries.

Reference is made to that certain Share Exchange Agreement (the "Share Exchange Agreement") by and between us and Proha Plc, a Finnish corporation, dated as of April 11, 2001, as amended by the First Amendment (the "First Amendment") dated as of July 10, 2001.

Item 1. Changes in Control of the Registrant

Edgar Filing: OPUS360 CORP - Form 8-K

On July 31, 2001, we issued a press release announcing that the first closing contemplated under the previously announced Share Exchange Agreement, as amended by the First Amendment, was consummated on July 31, 2001. Proha's Artemis subsidiaries and Opus360 have combined operations and will operate as Artemis International Solutions.

The transaction contemplated under the Share Exchange Agreement, as amended by the First Amendment, is to be completed through a two-step process. The first step, the operational combination, was accomplished on July 31, 2001. The combined operation will be led by the senior management team of Artemis. Also as of July 31, 2001, the eight member Opus360 board of directors was realigned to consist of five members appointed by Proha and three of the existing Opus360 directors.

At the first closing, approximately 74 million shares of Opus360 common stock (representing approximately 60 percent of the post-transaction outstanding common stock of Opus360) were issued to Proha in return for the Artemis stock. The second closing will take place as soon as possible, but is expected to occur before year-end. At the second closing, the transaction will be completed with the delivery by Opus360 of approximately 126 million additional shares of Opus360 common stock as a final purchase price installment for the Artemis stock and in return for the delivery by Proha of 19.9 percent of the outstanding shares of two Proha subsidiaries. Upon completion of the second closing, and as previously announced, Proha will own approximately 80 percent of the post-transaction outstanding common stock of Opus360.

Prior to the first closing, the approval of the Proha shareholders was received. The closing conditions of the Share Exchange Agreement, as amended by the First Amendment, for the second closing include, among other things, obtaining the approval of the Opus360 shareholders for amendments to the Opus360 Certificate of Incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares and to change the corporate name of Opus360.

In the event that the second closing does not occur, we are required to return to Proha approximately 63 percent of the Artemis stock, and Proha is required to deliver to us approximately 7.4 percent of the outstanding shares of two Proha subsidiaries. In any event, Proha will retain the approximately 74 million shares of Opus360 common stock (representing approximately 60 percent of the post-transaction outstanding common stock of Opus360) received at the first closing. As a result of owning approximately 60 percent of the post-transaction outstanding common stock, Proha has sufficient voting power to grant the stockholder approval required for the second closing. Pursuant to a Voting Agreement entered into at the first closing, Proha is contractually committed to (i) vote the shares of common stock owned by Proha for the purpose of effecting the stockholder approval, (ii) vote against any alternative transaction and certain extraordinary transactions involving a reorganization of Opus360 or a sale of all or substantially all of the assets of Opus360 and (iii) vote against any action that would materially adversely affect the transactions contemplated by the Share Exchange Agreement.

A copy of the press release is included herein as Exhibit 99.1. A copy of the Share Exchange Agreement was included as Exhibit 2.1 on the Current Report on Form 8-K filed by us on April 12, 2001. A copy of the First Amendment was included as Exhibit 2.1 on the Current Report on Form 8-K filed by us on July 12, 2001. A copy of the Voting Agreement was included as Exhibit 10.2 on the Schedule 13D filed by Ari Horowitz on August 9, 2001.

The First Amendment, the Share Exchange Agreement, as amended by the First Amendment, the Voting Agreement and the press release regarding the item described above are incorporated herein by reference and the foregoing descriptions of such documents and transactions contemplated therein are qualified in their entirety by reference to such exhibits. The press release should be read in conjunction with the Note Regarding Forward Looking Statements which is included in the text of the press release.

Item 5. Other Events

On July 31, 2001, as part of the transactions consummated under the Share Exchange Agreement, we entered into a Registration Rights Agreement with Proha, which was filed by Proha as Exhibit 10.2 to Amendment No. 1 to Schedule 13D on August 1, 2001 (SEC file number 005-58881) and is incorporated herein by reference. Pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement, we granted Proha certain registration rights, including the right to require us to register for offer or sale, under the Securities Act of 1933, shares of our common stock acquired by Proha under the Share Exchange Agreement or other of our securities subsequently acquired by Proha (collectively, the "Registrable Securities"). Additionally, Proha may request that we effect a shelf registration, if eligible, of the Registrable Securities then outstanding. Proha also has the right, subject to certain limitations, to request that we include the Registrable Securities in a registration undertaken by us on our behalf or on behalf of any of our other stockholders. We have agreed to pay all the registration expenses incurred in connection with the exercise of registration rights by Proha. All requests for registration are subject to customary terms and conditions.

Our by-laws were recently amended. A copy of our by-laws as amended is included herein as Exhibit 3.1.
