PART II -- RULES 12b-25(b) AND (c)

If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate)

(a) The reasons described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense;

PART III -- NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Registrant recently completed a reverse acquisition with a non-reporting private entity with significant international operations. In connection with this transaction, the Registrant needs additional time to complete the preparation of the accounting acquiror's consolidated financial statements and related disclosures in conformity with the requirements for the Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter and nine months ended September 30, 2001.

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

For the third quarter of 2000, the Registrant reported revenue and a net loss of $3.3 million and $17.6 million, respectively, with 49 million shares outstanding. For the current quarter, estimated revenue and net loss for the combined entities are approximately $16 million and $7 million, respectively, with 83 million average shares outstanding. Since the combination was accounted for as a reverse acquisition, the year-to-date and prior year activity being reported for the first time has proven difficult to reasonably estimate with any degree of accuracy.
